John Payne, well known high school pupil, who had the misfortune to fall and hurt himself right badly some time ago, is much improved, although his ear gives him some trouble yet. Prof. Weaver, the new school superintendent here, has moved his family to the Dr. Week's place on Main street, central Trinity. We learn he has bought, or thinks of buying the property, which is a very desirable place. The new high school principal arrived a few days ago. Mr. Rose Parrish, who has been living for some time in South Trinity, has moved elsewhere. Mr. Parrish was an excellent farmer and trucker, and will be very much missed. TEN MEN AND A THOUSAND ONE OAK, $4,000 W. L. DOUGLAS, BUILDER DEMPSEY AND DEFENSE DAY

Very good news for the United States is this: The President is considering the relative value of battleships and airplanes. Those that sell battleships at forty million dollars apiece will tell the President that the country can't survive without plenty of battleships. Manufacturers of hansom cabs would also have said a little while ago that the taxicab couldn't be a real success.

Before the President builds another battleship let him ask the builder this question: "Are you willing to build that ship for forty million dollars and guarantee that it will be afloat ten hours after being attacked by one hundred thousand dollars' worth of fighting airplanes?"

If the President discovers, as he will, that a hundred thousand dollars' worth of airplanes, manned by ten men, can destroy any forty-million dollar battleship with more than a thousand men on board, he will decide not to build battleships.

Governor Pinchot has signed the death warrant of a young colored woman who killed a colored policeman and pleaded self defense. She will be the first woman executed in the State of Pennsylvania in thirty-five years. Governor Pinchot signed the death warrant when he was in the hospital. When he comes out, entirely recovered, it may occur to him that putting a negro to death instead of locking her up is small business for a great State. The question is not "Does she deserve death?" It is "Does Pennsylvania deserve disgrace?"

price is $25 for $100 worth of bogus bills. The market is stabilized by the demand for such money, used by bootleggers in buying liquor from the rum fleet, sent by our British brothers. The managers of the boats are good bootleggers, but not familiar with American money, and many, it seems, have been taking bad money for worse whiskey—which seems fair enough.

A Presbyterian church in New Jersey spent $4,000 in one year, taking care of a huge oak 400 years old. The oak may be worth it. But that sum would have planted several thousand new trees along New Jersey roads. Or, if you don't resent digging in religion, it would be a good deal better to plant a flock of buzzards that are supposed to be more important than many oaks.

Above the base at Quantico, Va., flying machines are practicing, and on the ground our honest U. S. Marines, in deep amazement, "oh-served" some of the "little ones" that are supposed to be more important than many oaks.

You remember the gentleman with his arms all the furniture he could carry, finally picking up the baby with his teeth fastened in the little dress. As he lifted the baby he saw a cat walking across the floor holding a kitten in her mouth, and said, "Look at the wonderful imitation of that cat." W. L. Douglas died in Boston last week. His name will be remembered among the builders of great industry, among those that helped to free humanity from slavery, by making machines do the work of human hands. He began life driving pegs in shoes for his uncle. He lived to make machines do the work of thousands of human beings and distributed American-made shoes throughout the world.

Those that consider Preparedness and Defense Day a menace to peace please notice this: Jack Dempsey is prepared. If you doubt it, pull his nose. As he goes through thick crowds everybody knows him, everybody is polite. Nobody slaps him or insults him, and he does not hit or insult anybody. HE'S PREPARED and people let him alone. Let it be the same with us. Let us let things with him. As it is with individuals, so with nations. When they are prepared, they have peace.

Outlaw Captured

Carl Lippard, outlawed August 12th by proclamation of Judge W. F. Harding, was captured by officers in Lincoln county Thursday morning after an exciting chase. Three quarts of brandy were found in Lippard's car and he had $500 in money on his person. Lippard has studied the officers of the law for three years. Among the charges against him are assault with intent to kill, making and selling liquor, rum running, and a half dozen other offenses. Lippard has been in the limelight for four or five years on account of his escapades in the western North Carolina counties.

McCrary, Lexington postmaster and attorney, and J. R. McCrary, Lexington attorney; and three daughters, Miss Edna McCrary and Mrs. W. H. Walker, of Lexington, and Mrs. L. D. Thompson, of Mebane.

The silent woods are calling

CALLING you to play hooky as they did when you were a kid. Remember the old swimming hole, the wild adventures in caves and woods, the thrills of catching your first fish? Your nature still wants to play hooky once in a while. It's easy too. Easier than it was in your schooldays. Plan your work ahead so you can take a day off. Hop in the car bright and early. Go off for a day's golf or hunting or better yet take the wife and family along for an outing in the autumn woods. Forget your business for just a few hours. You'll work all the better next day. Your vision will be clearer, your mind keener. Your point of view will be changed. And you will find it restful to get out on the road on a week day when there is less traffic.

Better run "round tonight to the nearest "Standard" pump and fill her up with gas, oil, air, and water. Then you'll be ready for an early start and a steady run. "Standard" is just the gas you need on early morning trips like these for there may be a touch of frost in the air. That's when you need peppy gas.
