VOLUME LI

Asheboro, N. C., Thursday, October 21, 1926

NUMBER 42

THE COURIER

Advertising Columns

Bring Results

McLean To Speak In Asheboro 28th

Could Not Get Here Saturday
As First Stated—To Speak
At 7:30 O'clock.

Gastonia Is Host To Methodist
Preachers—Bishop Mouzon
Is Presiding.

Owing to a change in his itinerary, urday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock as announced last week. He will speak, however, in the court house in Ashe-1926, at 7:30 o'clock. This is just Mouzon has presided over a religious one week from today.

Governor McLean has been greeted wherever he has been in the State on and he is recognized as one of the his speaking tour with large audiences. At Lexington last Saturday the ination. court house was filled to overflowing The Western North Carolina Conand hundreds who had gathered to ference is one of the largest in the hear and see the Governor were not connection, only the Virginia and able to get in the building so large North Georgia having more members.

ing to the average voter. He tells in and its first session held that year simple and convincing terms of the in Concord. It began with a memprogress that has been made in the bership of 56,524 and 130 pastoral State during his, administration and charges. The reports of the preachof the savings effected by the budget ers in charge of the conference held system which he put in operation at in Statesville last fall indicate that the beginning of his term of office. during the 36 years of its existence ties of his office it was freely pre- 136,302, and pastoral charges to 294. dicted that he would be a "Business Last year the conference raised for Governor" and the record he has the support of the ministry, presidmade justifies this title.

Every person in the county regardless of political affiliation is extended a cordial invitation to come to Asheboro next Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock to hear the Governor speak. Randolph is one of the few counties of the State that will have the pleasure and opportunity of hearing the Governor during this campaign.

Mrs. James L. Winningham Wins Prize At Convention

Mrs. James L. Winningham, a ham have resided in Greensboro for years ago when they moved to Thomasville. The Courier expects to copy Mrs. Winningham's story later.

DEEP RIVER (M. E.) CHARGE

The pastor of Deep River charge was pleasantly surprised on Monday evening, before leaving for the annual conference at Gastonia on Tuesday. Just after supper his friends at the Central Hotel, where he had been boarding during the year, showered him with neckties, handkerchiefs, etc. for which he feels grateful. My stay among the people of Central Hotel has been very pleasant and this thoughtfulness on their part is highly

M. P. CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

A Splendid Workers Council of our Sunday school was held at the home of Miss Bertha Presnell on Monday evening. Many things were discussed looking to the betterment of the school.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference will be held on Thursday evening of this week at 7:30 o'clock at the church. The new carpet for the church has come and definite promise has been given by the company making the pews that they would be shipped the first of this week. George Ross, Jr., of Jackson

Sermon subjects for next Sunday are: Morning, Joyful Christians; Evening, A Gospel of Comfort. The public is cordially invited.

MASTER JOHN JOE KIVETT DIES IN GREENVILLE, S. C.

John Joe Kivett, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kivett, of Greenville, S. C., died yesterday. News of the death of the little boy was wired to his aunt, Mrs. Fred J. Phillips. The little fellow hears the name of his uncle, John Kivett, who was killed in France during the World War.

Misses Bertha, Hicks, of Biscoe.

Craven And Dr. Winners In In the gasoline conducted last Sa the Randolph Moto boro, Mr. Pearl Conducted War.

High Point Has A New

M. E. Conference In 37th Session

The thirty-seventh annual session Governor A. W. McLean will not be of the Western North Carolina Conable to speak in Asheboro next Sat- ference of the Methodist Episcopal boro Thursday night, October 28th, ing. This is the first time Bishop body in this state but his reputation has preceded him to North Carolina

