

THE COURIER

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Thursday, March 13, 1924

Mr. J. S. McAllister, of Greensboro, was a business visitor in town the latter part of last week.

Mr. F. E. Byrd is putting on a Dollar Day Sale beginning Friday and continuing through next Tuesday. These sales are very popular among the merchants all over the country, and Mr. Byrd is to be congratulated upon keeping up with the times. Not only the town people but those attending court next week will have an opportunity to take advantage of this sale.

Mr. G. W. Saunders, of Randleman Route 3, was a visitor on our streets last Saturday.

Mr. P. W. Ward, of Millboro Route 1, was among the visitors in Asheboro Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. McCrary left Saturday for a ten days trip to New York City.

Mr. Roy Cox, of Winston-Salem, was at home last week-end.

Mrs. Virgil Presnell and Mrs. Tipton Cartwright, of Charlotte, were in town Saturday and Sunday. They came for a visit to Miss Eunice Presnell who has been ill for two weeks, but is now improving.

Mr. Fred McPherson, of High Point, was in town on business the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid Page and little daughter, of Aberdeen, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Wood for a short while last Saturday.

Mr. W. L. Smith, of Liberty, was among the visitors in Asheboro last Friday.

Miss Ethel Johnson and Helen Sikes, of N. C. C. W., Greensboro, came home for the week-end.

Mrs. Wade Hendricks and little son, Wade, Jr., have returned to their home at Newton, after visiting Mrs. Hendricks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Phillips.

Mr. Madison Hammond, of Farmer, was among the visitors on our streets Saturday.

Mrs. Sallie Shankle, of Rockingham, is spending a month with Mrs. Sam Walker.

Mr. Joe Swain, of Liberty, visited his brother, Dr. John Swain, one day the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Alired and children, of Franklinville, were in town for a short while Friday.

Mr. W. H. Moring left Tuesday for the northern markets to purchase spring goods for his store.

Miss Sanford Thomas, of near Greensboro, was the guest of Miss John D. Wolf, a few days the first of this week.

Mr. William Johnson, a student of Davidson College, was a week-end visitor to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Johnson.

Mr. I. E. Routh, of Millboro Route 1, was a visitor in town one day the latter part of last week.

Misses Golda Hayworth and Ruth Hadley, students at Greensboro College, were week-end guests of their parents.

Rev. Lester Lucas, who was born and reared in Union township, and who has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Conference for the past few years, is going abroad soon. Mr. Lucas is pastor of the M. E. church at Liberty.

Mr. Charles G. Routh, of Bonlee, was a visitor in Asheboro last Thursday.

Misses Jessie Wood and Lillie Mae Sides, of Ellerbe, were guests of Miss Wood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wood, Sunday.

Mr. W. E. Robbins, of Randleman Route 2, was a business visitor in town last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Underwood and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wood went to see their father, Col. W. P. Wood, who is a patient in the High Point hospital, Sunday. Mr. Wood has been more comfortable for the past few days.

Mr. D. T. Wright, of Ramseur, was a visitor on our streets last Saturday.

Mr. J. B. Haywood, of Mt. Gilead, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Sam Walker, has returned home.

Mr. O. P. Routh, of Randleman Route 2, was among the visitors in Asheboro Saturday.

Mr. D. T. Black, of High Point Route 5, was a visitor in Asheboro last Saturday.

Mr. Robert Sheffield has moved from Spencer to Greensboro. Mr. Sheffield is a Randolph county man, and formerly lived at Randleman Route 1.

Mr. O. H. Callcutt, of Strieby, while in town Saturday gave The Courier a pleasant call and renewed his subscription.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Slack, of Seagrove, were among the visitors in Asheboro last Saturday.

Superintendent W. H. McKahan, of the city schools, is in Raleigh attending the meeting of the North Carolina Educational association.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Moore and sons, Joseph and Charles Sidney, of Lillington, were week-end visitors at Moffitt last week.

Miss Adna Lamb, of the city schools faculty, visited relatives in High Point the past week-end.

Work is progressing on the erection of Mr. Clyde Hendrick's new home on Graystone Terrace.

Mrs. Nettie Auman, of Pittsboro, was in Asheboro last week having been called here on account of the illness of her adopted son, Britt Gault, who was visiting in the home of Mr. E. V. Hamilton. Mrs. Auman is the widow of the late Allen Auman who for many years lived in Asheboro. Both Mr. and Mrs. Auman were deaf and dumb. They had many friends in Asheboro. While here Mrs. Auman was the guest of Mrs. John H. Pool.

Mrs. E. S. Millspaugh and children were visiting relatives in Statesville. Mr. Millspaugh accompanied his family to Statesville last returned Monday.

Mr. W. J. Armistead, who has been having treatment in a High Point hospital, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. G. and son, Charles, were in town the past week-end, and the wheat crop in the county is looking well.

