

News From The Deep River Towns

Ramseur, Franklinville, Randleman, Coleridge, Central Falls and Cedar Falls

CEDAR FALLS BAND WINS FIRST PRIZE IN CONTEST

Was Held At Community House—Funeral of Little Marie Allred.

Franklinville, August 3.—Marie, the 6-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Allred, of Greensboro, died at their home at Revolution Tuesday morning and was buried at Pleasant Cross Christian church Wednesday afternoon. Burial service was conducted at the church by Rev. J. E. Woosley, pastor of Grace M. E. church, Greensboro.

The Betterment Association held a very interesting meeting at the Community House Friday evening. Program in part consisted of recitations and instrumental and vocal music. Plans were completed for opening a community library. Miss Katherine Buie was appointed librarian. It was decided that the Association will hold their annual picnic at Nixon's Mill, on Sandy Creek, Friday, August 21st.

The best concert of the season was given at the Community House Saturday evening. There were several more people than could be seated. Six string bands entered the contest: Cedar Falls, Franklinville, Central Falls, Pleasant Garden, Gray's Chapel, and Worthville. While the judges were making their decision, the Proximity band, Greensboro, delightfully entertained the crowd. The bands all made good music. Cedar Falls won 1st prize; Gray's Chapel 2nd; and Central Falls 3rd. We are glad to learn that they expect to give another concert this fall.

The revival meeting began at Pleasant Cross Christian church Sunday. Rev. Wm. Edwards, of Seagrove, is assisting the pastor, Rev. W. C. Martin.

L. C. Frazier is spending a few weeks at the home of F. J. Marra, at Newark, N. J.

T. F. Jordan and family visited relatives in Raleigh last week.

C. E. Henson, B. R. Chaney and Misses Nettie and Esther Moon attended the 32nd Piedmont Baptist Association at Fairmont church, near Reidsville, last week and report the largest attendance in 10 years.

David Holliday, of Greensboro, spent last week at home with his parents.

Mrs. M. L. Buie was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Vestal, at Hamlet, the past week.

Mr. Clarence Ware, one of the Bridge Crew, has moved his property to Reidsville.

Miss Lillie Slack is visiting relatives in High Point this week.

Mr. J. Harper Erwin spent a part of last week at Hertford with Mrs. Erwin and Jesse, III, who have been on a two weeks' visit to their grandmother, Mrs. Geo. D. Newby. They will return this week.

It is understood that Wm. Henry Welch, who was seriously injured by an automobile on July 2nd and since which time he has been confined in Memorial Hospital, Asheboro, is recovering satisfactorily and will be home in a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Birkhead and Mrs. J. W. Wolff, of Asheboro, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Buie Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Clark spent the week-end in Durham. Mrs. Clark will remain for a few days visit.

Mr. William Hardee, of Stem, was the guest of his brother, Dr. E. B. Hardee, Sunday.

Mrs. Ada Smith and Mr. Jack Witherington, of Vanceboro, visited Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Moss Saturday and Sunday, returning Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. Moss who will spend some time with her mother.

Mr. Robert Garrison and Mr. Fred Burgess, who have been attending the summer school at the University of Virginia, returned home Saturday where they will spend the rest of their vacation.

Mr. E. B. Hardee and T. O. Leavister made a business trip to Greensboro last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Grimes, of High Point, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Grimes this week.

Mr. B. F. Craven and Mr. Clifford Craven, of Greensboro, spent Saturday in town.

Mr. Tom Buie, of High Point, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Buie.

Dr. George Sumner, of Asheboro, spent Sunday with Mr. D. S. Sumner.

Mr. A. P. Routh made a business trip to Burlington Sunday.

Mr. Charles Buie, of Troy, was in town Sunday, returning late Sunday afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Kiche, who has been at home for a few days vacation.

Mr. Olen Wrenn, who is working at High Point, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wrenn.

Mrs. T. I. Fox and son, Herbert, made a business trip to Greensboro last Friday.

E. M. Curtis and R. C. Curtis visited Miss Rosa Bray, at Thomasville, one day last week.

Miss Helen Carroll, of Raleigh, is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. T. H. Ormand.

Mrs. W. A. Martin and children are visiting friends and relatives at Troy this week.

Mr. Howard Frazier and family, of near Kildes, spent Sunday at the home of H. B. Buie.