It was set off from the North Caro-The Governor's message is appeal- lina conference in the fall of 1890, When Mr. McLean assumed the du- the membership has increased to ing elders and pastors $566,648; for missions and benevolences, $197,662; orphanage, specials, etc., brought the grand total raised for all purposes in 1925 to the princely sum of $2,198,-315. The conference owns four educational institutions, Davenport, Weaver and Rutherford colleges, and Dropped Distance of 40 Feet in Jefferson high school. In addition to these it is joint owner with the North Carolina conference of Duke university and Greensboro college. These institutions own physical equip-ments valued at $11,827,249, with an endowment of $15,443,404. This does not take into consideration that of member of the Randolph Chapter U. new Duke university provided for in born and reared in Asheboro and has always retained her membership in the local chapter. She was the daughter of the late Stanley Steed, who lived where the negro school house now stands. During Mrs. Winningham's girlhood the larger part of the town was around the old court house which stood near where the Gulf Filling Station now stands at Gulf Filling Station now stands at the bishop will likely read some the intersection of Salisbury and Old time Monday. There are twenty min-Main streets. Mr. and Mrs. Winning-isters and one presiding elder who have served a full quadrennium in the past thirty-five years until six their present charges. According to the law of the church a pastor may be returned for a longer period of time than four years, but a presiding elder cannot. Two of the larger churches which have had their pastors for four years, it is understood, are asking that they be returned for another year. These are Central, Asheville, where Rev. Ashley Chappell is pastor, and Wesley Memorial, High Point, where Rev. E. K. McLarty is pastor. Rev. W. H. Willis, pastor of the Asheboro church is among those who have served four years and he will move.

On Sunday afternoon a memorial ession will be held. Rev. N. R. Richardson whose tragic death occurred near Salisbury, will be sulogized. He served the local pastorate several years ago and was well and favorably Revs. Edens, G. W. Clay and others serving churches in the county are also in attendance.

HARRISON HICKS DIES

Harrison Hicks, aged 20, died sudenly at the home of his mother, Mrs. W. B. Hicks, in Biscoe Monday. The young man was in early life a victim of infantile paralysis but in spite of physical handicap he was mentally bright and alert and promised to be one of Biscoe's leading citizens. His Springs, united with our church last father died several years ago and his Sunday evening. Opportunity will be given the next two Sundays for peo- her time and devotion to her son. She ple to unite with the church. Forty left Sunday afternoon for Atlanta for persons have been received this year. a few days visit to her daughter and received a message of her son's sudden death soon after arriving. funeral service was conducted the body was taken to Raleigh

> Surviving are his mother, three sisters, Mrs. Reid Garrett, Atlanta, and Misses Bertha, Minnie and Julia

Craven And Dr. Edwards

Winners In Mileage Contest Winners In Mileage Contest
In the gasoline mileage contest conducted last Saturday morning by the Randolph Motor Company, Asheboro, Mr. Pearl Craven, of Coleridge, driving an open model 1926 Ford won first place having gotten 49.7 miles from one gallon of gasoline. In the closed car class, Dr. M. G. Edwards, of Asheboro, driving a 1926 model Ford coupe, won first place with 34.4 miles. There were nine cars in the contest the lowest mileage with 34.4 miles. There were nine cars in the contest, the lowest mileage gotten by any of the nine was 29.6 miles by a Ford touring car, 1926 model, driven by R. A. Gaddis, of sheboro. Each of the winners was resented a balloon tire by the Rand-

Twice daily, pretty Virginia Allen wears knickers to school at Jeffersonville, Ind., and each time she is sent home. School author-ities claim her dress immodest— Virginia's mother plans injunction saying knickers are more modest

Charles Frye, 34, Killed By Fall

Well and Landed on Tub-Buried Yesterday.

Charles Frye, aged 34, of Ulah, was killed Tuesday afternoon when he fell a distance of forty feet into the bottom of a well which he was helping dig on the place owned by Milmember of the Randolph Chapter U.
D. C., received the prize given for the best true story of "A Confederate Christmas" at the U. D. C. convention held in Fayetteville last week.

The prize was $10 given by the James B. Gordon chapter, of Winston-Salem. Mrs. Winningham was born and reared in Asheboro and has always retained her membership in always retained her membership in always retained her membership in the well conference owned church buildings and parsonages worth $11,
The conference owned church buildings and parsonages worth $11,
The conference is divided into 11 presiding elders' districts with Rev.