If your name is on the Registration books for the school bond election next Tuesday, you should vote if you want your vote counted in favor of the election.

Messrs. W. H. Saunders and O. D. Beane, of Seaside, were business visitors in town yesterday.

Mr. K. D. Cox has been confined to his home this week on account of an attack of appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Webb have moved into the lower floor of Miss Minnie Hoover's house on South Fayetteville street. Mr. Webb is engineer for the J. B. McCrary Construction company, of Atlanta, Ga.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Burley Presnell, March 9th, twin girls.

Mrs. Robert Cameron is ill at her home on Worth street.

Remember the date of the school bond election—Tuesday, March 18th.

Mrs. U. C. Richardson is ill at her home on church street.

Mrs. Cicero Davis was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Brown at Randleman last week.

A number of Trinity township's prominent citizens were among the business visitors in the city Monday.

Mrs. Calvin Cox, of Ramseur Route 1, was in the city Saturday on her way to Archdale, where she will visit Mrs. Roxana Cox. Mr. J. C. Cox brought his mother to Asheboro.

Miss Lucy Leigh Lovett left yesterday for Raleigh where she went to attend the State teachers' association.

Mr. Bouchee, a mining engineer of New York, was in Asheboro the first of the week looking over the mines in this county. Mr. Bouchee was greatly impressed with the town and county.

The mule for which Mr. J. T. Brittain advertised in last week's Courier has been located and returned.

Everyone who wants the bond issue for the completion and seating of the school auditorium to carry should vote in the election next Tuesday, March 18th.

Superintendent of Public Instruction, T. F. Bulla, is in Raleigh this week attending the meeting of the State Teachers' assembly.

Miss Eunice Fay, of Prattville, Ala., arrived in Asheboro this week and is with Waggon Clothing Co., as milliner this season.

Rev. W. H. Willis, Mrs. Janette Luck, and Mr. and Mrs. McMahan went to Greensboro Sunday to attend a district Epworth League meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Elmore, of Greensboro, announce the birth of a daughter, Barbara Jane, March 7th.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Moffitt and little son, E. B. Jr., of Troy, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Rich Sunday.

Miss Irlie Scott was called to her home near Durham last Saturday, on account of the serious illness of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tilley, of Asheboro Route 1, have moved to Prim, N. C. They lived in Stokes county before moving to Randolph three years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Speas, of Winston-Salem, visited the family of J. A. Holder Sunday.

Miss Elisa Harris, of Siler City, has accepted a position as operator in the local telephone exchange.

Mr. J. D. Moffitt, of Ardmore, Okla., arrived in Asheboro Tuesday night to visit relatives and friends. Mr. Moffitt is the son of the late Houston Moffitt, and also a brother of Mrs. O. E. Rich. He will visit his brother in Troy and other relatives while in his home state.

George Ferris Hostess To Frisilla Club

On last Wednesday, Mrs. Geo. H. Ferris was at home to the Frisilla Club and a number of invited guests at her home on Sunset avenue. Sewing and merry chatter engaged the attention of the party for awhile, when that was laid aside and several contests were held. In the first, a "musical" contest, the judges declared Mrs. J. B. Ward the winner. In the second, a reciters contest, Mrs. J. E. Lewis was successful. The hostess presented the lucky ones with handsome boxes of powder. Another pleasant feature of the afternoon was a "Frisilla shower" given by the club members for Mrs. Story, nee Miss Vivian Cranford, a popular bride of the season. The honoree received a number of attractive and useful gifts.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. C. A. Hayworth and Miss Effie Jean Ferris served congealed fruit salad, wafers, sandwiches and hot tea. Later candies were passed. Invited guests for the occasion were Mesdames Sam Story, Lucy Lewis, C. N. Cox, J. T. Wood, J. W. Hadley, D. Lewis, T. B. Wood, C. Bowman, C. T. Lofflin, and Clarence Spough, of Raleigh.

Betterment Society of Randleman Gives Reception.

The reception given by the Betterment Society of Randleman last Friday evening was an enjoyable occasion. The citizens of the town were greeted by Mesdames A. N. Bulla, and S. N. Bowman, after which they were invited to visit the library and laboratory both of which have recently had many additions. Prof. E. B. Carroll, principal of the school, made an interesting address congratulating the Randleman people upon their cooperation in equipping the school building. A most interesting program followed, consisting of music by the glee club, vocal and instrumental solos. An especially pleasing feature was an illustrated lecture of "The Family Album." Delicious refreshments were served.

SEAGROVE ROUTE 1 NEWS

Mr. Wade Edwards attended the fiddlers' convention and box party at Needhams Grove, Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Cassidy and children, of near Carthage, were the week-end guests of Mrs. Cassidy's sister, Mrs. A. F. Garner.

Miss Fairy Maness spent the week-end with home folks near Pisgah.

Miss Nona Spencer, who is teaching on Seagrove Route 1, visited her parents Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Dena and Addie Yow and Messrs. Robert and Everett Yow attended the fiddlers' convention at Needhams Grove Saturday night.