Mrs. Corine McKinnon and children were the guests of her son, George McKinnon, at Aberdeen, Saturday and Sunday.

Lillian Burrow, of Asheboro, and friends and relatives here were the guests of her mother, Mrs. L. H. Burrow, at Troy this week.

Two hundred farm boys and girls from the State College for Agriculture, at Raleigh, spent the week-end here at the Community House.

AT HAMLET

Fletcher and Worth Allred left Monday for West Palm Beach, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Husband and Master Charles, William, are the guests of C. H. Julian, this week.

C. C. Curtis and C. M. Prevost have accepted a job of carpentry work at High Point with H. P. Black.

W. H. Wrenn and family spent Sunday at the home of Henry Allred, on Route 2, Asheboro.

Miss Louise Matthews, of Randleman, is spending the week with Mrs. Dorothy Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lutterloh spent Sunday at Randleman.

Mrs. L. H. Curtis, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter King, of Cincinnati, Ohio, the past few weeks, has returned home.

Miss Elizabeth Fox is a visitor in Randleman this week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Thomas and Master Paul, of High Point, were the guests at the home of Peter Allred Sunday.

The Franklinville Sunday school convention will be held at Franklinville M. E. church next Sunday, August 9th, at 9:45 a. m., instead of date mentioned two weeks ago. It is hoped that every Sunday school in the township will be represented. Dinner will be served on the lawn.

Miss Mary Lyndon Sherwood Gains Fame as Dancer

The Greensboro Daily News in its Sunday's issue carried the picture of Miss Mary Lyndon Sherwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Sherwood, of Randleman, together with a sketch of Miss Sherwood's accomplishments in interpretive dancing. Miss Sherwood is studying dancing with Mrs. Londmilla Nicholavonia Vassilieva, formerly of the Russian Imperial Ballet, in Elenede Sayn School of Violin and United Arts, of Washington, D. C.

Miss Sherwood is the author of a number of interpretive dances and recently wrote a dance phantasy that was presented by her rhythmic dance pupils. She appeared in a Spanish solo dance in Chauve-Souris, a Russian performance by Vassilieva, which was presented at Asheville Monday.

A number of our little folks attended the string band jubilee at Franklinville last Saturday night, reporting a splendid program.

ICE CREAM SUPPER AT COLERIDGE SCHOOL HOUSE

To Be Held Next Saturday Night—Rev. W. H. Willis Holds Meeting.

Coleridge, Aug. 3.—The meeting at the M. E. church is still in progress, and the people here are enjoying the splendid sermons by Rev. W. H. Willis, of Asheboro, who has been with us since Sunday week.

The Coleridge Manufacturing Company is giving its employees a ten-day vacation beginning Monday of this week.

Several from Coleridge attended the funeral of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Colon Scott, in Randleman, Sunday.

Mrs. F. C. and Miss Blanche Caviness were shoppers in Greensboro Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Porter, of High Point, spent Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. J. M. Brooks.

Messrs. Ether Ward, of Greensboro, and "Bill" Craven, of High Point, were week end visitors in Coleridge.

Mr. Roy Whitehead, of Winston-Salem, spent one night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Whitehead here last week.

Mrs. Florence Cheek and children, of Proximity Mills, Greensboro, are spending a few days with relatives and friends in Coleridge.

Mrs. H. F. Starr returned last week from a few days visit with relatives in Greensboro.

An ice cream supper and box party will be given at the school building here Saturday night. Everybody is invited. The proceeds will be used for completing the well at the M. E. parsonage.

GRAY'S CHAPEL NEWS

There will be a singing at this place every Wednesday night until the protracted meeting which begins the fourth Sunday in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith, of Asheboro, spent a few days this week at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Sheron.

Misses Harriet Foster, Evelyn Walker, Edna Foust and Mr. John Lineberry motored to Melver Sunday.

There will be a lawn party at Mr. G. W. Pugh's Saturday night. Everybody is invited.

Misses Lema and Corda Underwood and Messrs. Alpha Lackey and Cecil Pugh motored to Candor Sunday.

The annual meeting begins at Bethany Sunday under Rev. Trolinger, of Randleman, and the pastor, Rev. A. O. Lindley, of Julian.

Little Roberts Underwood is recovering from the mumps.

