The remainder of the first third of the purchase price to be paid as soon as the ten days have expired without a better bid under the statute. Said ten per cent to be returned to the bidder in case a better bid be made for the property, according to law.

This is a re-sale ordered by the Clerk of the Superior Court of Randolph County, by reason of a five per cent (5 per cent) better bid having been offered for the property over and above the price bid at the sale heretofore had, and as by law provided in such cases.
