WALL-RAY

On Monday morning, August 4th, at 9 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Ray, Pittsboro, a marriage beautiful in its simplicity was solemnized when their daughter, Miss Georgie Evelyn, became the bride of Mr. James Lester Wall of Sophia.

The living room was artistically decorated for the occasion. A bank of long leaf pine and golden rod at the north end of the room formed a beautiful bower. Just above hung a white wedding bell. White candles in silver holders furnished the only light in the room.

Immediately preceding the ceremony, "Souvenir" was rendered on the piano. Mrs. Henry A. Bynum then sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Miss Emily Thompson. Following this, Miss Lillian Ray, sister of the bride attired in a dainty frock of yellow with hat to match, descended the stairs to the strains of "The Bridal Chorus." The bride, becomingly gowned in a handsome dress of gray meteor crepe with accessories to match entered with the groom.

The ring ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. Jonas Barclay, of the Presbyterian church. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wall left by motor to spend their honeymoon at Blowing Rock and other points in the mountains of western Carolina, after which they will be at home at Legerwood, where Mr. Wall will teach agriculture in the Patterson School for Boys.

Mrs. Wall received her education at Peace Institute. Mr. Wall graduated at State College in the Class of 1923, and was connected with the Extension work of the college last year.

Ike Meekins, republican candidate for governor, spoke in the Stanly county court house at Albemarle Saturday before a large audience of republicans and a sprinkling of democrats. Meekins denounced everything democratic, but admitted that Davis would make a good president if elected. He especially criticized the conduct of federal affairs by the democrats during their term of office. He stated that Harding should no more be criticized for appointing Senator Fall to the cabinet than Christ for making Judas one of the disciples. He referred to the large amount of money the state democratic administration is spending for good roads.
