

RANDOLPH STUDENTS FORM CLUB AT H. P. COLLEGE before his appointment to the cabinet

The students and faculty members of High Point College from Randolph county have organized a county club. The object of the club are to work financially and otherwise for the coled on account of impurities found in lege and to create a spirit of close the water. Of the samples taken, that fellowship among those in school from from Bush Creek was the only water found available for use. It is now a question of whether the town will vice president, Mr. Floyd Garrett; secretary and treasurer, Mr. George Ferree; reporter, Miss Jewel Hughes.

For the past few weeks the town FIRST MONTH OF SCHOOL has had to rely solely on its wells and SHOWS GOOD ATTENDANCE the McGrew mine south of town. There

The first month of the local school has ended and Mr. W. H. McMahan, superintendent, is pleased with the splendid attendance and the general progress of the school. Work has begun in earnest and teachers and pupils are co-operating in making a Streams around Asheboro that have good start for the school year. never been known to go dry before in Grades Seven A, Eight A and Nine the memory of the oldest inhabitants are dry. Richland creek is practically A have made the excellent record of having no absences and no tardies.

dry. There is none at Henley's pond none at Humble's mill. The South SINGING CLASS AT METHODIST fork of Richland creek is dry and both PROTESTANT CHURCH SUNDAY prongs of Little River at the Duke

The singing class, composed of four-teen bright girls and boys from the Methodist Protestant Children's Home, at High Point, was at Flag Springs The wheels of his car locked and Sunday afternoon and at the Metho- skidded across the road heading into dist Protestant church in Asheboro a telephone post which damaged one mer being eliminated on account of Sunday night. They were accompanied of the fenders on the car. by Rev. E. G. Lowdermilk, Superin-

John M. Cox, aged 70 years, died at his home in the Sandy Creek section Wednesday of last week. Funeral services were held at Gray's Chapel church Thursday afternoon and interment made in the church cemetery. He leaves his widow; one daughter, Mrs. Dora Thomas, of Liberty; two two great grandchildren. Pallbearers at the funeral were Mr. Cox's grandsons, Charles, Howard, Garny and Kineth Thomas, and Foye and Wesley Cox.

John M. Cox Dead

Flower bearers were Mrs. Charles Thomas, Mrs. W. P. Julian, and Misses Ruby Cox, Gertrude Brown, Mary Brown, Tilda Hardin and Dorothy Thomas.

Dr. Hamlin Has Narrow Escape

Dr. J. J. Hamlin, of High Point had a narrow escape from car wreck and probable personal injury near Asheboro Sunday when his automobile skidded in an effort to avoid a collision with an automobile driven by a Dr. Hamlin had to apply the boy. Dr. Hamlin had to apply the brakes to avoid a headon collision.

post assistant secretary under Weeks. Any man whose father or grandfather Civil War is eligible for membership.

members after the charter is received. Franklinville buried him with fitting Reunion of Lewallen Family October 25th than words the high esteem in which community. There will be a reunion of the descendants of Jonathan and John Lewallen held at the home of Thomas Asheboro just west of Route 70, the entered the Confederate army at the CONFERENCE IN ASHEBORO fourth Sunday in this month. All rel- age of 16 years and fought in many atives by blood or marriage are invited to come and bring with them York, of Central Falls, July 28, 1867, well filled baskets for the picnic dinner and to this union were born eight that will be spread at noon. There children, one of whom died in infancy. will be devotional exercises and a He was a brick mason by trade.

invited to be present.

was the great grandfather of Thomas Lewallen, at whose home the reunion will be held October 25th. Jonathan Lewallen was to crandfather of Rev. Henry Lewaller. History has it that the sons of both Jonathan and John Lewallen served their country in the

of High Point, the pastor.

grandchildren.

of her community.

colonies.

