

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mr. Lynn Kennedy visited friends in Randleman last Sunday.

Mr. W. S. Gaffin, of Utah, was a visitor in our office Saturday.

Mr. Colon Byrd has moved his family from the Holly Springs section to Asheboro.

Mr. Grady Miller, of Greensboro, was in town a few hours last Saturday.

Mr. Carl Richardson, of Troy, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. C. Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wood visited Miss Jessie Wood at Thomasville Sunday.

Mr. G. A. Byrd, of Winchester, Ind., arrived Tuesday for a visit to his brother, Mr. Z. T. Byrd.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lassiter, of Smithfield, are the guests of Mrs. Lassiter's sister, Mrs. W. A. Gregory.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Presnell visited their daughter, Mrs. Clay Richardson, at Star Sunday.

Mr. Lewis Cooper left Tuesday for Melbourne, Fla., where he will spend the winter.

Mr. Flaud Johnson and Mr. Bruce Hilliard were visitors in High Point one day the latter part of last week.

Messrs. W. A. Gregory and Colon Byrd were week-end visitors in Smithfield.

Miss Zella Johnson and brother, Flaud, visited friends in Greensboro last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. John M. Brittain, of Troy, was a business visitor in Asheboro Saturday.

Mr. C. H. Lucas, of Union township, was among the business visitors in Asheboro Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wood and daughter, Jamie, visited relatives at Jackson Hill last Sunday.

Mrs. Florence Ewers, of High Point, was the guest of Mrs. W. A. Gregory last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Johnson were visitors in Greensboro for a few hours last Sunday.

Miss Lala Rose, of Greensboro, is visiting friends in Asheboro this week.

Mrs. J. D. Ross and son Joseph and Miss Clarabel Morris were in Greensboro Saturday.

Mr. Carl Kivett is recovering from an operation for appendicitis at the High Point hospital.

Mrs. Lacy Lewis has returned from High Point where she spent a few days.

Mr. C. L. Cranford, who is in the High Point hospital for treatment, is improving.

Mr. Lawrence Lineberry, of Randleman, was a visitor in Greensboro Sunday.

The first meeting of the Randolph Book Club will be held at the home of Mrs. W. C. Hammer Friday at 3 P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Elliott and children, of Randleman, spent Sunday in Greensboro with Mrs. Elliott's son, Mr. G. C. Lineberry.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Spence are in Albemarle this week. Mr. Spence is attending court and Mrs. Spence is visiting friends.

Mrs. Ollie Presnell and little daughter, Dorothy, who have been visiting Mrs. Presnell's parents in Richmond, Va., returned home Sunday.

Mr. Tom Cox, of Rameur Route 1, was in the city Monday returning from Worthville, where he has been connected with some bridge work.

Mrs. W. F. Cross and daughter, Miss Florence, and Carl Cross visited relatives in Lexington last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Forrester, and Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Reitzell, of Rameur, were visitors in Asheboro Sunday.

Misses Lucy and Bonnie Davis, Lola and Clarence Luck and Miss Alvina Lineberry, of Rameur, spent last Sunday in Mt. Gilead.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Millsaps and children, of Thomasville, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Millsaps, Jr.

Mr. Clifton Presnell left Tuesday for Melbourne, Fla., where he will be engaged in carpenter work this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Blalock were the guests of Mrs. Blalock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. White, at Archdale, last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. W. S. Shelor, of Raleigh, was a business visitor in Asheboro Tuesday. Mr. Shelor is connected with the Carolina Power Company.

Mr. J. M. Robbins, of Caraway, while in Asheboro Saturday, gave The Courier a pleasant call and renewed his subscription.

Rev. and Mrs. Henry Forrester and Miss Flora Alfred, of Charlotte, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Alfred Tuesday.

Mrs. J. C. Bean and little daughter, Hazel Lee, of Salisbury, were in Asheboro yesterday en route to Flagah where they are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cox.

Mrs. John W. Porter and children and Mrs. Martha Porter, and Mrs. J. S. Boyd, of Charlotte, were guests of Mr. W. H. Moring the first of the week.

Mrs. Allie H. Worth, who has been visiting relatives in Asheboro, left yesterday for Charlotteville, Va., where she will visit friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Smith, who have been visiting Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rush, for the past month, left Saturday for their home in Cambria, Va.

