ASHEBORO, N. C.

49 YEARS AGO—

Folks boiled coffee and settled it with an egg.
Ladies rode on side saddles.
Little Johnnie wore brass-toed shoes and daddy wore brogans.
When a preacher said a truth the people said "Amen."
Left-over noon vittals were finished at supper time.
Neighbors asked about your family and meant it.
Merry-go-rounds were called "flying Jennies."
Folks used toothpicks and were still polite.
A tin cup of red liquor was sold for five cents.
Ladies' dresses reached from her neck to the heel.
Wheat was sowed broadcast and harrowed in with a tree top.
It took 20 minutes to shine shoes with Mason's blacking.
People served pot liquor instead of canned soup.
Indigestion and appendicitis were called plain belly-ache.
Quinine was taken in coffee, molasses or tissue paper.
Vermillion was used as hearth paint instead of face paint.
Babies were rocked in cradles without adding their brains.
Men played mumble peg instead of poker.
The neighbors all got fresh meat at hog-killing time.
And a man made the same wife do a lifetime.—Selected.

YOUR MOTHER

Nobody else may ever care because you have a broken heart;
Nobody else, if you should err, may be inclined to take your part;
But she will know and she will pray That God may take your woes away;
When all fair weather friends forget, when fortune turns and smiles no more,
Her faith in you will linger yet, she will be faithful as before.
Nobody else may ever see your native worth, your nobleness.
Nobody else may know, but she will know, what talents you possess;
Though others enviously frown,
Or slyly seek to drag you down,
She will in word and thoughts be true, and with sweet triumph in her breast,
Achieve her rarest blessing through the favors, through which you are blessed.

Nobody else may weep because your dearest plans have come to naught,
Nobody else may deign to pause, if in sin's meshes you are caught,
To ask if you had been to blame,
Or seek to rid you of your shame;
But she would still, with all her heart proclaim your innocence, your worth,
Oh, strive, my boy, to do your part to gladden her brief days on earth.
S. E. KISER.

NEW SWITCHBOARD BEING INSTALLED

A much needed new switchboard is being installed in the Asheboro Telephone office. For a long time the service has been hampered by the need, and many who needed and wanted telephones were unable to get them because all the room on the switchboard was filled. The new one will accommodate 1200 telephones, giving room for possibly 800 new phones. The work is under direction of Al Parsons, of the Kellogg Company, Chicago. For over a week the work has been going on, and is now well under way. It is estimated that it will be six weeks or two months before it is completed. Work is being arranged so that no service will have to stop until several weeks from now when the new connections are made. This will possibly be only from Saturday night until Monday.

EMPLOYMENT CONDITIONS IN STATE SATISFACTORY

The slump in the New England textile industry was an outstanding factor in the employment situation during April as reviewed in a report today by the department of labor. Increased employment in the building trades, on the other hand, was said to have decreased unemployment in many sections, notably in the middle and south Atlantic sections.

Conditions in the various states were summarized as follows:

North Carolina—Industrial employment conditions in this state are considered satisfactory for this period of the year. The larger industries are operating, though considerable part time is apparent, particularly in textile mills, some of which are temporarily closed. Fair sized building programs and considerable road construction now under way affords employment to the building tradesmen and large numbers of skilled and common laborers.

South Carolina—There is a surplus of common labor in some sections of this state. Fair sized building programs are under way and considerable road construction work affords employment to large numbers of skilled and common laborers.

Virginia—The supply and demand of all classes of labor in this state appears to be very well balanced. There are some small surpluses of unskilled workers reported in one or two centers. Large building programs and road-construction work are now under way, affording employment to skilled and unskilled labor.

Thomasville Postoffice Bids Refused

Thomasville received news recently from Washington to the effect that all bids for the new postoffice for Thomasville have been rejected as they were all considered as too high, even the lowest bid reaching nearly $2,000 in excess of the figures which are considered reasonable by the authorities in Washington.