J. B. Craven in charge of this, the Greensboro district. These 11 leaders of the church will compose the bishlard Dawson, near Ulah. Death was in Brower township, Sunday. instantaneous. Frye was ascending Mrs. Clarinda Kearns, of Troy, is nettsville, S. C.

4 o'clock by Rev. John Hulin, and interment made in the church cemetery.

Honor Roll First Month For Asheboro High School

Following is the honor roll for the first month of the Asheboro school. To make the honor roll the student must make a grade of 90 or above on each subject and 95 per cent or more Happenings of Week in Various on deportment and attendance.

Grade 1 A: Willie Beane, James Hutson, Vernon Lethcoe, Amos Tysinger, Virginia Hutson, Clara Oz-

Grade 2 A: Curtis Jordan, Genevieve Smith, Walter Bunch, Wilson Cranford, Gladys Miller.

Grade 2 B: Edward Allred, Joseph Cox, James Lowdermilk, Charles Moore, Bickett Prevost, Lester Way, Madonna Cagle, Cornelia Hedrick, Pauline Hogan, Eva Jackson, Caroline SUDDENLY IN BISCOE Page, Cleo Pugh, Mary Rollins.

Hogan, Lewis Pritchard,

Grade 4 A: Ila Bunting, Ollie Mae Brown, Emma Gray, Rebecca Hedrick, Gladys Humble, Mildred Hurley, Eleanor McCain, Dorothy Osborne, In eleven souther Elizabeth Phillips, Ruth Prevost, Annje Gilbert Ross, Jewel Skeen, Hallie drews, Thomas Bulla.

Grade 5 A: Edith Allred, Reba Clarke, Hilda Cranford, Frances Grifrelson, Martha Kearns, Frances Robbins, Helen York, Clyde Burkhead.

Rich, Eldon Cox, Waldo Cheek. 11th Grade: Jacksie Brooks, Pauline Steed, Irene Kearns, Beatrice Lowder-milk.

Little Miss Ruth Smith, Aged 10, Died Monday

Miss Ruth, the ten-year-old daugh-ter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Smith died at the home of her parents near Central Falls Monday evening follow-ing an illness of about a month from family resided in Asheboro until a few months ago when they moved but still have a grocery store in Ashe-boro. Ruth was a member of the boro. Ruth was a member of the city school and was a most estimable young girl, quiet and unassuming in manner and thoroughly conscientious. The funeral service was conducted at Level Cross by the pastor after which interment followed.

Surviving are her parents, three sisters, Mrs. Etta Miller, Ersie and Eva and five brothers, Robert Smith,

Crazed Negro Is

Has Succeeded In Escaping Pur-suers—Revival Meeting At Near Randleman—Funeral

Farmer, Oct. 18.-The crazed nedeputies and by citizens of the com- of Asheboro, yesterday afternoon. The His dog returned home Friday night. school when the accident occurred. His wife is better and will recover.

Lewis spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lank, at Ramseur.

Miss Margaret Battle spent the week-end in Greensboro with friends.

Sullivan Gets Two Years

Rev. G. W. Clay went to Gibsonville today to conduct a funeral service for a friend. He expects to leave ed home much improved.

ducted by the pastor, Rev. C. L. by the defendants.

Gregory, and Rev. Lewis McFarland.

According to Su There will be services at eleven o'clock and at night.

Misses Tula Morris, Vera McLeod, and Hope Hubbard attended a Sunday school convention at Antioch church,

Mrs. Harris Kearns and son, Alton, spent Saturday in Greensboro. They were accompanied home by Mrs. The funeral was conducted at Flag Kearns' daughters, Misses Hazel, a Springs church of which Mr. Frye student at N. C. C. W., Greensboro was a member yesterday afternoon at and Juanita, a member of the graded school faculty of Liberty. Miss Pattie Webb, also a student at N. C. C. W. visited Mrs. Kearns. The young ladies returned Sunday.

Vews Condensed For Busy Reader

Parts of Country Told in Short Paragraphs

Jack Davis, legless man of Wake county, will serve twelve months in the State prison for larceny of aluminum from the Carolina Power and Light Company, at Raleigh.

Miss Bettie Thomas, 70, died at her home near Pittsboro one day last week following a lingering illness.