Revolutionary War. It is probable that two other sons of Mashack, Tom and Thomas, were killed in this war late Nezeriah McDaniel, died at the Etc, Mrs. E. P. Wharton. while in the service of the struggling cemetery. This spoke more plainly he was held by the people of the falls the heaviest. Mr. Allred was the son of the late Aaron Allred and was born on the Lewallen, about three miles south of old plank road north of Asheboro. He DISTRICT PRESBYTERIAN battles. He was married to Miss Flora Meets In Local Presbyterian speech by some good speaker. All He had lived in Ramseur for many friends of the members of the families years and his congenial Christian disrepresented at the reunion are also position, integrity, honesty and brotherly love had endeared him to the peo-Jonathan and John Lewallen were ple of the community. He was a memsons of Mashack Lewallen, who came ber of the Ramseur M. E. church sevto America from Scotland before the eral years. Before moving to Ram-Revolutionary War together with his seur he was a member of the M. P. two brothers, Ham and Shem, and church, at Giles' Chapel, but later settled in this county. John Lewallen moved his membership to Ramseur. He was a faithful member of the Masonic frateraity and the brick masons' union.

ceremony at his old burying ground

MRS. MCDANIELS DIES AT HOME OF HER DAUGHTER

Mrs. Sallie McDaniel, widow of the 11:20-

striving to fulfil his duties as a liam Sidney Beeson, of Randleman, father, husband and citizen. He was R. F. D. One daughter, Mrs. J. S. served the Confederacy during the at Giles' Chapel. A large crowd of formerly employed in the office of the Ridge, died a number of years ago. Southern Express Company, but had Besides the children who survive, been for more than a year with the there are 27 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren.

Funeral services and interment of the family goes out to them in were at Marlboro Friend's church on their sorrow, and especially to the Monday afternoon, Rev. R. H. Melyoung widow, upon whom the blow vin, pastor of the church conducting the service. A large number of relatives and friends of the family attended. A long and useful life on earth has ended and one of joyful service in heaven has begun.

MR. WINNINGHAM SERIOUSLY ILL NEAR CENTRAL FALLS

The Second District Conference of Mr. M. L. Winningham suffered a stroke of paralysis early Tuesday morning at his home near Central tomorrow. There will probably be Falls. He had been in ill health for more than one hundred and twenty- two years and last November had a five visitors. This district comprises stroke of paralysis. Since that time Randolph, Guilford and Rockingham he has been indisposed. Early Tuescounties. Mrs. Walter L. Whorton, of day morning Mr. Winningham took Greensboro, is chairman. The pro- his dog and went down in the field hunting for o'possums. As he did not return promptly and upon hearing the dog barking as if he had found something Mr. Winningham's son, Artemus, went down and found his father lying on the ground in a serious condition, which has not improve Mr. Winningham's entire left side 10:25-Standard of Excellence, Mrs. is involved, and little hope is entertained for his recovery. Mr. A. R. 10:50-Rally Day, Study Classes, Winningham, a son who has been in Okeechobee City, Florida, for the past people attended the service at the nome and an unusually large proces-Tucker Pressing Club. sion accompanied the remains to the The sympathy of all of the friends

Church Tomorrow-Expect 125 Visitors.

the Orange Presbyterial will meet in the Presbyterian church in Asheboro gram follows:

Theme: Soul-Winning. Morning Sessioh, 10 o'clock Hymn: "All Hail the Power of esus' Name." Devotional, Rev. Cothran Smith. 10:15-Welcome, Mrs. Currie Loflin. 10:20-Response, Mrs. K. C. Denny. E. E. Gillespie.

Presbyterial Secretaries and month arrived last night.

Mrs. Thomas H. Matthews Dead

Mrs. Thomas H. Matthews, aged

38 years, died at her home in. High Point Sunday morning following an illness of two years. Prior to her marriage she was Miss Daisy Farrabee, of the Abbott's section. She was a sister of Mr. John Farrabee, a res-

M.E. CONFERENCE

Get Still in Back Creek

Williams place eight miles from Asheboro are dry. Gabriel's Creek, never left from which water is available are

Deep River and Bush Creek, the forimpurity.

erefore, the only streams

old copper mine two and one-half miles north of town. This was turned down, however, when it was discovered that there was too much iron and copper in the water. Samples were taken from Deep River at Cedar Falls, but this source too was reject-make the expenditure necessary to is enough water in reserve in the city ponds for use in case of fire, but none to use for drinking purposes. Unless the drought continues for weeks longer, the present sources will supply drinking water, but will not furnish enough for manufacturing purposes.

pump this water to Asheboro,

Will Underwood, Fletcher Humble and Oliver Willard captured a 45gallon copper still in Back Creek thickly wooded section some distance tions.

from any road. Water had been hauled to the still from quite a distance by means of a barrel strapped to a sled. The sled was stopped at a distance from the still and the water car-ried to the still itself, the operators having worn out a smooth path between the two points.

