CONSIDER JOE, CHIMPANZEE. EDUCATE THE EDUCATOR. THE SINS OF THE CHILDREN. MEAT EATERS RULE.

Joe, the chimpanzee, is a very interesting creature. He is very intelligent and can be taught to do many things. He is very affectionate and loves to be with his people. He is very curious and likes to see new things. He is very strong and can do many things that we cannot do. He is very funny and likes to play. He is very brave and will stand up for his people. He is very loyal and will stay with his people until the end. He is very kind and will help his people in any way he can. He is very honest and will tell the truth. He is very generous and will share his food with his people. He is very hardworking and will do anything for his people. He is very patient and will wait for his people. He is very forgiving and will not hold a grudge. He is very understanding and will try to understand his people. He is very loving and will love his people with all his heart. He is very devoted and will be devoted to his people. He is very faithful and will be faithful to his people. He is very obedient and will obey his people. He is very respectful and will respect his people. He is very polite and will be polite to his people. He is very clean and will keep himself clean. He is very neat and will keep his quarters neat. He is very tidy and will be tidy. He is very organized and will be organized. He is very efficient and will be efficient. He is very effective and will be effective. He is very successful and will be successful. He is very happy and will be happy. He is very content and will be content. He is very satisfied and will be satisfied. He is very pleased and will be pleased. He is very proud and will be proud. He is very dignified and will be dignified. He is very noble and will be noble. He is very brave and will be brave. He is very strong and will be strong. He is very powerful and will be powerful. He is very wise and will be wise. He is very intelligent and will be intelligent. He is very knowledgeable and will be knowledgeable. He is very experienced and will be experienced. He is very skilled and will be skilled. He is very talented and will be talented. He is very gifted and will be gifted. He is very talented and will be talented. He is very gifted and will be gifted. He is very talented and will be talented. He is very gifted and will be gifted.

The Government, which found so many billions for the care of other people in Europe, ought to find a few dollars for building the canals that this country needs. One canal would unite the Lakes and the Mississippi Valley with the Gulf and the Pacific via Panama. Another canal for ships unite the Lake country with the Atlantic. "Every big American city a seaport" should be our motto.

Within twenty-four hours, a girl of fourteen, sold by her father to herself to death. An eighteen-year-old boy, beaten by his father, killed himself by turning on the gas.

Strange that man, said to descend from the "higher apes" for some animal like them, should treat his own children with a brutality of which no gorilla, orangutan or chimpanzee was ever guilty.

Modern medicine turns an ancient truth upside down. In Florida, 25th chapter 251, says you are told that the health of the fathers is visited upon the children into the third and fourth generation.

Now the crime of the child is visited upon the father. Albert Leeb, whose son killed the Frank's boy, is dead, killed by sorrow and disgrace. That should satisfy the bloodthirsty that demanded "somebody hanged."

Have you noticed how little men seem to think about their souls while they are alive and how much they think about what will happen to their bodies after they are dead? A corpse left behind is no more to be pitied than a pair of worn-out shoes thrown away. Let men of power, from the Parson that built the first pipe of the hollow reed to the man with his concrete grave have worried about their bodies.

The question interesting to some thinking of death should be "Where do I go from here?" not "Who is going to steal my body?"

George Bernard Shaw, self-appointed Vice-Royal of Omnipotence, thinks little of most sages. He's wrong. He says "Animals fed on barley have conquered half the world." Perhaps so, but men that eat meat RULE THE ENTIRE WORLD. Don't forget that.

COMING OF THE NEW PASTOR

N. C. Christian Advocate. It is wonderful what a tidal wave of church attendance and fresh interest attend the coming of the new preacher. Mere curiosity and a renewed interest in the church blend in a surprising fashion.

Old aches Comforted at last No matter how obstinate, long-standing and acute, Sloan's gives quick positive relief. Pat it on gently. At once you feel a glowing warmth as freshly purified blood is sent tingling through the infected spot. Then—in no time—release from pain. All druggists—35 cents. Sloan's Liniment—kills pain!

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotals, the nauseless Calomet tablet, that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it acts like magic, by far more effective and certain than the old-time salicylate, heretofore recommended by physicians. One or two Calotals at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotals are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the vest-pocket size; thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted—adv.
