Dear Friends, we've planned a jolly time

Since Halloween comes once a year We're sending you this little rhyme To let you know we want you here.

The entertainment will be chaste The spoofs and witties will abound To measure everybody's waist Each inch a penny all around.

You know the good we do will live Then let us do the good we can The Lord for us himself did give And we must help our fellowman.

There will be a Halloween party at the Community House Friday evening, Oct. 29. There will be two booths—"Fortunetelling" and "Popcorn and candy". There will be many games, contests and prizes awarded. One part of the program will be the selling of the fortune cake.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Cranford Return From Visit To Ohio

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Cranford returned Friday from a three-weeks' visit to Mr. Cranford's brother, Mr. Hal Cranford, and his family in Toledo, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Cranford made the trip through the country in their automobile. While away they visited the cities of Ann Arbor and Detroit, Mich., Cincinnati, Ohio, Wheeling, West Va., Hagerstown, Md., Roslyn, New York, and New York City. They stopped in New York for a week, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bosson. They traveled through eleven states and covered a distance of about 3,000 miles, all which were hard surfaced with the exception of 200 miles and only had one puncture. Among the interesting features along the route were white crosses along the highways of Ohio. These crosses were erected where there had been a death by accident, automobile wrecks, railway crossings, etc. They served as a twofold purpose, as a memorial and for precaution to fellow travelers. Mr. and Mrs. Cranford say that these crosses bore the names of from one to five deaths and were placed on an average of every mile. They returned by way of the Shenandoah Valley through Virginia, visiting the taverns which were of intense interest. While in Roslyn, New York, they were guests of Mrs. Ida Lowe Hicks, a former citizen of this county and one whose interest increases in her home county. State and old friends as the years go by.

An Open Letter

PLANTER'S WAREHOUSE LEADS THE WINSTON TOBACCO MARKET OVER TEN DOLLARS PER THOUSAND POUNDS.

Dear Sir:

Since the tobacco market opened in Winston-Salem the price has advanced considerably, and we think NOW is the time to sell your good tobacco, as the market is not so crowded.

As usual PLANTER'S WAREHOUSE is leading in average, as we led last week with an average of $10.30 on each thousand pounds above the market averages. The farmers who are taking advantage of the high prices at our house have all been well pleased, so when you bring your tobacco to us you can have the assurance of high prices and our best efforts in your behalf. Our motto is "efficient service and courteous attention" and we think after you bring us one load you will be convinced that our force is all we claim it to be.

Last Friday our average was more than thirty dollars a hundred and it is not unusual for us to sell prices as high as fifty, sixty and seventy cents.

With these facts concerning THE BEST WAREHOUSE IN THE BEST MARKET IN NORTH CAROLINA, we trust sincerely that you will give us the opportunity of serving you.

Yours very truly,

Planter's Warehouse, Inc.

J. G. FLYNT, President.