A CORRECTION

In the article in last week's issue of The Courier it was stated through error that W. B. Trogdon was elected president of the Trogdon Historical Society at a meeting of the Trogdon family in the court house at Asheboro the Sunday previous. W. F. Trogdon, of North Wilkesboro was elected president and not W. B. Trogdon.

CHARGES MADE AGAINST CONVICT CAMP BOSS

N. C. Cranford, Convict Boss in Stanly County, Under Fire Following Investigation.

ceived.

charges and if there is anything to them will ask an indictment against Cranford next November term of court. The county attorney and the county superintendent of welfare deny the truth of the statements of cruelty. Cranford is a native of New Hope township, Randolph county, a son of the late Nathan Cranford. He was at one time employed as guard for the county convict force during the years Randolph had such an institution. His work in this county was considered highly satisfactory. He has been sup-emintandent of the Stanly county chain rang for several years. Not many pears ago charges of cruelty were hade anniast Mr. Cranford and he

on. However, after harges were found was reinstated. Low temperatures prevailed all over the north, east and west and moved south as far as Florida. Morning, "The Promise of the Father"; Evening, "The Divine Vis-itor." tendent of the Home, and Miss Ruth THE SANDHILL FAIR AT Vuncannon, who is a teacher in the PINEHURST OPENS 27TH school at the Children's Home. The church was crowded and the children The Sandhill Fair, at Pinehurst, will reflected honor upon themselves and open October 27th and will last to upon those who trained them. A varand including the 30th. The fair mantownship last Saturday afternoon. The still was not in operation at the time, agement has spared no time and expense in making this the greatest of but showed evidence of having been in joyed. The offering amounted to continuous operation for some time. $35.00. The local church has adopted program is replete with interesting There was neither beer nor liquor at the plan of making monthly offerevents. One of the fair's many feathe still, but all the containers were ings through the Sunday school and tures will be the historical pageant. there ready for another run. The still the Woman's Home Missionary Society Mrs. J. K. Wood, of Asheboro, has was located on the top of a hill in a has always made generous contribucharge of the costumes in this stupendous production. Complete details of the fair will be published in next WILL HAVE WHITE week's issue of this paper. SINGING CLASS OF OXFORD WAY BY JAN. 1ST orphanage will be in Asheboro next auditorium. The singing class from this orphanage has been in Asheboro The town authorities have signed a many times and is always greeted by contract with the Carolina Power and a large audience and it never disap-Light Company for the installation of points. A large crowd is expected Asheboro's white way. The authori-ties have also contracted with the the county are especially urged to be the equipment for the white way. This equipment has to be built to order and it will be probably about the first of the year before complete installation is made after the equipment is reern in every respect and will be a fall. Six meetings have been conduct- State, according to the county com- came due, but instead of taking up thing of beauty, the equipment being ed, not including the Asheboro meet- missioners, could not meet the obliga- the notes with this amount have spent

Signs Contract With Carolina Power and Light Co.-Equip-. ment Purchased.

Overman, in the Marley's Mill section, Treasurer. seven miles east of Ramseur, early last Wednesday morning, after an ill-AN INVALID FOR 26 YEARS ness lasting about nine months. Fun-MRS. NANCY MALINDA POUNDS eral services were conducted at Moon's Dwight Wynn. Chapel Baptist church Thursday af-Mrs. Nancy Malinda Paounds, wife of J. M. Pounds who died at her home City, and Rev. W. A. Elam, of Ramthe Sandhill Fairs. Every day of the at Cedar Falls September 25, last, was seur, and interment was made in the born June 18, 1841, in Guilford coun- church cemetery.

ty, and had been an invalid for about Mrs. McDaniel had been a member 1:35-Method twenty-six years prior to her death. of Moon's Chapel church for more R. E. McClure. She had been a member of the Cedar than 50 years. Mrs. McDaniel before Falls Baptist church since October, her marriage was Miss Sallie Scog-1890, from which the funeral services gins, of Gulf, having been born Feb. were conducted by Rev. J. M. Hilliard, 11, 1836. In the year 1885 she was married to Nezeriah McDaniel and to

