Mayor Asks People To Be Careful of Fire

Would Be Especially Disastrous If Fire Should Break Out In Town With Water Scarce.

Governor McLean has declared this week to be a week of fire prevention which is especially applicable to Asheboro at this time owing to the scarcity of water. Mayor McCrary asks that the people of Asheboro do all in their power to prevent a fire until the water crisis is over. The property in town is in danger, and everybody is asked to be extremely careful. The Mayor and all the city officials are doing all in their power to keep enough water to run the factories, but should a bad fire occur it would of necessity shut down the fachurt business in the town. We have church. good, loyal firemen, and good equipment, but our firemen cannot do much without plenty of water. It is hoped that our people will realize the hazardous condition of all property in town, and exercise every means possible to prevent a fire.
