Road Experiment

The state highway commission is experimenting with a dustless proposition on a short stretch of route 68 from Greensboro to Sanford in the month of July. This stretch was made two weeks ago and it has been excellent.

Will Mondell Succeed Work?

In Washington the talk is that Frank Mondell, who recently resigned a fat job as managing director of the War Finance Corporation, is to be named by President Coolidge to succeed Dr. Hubert Work as Secretary of the Interior. It has been rumored for some time that Dr. Work intends to resign before the end of the summer. Mondell is one of the men characterized by the late President Roosevelt as a porch-climber and a humbug. Yet the administration seems perfectly willing to continue to find him a place on the "Lame Duck" roost.

Short Courses in Agriculture

The School of Agriculture at State College will begin this fall a series of short courses especially for farmers. Specialists in many fields of agricultural work will direct the courses which will be intensive and designed to give the most instruction in the shortest possible time. The courses will vary in length from a few weeks to three months. Correspondence courses will also be continued.

DIMINISHING EARTHQUAKES. NO THIRD TERM. MUST THE STRIKE COME? THE HEN, PIG AND COW.

California earthquake reports dwindle down, as was predicted. Five times as many deaths in a small section of a big Eastern city, due to some disease outbreak, would attract no attention. Those that know California know that this misfortune of a moment will be wiped away, made up and soon forgotten. It will not check California's growth by as much as an hour.

The Italian earthquake in 1915 killed 19,973, and in 1908 earthquakes in Italy killed 76,482. Italy has volcanoes in addition to earthquakes, yet nobody says "I shall not go to Italy." A dozen killed in California, and "vicious publicity" makes of the event a GIGANTIC DISASTER.

Some Wall Street gentlemen organized a little panic based on Santa Barbara's earthquake and now wish they hadn't. They sold short California stocks, oils, rails, etc. But real finance knows that compared to the total wealth of California, the property destruction in Santa Barbara is like losing one nail in a nail factory. The stocks "snapped" back again, and the panic promoters had their fingers pinched.

The New York Times devotes part of its front page to "a third term for Coolidge."

There can't be any Coolidge third term discussion until after the President shall have been re-elected in 1928. He has been elected only once thus far. If, as is probable, he should be re-elected in 1928, that would be his SECOND TERM and the right time to begin talking of a THIRD term.

When Washington was President and an aggressive editor was... ambition, a... people working... of an... didn't want an... Washington answered that when he refused to be elected more than twice.

Third term talk now should be postponed by sensible people until about 1930. Meanwhile, there is plenty of work for the people to do without worrying about distant issues. If the President carried the nation successfully through his FIRST elected term, without serious mistakes or setbacks, he will have rendered a great service to the United States, and the people of his party, not being idiots, will ask him to take charge for four years more.

A great coal strike threatens here, as a similar strike threatens England. Mr. Lewis, leader of coal miners, and owners of mines should think it over carefully.

To force a strike, when the people are willing to pay a fair price for coal based on fair wages, is folly and the intelligence of organized money should find a way to prevent it.

The man responsible for the success of the coal miners' union knows that this is not the best time for strikes, and he will avoid THIS strike, if in any just way it can be done.

Insurance authorities, that ought to know, deny flatly that cancer is hereditary. Nature protects the unborn child. Study of thousands of cases proves that the disease is not inherited, also it is NOT CONTAGIOUS. Unlike consumption and other diseases, you cannot "catch" cancer from its victim. It is important to have this known.

Missionaries to Africa take a tame menagerie, including chickens, pigs, cattle and goats. As they travel, the missionaries will observe how these interesting animals all represent EVOLUTION. The White Leghorns and Rhode Island Reds come from jungle fowl. Cows are improved sisters of the auroch, the buffalo, or the zebu. The pigs have their relatives scattered from the tapirs in North America to the large, big-headed mast hog of the jungle, or

Davidson Co. S. S. Convention

The Davidson county Sunday school convention will be held next Tuesday and Wednesday, July 21 and 22, at Beulah Reformed church, six miles north of Lexington. An interesting and instructive program has been arranged.

Julian Woman In Court

Mrs. Ida Jones, arrested last Thursday on charge of running a disorderly house at Julian, was put under a suspended sentence of thirty days and required to pay the costs in the action in a hearing held Saturday at Greensboro. Mrs. Jones plead guilty to disorderly conduct. Her two daughters were placed under supervision of the welfare department.

The eight or ten witnesses called in the case could not give any specific instances of disorderly conduct, but testified that many cars came and went from the Jones home and that loud laughing and talking sometimes kept up until late hours in the night.

Duke To Extend Lines

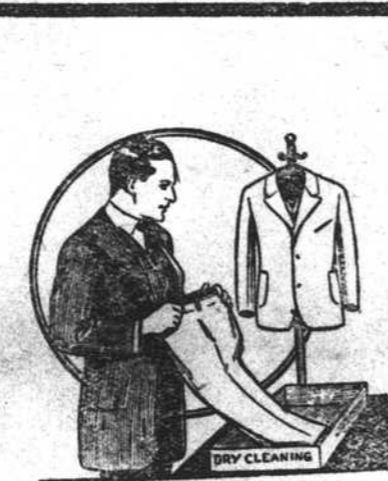

It has been announced from Charlotte that J. B. Duke will begin immediately the extension of the Piedmont and Northern Railroad Lines from Charlotte to Winston-Salem via Concord, Kannapolis, Salisbury and Lexington. The citizens along the route will not be asked to subscribe one cent of stock, it is said, and all that Duke asks is the cooperation of the business men in the territory to be touched by the proposed lines. The proposed extension will require the outlay of from ten to fifteen million dollars.

THE SOUTHERN SERVES THE SOUTH Millions for necessities but none to spare for luxuries Railroad profits are limited by law, and rates are fixed by the Government. In no other large business is so great an amount of capital risked for so small a return as in railroad transportation. The new money put into a railroad, therefore, must be profitably employed, either in increasing capacity for service or in effecting economies of operation. The Southern, never yet able to control all the new capital its management would be pleased to invest, necessarily has to give preference to productive improvements, such as yards, shops, engines, cars and tracks. But it is because it has devoted its resources to necessities—rather than non-productive improvements like monumental passenger stations—that the Southern has been able to keep its service abreast of the demands of the territory it serves.

PRODUCTS of accepted merit THERE is something very substantial about "Standard" products. A business-like simplicity that is a sure sign of honest merchandise. No frills. No fancy containers. No far-fetched inducements to buy. Why should there be? They are products of long standing, of accepted merit. They are bought by people who know quality and appreciate it. They are made by men who have been in the game all their lives and whose fathers were in it before them. STANDARD OIL COMPANY (New Jersey) "STANDARD" GASOLINE
