NUMBER 46

HE COURIER dvertising Columns

Asheboro, N. C., Thursday, November 18, 1926

Courier's Great $3,000 Holiday Gift Distribution Campaign Starts Friday 93, Died Tuesday

Every Active Contestant Is Guaranteed Prize or Cash Award in Campaign.

SIX GRAND PRIZES FOR THE WINNERS

Wonderful Prize and Cash Awards For All Active Courier Contestants.

The Courier's $3,000 Holiday Gift Circulation Booster Campaign offi-cially opens tomorrow, and while only a few have been nominated to enter the campaign so far, it is expected that many new entries will appear in next week's issue of The Courier. The Prizes

The first grand prize in The Courier Gift Campaign will be a brand new Hudson ceach, valued at $1,-325.00, already purchased from and on display with Lewellen & Burns, Hudson-Essex Dealers, Asheboro. For the Second Grand Prize we have purchased a latest model Ford touring chased a latest model Ford touring car, valued at $441.00, from the Randolph Motor Company, Askeboro, where it is on display. The Third Grand prize is a beautiful walnut six piece bedroom suite including bed, dresser, chiffonier, bench and two chairs, valued at $160.00. dresser, chiffonier, bench and two chairs, valued at $160.00, purchased from Marley & Caveness, of Ramseur. This set will be on display in Asheboro soon. The fourth prize is a $137.50 over stuffed living room three piece suit purchased from and on display at the Fox Furniture Company, Asheboro. The Fifth Grand Prize is a beautiful solitaire diamond ring valued at $100.00 purchased from and on display at the N. P. Cox Jewelry Store—this ring must be seen to be appreciated. The Sixth Grand Prize will be the choice of a $50.00 ladies dress and coat or a $50.00 gentleman's coat and suit with extra tlemm's coat and suit with extra pair of trousers furnished from the selected stock of W. W. Jones & ceived.

A SPECIAL PRIZE, a 26 piece chest of Community Silver Ware (25 Year Guarantee), purchased from and on display at Standard Drug Co., Asheboro, will be awarded on NOVEMBER 30, to the contestant who has brought in the largest number of NEW yearly subscriptions. A one-year NEW ber of NEW yearly subscriptions. A one year NEW subscription counts as one point, a two-year new subscripsubscription as five points. This offer starts tomorrow, Nov. 19, and closes at 6 P. M. Tuesday, Nov. 30th, in a special 10 day added prize offer. The winner of this special prize Community Silverware Set will be announced in The Courier on Thursday, week, Dec. 2nd. OTHER SPECIAL PER-IOD PRIZES WILL BE ANNOUNC-ED SOON. 'A contestant can win the special prizes and an AUTO too. The winning of a special added prize will not keep a contestant from earning the 12% per cent-cash commission in case they fall to win one of the Six A Surprise Present For Every Subscriber EACH AND EVERY SUBSCRIB-ER TO THE COURIER is going to receive a surprise present from The Courier. All a subscribes has to de is to pay a new or renewal subscription to one of The Courier Contestants, then when the subscriber calls or her contest subscription receipt a her 14th. special gift will be given the subscriber. Don't fail to call at the Courier office with a contest subscription receipt any time before CHRISTMAS and get your surprise Gift from THE

The Campaign Office The Campaign will be directed by Mrs. Wm. C. Hammer at the Courier office who will act as cashier to receive all contest subscription collections every SATURDAY or more often if contestants desire to in their collections more often, but each contestant will be expected to make a cash report in person or by mail every Saturday to be eligible to the 12½ per cent cash commission in case they do not win one of the SIX GRAND PRIZES.

The fact that the campaign will be in direct charge of Mr. Wm. C. Hammer is a guarantee that all will be treated fairly and equally throughout the contest and Mrs. Hammer was asked to act as cashier and director by Mr. Denniston who says that above all, the public must have confi-To All will be the keynote to this campaign with a prize or cash award guaranteed each and every active

(Please turn to page 5)

GOOD FOR 100 FREE VOTES

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

When sending in a sub-scription remittance be sure to ask for the free votes which will be credited to some of those already en-tered in the race for the $3,-000 in prizes or a NEW con-testant may be entered and credited with the votes. Unless a subscriber asks for the votes at the time the subscription remittance is sent in, it will be impossible to give credit for the votes, at a later date. Be sure to ask for the free votes.

Little Charles Donald

Mr, and Mrs. W. M. Allred, died at join the Confederate army with which the home of his parents in Asheboro he served with distinction. He was Friday night following an illness four times wounded in battle. After from diphtheria. The funeral was the war, he had for years been a held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at prominent member of veterans' orthe residence by Rev. B. C. Reavis, pastor of the Asheboro M. E. church, assisted by Rev. B. E. Morris, pastor of the local Baptist church. Interent was made in the local cemetery.

Surviving besides the parents are four brothers and sisters, who are: Misses Gladys and Nellie Allred and Bowden and Colon Allred.

