Washington Letter (By David E. St. Clair)

Washington, April 22.—Inner political circles here are watching with keen interest the physical condition of Senator Couzens of Michigan who is confined in the John Hopkins hospital, suffering from an intestinal trouble. Senator Couzens was the moving spirit in the senate committee appointed to investigate the Internal Revenue Bureau in the Treasury Department and employed Francis J. Heney, a San Francisco attorney, and was paying him out of his own pocket to conduct the investigation. It was the apprehension that Mr. Heney with a staff of experts at his command would come into the bureau and uncover facts that might discredit the administration of the department, before the whole country, it was this apprehension, it is reported here, that moved Secretary Mellon to write the President who in turn sent his "amazing" message to the senate denouncing that body as "lawless."

The Republican Old Guard senators are planning to have Senator Pepper of Pennsylvania appointed to take Couzens' place if the latter is unable to return to service. If they succeed in having the Pennsylvania senator appointed on the committee, it is well known here that he will practically put an end to the investigation. Senator Pepper is an uncompromising political foe of Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania who is credited with being responsible for having Couzens appointed Heney as counsel to the committee. Pepper has carried the fight into Pennsylvania to defeat Pinchot as one of the delegates at large to the Republican national convention. It is not generally believed here that Senator Couzens will be able to resume his duties in the committee. On that assumption the Republican organization is at this moment working to move hell, earth and so far as its limited possibilities will permit, heaven itself, to end the investigation of the Treasury Department. Republican leaders believe that certainly the success of the party in the November election and possibly its very life would be jeopardized by allowing the lantern of publicity to shine into the dark alcoves, pigeon holes and vaults of Mr. Mellon's workshop with its sixty thousand employees. The Secretary of the Treasury investigated, untouched by the smear of scandal, his administration is regarded as the one great asset of his party. The President and the whole administration are so much patty in the hands of Mr. Mellon. His letter to the President was called an order on the White House to command the senate to halt, and Senator Glass of Virginia declared on the floor of the senate that throughout our history no other President ever dared send such a message to the senate. The attitude of opposition of the Secretary of the Treasury to investigation of his department has magnified suspicion and put into circulation a new crop of scandal reports. These reports are blowing around every corner and they have determined the Democrats and insurgent Republicans in the senate to put the cork screw and even the tongs on the department. It is not muckraking, they say, but "raking for the truth." Hundreds of millions of dollars are being refunded to taxpayers by the department. It may be or it may not be that these taxpayers are entitled these refunds but what is the matter with the administration of a department that has to do so much refunding? Why does not the department show the American people what it is doing and not present cryptograms and blanks to puzzle the imagination and create suspicion? But Mr. Mellon says to send a man like Heney nosing around will demoralize his shop, and if it is done, he will know how to resign.

THE BEST MAN FOR GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA (Editorial from the Goldsboro Weekly Record) In the month of June the people of North Carolina will decide who will be the next Governor of North Carolina, for the term to begin January 1925. The primaries to nominate candidates will be held in June. It goes without saying that the man the Democrats nominate will be the next Governor of North Carolina. Since the foundation of the Goldsboro Weekly Record the founders have always regarded the paper in the nature of a public institution, and regarding it as such the Record at all times has endeavored to stand for the best things in life—for the betterment, uplifting, prosperity and happiness of all the people. Now the nomination of a Democrat for Governor of North Carolina is a most important matter. We should nominate the very best available man, and the Record does not hesitate to endorse in the very strongest terms, Hon. A. W. McLean, of Robeson county, for Governor of our state. He is a man of the people, because he came from the ranks of the people, and has won success in farming, as a lawyer and a business man. He is a man of splendid ability, thoroughly practical, and would give this state a practical, business, dollar-saving administration, progressive and conservative. From his youth up, his life is an open book. His business character and reputation are without spot or blemish. Angus W. McLean possesses every qualification for the high office, and we believe he will be the next Governor of North Carolina and that he will give the state a great administration. NOTICE Having qualified as executor of the last will and testament of Thomas Davis, deceased, before D. M. Weatherly, Clerk of the Superior Court of Randolph County, all persons having claims against said estate are notified to present them to the undersigned, duly verified, on or before the 1st day of May, 1925, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery; and all persons owing said estate will come forward and make immediate settlement.