Why McNairy Lost His Job

The trustees of the Caswell Training School, at Kinston, issued a statement in Sunday's papers giving the reasons why Dr. C. Banks McNairy lost his job as head of the institution. The troubles seem to have been financial. It seems from the statement made by the trustees that Dr. McNairy spent more money than was appropriated for the institution by the Legislature, and refused to listen to the suggestion of the trustees that someone else be employed to look after the finances of the institution.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC AT WINSTON FRIDAY

Ramseur Methodist Sunday School Planning Big Day—Local and Personal Mention.

Ramseur, Aug. 3.—The Methodist Sunday school is making plans to go to Winston-Salem Friday of this week to spend the day. They will take plenty of things to eat and will probably have a truck load of melons from the sandhills to meet them there. This will be a great day for the little folks as well as an opportunity for information for the entire school since they are going to visit the Children's Home.

Mr. Fletcher Cox and others went to Wilmington Saturday for a day or two.

Miss Pauline Johnson, of Rockingham, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson and Mrs. Wylie.

Rev. W. A. Elain and family left Sunday morning for Lilesville and Shelby.

Misses Lucy and Bessie Brantley are spending some time with friends at Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Marsh, of Greensboro, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Johnson.

Mr. R. E. Caviness and family, of near Coleridge, spent Sunday with Mr. D. E. Highfill and family.

Miss Madge Green, of Elon College, is spending the week with Miss Evelyn Williams.

Mrs. S. A. Caviness and family, of Greensboro, spent Sunday with W. E. Marley and family.

Mrs. Lilly Keck and child, of Greensboro, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sykes.

Mrs. E. M. Grady left for Orangeburg, S. C., Sunday morning after a few weeks' stay with her mother, Mrs. M. C. Ferree.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Clarke, of Durham, are spending some time here with Mr. and Mrs. Sykes.

Mrs. Joe Denson and others, of Greensboro, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart.

Rev. D. A. Highfill, of Liberty, spent last week here with his son, Mr. D. Edgar Highfill, and family.

Miss Ruth Sykes was the guest a few days recently of friends at Durham.

A number of our little folks attended the string band jubilee at Franklinville last Saturday night, reporting a splendid program.

SOME OF W. J. BRYAN'S FAMOUS UTTERANCES

"You shall not press down upon the brow of labor this crown of thorns. You shall not crucify mankind upon a cross of gold."

From speech in Chicago convention of 1896, which won the first of three presidential nominations: "I represent the women and children of America whom your damnable traffic would slay."

Answer to Heckler in pleading for dry plank before resolutions committee of 1920 convention in San Francisco: "My heart is in the grave with our cause. I must pause until it comes back to me."

Comment after defeat of 1920 dry plank: "I would rather have the anathemas of those misguided democrats than to have answer on judgment day for duty disregarded and a trust deserted."

From speech in New York convention of 1924 against platform denunciation of Ku Klux Klan by name: "When we take the Bible away from our children, there is nothing left. The evolutionist that guesses the most times is the best scientist."

From his last speech, made at Winchester, Tenn., Saturday: "Any atheist, agnostic, unbeliever can question me at any time as to my belief in God and I will answer him. The Bible is good enough to live by and die by."

LIBERTY NEWS

Dr. J. F. Amick, of Marion, Ind., and Miss Joy Amick, of Knoxville, Tenn., are visiting at the home of Dr. F. A. Shepard.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Henley, of Durham, are spending this week at Kinesville Lake.

Miss Madie Heitzel, of Komorock, Va., visited Miss Bertine Shepard Saturday and Sunday last week.

Mrs. Daphne Bowman Crofts and young daughter have been visiting Miss Lora Bowman.

A delightful Children's Day program was rendered at the M. P. church the fourth Sunday night. Much credit is due Messadames Charlie Smith and Jack Crowson and Misses Lora Bowman and Bertine Shepard for their faithful work in training the children.

Rev. and Mrs. Paul Kennett and little daughter are spending their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Neppen.

SOPHIA, ROUTE 1, NEWS

Mrs. Eliza Armstrong Cox, of Whittier, California, preached an able sermon at Marlboro Friends church last Saturday.

Mrs. Jennie Welborn, of Archdale, attended monthly meeting at Marlboro Saturday.

Mrs. Eliza Edwards and daughter, Cora, motored to Pinehurst and Candor Thursday. They brought back some fine peaches and melons.