John Dowd, 94, one of the oldest Grade 3 B: Lillie May Goins, Etta and wealthiest citizens in Moore coun-Lee Hogan, Lillian Sykes, Clinton ty, died one day last week. He is William survived by eight children, among whom are W. C. Dowd, Biscoe; C. Dowd, Candor; and Mrs. Katherine J.

In eleven southern states last week 53 persons were killed and 204 injured in traffic accidents. North Thomas, Virginia Williams, Inez Carolina led the list with 16 killed Wright, Howard Allred, Worth An- and 27 injured. Louisiana had nine this section a few weeks ago and Democrat thought of nominating or Glenn Price, serving two years in fin, Eleanor Hammond, Evelyn Har- the penitentiary following conviction inspectors have found anywhere in the office again. Mr. Lovett is one on charge of violating the prohibition the State. It is blue in color. The of the most popular young Democrats laws, sent up from Guilford county, rock in Poll Beck mountain two miles of the county. 7th Grade: Lucy Clyde Ross, Edith was last Saturday pardoned by Governor McLean.

> During the month of September there were 118 deaths from violence in North Carolina. Automobiles were the State's greatest killer, having taken a toll of 41 lives. Drowning ranked second with 17 lives. Eight were killed in railway accidents, 11 from burns and the rest distributed among accidental gun shots and homi-

Little Lamb Girl Still At Large Killed By Truck

Today At 2:30 O'clock.

Davine Lamb, the seven-year-old gro, Alex Jones, who tried last week daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George to kill his wife, is still at large today Lamb, who live near White Hall Serday (Monday). In spite of repeated vice Station, was killed by an oil searches made by the sheriff and his truck which was driven by Earl Cox, munity, he has not been located. Some little girl with her sister and two of think he has left the neighborhood, Mr. C. A. Eades' children had gotand others believe that he is sick or ten out of the school truck which dead in some out of the way place. was returning from Randleman

According to reports one of the Mrs. Nora Kearns spent last week Eades children had crossed the road visiting her brother, Mr. H. G. Las- and Davine attempted to cross in siter, in the Oak Grove community. front of the oil truck and was struck Mr. A. L. Hill and family and before brakes could be applied. She Miss McCargo spent Sunday with rel- was killed instantly. Mr. Cox picked atives and friends in Winston-Salem. her up and says she breathed only Misses Sanborn and Priester and once. A coroner's inquest was held Mr. McLeod spent Saturday in High and Mr. Cox was released upon the Point shopping.

| Misses Sue Morgan and Margaret voidable. The funeral will be con-

On Charge Forging Checks

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sullivan faced this week for Gastonia to attend the Judge D. C. McRae in municipal Western North Carolina Conference. | court, High Point, last Friday on Mrs. Van Cranford left today for charge of passing worthless checks in Gray's Chapel where she will teach a dozen towns and cities in North Carolina, including Asheboro. Sulli-Mrs. J. W. Luther, of Pipe, who un- van and his wife pleaded guilty and derwent an operation in High Point Sullivan was sentenced to serve a Hospital three weeks ago, has return- term of two years on the county roads. Mrs. Sullivan was given a sus-A series of meetings will begin at pended sentence of six months. Appeal was made to the Superior court peal was made to the Superior court

According to Sullivan's admission, he and his wife have been passing Hickory.

FORMER RANDOLPH MAN MARRIES IN HILLSBORO

The following announcement will be of interest:

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Atkins Rose mond announce the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Grace, to Mr. Andrew MacMaster Browning on Satur- ty in his district with the ability closed with good success. There was day, the sixteenth of October, 1926, Hillsborough, N. C.

Mrs. Allan Browning formerly of this county. He is a grandson of the ters, of Asheboro.

Mrs. Lewis Williams Died

five months she had been helpless.

Mrs. Williams was a conscientious Christian woman and a faithful mem- the State senate. ber of Sandy Creek Baptist church. She was held in high esteem by all who knew her.

husband and two brothers who live eral assembly by virtue of draft havin the Western States. She was a ing been made on him by the recent the young people. great aunt of our townsman, W. L. Democratic convention. Moser has Foust, whom she reared.

yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at various important committees and where has been wholesome. May the Sandy Creek Baptist church and in- especially his being placed on the blessings of heaven be his in his new terment made in the church cemetery. prison investigating committee dem- location.

