WINS FAME AS AUTHOR OF "THE BIRTH OF A NATION"

Thomas Dixon, a native son of this State, has placed himself securely in the hearts of future generations, as author of "The Birth of a Nation," which was adopted from his novel, "The Clansman."

D. W. Griffith's master production, "The Birth of a Nation," a United Artists release, will be the attraction at the Capitol Theatre, commencing an engagement of two days on Thursday, March 20.

It will be brought here in exact reproduction of the greatest attraction which in New York recently set a record by playing to more people in two weeks time than had ever before gathered in a playhouse. This was the massive Capitol Theatre where over 150,000 persons witnessed the spectacle in a fortnight.

The merest statement regarding "The Birth of a Nation" leaps to superlatives because there is no other form in which it can be written. Simple facts in relationship to its developments sound extravagant until you have seen the production and realized a tithe of its sweep and power.

It covers the essential details of American history ranging through three centuries. Actual battles are shown with tens of thousands of soldiers in the conflict. 18,000 people participated in the telling of the story. Three thousand horses were used to give the cavalry and other thrilling effects of the wild dashes over miles of territory. Cities were built up only to be destroyed by fire. The total cost of the entire production was in the neighborhood of $500,000. Five hundred costumers and seamstresses worked for three months to make the costumes worn by the people. Ten thousand yards of cloth were worked into costumes worn by the women while 25,000 yards of white muslin were used up in the regalia of the Ku Klux Klansmen.

The narrative is filled with tears and smiles. A brilliant cast lends animation to the story. The list of present stars and film favorites includes such well known screen artists as: Henry Walthall, Lillian Gish, Mae Marsh, Miriam Cooper, Mary Alden, Josephine Crowell, Ralph Lewis,

Joseph Hanbury, Sam Walsh, Donald Crisp, Howard Cogan, George Seigmann, Walter Long and Stuart Clifton.

J. P. COOK ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR AUDITOR

Mr. James P. Cook, of Cabarrus county, has announced himself a candidate for the office of State Auditor.

Mr. Cook was born and reared in Cabarrus, and was educated in the county schools. After being prominent in the educational work in his county for several years, he was elected to represent his district in the State Senate and was chairman of the Finance Committee while in that office. For the past fifteen years, Mr. Cook has been at the head of the Jackson Training School at Concord. His work here has been splendid. He is endorsed and supported for the office he desires by a large number of friends and neighbors whose names appear on the folder announcing his candidacy.

RAMSEUR NEWS

Mr. E. B. Stead and little Shirley, of High Point, were welcome visitors at E. J. Stead's Sunday.

Mrs. S. A. Caviness and children of Greensboro, were week-end visitors here this week.

Mrs. J. C. Luther and children, of Liberty, were in town Saturday and were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Willis Luther who spent Sunday with them.

Misses Ruth Finch and Bea Thomas, and Mr. D. E. Whitehead heard Dr. Greenfall at Guilford College last Friday night.

Rev. W. L. Scott preached a sermon of great appeal and wise counsel to the parents of the community on our responsibility to the child last Sunday morning. Every father and mother in town should have heard it.

Messrs. Paul Whitehead and Lane Forrester were home over Sunday from the State University. We are always glad to see the boys come home.

Mr. J. P. Cox and family went to Greensboro Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Elam went to Lilesville Friday to attend the funeral of a friend.

The epidemic of measles is abating now, nearly everybody having had it.

Our deputy, Mr. Ward, and others went on a still hunt Sunday but failed to find anything but some empty jugs. There has been some evidence of sugar-head around and of course some of the fluid is being smuggled into town to the ruination of some now and then, but as a whole, we have a community of young men that think more of themselves than to become hogs and drink the slop. They are far better than the fellows of the average small town. Seldom do they give anyone any trouble and we repeat that you will have to travel a long way to find a better behaved set of young men than our town possesses. We attribute this to the good training the past years have offered them by our preachers, teachers, and most of all, good mothers. And of course the splendid influence of our fine young ladies makes it almost impossible for our boys to be anything but gentlemen. All honor to our boys and girls. May they continue to be the fine young folks they are and develop themselves by the advantages offered them until the shameful practices of the past will become nothing more than a repulsive memory.

MARRIAGE OF SOPHIA YOUNG PEOPLE

Miss Pauline Allred and Mr. Roscoe Powell, both residents of Sophia, were quietly married at the home of the officiating Justice, Mr. M. E. Brown, of Randleman Route 1, Saturday, March 5. The bride is the daughter of the widow Allred and the groom the son of Captain Powell. The many friends of the young people extend congratulations.

You are invited to visit our Mirro Department

An interesting experience is in store for you. In our Mirro Department we are now showing a complete selection of MIRRO, The Finest Aluminum. You are cordially invited to inspect unusual exhibit.

You will not be asked to buy a single thing, but we know that you will carry away with you at least a dozen ideas for improving your household equipment, as the result of examining the almost endless variety of fine and use-this unusual exhibit.

After you have seen this Mirro exhibit, we'll expect only two things;—that you will think of Mirro as being synonymous with quality and true economy, and of our store as being the place where you can buy Mirro with the greatest convenience and satisfaction.