Mrs. Agnes Barker, Mrs. W. C. Hammond, Mrs. Jack Meador and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Smith were visitors in Greensboro one day the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Jack Meador, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rush for the past two weeks, returned to her home at Fayetteville last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Page, of Aberdeen, and Mrs. Jno. K. Wood, of Asheboro, who have been spending a few days at Blowing Rock, returned home Tuesday.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the M. P. church met with Mrs. Clyde Hendricks at her new home in Greystone Terrace Monday evening.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. L. Claude Herndon, Jr., of Monroe, September 30th, a son, L. Claude. Mrs. Herndon was Miss Florence York, of Central Falls, before her marriage.

William A. Underwood, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Underwood, of Asheboro, has been elected assistant cheer leader at Trinity College. Mr. Underwood is a Junior at Trinity this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cranford left Sunday for New York City. They took the children to Raleigh where they will visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Maxwell, while their parents are in New York.

Messrs. G. M. York, John Ward and West Frazier, of Staley Route 1, were in Asheboro Monday in the interest of their school at Kildee. While here Mr. York gave The Courier a pleasant call and had his name put on our subscription list.

Mr. J. S. Presnell returned to Greensboro Sunday to resume his work with the Ford Body Company after a few days visit with his family.

The Missionary Society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. J. N. Bennett October 14th. All of the members are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Gurney Wright suffered slight bruises and injuries late Sunday afternoon in an automobile collision near Archdale on the Asheboro-High Point highway road. In the car with Mr. and Mrs. Wright were their child and Mrs. Wright's sister, a Miss Cagle.

Reid Hannah's Ford roadster was stolen Friday afternoon in Greensboro, where it was parked on the street while Mr. and Mrs. Hannah were on a shopping trip. There are no clues as to who stole the machine, and nothing has been heard regarding it since.

Mrs. Crissie Clark, of Trinity, was the guest of Mrs. J. T. Winslow Monday. Mrs. Clark is a former Asheboro citizen and has a number of friends here who are always glad to see her.

Mr. T. V. Rochelle, of High Point, was the winner in the golf tournament held at the Country Club in High Point Saturday. The play was nine holes and a handicap affair. Mr. Rochelle's score equaled the amateur course record.

Mrs. E. L. Moffitt returned Saturday night from Virginia where she has been visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Moffitt accompanied their daughter, Miss Margaret, to Hollins where she entered college, and Mrs. Moffitt remained in the state for ten days.

Mr. J. T. Winslow who has been in Memorial hospital for the past two weeks, has returned to his home at Seagrave Route 1. Mr. Winslow had the misfortune, while cutting timber of having a tree fall on his leg and breaking and crushing it badly.

Miss Margaret Moffitt, who visits relatives in Asheboro, has been seriously ill at her home in Georgia. The physicians thought Miss Moffitt was suffering from appendicitis but it developed that her liver was out of position.

Mr. Virgil Presnell, who was born and reared in Randolph county but who about two years ago moved to Charlotte, was greeting his friends in Asheboro last week. Mr. Presnell was impressed with the growth and improvement Asheboro had made in the last two years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Weaver, of Archdale, and Mrs. W. B. McEwen, of High Point, were in Asheboro Monday. Mrs. Weaver and her sister went down to Auman's pottery shop during the day. Mr. Weaver says that the report that he was to leave Randolph county and move to High Point was erroneous. This will please the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Weaver.

Mr. J. P. Boroughs and son, Earle, of Kemps Mills, were in Asheboro Saturday. Mr. Boroughs has been with the Coleridge Manufacturing Company at Coleridge, until since the death of his wife, when he moved to Kemps Mills to be with his son. Mr. Boroughs is arranging to sell his household property in Coleridge.

Messrs. C. B. Gaffin, Francis White and O. L. Pierce and Sidney Wood returned Monday from Washington where they attended the World's Series Saturday. Mr. Wood brought several souvenirs some of which had autographs of prominent players and those interested in ball.

Mr. B. F. Brown, of Eret, was a visitor on our streets Monday.

Chief of Police C. W. Stead arrested Clyde Williams, colored, in Asheboro Saturday and placed him in jail. Williams is an escaped convict from Mecklenburg county, and has been in Asheboro for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McAllister were in Asheboro Thursday returning to their home in Greensboro after visiting relatives at Little's Mill.

Mrs. Herbert Cox is visiting relatives and friends in Rocky Mount.

Mrs. M. C. Spoon, of Rameur, was a visitor in Asheboro yesterday.

Mr. O. D. Lawrence, of Seagrave, was a business visitor in the city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Turner Davis and children visited Mr. C. H. Teague's family in Thomasville Sunday.

Miss Julia Thoms, of Aberdeen, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Moring.

Mrs. Emma Kearns, of Farmer, was a business visitor in Asheboro Monday.

Mrs. Lacy Lewis and Mrs. Robert Cameron were visitors in High Point Tuesday afternoon.