She leaves her husband and four that union were born five children, hildren, who are, J. L. Pounds, of who survive, as follows: Sam McDan-Asheboro, and Mrs. Florence Loflin, iel, of Ramseur, and J. C. McDaniel, Miss Minnie Pounds and Rudolph of Greensboro; and Mrs. W. M. Mar-Pounds, all of Cedar Falls; and four ley, of Ramseur; Mrs. C. F. Overman, of Ramseur, Route 1; and Mrs. J. N. Mrs. Pounds was a consistent Chris- Burgess, of Pomona. Mrs. McDaniel tian woman and despite her long con- was a loving mother, a faithful church finement was always cheerful and in- member and a friend and good neighterested in her family and the affairs bor to all who were so fortunate as to know her.

terest. Were "Refunding" Bonds Issued in Good Faith Or To Provide For Extravagant Spending? DR. ANDERSON, AGED

The $185,000 which the county bor- short term notes included the $185,000 rowed in October of last year and borrowed for the State.

loaned to the State Highway Commis- It is understood that the commission for the construction of Route 75 sioners set aside the sum of $185,000 The writer has closed his evangelis- from Asheboro to the Chatham county from the proceeds of the $500,000 bond members of the family had arrived in Silent Prayer, followed by hymn, response to a summons to come to the bedside of Mr. Winningham. "Open My Eyes".

11:35-Missionary Address. Rev.

Prayer for Missions. Adjournment for Lunch. Registration. Afternoon Session, 1:30

Devotional. 1:35-Methods of Bible Study, Mrs.

1:55-Building Spiritual Life in the Auxiliary, Mrs. Chas. Myers. 2:15-Self Denial and Loyalty Day, Mrs. Cothran Smith.

2:35-Report of Montreat School of Missions, Mrs. E. P. Wharton. 2:55-Voluntary Prayer that Church Budget May be Raised.

3:00-Rural Church Problems Open Discussions.

Closing Hymn. Benediction. Meeting of Executive Committee. The ladies of Asheboro are invited at 11:35 which will be of unusual in-

NOW IN SESSION Holding Meeting at Statesville-

ident of this county.

-Will Vote on Unification During the Week.

The pastors of the M. E. churches to attend the meeting. Rev. Dwight in the Western North Carolina con-Wynn will make a missionary address ference gathered yesterday in Statesville for the thirty-ninth annual session. Among the pastors from this county attending are Rev. W. H. Willis, pastor of the Asheboro M. E. PHYSICIAN, IS DEAD church, Rev. O. P. Routh, of Central Falls, Rev. G. W. Clay, of Farmer, Following a stroke of paralysis and Rev. W. A. Elam, of Ramseur. with which he was stricken about a Mr. Willis has closed his third week ago, Dr. A. Anderson, a well year as pastor of the local church. known and prominent physician died The conference allows only four Asheboro's white way will be mod- tic engagements for the summer and line came due last Saturday. The sale to pay off the Route 75 when it at his home in Denton yesterday consecutive years at one charge. As morning at the age of seventy years. far as is known, Mr. Willis' pastorate He was born and reared in Davie has been satisfactory to the members county, but moved to Denton in early of his church and he will be most intendent for Stanly county, is under fire. Mrs. Kate Burr Johnson, State Commissioner of Charities and Wel-

Commissioner of Charities and Wei-fare, has sent to the judge of the dis-triet and to the solicitor a report based on the findings of J. E. Whiley, pris-from the intersection of North Fayetiteville and sup Street, below the postoffice, and on camp inspector. All kinds of crustizes and irregularities are charge ed against Cranford in the report. One charge is that he tide a side pris-troit will excitate that is any point in the Standard argged him to death. Solicitor Phillips has stated that he will make an investigation of the will make an investigation of the so constructed that if may be added to as the finances of the town will per-the will ask an invitement against t. A little history is connection with non-section with how and body over the body of the source has a section of the present board of county coming source has been doub, were before at any one time. Latter any one time, Latter any one time. Latter any one time, Latter an Westinghouse Electric Company for present. Admission charges will be fifty cents and twenty-five cents.

ORPHANAGE TO BE HERE 19TH

The singing class of the 'Oxford

Monday night, October 19th, and will hold its exercises at the graded school