Number Of Socials At Ramseur During Week

Mrs. Tate, Mrs. Watkins, and Mrs. Reitzel Entertain Societies—Personals.

Mr. Ed Allred and family, of Greensboro, were visitors at Mr. J. W. Allred's Sunday, October 5th.

Mrs. E. J. Steed and daughter, Miss Vera, and Mrs. T. A. Moffitt spent Tuesday in Greensboro shopping.

Miss Carrie Cranford, Mrs. T. A. Moffitt and Mr. E. Q. Seawell attended "America" at Greensboro Wednesday night.

The Baptist Ladies Aid Society met with Mrs. C. F. Baldwin last Wednesday afternoon. Important business was attended to by the society after which the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. J. A. Marsh and Miss Helen Arthur, Jr., Mrs. Elizabeth Snow Welborn and Miss Louise McEuen, of High Point were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Johnson's Sunday.

Mr. Minor Marsh and Miss Webb, of Greensboro, spent a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Saturday.

Dr. C. A. Graham recently installed a radio in his home on Liberty street and has been busily engaged getting the world's series games from Washington.

Hon. Zeb Vance Long addressed a large crowd of Ramseur people here at the school building last Friday night on the issues of the present campaign.

Mr. R. C. Burgess and daughter, of Kildes, were attendants of Sunday school and preaching here Sunday.

Rev. J. A. Leibetter, pastor of the Christian church here last Thursday night. Mr. Leibetter is a preacher of splendid ability and true messenger of the Gospel.

Messrs. Emory and Seagraves, of Durham, were here last week on interest of building a hosiery mill here. Quite an encouraging amount was subscribed and the promise of this addition to our industrial business is bright. We hope that it will soon be an established fact.

Mr. A. T. Holton, of Grand Rapids, has recently taken charge of Ramseur Furniture Company as superintendent in place of Mr. C. M. Brown, who has bought the Fleta Lumber Company and will engage in the lumber business. Mr. Holton is a native of Randolph being the nephew of "Old Dr. Holton" who is remembered by the older people of Ramseur. We welcome Mr. Holton to our city and wish for him a most satisfactory life among us.

The Christian Ladies Aid Society met with Mrs. Sam Reitzel Wednesday afternoon. Business of the Society was carried out, one item especially, the decision to hold a bazaar at the gymnasium the first Saturday night in December. Don't forget the date. After adjourning from business a delightful course of refreshments was served by Mrs. Reitzel.

The M. E. Ladies Missionary Society of this place gave a most delightful entertainment at the home of Mr. W. H. Watkins last Friday night. Each guest was asked to bring a penny for each letter of his name which resulted in something like $19.00. Interesting speeches were made by the pastor, W. L. Scott, and others. Amusing games were enjoyed by all and delicious cream, cake, minis etc. were served. Besides a large local attendance the following out of town guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Watkins, of Greensboro; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Watkins, of Troy. The evening was one of enjoyment and profit to all.

Mrs. C. S. Tate delightfully entertained the Ladies Aid Society last Wednesday afternoon. A splendid program was rendered by the Society consisting of scripture quotations. A beautiful composition on "Love" was read by Mrs. W. L. Scott. A solo by Miss Mordecai Crowell was enjoyed and the regular business of the Society handled. When adjourned from this session the hostess, assisted by Mrs. C. A. Graham and Miss Crowell, served a salad, saltines, whipped cream, salted peanuts, block ice cream and fruit cake. The occasion was one of profit and enjoyment to all who attended. A very interesting ghost story was told by Miss Vera Steed.

Lycum Course Coming To Ramseur

The Piedmont Bureau of Asheville will give four programs at Ramseur beginning October 29th at 8 o'clock at the school building. This splendid entertainment will consist of lectures, readings, piano, violin, saxophone, etc. orchestra numbers. One of the best features of the musical program will be the Bell Ringers.

We hope there will be a large attendance at all of these entertainments as they will be of a very high type of platform work that will be enjoyable and profitable to all.

Celebrates 50th Birthday

A dinner in honor of Mr. Frank Johnson's 50th birthday was given at the home of Mrs. A. A. Johnson, of Greensboro, last Sunday. Many guests were present and the occasion was one of enjoyment to all.

Arrangements are being made to install a wet wash laundry in the near future for Franklinville and Deep River Towns. We feel that this will be a great convenience to our people as trucks will call and deliver all laundry. Mr. C. F. Henson, who has had two weeks' training in one of the best laundries in Greensboro, will have charge as manager.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church will hold their regular and talent meeting Sunday evening, 19th, at the home of E. A. Thomas. A full attendance is desired as there will be an election of officers and other important business. Good seats will be served.

Several of our people attended political speaking at the school auditorium Thursday evening. We were glad to have the county officers and several of our friends from Asheboro with us. Hon. Zeb V. Long delivered one of his best speeches on the achievements of the Democratic party in the county, state and nation.