GOVERNMENT INSPECTORS FIND GOOD BUILDING ROCK hold his ability.

Have Been Making Investigations In Bennett Section-New Pastor Christian Church.

throughout this section are busy har- Weatherly, and Mr. Weatherly and vesting bountiful crops. J. E. Jones is the first farmer in this community to have his corn husked with a machine and found it most satisfactory ability and fitness for the office to in every respect.

killed while Virginia had no fatalities. found large quantities of good build- voting for anybody except Lovett for ing stone. The stone found is large clerk after Mr. Weatherly had made in size and is quite the hardest the known his intentions of not seeking east of Bennett seems to be the best rock found in this section. This mountain contains about 25 acres and contains enough stone to quarry MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION for several years.

Rev. E. A. Livingtons preached to a large congregation at White Oak school house Sunday afternoon. Rev. J. C. Kidd will preach in the

E. Jones as president.

John S. Daniel, 63, died at his home in Thomasylle Monday night. He is survived by his widow and six children.

Despite the relentless warfare which has been waged against it diphtheria is on the increase in the State, according to the State Board of Health.

Dr. R. Y. Winters, director of the agricultural experiment station at State College, is authority for the statement that cotton seed produced in the State this year is of very poor grade. He finds the inside kernels poorly developed

Friend of Forest

A. W. Laird of Potlatch, Idaho president of Western Forestry Conservation Assn., and head of committee that called on President Coolidge to discuss the problem of saving our great national wooded lands—that are facing destruction.

Democrats Present

Men in County-Each Man Well Qualified.

Democratic party presented to the even temperament and amiable disvoters of Randolph county a stronger position made her an outstanding worthless checks for twelve months. ticket than that which will be voted The last work which he did, according on November 2nd. Each place on the to his statement, was August 30th at ticket bears the name of a man or men well qualified for the position sought at the hands of the voters of the county.

Solicitor Zeb V. Long

licitor. He has made himself popular with voters of both the Republican evening services. and Democratic parties in each counday, the sixteenth of October, 1926, which he has demonstrated in prose-Hillsborough, N. C. which he has demonstrated in prose-cuting for the State and his fairness tions and professions of faith in The groom is a son of Mr. and to all people. Long has no opposition. Christ. Thirty-four made application State Senators ate D. G. McMaster, one of Concord is well known to the voters of Rantownship's prominent citizens. He dolph county. He has served this good opportunity of working with is a nephew of Mrs. E. B. Steed, Miss district in the State Senate a number Bro. Elam, the very efficient pastor, Cora McMasters and H. W. McMas- of terms and when it is Moore coun- and his loyal people. Thanks also to ty's turn to put a candidate in the all Christians of Franklinville for field, McDonald is the man selected. their beautiful cooperation, As business man and legislator he Mr. W. R. Ferrell, wife, sister and Monday In Franklinville stands in the front rank. His run- two daughters, of Knightdale, visited ning mate is Neill McK. Salmon, of the pastor and family last Sunday. Mrs. Lewis Williams, aged 78 years, Harnett county. Mr. Salmon is a These are some of the good friends died Monday evening at her home young lawyer of demonstrated capac- we made while living at Wake Forest. near Franklinville following an ill- ity. His selection as candidate from We were happy to have them visit ness of several months. For the past the many able lawyers in Harnett us. county is evidence that he is well The B. P. U. Training Classes are

I. C. Moser I. C. Moser, "Ike" as his friends Mrs. Williams is survived by her house of representatives of the genonstrate the high esteem his fellow legislators in the general assembly

Will Lovett

For Clerk Superior Court W. A. Lovett is the Democratic candidate. Everybody in the county knows Will Lovett. He is deputy clerk under Bennett, Oct. 18.—The farmers that model of efficiency, D. M. every lawyer and person in the county who has transacted business in the clerk's office will testify to Lovett's which he aspires. Lovett had no op-Government metal inspectors visited position for the nomination. No

(Please turn to page 8)

WILL OPEN TRADE CAMPAIGN

The Merchants Association and number of business people of Ashe- as he was leaving for conference. boro have decided to put on a trade Baptist church here Sunday morning and at night. A B. Y. P. U. has been organized at this church with C. people co-operating believe that the E. Jones as president.

