Randolph, the best county in the State should have a number of improvements. The chamber of comthings. The Courier will in the near future carry a program of needs and improvements. Will everyone intera suggestion for it-aim high and work to reach it ..

Democrats generally express entire satisfaction with the political outlook as the campaign approaches. The Republicans are again torn asunder in factional strife. The turmoil and dissention in their ranks grows worse as the Congressional session gets under way, and it is doubtful if any legislation to lessen the burden of the ordinary taxpaying ples. He received the apples citizen will see the light of day.

Mr. Coolidge is to write the next Republican platform and it is to be "snappy", the Washington dispatches tell us. Somehow it is difficult to associate Mr. Coolidge with anything that suggests speed, but we all remember the story of the man who took a week off in order to spend an exciting afternoon at the zoo watching the turtles whiz by.

Tax revision has been discussed from every angle since Congress convened January third. The Mellon Tax revision bill was first proposed. Tax revision bill was first proposed. It made provision for the rich folks; then comes Representative Garner's proposal looking to the relief of the And the verse we have not learned And the verse we have not learned And the rainbow's gleam, when poorer class. There is food for thought in his revisal proposal.

Among the needs in Randolph county is a large production of poultry. Someone would find a profiteable industry in the establishment of incubators sufficient to supply the demand for early chickens. Ten farmers in Lincoln County are getting chicks