Two literary societies were recently organized by the high school students. The officers in the boys' society are as follows: President, Herbert Fox; Vice President, Cletis Slack; Secretary, Robert Hughes; Treasurer, Lindley Alfred; Constitution Committee, Clarendon Moffitt, Cletis Slack and William Curtis; Query Committee, Ray Alfred, Dawson Hughes and Robert Barrison.

The school bus No. 9 for Franklinville high school was brought to Franklinville Thursday afternoon and is now operated by Clarendon Moffitt to bring the school children of Fair Grove public school district to Franklinville. We are glad to have this consolidation. The high school department now numbers 52, which entitles us to another teacher. Mr. S. E. Griffin, who has been teaching the 7th grade has taken charge of 9th grade. Miss Nettie Moon has the 8th grade. Miss Lena Grimes, of Franklinville, has been secured for the 7th grade. Miss Lena Belle McLennan, of Durham, a graduate in piano and voice at Durham Conservatory of Music, has taken charge of the music class. We now have three whole time high school teachers and seven teachers in the elementary grades. Plans are being talked of a new school building, a modern brick structure, fully equipped to take care of not only the children of Franklinville but also the children of the surrounding community.

A marriage of interest to Ramseur people occurred at Richmond Thursday afternoon at 5:30, October 16th, when Miss Janet Bratton, of Staunton, Va., became the bride of Mr. Roy B. Moffitt of Ramseur and Greensboro.

The couple preferred a quiet ceremony so arranged for at the First Presbyterian church at Richmond. The ministers name was not learned, but he is a North Carolina man. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Moffitt left for a southern tour, embracing Florida, Havana and other places of interest.

The bride is the popular and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bratton, of Staunton, Va. She spent two years here as a member of the Ramseur graded school faculty, rendering the best of service in the work of the departments under her care and making for herself a large page in the life of the community and enjoying the possession of friends by the scores.

Mr. Moffitt is one of our home boys, a young man of sterling qualities and holding a responsible position with the A. & Y. Railway at Greensboro. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Moffitt. His friends are many at this place and other places where he has spent some time as student and in railroad service. The future residence of these young folks is unknown to the writer at present but we hope they will make Ramseur their home. Their friends wish for all the best things of life.

Tom Tarheel says he and his neighbors depend more on what they can do for themselves than on what the Government can do for them. For instance, all the cotton stalks in the community are being plowed up as fast as the cotton is picked out this fall.

Mr. Simeon Parks, formerly a resident of this county, but now living at business at Laurinburg. He states on business matters. Mr. Parks is engaged in farming and in the lumber business at Laurinburg. He states that the cotton crop in Scotland county has been badly damaged by the recent heavy rains and will be cut in half.

Mr. Park's eldest daughter, Mrs. Essie Carmichael, has been ill for the past six weeks following an operation for appendicitis and has been under the constant care of physicians and nurses. She is gradually improving, however, and her recovery is now anticipated.

While in the county, Mr. Parks attended the funeral of an uncle, Mr. J. B. Parks, who died at his home at Pisgah Monday, and was buried Tuesday at the old family cemetery near the Parks' home.

Red Spiders did much damage to cotton in north Carolina this year. "They winter on violets, polk weed, and Jerusalem oak and later spread to the cotton. Destroy the host plants and there will be little trouble from these insects next year."

"Careful Cal" the Cautious farmer

Careful Cal, the cautious farmer, is a man of great renown when he farms for fifteen minutes. It is told the whole world round. Once a year for fifteen minutes. Each one sixty seconds long. Careful Cal, the cautious farmer, farms amid a busy throng; All dirt farmers just like he is, Fifteen-minute farmers they, And they crank their movie cameras, Watching Calvin rake the hay.

Careful Cal, the cautious farmer, Always thinks things over twice, Always asks the other farmers, Always waits for their advice, There's farmer Mellon—poor but honest, Deacon Slemm—a farmer, too, Farmer Stearns, the Baked Bean Farmer, All dirt farmers through and through.

And in the evening when the work is done Careful Cal the cautious farmer, Enters through his humble door, Farmer Stearns and Neighbor Mellon, And Deacon Slemm all gather round, And advise our cautious Calvin How to plow and seed the ground.

So they sit there in the twilight, And they talk until it's night, Then Careful Cal, the cautious farmer, Rises up to light the light. And he lights the polished Oil Lamp and the Oil lamp light shines fair And it FALLS upon their faces— FALLS upon their faces there.

Careful Cal, the cautious farmer, Always thinks things over twice, Always asks the other farmers, Always waits for their advice; He must first ask Neighbor Mellon, Deacon Slemm and Farmer Stearns, And all three of them advise him, While the OIL lamp smoothly burns.