The Bennett Christian church called goods equal if not superior in price

Funeral For Mrs. Cole At Randleman

Died in Greensboro Monday-Was Daughter of Late Dr. W. A. Woolen.

Mrs. Laura Woolen Cole died at a hospital in Greensboro Monday morning following an illness covering a period of several years. She was the daughter of the late Dr. W. A. Woolen, one of Randleman's most prominent physicians. She married Mr. J. H. Cole, who was cashier of the bank in Randleman, in early girlhood. They lived in Randleman until about fifteen years ago when they moved to Greensboro, Mr. Cole accepting a position with Cone's Bank, at White Surviving are the husband and two sons, James H. and Robert E. Cole, Greensboro; the mother, Mrs. W. A. Woolen, Randleman; four sisters, Mrs. John H. Ferree, Danville, Va.: Mrs. John T. Council, Randleman; Misses Effie and Rosa Belle Woolen, Randleman, and a half sisters, Mrs. J. W. Long, Greensboro, survive.

The body of Mrs. Cole was brought to Randleman, the home of her mother, the funeral service being conducted from the residence Tuesday at 4 o'clock by Rev. J. F. Kirk, her pastor, of West Market Street Methodist Episcopal church, Greensboro. Interment was made in the family plot at Randleman with R. P. Bullard, W. B. Merrimon, W. B. Atwater, A. A Strong Ticket W. B. Merrimon, W. B. Atwater, A. B. High, Frank C. Boyles and C. E. Leak acting as pallbearers, and the Composed of Some of Ablest members of the board of stewards of West Market church serving in an honorary capacity.

Mrs. Cole was a most estimable woman and her relatives and acquaint-Never before in its history has the ances deplore the loss of one whose personage.

BAPTIST NEWS LETTER

Beginning Thursday evening of this week and continuing through the winter, Miss Ruby Honeycutt will Zeb Long is known to every voter meet our choir once a week for specin the county. He has served this ial practice. She will also have district one term of four years as so- charge of the choir each Sunday, directing the music for the morning and

The Franklinville revival services for membership in the Franklinville D. A. McDonald, of Moore county, Baptist church. It was a delightful privilege for the writer to have the qualified to represent this district in on this week. We have good cooperation. The pastor has charge of the Intermediates and Seniors. Miss Rilla Spoon is instructing the Junusually dub him, is candidate for the iors. After a seige of illness Miss Spoon is able to take her very important place in our church work among

Our fellowship with Rev. W. H. been down to Raleigh to represent Willis who is now leaving our town Funeral services were conducted this county before. His selection on to take up ministerial duties else-

> These are Sunday's subjects: Morning, "The Builder's Mind", evening, "The Profitableness of Scripture."

M. E. MATTERS

(W. H. WILLIS)

Mr. D. B. McCrary, Rev. L. T. Edens and the writer are attending the annual conference at Gastonia. Rev. C. G. Smith and congregation, and some members from other churches attended our closing service Sunday evening. Mrs. I. D. Wagger assisted in the Sunday school musical program Sunday morning.

A very acceptable gift from the Epworth League given by them Sunday evening, further endears them to the out-going pastor. Twenty-five Philatheas came to the parsonage Tuesday evening and gave their pastor a shower. Socks, handkerchiefs and other valuable articles, to the value of many dollars, are added to the writer's possessions. The Central Hotel guests and others remembered a fellow guest, Rev. L. T. Edens, with many nice gifts, During the present pastorate, about 4,000 visits have been-made, 283 people have been received into church, fourteen members have died, seventy-six couples have been married, and a beautiful church worth with its furnishings about $100,000

This year 82 people have been received into the church and $19,300

Celebrate 67th Anniversary