Messrs. H. C. Causey and C. P. Smith, of Liberty, were among the business visitors in the city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McAllister, of Greensboro, were guests of their sister, Miss May McAllister, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cameron were guests of relatives in Lexington Sunday.

Miss Jessie Hoyle, of Troy, was the week-end guest of Miss Lucy Leigh Lovett.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Scarborough, of Greensboro, visited friends in Asheboro last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Wall were in Asheboro Saturday returning from Western Carolina where they spent their honeymoon. They were guests of Mrs. Wall's mother, Mrs. Robt. Clark. Mrs. Wall was Miss Ethel Clark before her marriage.

Mrs. Sam Swain and daughter, Miss Lucile, of Greensboro, and Mr. Robt. Watson, of Monroe, La., were the guests of Mrs. Robt. Ferree one day the latter part of last week.

Mr. J. C. Teague, of Climax, was a business visitor in Asheboro yesterday. Mr. Teague is one of the county's prosperous farmers. He has four acres of soja beans which he says are most promising.

Mrs. W. H. Moring, Miss Julia Thoms and Mrs. W. C. Hammer attended the reception honoring Mrs. John W. Lashley nee Miss Edna Millikan given by Messdames James M. and Roy Millikan at the home of the former in Greensboro Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. W. G. Saunders and son, C. N. Luther and little daughter, Ethel, of Ophir were in Asheboro on business yesterday. They have recently completed a new home and are now occupying it. Mr. Luther says crops in his section were damaged by the heavy rains last month.

The Chevrolet car, which the High Point Chevrolet Company has put in the Economy and Endurance Contest was in Asheboro yesterday and attracted attention. The Chevrolet Motor Company has put on a nation wide contest in order to demonstrate the endurance and economy of their car. The High Point company will send their car over the streets in High Point and roads in adjoining counties. The Hill-Nance Company have not entered the contest but think it a fine plan.

Miss Helen Muse of High Point married.

Miss Helen Louise Muse and Fontaine Maury Cralle were married Saturday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Muse, on South Main street, High Point. Only the immediate family and a few close friends were present. Rev. J. H. Barnhardt, of Greensboro, performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Cralle is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Muse and a popular member of the High Point younger set. She was educated at Saint Mary's College and the Greensboro College. She is a niece of Mrs. C. H. Lewis and Mrs. J. T. Winslow, of Asheboro.

Mr. Cralle is an alumnus of the University of North Carolina and is manager of the High Point branch of the Chapin-Sacks corporation.

Randolph County Club Meets at the University.

The Randolph county club met in the club room of the Y. M. C. A. Friday night, October 3, 1924. The following were present: A. P. Routh, W. C. Presnell, Harold Moore, H. V. Phillips, H. M. Bouldin, G. H. Arnold, A. A. Wall, L. C. Helper, W. D. Downs, Ray Parrish, R. B. Downs, W. H. Coltrane, E. A. Green, J. B. Meredith, and W. H. Redding.

President A. P. Routh, of Franklinville, opened the meeting with a very interesting talk. He welcomed the new students into the club and expressed sentiments of appreciation to see so many old members back. He explained to the new members that the club was an organization through which we could know men better from our own county, and that one of its main duties was to draw the high schools of Randolph county closer to the University.

After the business was transacted, came the feed. Many good eats were served, jokes were told, and a general good time lasted until a late hour.

W. HOWARD REDDING, Sec. & Treas.

Mr. E. Briles Opens New Industry in County.

Mr. E. M. Briles, of Trinity township, was in Asheboro Monday. Mr. Briles has a cane sorghum mill and expects to bucket his syrup and put it on the market. He has given his syrup his wife's maiden name, "Cora Cain" and will also have on his label "Made from Randolph County Cane."

Mr. Briles will not only use his own cane in launching this new industry, but will manufacture syrup from his cane, taking his seed from his product.

Society

Celebrates Second Birthday

Several little friends of Dorothy Presnell enjoyed the celebration of her second birthday Wednesday afternoon at her home on Salisbury street. Games delightful to the age were played, ice cream and wafers were served by the young hostess's mother, Mrs. O. L. Presnell.

Sunset Reading Circle Meets With Mrs. Jesse Garner

The Sunset Reading Circle met with Mrs. Jesse Garner at her home on Park street Monday afternoon. After the business meeting and an interesting discussion of a book on China, which the Reading Circle is now studying, the hostess served delicious cream and cake.

