Coming to Miller & Rhoads now is like coming into spring

There's a breath of spring wherever you turn in Miller & Rhoads Store. You will find delightful choosing in the new spring silks, woolsens, linens and cottons, all ready for you to turn into spring and summer clothes.

Spring fashion tips from Miller & Rhoads

THE NEW CLOCHE: the small, close-fitting hat with tiny brim—its color smartest when brightest.
HIGH COLORS: in coats and suits as well as in frocks and hats! The favorite is "Powder Blue"—you'll love it!
BOYISH STYLES: in dresses, blouses, suits, coats and many accessories! Especially becoming to slim youth. The most important influence in spring fashions.
THE CHINESE INFLUENCE: next in importance to the boyish vogue. Evident in vivid colorings, in embroideries, in mah jong designs, and often in silhouettes—as in the "Mandarin Coat Sweaters."
SUNSHINE SOCKINGS: better than any history of any other shades—worn for evening as well as for any daytime wear.

SOME there are who look for spring with the first chirping robin; some see it in the pink-blossoming peach trees, and some there are who stick to the calendar. But our friends tell us that the first signs of spring are found right here in Miller & Rhoads Store!

One glance through the store and you feel the caress of spring like a gentle breeze. New styles, new materials, new merchandise—every aisle in the store breathes the air of spring. Store, salespeople and shoppers, too, say that winter is gone. Summer can't be far away.

A trip through the store will give you a summary of the newest in styles. For Miller & Rhoads are always Fashion-First and Fashion-Right.

Spring reveals its sweetest work in the women's apparel and millinery sections on the second floor. It is much like a fashion fairyland.

Spring, too, has laid its fairy fingers on dress goods and silks. In design, color and weave, they are prettier than ever. Plaids, foulards and printed crepes seem to outrage human fancy. There is no end to the gay novelties for your choosing.

The drapery department is glorious with its new stocks of cretonnes—fresh and summery looking. The home-furnishing departments are already showing everything from wicker furniture to canning outfits!

This is the first spring in our new store. How different from a year ago! If you have not yet visited the new store, you will appreciate the changes. There is more room to shop, everything is located so conveniently and now there are six elevators, centrally located, to whisk you to the upper floors. There isn't a more delightful time of year to visit Miller & Rhoads. And when you do come, don't forget to visit the tea-rooms on the fifth floor! There you will find rest and refreshment at reasonable cost.

If you can't get what you want in your own locality, try

Some signs of spring you will find at Miller & Rhoads

TAILORED SUITS: stronger in fashion than for years! Tweed or dark wool; many in mannish "hair-line" cloths, Boyish types.
HAND-DRAWN LINEN FROCKS: in white and all the high colors.
FLANNEL FROCKS: in high colors, or in smartly checked or striped effects on gray and tan.
MONOGRAMS: which are everywhere on scarfs, frocks, ties, blouses, sweaters—even hats!
FOR ORNAMENTS: gleaming little decorations to pin to the pockets of tailored suits—as popular as white gardenias on lapels!
SHORTER SKIRTS: several inches above last year's!
FOX SCARFS: again for spring, smartest of fur neckpieces.

You have never seen the cloche in so many attractive variations. You will find them in the millinery section and in the French Room in endless variety of color, shape and material.