A large number of the people in this section attended the revival meeting at John Wesley Stand Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Saunders, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday afternoon at Mrs. Eliza Edwards.

Miss Clara Davis leaves Tuesday for a few days trip to Washington, D. C.

Thieves entered the garage of Mr. Carl White last Thursday night and stripped his car of new tires and left their old tires in place. No trace of the thieves has been found.

A number in this section spent Friday at Jackson Springs.

Messrs. Willis and Garland Beeson, and sister, Miss Edna Beeson, are attending summer school at Asheboro.

Miss Della Tucker, of Stokesdale, visited in this section recently.

Cards of Thanks

We desire to express our appreciation and thanks to our neighbors and friends for their many acts of kindness and sympathy shown during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father.

Mrs. A. C. Jackson and Children

WHY NOT ITEMS

This section was blessed with a good rain Monday night, the first in some time. Lightning set an outhouse on fire on the farm of C. E. Stuart, but with a few buckets of water and the rain it was extinguished.

The Sunday School convention of the Why Not circuit was largely attended.

Little Miss Mary Lilly, of Greensboro, is spending the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Auman.

Edwin Hughes, of Asheboro, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Cagle.

Dr. A. C. Dixon, president of the M. P. Conference, gave us two splendid sermons Sunday. The special meeting is in progress at the church this week.

Mr. J. H. Spencer is improving from his recent illness.

Mr. Ross Alred, who has been ill, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Auman visited Mrs. Hugh York, at Ramseur, last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Cora Vuncannon and children, Annie Grace, Paul and Milton, of High Point, are spending this week here.

Mrs. L. E. Cagle and children, of Greensboro, and children, James, Margaret and Harold, were week end visitors to relatives in this community.

Mrs. C. E. Stuart spent last week in Raleigh at the farmers' and farm women's convention and visited her daughter, Miss Hester Stuart. She was accompanied by her son, V. E. Stuart.

Misses Edith and Lois Beck, of Hemp, are spending this week with their cousins, Misses Eva and Jewel Lawrence.

Mrs. H. E. Cagle and daughter, Susan, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Cagle. They will leave soon for Detroit, Mich., to join Mr. Cagle, who has a position there.

SEAGROVE NEWS

A series of meetings will begin at the Christian church next Sunday, August 9th, with all-day services.

Mrs. B. A. King is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cole, at Eagle Springs.

Mrs. Cora Vuncannon and children, of High Point, are visiting at her brother's, Mr. J. E. King, and attending the meeting at Why Not.

Miss Grace Auman spent the week end at Hemp.

Miss Oberia Leach is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Walker, at Hemp.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivey G. Thomas, of near Thomasville, spent the week end with Mr. A. C. Harris.

Miss Bess Walker, of near Asheboro, is visiting Misses Hazel Auman and Lena Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hulin, of High Point, spent the week-end with their parents.

Miss Canary Johnson spent a few days of last week in Asheboro.

Mr. Carl Smith spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Smith.

Mrs. D. A. Cornelison returned last Thursday from a visit to California. On her return she stopped over in Denver, Colo., with her cousin, John Redding. Then in Madison where she had the pleasure of being with her father's only living uncle, Abram Redding, who left Randolph county about 40 years ago. He has an interesting family. In Olatha, Johnson county, she visited her cousins, the children of Mr. A. C. Bush, of Seagrove. His son, Shad Bush, and family accompanied her to Olatha where she met John Steeda, Mr. Rodgers and Gus Henley's family, all former Randolph folks.

Miss Hattie Leach and little Billy Hughes spent last week at Mr. Frank Auman's.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Cornelison left last Friday for Wilmington and Carolina Beach. They returned Monday. Mrs. Cornelison has visited the Pacific Ocean, The Great Salt Lake and the Atlantic Ocean in the last three weeks.

COMMENTS OUTSIDE

Norris Keweenaw and Ed. Guilford county farmer, attended outside early Tuesday morning at his home two miles east of Hillsboro. He was blown out of his house with a powerful wind storm.

Rev. and Mrs. Paul Kennett and little daughter are spending their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Neppen.

PRONG OF UWHARRIE IS DRY FOR FIRST TIME

Miss Ina Royals Bride of Carl Teague, of Staley—Personal Items.