Miss Eula Craven was the guest of Misses Maude and Mary Miller Sunday.

Mr. Lonnie Cole has purchased a lot near Seagrove.

Contest in Melancton and Cedar Grove Schools.

A contest was held February 22nd between Melancton and Cedar Grove schools, at Melancton. The first thing on the program was a contest in multiplication, which resulted in a tie. Next was a spelling between the sixth grades. Melancton was the winner, Marshall and Lydia Troy being the last two standing. Nora Wright was the best 6th grade speller for Cedar Grove. The spelling contest between the third grades was won by the Cedar Grove school. The last two standing were Bessie May Curtis and Richard Pickett. The best third grade speller for Melancton was Helen Johnson. For entertainment the Melancton school had arranged a negro dialect impersonations which were much enjoyed.

Mrs. R. W. Ward is in charge of the Melancton school and Mr. Harvey Brower of the Cedar Grove school. The pupils in both schools show that they are well trained and are doing splendid work.

TROGDON-BROWN

Cards have been issued at Randleman which read as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. E. Davis Trogdon announce the marriage of their daughter, Flossie Joyce, to Mr. W. Frank Brown, of Greensboro, Thursday, February 21, 1924, Greensboro North Carolina. At home after April 15th, Greensboro, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown are touring the "Northern States" on their bridal trip and expect to be away for two weeks yet.

A reward of five hundred dollars has been offered for the arrest of Dr. J. W. Peacock, who escaped from the criminal insane department of the State prison last August. Dr. Peacock was serving time for the murder of Chief of Police Taylor, of Thomasville, June 21, 1921, having been declared an incurable paranoiac and committed to the criminal insane department.

KINGHTS OF PYTHIAS
Lodge No. 236

Meets Monday night at 7:30 o'clock over the postoffice. Degree of Knight to be conferred on Lee M. Kearns, M. G. Manor, Roland Briles, Bright Dickens, Henry Jones, Robert Jones, and Rev. C. G. Smith. Members are requested to be present. All visiting brothers are cordially invited to attend.

CHAS. H. REDDING,
Chancellor Commander.
R. L. BUNCH,
Keeper of Record and Seal.

---

MASONIC NOTICE

Regular Communication
Balfour Lodge
No. 188 A. F.
and A. M.,
convene at 7:30 p. m.
Friday, March
14th.

All Master Masons invited to attend.
JOHN SWAIM, Master.
JAMES NEELY, Secretary

LET YOUR MONEY WORK FOR YOU!

Have you ever stopped to think how fast money will accumulate when working?

We Compute Interest on Savings Deposits Every Three Months

Then we add that interest to your original deposit and at the end of another three months we figure interest on total. This interest is again added, and so on. This interest goes right along day after day, and year after year. We accept deposits in accounts from $1.00 up.

ASHEBORO BANK & TRUST CO.
Asheboro, N. C.

CAPITOL THEATRE THURSDAY & FRIDAY
MARCH 20-21st

"THE BIRTH OF A NATION"
"THE SUPREME PICTURE OF ALL TIME"

TWO SHOWS DAILY—MATINEE 3:30 NIGHT, 8:00 P. M.

ADMISSION
MATINEE: Children under 12 25c—Adults 50c
NIGHT : Children under 12 50c—Adults 75c

To Our Customers

A few specials we want you to know about

DRESSES! DRESSES!
Ladies' and Misses Handsome Silk Dresses
Made of Flat Crepe, Canton Crepe, Crepe-de-Chine and combination Crepe and Georgette. These are exceptionally good values at very low prices. You get them in the various colors.

Linen, Indian Head and Gingham Dresses
We have a good assortment of these in ever-fast colors. Linen Dresses sell for $5.50. Indian Head Dresses for $3.75 and Gingham Dresses for $2.25 and $3.00. Ladies' full size Bungalow Aprons at $1.00 each.

Millinery
We are showing the latest Parisian models in millinery, and are especially anxious that you give us an opportunity to show you this line before making your purchases.

Children's Dresses and Bloomers
These are made of Gingham and Indian Head—Everfast—sizes 6 to 14, at $1.45 and $2.25 each. Good black Sateen Bloomers—Misses and Children, at 75c and $1.25 per pair.

Shoes
Don't forget we are closing out this line. We are still showing a good assortment of pumps and oxfords in black and tan at and below cost.

Piece Goods
Our Piece Goods are the most attractive in colorings, qualities and prices that are shown in Asheboro. You will like them.

A Night of Rest

A room that is protected by awnings from the glaring sun assures you a restful night. The cost of awning protection and comfort per month is very small when figured over a period of years. A phone call or postal card will bring samples.

YOURS TO SERVE—
C. W. SCOTT & COMPANY
Asheboro, N. C.

CANVAS Products Co.
Greensboro, N. C.