Miss Millie Bulla Bride of Mr. Claude Tedder

Miss Millie Bulla, of Asheboro Route 2, and Mr. Claude Tedder, of Kemps Mills, were married October 1st at the M. P. parsonage in Asheboro, Rev. H. F. Fogleman officiating. Miss Tedder is the attractive daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Bulla and for a number of years has been a popular teacher in Randolph county schools. Mr. Tedder is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Tedder and a young business man of sterling qualities. He holds a responsible position in Winston-Salem.

Woman's Club Met Last Week

The Woman's club met in the school building last week with a good number of members present. Mrs. C. N. Cox was elected president. Reports of various committees showed that work along various lines for general benefit is being done. Upon request of the school committee Mr. McMahon assigned the northeast room in the school building for club meetings.

The chrysanthemum committee outlined plans for the show which will be held in the court house, date of which will be determined upon following, and announcement made later.

Miss Virginia Winingham Bride of Mr. Chas. D. Reeder

The marriage of Miss Virginia Winingham of this city and Mr. Charles D. Reeder of Monroe was solemnized last Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Baptist parsonage, Rev. B. E. Morris, pastor of the bride, officiating. The marriage came as a complete surprise to the Asheboro people. Only a few intimate friends witnessed the marriage which was beautiful in its simplicity. The bride wore a going away suit of navy blue pique with harmonizing accessories. Mrs. Reeder is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Winingham and has lived in Asheboro for several years, where, with her attractive personality and pleasant disposition she has made many friends who will regret to see her leave Asheboro.

Mr. Reeder is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Reeder, of Monroe, and has been in Asheboro for sometime in the interest of concrete bridge building. He has also become very popular here.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeder left Monday morning for Monroe to visit Mr. Reeder's parents.

Mrs. Hal Walker Hostess to Friday Afternoon Club

Friday afternoon the initial meeting of the Friday Afternoon Club for the season was held with Mrs. Hal Walker hostess. Miss Harriet Elliott, head of the department of Political Science and History of the State Normal was present and was the speaker for the afternoon. As the guests arrived they were met at the door by Mrs. Wm. C. Hammer and Miss Mabel Parrish and the hostess introduced them to Miss Elliott, Mrs. Duran, also from the college and a guest of the club. The meeting was called to order by the president of the club and Miss Elliott's talk followed. This was primarily on the course of study adopted by the club for the winter which is "Studies On Citizenship" and the talk throughout was intensely interesting. Miss Elliott urged the women not only to inform themselves on both sides of the questions of the day, but to attend the meetings, vote in the primary and the elections. After the talk was over a course of refreshments was served. The plates contained cream chicken in patties, tomato aspic, hot rolls, toasted cheese rolls and hot tea. Besides the club members present, the members of the Randolph Book Club, were guests of the afternoon. The entertainment rooms were decorated with a profusion of golden red and scarlet sage.

BROWN-HONEY

Miss Hattie Brown and Mr. Eli Honey, both of Asheboro, were married by W. S. Gaffin, J. P., at his residence in Utah, September 23rd.

Mrs. Honey is the daughter of the late Isaac Brown, and Mr. Honey is the son of the late Emory Honey.

LADY FAIR SHOPPE

PHONE 273

Carrying complete line of Malinello preparations.

WANT COLUMN

No classified advertising will be taken for less than 50 cents and all advertisements sent in must be accompanied by remittance.

NOTICE—I have just opened an Electric Shoe Shop in the rear of Wolff Sample Store facing Trade street. First class work done at reasonable prices. Your business solicited. Z. N. Epps.

FOR SALE—Lally Light Plant with one 32-volt, 1-3 horsepower motor. J. R. Royals, Trinity, N. C.

FOR SALE OR RENT—My house in South Asheboro with seven rooms and bath. All modern conveniences. R. C. Johnson.

FOUND—Automobile number, No. 307-732. Owner may obtain same by calling at Courier office and paying for this advertisement.

FOUND—Automobile number, No. 67-436. Owner may obtain same by calling at Courier office and paying for this advertisement.

FOR SALE—My Home Place in West Asheboro. All modern conveniences, out houses, etc. Leo Barker.

FOR SALE—My home consisting of six rooms and an acre and a quarter of good land situated in North Asheboro on asphalt street. R. E. Betts, Box 462, Asheboro, N. C.

LOST—Ladies red yarn knitted sweater between Asheboro and Eret Saturday afternoon. Finder please return to Courier office.

FOR SALE—My house and two lots in West Asheboro. John L. Johnson.

FOR SALE—Two good hound dogs. Are broke for opossums, rabbits and foxes. Extra fine red dogs with large ears, three and one-half years old. Apply to Jesse Burgess, Rameur, N. C. Rt. 2. Near Kildee Holiness church.

