WOMAN'S BODY FOUND IN TRUNK

One of the many horrible crimes made public recently was the finding of a young woman's body in a trunk in Adee, Utah. The body is believed to be that of Mrs. Belle Janssen, of Denver, wife of Fred Janssen. Mrs. Janssen disappeared suddenly last Thursday and her husband stated that she had been called to Pittsburgh to the bedside of a brother who was supposed to be ill. When on Friday Janssen disappeared, suspicion was aroused. A few hours after his disappearance, a man answering to his description checked a trunk to Weed, California, under the name of John J. Smith, of Denver. The police have no clue as to Janssen's whereabouts.

MAIL ROUTE FROM SANFORD TO CARTHAGE

Bids are being asked by the Post-office Department for carrying mail from Sanford to Carthage. The inauguration of this service will be of great benefit as it will facilitate the moving of good volume of mail between these two towns as well as the mail originating between. The proposed schedule is so arranged that it will be possible to send letter from either town and get a reply the same day.

Distant fields only seem the greener.

PRE-HISTORIC SKELETON FOUND

It is of interest to know of the pre-historic skeleton which was dug out of the side of a bank on the Salmon river country in Idaho recently by two members of the State Highway commission. The bones were said to have been found in a cliff at a depth of 50 feet.

Measuring more than eight feet in height and possessing numerous strange features, the skeleton has aroused widespread interest. Three physicians who examined it pronounced it to be that of a woman.

Belief that the person was of a herbivorous race has been expressed, owing to the peculiar formation of the jaws and teeth. Both the upper and lower jaws have only 10 teeth each and all are intact.

The lower jaw and vertebra will be sent to the Smithsonian Institution at Washington for analysis.

PIONEER PREACHER BORN IN MONTGOMERY COUNTY CLAIMED BY DEATH

Reverend Francis M. Jordan, aged 94 years, pioneer Baptist minister, who had preached in every county in North Carolina and baptised over 7,000 people in the rivers and creeks of the state, died at his home at Calvert, Transylvania County, last Saturday.

Mr. Jordan was the father of 23 children, ten of whom are living. He had 33 grand-children and 25 great-grand-children. He was a native of Montgomery County, and was twice married. In 1871 Mr. Jordan organized the first Baptist Church in Winston-Salem, with five members.

Mr. Jordan has preached in Virginia, Tennessee and South Carolina. He is the author of an auto-biography, "The Life and Labors of F. M. Jordan."

Marlboro school is progressing nicely under the management of Misses Ethel Cox and Della Tucker.

INTERESTING MAN DIES

After living 88 useful years, George A. White, Sr., Confederate war veteran, died at the home of his nephew at Columbia March 16th. Besides being a veteran, Mr. White is one of the men who helped to build the iron-clad Merrimac which fought the Monitor at Hampton Roads March 9th, 1862. When the war between the States broke out Mr. White enlisted with the Confederate forces in Virginia in a company composed of 85 ship builders. Mr. White was assigned the task of covering the sides of the Merrimac, which had been abandoned by the federal army, with iron plates. This work was done in the navy yards at Norfolk, Va.

HOME TOWN COMMANDMENTS

1. Thou shalt love thy home town above all other towns. Thou shalt be loyal to her people and her institutions.
2. Thou shalt guard thy home town from the hosts of evil that would invade and destroy her soul. Thou shalt keep the good name of thy home town clean and without stain or blemish.
3. Thou shalt elect as thy public servants men of strong character, eager to conserve the best interests of thy people. And when thou hast elected such men thou shalt stand to support and encourage them, for their temptations are many and their burdens heavy.
4. Thou shalt exalt thy public school and honor it all the days of thy life with the best of teachers, buildings and equipments, for the school is the cradle of the future. Thy children are here and they shall be the leaders of tomorrow. No training is too good for them and no preparation superfluous.
5. Thou shalt defend the health of thy home town from the death that lurks in marshes, swamps, and heaps of filth. Thou shalt exterminate the fly and mosquito, for they carry typhoid and malaria. The tubercle bacillus shalt thou drive before thee with the sun and fresh air as thy allies.
6. Thou shalt build good roads and keep them good. For by her roads is a town known for good or ill. Eternal watchfulness shall be thy motto, that thy roads may not ravel nor thy supervisor forget thee.
7. Thou shalt keep thy home town beautiful. The hills, the trees, the waters that nature has given her thou shalt preserve in sacred trust. No hovel shalt thou permit to disfigure them. Thou shalt keep thy homes and door yards clean and cheerful. Thy waters shalt thou purify that they may bring thee life and strength. The future of thy town shalt thou plan with care and diligence that thy growth be not hazardous, but full of thought and loving care, as the plans of a mother for the growth of her child.
8. Thou shalt honor thy community institutions. Thou shalt work together with thy neighbors with all they heart and strength and mind. Thou shalt work together in thy organizations and clubs for the common welfare. Thy leaders shalt learn to obey. Thou shalt serve on committees where thou art put and not intrude on committees where thou are not put. Thus thou shalt know one another better, thy work prosper, and thy friendship multiply.
9. Thou shalt be a good neighbor to all who live in thy home town, whether they be rich or poor. Thou shalt speak ill of none and good of many. Thou shalt be a friend to strangers and a visitor to the sick in their affliction.
10. Thou shalt go to church for the honor of thy home town and for thine own good. Thou shalt not consider thyself too busy, too busy to bad or too good, to spend an hour or two on Sunday with thy neighbors in the worship of God. Thou shalt not send thy children to church. Thou shalt bring them there. Thou shalt offer thyself to thy spiritual leader for the service of God and thy community. So shall we win many battles together.—F. Eastman, Sanford Herald, Fla.

LIBERTY ITEMS

Several of Liberty's teachers attended the Teachers' assembly in Raleigh last week.

Mrs. Ab. Kirkman will be buried at Bethany at 3 p. m. today. Rev. A. L. Lucas will conduct the funeral services.

Mr. Kelly Trogon's many friends regret to learn that he continues indisposed.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ourn, of Winston-Salem, were visiting friends here Sunday.

Miss Margaret Smith, N. C. C. W. spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Smith, Sr.

Mr. Bud Kirkman, who has been seriously ill, is improving some, his many friends are glad to learn.

EXHIBITION AT WHITE HALL SCHOOL HOUSE

White Hall public school will close on Saturday, March 29th, by rendering a program prepared by the students of the school, consisting of dialogues, declamations and recitations.

A string band from Grays Chapel under the management of F. Marion Trogon will furnish the music for the occasion.

They are also expecting Mr. Rufus Stanley and Mr. R. C. Chandby, the latter Postmaster at Greensboro, to be present with their music to assist in the entertainment.

Everybody is cordially invited to attend the exercises. So come and spend a day and enjoy the old time school closing and see the "red lemon-ade."

THE BEST NONE TOO GOOD

"After many years of stomach suffering I have at last found a medicine for that trouble. But believe me it was a timely find. I couldn't have lasted a great while longer. My stomach would bloat with gas like a barrel and the colics got to be awful. Medicine didn't help much until I got hold of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which did the trick. I am telling everyone about it." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Standard Drug Co., and druggist everywhere.
