Rube Eldridge Won't Quit

It is said that several days ago Rube Eldridge, veteran left hand pitcher of the High Point team of the Piedmont league, tried to collect a debt some of the High Point fans owed him and failing to get the money became a little exasperated and was almost ready to quit baseball and return to his farm near Spero. Eldridge is frequently referred to as the "Duke of Spero". Rube says in an interview with the sports editor of the High Point Herald that he has never had any idea of quitting the High Point team. For four years Eldridge has been on the High Point team and for a season or so back he was the mainstay of the team's pitching staff. Lately he has been slipping but he wants the world to know that he is still in the game and giving his best. He turned down an offer last week of $400 per month to pitch for an independent team in Pennsylvania.

Be Careful and Systematic

People who pay their bills by check get a reputation for being Careful and systematic in their business dealings. Such a reputation means much in the establishment of credit. It costs no more to pay your money out by check than it does to use the hard cash, and you have the advantage of having it in a place that is absolutely safe. To have money in the bank is of itself a valuable asset in the establishment of credit. And it is possible to practically everyone without one cent of cost. It takes no more money to do business by the checking method than it does by the cash-in-hand method. We invite you to open a checking account with us. We will help you to make your account a real convenience.