TO RENT—5-room bungalow off Sunset Avenue. Apply to Sam Hooker, c/o Farmers Cafe, Asheboro, N. C.

SALE NOTICE—On Saturday, Oct. 25, 1924, at 10 o'clock, A. M., I will offer for sale my household and kitchen furniture consisting of stove, kitchen cabinet, table ware, bedsteads and bed furnishings, and many other articles too tedious to mention. Sale to be at my former residence, Coleridge, N. C.

J. P. BOROUGHS

Oct. 4th, 1924.

NOTICE OF RESALE OF LAND

By virtue of an order of resale made by the Superior Court of Randolph County in the sale of certain property owned by R. P. Cople and exposed to public auction, at the court house door in Randolph County by the undersigned mortgagee and assignee and now by reason of an order of resale ordered by the court, the undersigned will expose and sell at the court house door in Asheboro, N. C., to the highest bidder for cash, at 12 o'clock, M., on Saturday, the 18th day of October, 1924, the following tract of land:

Beginning at a beach stump in Ingram's line; thence North 1 1/2 deg. E. 67 chs. and 55 lks. to a stone, formerly a dogwood, on Ellen Welbourn's line; thence W. 88 1/2 deg. W. 13 chs. to the old McCulloch line; thence S. 70 deg. W. with said line 17 chs. to a stake in said line; thence S. 1 1/2 deg. W. 61 chs. and 70 lks. to a white oak, formerly a pine, Ingram's corner; thence S. 85 deg. E. 32 chs. to the beginning, containing two hundred and eleven (211) acres more or less, excepting the foregoing boundaries, two parcels of land bounded as follows: 1st Tract: Beginning at a stake in the middle of the road on the original running S. 1 1/2 deg. W. 64 1/4 poles to a rock, original corner; thence W. 5 deg. E. on the original line 24 poles and 20 lks. to a stone in said line; thence N. 1 1/2 deg. E. 67 poles to the middle of the public road, a white oak on the South side of said road marked for a corner; thence N. 79 degrees along said road to the beginning, containing ten (10) acres, more or less. 2nd Tract: Beginning at a white oak, Ingram's corner, on Rice's line; thence E. 523 feet to a stone; thence N. 392 feet to an oak; thence W. 523 to a stone; S. 392 to the beginning, containing four and one half (4 1/2) acres.

This land is being resold because the last bidder did not come forward and comply with the terms of the sale.

This the 30th day of September, 1924.

J. L. ZIMMERMAN, Mortgagee.

MAMIE HEGE, Assignee.

2t 10 9 24.

Bulla, Millikan, Farlow Reunion Held Sunday

The annual reunion of the Bulla, Millikan, and Farlow families was held Sunday at the old Benjamin Millikan place in Back Creek township. More than 350 members of the families were present. They came from Randolph, Guilford, and Forsyth, and adjoining counties. Short talks were made by Michael Farlow, Idyl Ferree, Newton Farlow, J. M. Millikan, Dr. Wilkerson, and John T. Brittain. A large table a hundred feet long held the sumptuous dinner that was spread at the noon hour.

A permanent organization was effected with T. Fletcher Bulla as president; J. M. Millikan, first vice-president; Newton Farlow, second vice-president; and J. T. Millikan, secretary-treasurer. A meeting will be held each year. The reunion next year to be held the first Sunday in October at the old Millikan place in Back Creek township.

M. E. CHURCH MATTERS

(W. H. Willis)

A letter admitting that the church has been received for Mr. Don McElhorm.

Robert Ashley and John Anderson, infant sons of Mr. and Mrs. Don McElhorm, received rite of baptism Sunday afternoon.

The church has raised for this year $540 for the superannuate endowment fund.

The services that close this conference year will be held next Sunday. Topics for pulpit discussion at that time will be:

11:00 A. M. "Our hat is in the ring"

7:30 P. M. "Fall to face"

LADY FAIR SHOPPE

Scalp Treatments and Facials a Specialty. Phone 273

When you want COAL Call Phone 257

Asheboro Ice and Coal Company

tf 9 25 24

Is knot enough knot enough when not enough is not wanted or not and if not J. W. Wolff wants to know why not. Is it not so or not that J. W. Wolff is selling shirts at wholesale prices or is he not. If he is not it is not necessary to buy from him unless you are not disposed to not. Is it not wise to guess at this when you can be certain about the matter by calling on

J. W. WOLFF

Asheboro, N. C.

Coats and Dresses

Many new arrivals this week. Newest fashions and colors, and prices that can not be found lower any where.

Get in the habit of buying at

F. L. Brooks

Ladies' Specialty Store

Asheboro, N. C.

Newest Styles—