REPUBLICANS ELECT CRANFORD AND WARD

Usual Big Republican Precincts Find Their Majorities Badly Cut Down.

Official returns from Tuesday's election in the 29 precincts in Randolph county show that the Democratic nominees for county offices with two exceptions were elected by satisfactory majorities. Sheriff J. Free Cranford was re-elected over Arch N. Bulla by a margin of 36 votes. Cranford received 5,449 votes at the polls, while Mr. Bulla polled 5,413. Wiley L. Ward, one of the five Republican nominees for county commissioners, was elected over C. C. Bray, of Coleridge, one of the five Democratic candidates. Ward polled 5,504 votes, the largest received by any Republi-can county candidate, while Mr. Bray's vote was 5,463.

W. A. Lovett, Democratic nominee for Clerk Superior Court, polled the largest vote of any candidate on the Democratic ticket, getting 5,619 as against 5,285 for Frank M. Wright, a. clear majority of 334 votes. Mr. Wright's vote was the lowest of any Republican nominee for county of-

For Congress

For Congress from the Seventh North Carolina District, William C. Hammer, of Asheboro, incumbent, received 5,586 votes as against 5,410 for S. Carter Williams, his opponent, giving Mr. Hammer a majority of 176.

The largest number of votes polled by any Democratic county candidate in the election of 1924 was 5,594 for Lee M. Kearns for register of deeds. The highest vote Tuesday was 5,619 for Mr. Lovett. The Democratic vote cast Tuesday, however, averaged in the neighborhood of 5,500.

While the Democratic vote was a little lighter than two years ago, the Republican vote showed a decided ublican candidates in the election of 1924 polled about 6,-250 votes, while this year it was a little less than the Democratic vote, or a loss of about 750 votes.

Republican precincts which normally roll up big Republican majorities failed to do so Tuesday. In some of these precincts the majorities were less than half those of two years ago and in some instances only a third. On the other hand, many of the Democratic precincts which two years ago gave only small majorities returned Tuesday very flattering majorities for the Democratic ticket.

JOHNSON AND SAMPSON RETURNED TO DEMOCRATS

Every Congressman Re-Elected By Safe Majority—Hayes Badly Beaten.

On the basis of late returns from the 100 counties in North Carolina. the indications are that the Democrats held their own and probably will roll up a majority of 100,000 votes. The vote throughout the State was light. An even dozen counties went Republican, while the other 88 are safely in the Democratic fold. Tickets were split in several counties.

Over in Davidson the entire Democratic ticket was elected with the exception of Sheriff R. B. Talbert, who was beaten by Fred C. Sink by a small majority. Wilkes, usually Republican by 4,000 and over, went Republican Tuesday by less than 1,500. Davie and Yadkin showed decreased Republican majorities.

Two of the big upsets for the Republicans were Johnson and Sampson, both of which were carried by the Democrats. In Johnson, the Democrats, beaten by more than 2,000 twe years ago, rolled up a majority of more than 1,000. Sampson county, home of Marion Butler, usually Republican by 2,600, went Democratic by 260 majority, the first time in 32 years the Democrats have carried the county. The Democrats have had one continuous celebration in the county since Tuesday.

Johnson J. Hayes, Republican candidate for United States Senator, lost by nearly 100,000 votes to Senator Lee S. Overman. Only one Republican candidate for solicitor seems to have been elected and he is John R. Jones in this the 15th district had no oppo-sition. All the State ticket ran along