Trinity, August 3.—Miss Ina Royals, daughter of Mr. June Royals of North Trinity, was married a few days ago to Mr. Carl Teague, of Staley. Mr. Teague is a prosperous business man of Staley. Mr. and Mrs. Teague have gone to spend some time in Washington, D. C., and before returning will visit the northern cities, and probably Niagara Falls.

The road hands have reached the school building. Work is progressing well.

Lee Royals has moved his store farther up street. Clyde Coltrane, we understand, is a partner. From all appearances they will do a prosperous business. A meat market will probably be added by fall.

The road force is now working the old Johnson road running east from Trinity.

Miss Eleanor Craven is spending some time at Ridge Crest, North Carolina.

A sister of Mrs. George Craven visited her last week.

The Sunday school is in a most prosperous condition here. At last quarterly conference Mr. Webb Meredith was made Sunday school superintendent in place of Charles Osborn, resigned.

The east prong of the Uwharrie went dry for a few days. The little rivulet failed to move for the first time in the memory of those who live on her banks.

Grass in the yards, unless kept up by artificial means is dry, rustles under one's feet—it seems pitiful.

Mrs. Jim Anderson, of Willoughby Beach, Norfolk, Va., visited on Johnson Street Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Swain visited friends in town Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Swain live in Thomasville.

Mr. Walker, of High Point, well known in Trinity, attended church here Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Lewis Welborn spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Johnson of North Main.

Miss Jewel Parkin, of Thomasville, was in town Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Harris preached to an attentive audience last Sunday morning.

FLINT HILL NEWS

The people in this section were delighted to see the recent rain.

Rev. Penn filled his regular appointment at this place Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Elwood Farlow, of Sophia, spent Sunday at Mr. Lewis Spencer's.

Quite a number from this section attended the camp meeting at Wesley's Chapel Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Farlow, of Trinity, spent a short while at J. M. Canoy's Sunday evening.

Mr. Byron Redding, of High Point, visited home folks last Sunday.

Misses Lola and Golda Farlow spent the week-end at home.

Mr. Walter King and children and Mrs. Frank Bunting spent one day last week with Mrs. J. W. Farlow.

Miss Della Tucker, of Stokesdale, who is attending summer school at Achievement!

Mabel Clara Orr of Blackwell, Okla., is the only woman oil well drilling contractor in the world. In eight years she has built up a big business—spending most of her time in the oil fields with her staunch army of workers.

Asheboro, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in this section.

We are glad to know that Miss Omata Fulk is still improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Farlow, Misses Lola and Golda Farlow spent Sunday at Willomoo Springs.

Miss Fannie Croker, of High Point, visited her aunt, Mrs. Benj. Lanier, during the week-end.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Redding, recently, a daughter.

We understand a tent meeting is to begin at this place next Friday night. Rev. Samuel Nelson, of Greensboro, is to have charge. Rev. Nelson was reared in this community and is the son of Rufus Nelson.

All Secretaries Urged to Send in Reports

As the county Sunday school convention is to be held in Concord church at Farmer, August 18-19, it is very important that township secretaries send in their reports and pledges at once. Please send to Miss Lollie Jones, Asheboro, N. C., Assistant Secretary.

Wins Prize

Thomas E. Conrad, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Conrad, of Salisbury, and nephew of the late D. F. Conrad, of Lexington, received notice Saturday that he had been awarded the $1,000 prize awarded annually by Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. Garven, of New York, to the college student in the United States who writes the best essay on some phase of chemistry. Mr. Conrad expects to use the money paying his expenses at the University of North Carolina.

Kearns-Wood Reunion

The Kearns-Wood family reunion, which has been an annual affair since 1919, met at the court house in Asheboro last Saturday. While there were several present there was not as large a crowd as usual on account of a misunderstanding about the date and place. A number of interesting talks were made and a sumptuous dinner was served.

Coble-Allred Reunion

The 12th annual reunion of the Coble and Allred families will be held at Coble's church, in Guilford county, N. C., 11 miles southeast of Greensboro, and 6 miles north of Julian, on Wednesday, August 12, 1925.

Hon. A. L. Brooks and others on the program, string band and vocal music. Everybody invited. Bring a well filled basket.

Collects Large Sum

Commissioner of Revenue R. A. Doughton in a statement released Monday discloses that the automobile department of his office has collected approximately $347,000 more this year for automobile license taxes than were collected for the same period last year. Gasoline tax has run $56,000 more.