Reuben Payne New Pastor Of Archdale Friends Church

Reuben Payne, of New York, has been selected as new pastor of the Friends church, at Archdale, succeeding Miss Clara I. Cox, of High Point, who will give her full time to Spring-field church, which has a membership field church, which has a membership of 340. The membership at Archdale

Sunday schools in the town to put everybody in a radius of the churches in Sunday school next Sunday. A committee has been appointed with the superintendents of the various churches as chairmen and a house to house canvass is being made this

The program for Sunday will be as follows: At 8 o'clock the bells of the various churches will ring for five minutes. This will be called the "arousing" bell. From the linging of the bells until 9 o'clock the visiting committee will offer to render any assistance possible in helping those who have morning tasks to perform to get ready by 9 o'clock at which time a number of automobiles will be ready to haul them to the Sunday school and church of their choice.

ASHEBORO (M. E.) CHARGE

We filled our first appointment on the tentative schedule at Pisgah at The Curier office and shows his church last Sunday morning, Nevem-

As our permanent schedule for the work has not been arranged we had the opportunity of attending services at the Asheboro M. E. church last Sunday night and hearing a wery earnest sermon by the new pastor, the Reverend B. C. Reavis.

On next Sunday, November 21, at 11 o'clock at West Bend church the Reverend J. B. Craven will preach and hold the first quarterly meeting for Asheboro circuit. We are expecting representatives from every church on the charge to be present and start the work off in good style.

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be services at White Hall church, near Randleman.

LINDSAY HOLMES, RESPECTED COLORED CITIZEN, DEAD

Lindsay Holmes, aged sixty-one years, a highly respected colored cit-izen, died at his home two miles southeast of Asheboro Sunday night following several months fee health. He was one of the old to dating and reliable and numbered his friends among white and well as colored. He practiced economy and dealt fairly with everyone. He came to Asheboro thirty-one years ago and for many years was in the employ of the Hammer family entirely but for the past few years he has been entaged in farming, carpentering and odd jobs, on account of poor health.

Capt. F. C. Robbins,

Born in Trinity Township, Ran-dolph County—Member Da-vidson Bar 50 Years.

Captain Frank C. Robbins, for 60 Randleman, Nov. 15.—P. A. Hayes years a member of the Davidson county bar and an active attorney for Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. P. more than fifty years, died at his home in Lexington Tuesday. Death was hastened by a fall which he sustained Sunday night at his home. Captain Robbins was 93 years old on July 30th, last, and upon this occasion of the sustained Sunday night at his home. The sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hayes.

Mrs. J. L. Council has been very sick for several days with tonsilitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Deal, of Statesville, are spending sometime with Mr. Deal's parents, Mr. and Mrs. was honored by a number of his R. P. Deal. friends and relatives who gathered to pay tribute to his long and useful Allred Died Friday Night a brother of the late William M. Robbins. Captain Robbins was a law Charles Donald, six-year-old son of student when he left his studies to ganizations and for several years past was judge advocate general of North Carolina Confederate Veterans.

Following the war, Captain Robbins completed his law course and began the practice of his profession in Lexington. He was long regarded as one of the State's leading lawyers. For years he was a member of the Lexington school board and was an elder in the Presbyterian church. Though and Mrs. R. L. Hughes. all his life interested in public affairs he never sought public office.

guest and when the governor sought to assist him to his seat, insisted on standing, saying, "I will not be seated while the governor of North Carolina the afternoon of Armistice day. Supt.

Sunday School Drive To

Be Held At Cedar Falls

Surviving the deceased are the wife, two sons, Hargrave Robbins, manufacturer, of Chester, S. C.; Roswell B. Robbins, register of deeds, of Davidson county, and three daughters, Miss Sue Robbins, of Asheville; Sunday schools in the town to put

Mrs. C. F. Lowe, of Winston-Salem, which are the first the afternoon of Armistate day. Supt. Shelton prepared a very fitting program for the occasion.

Misses Cauchell and Spencer charmingly emercianed the members of the Book Chao on Thursday eventing, Oct. 11th, at the home of Mr. Baptist church and Mrs. A. N. Bulla. Tables were secretarily and Mrs. C. F. Lowe, of Winston-Salem. and Mrs. W. C. Pancake, of Staun-

> Big Demand For Tires Proves Advertising Pays course.

Does it pay to advertise? Ask Jess Garner and Henry Ingram. They started last week a thirty-day tire sale at their three filling stations. Real bargains were offered in Goodrich Silvertown Cords, in fact 25 per cent was lopped off the regular retail price. These tire bargains were page advertisement in The Courier Union township. with a liberal sprinkling of page fast rate at which the automobile, owners of the county have taken advantage of their attractive offers. It tires to keep the demand supplied for the corresponding nine menths during the 30 days, but Garner and last year. Ingram advertised a thirty-day tire reduction sale, and they are going to stick it out even if they have to make Rotary Club For a special factory order for more wife, E. G. Lowdermilk, for several years superintendent of the Methodist Protestant Children's Home, High Point, has resigned and the board of trustees of the institution are looking for a successor.

Mr. Lowdermilk Resigns

Methodist Episcopal Church will hold In the course of the organization Ar-a bazaar in the F. E. Byrd old stand, thur Ross was elected president, west of the Railroad, Saturday, De-Cleveland Thayer, vice president, and cember 4th. Dinner and supper will E. H. Morris, secretary and treasbe served by the ladies and also urer. J. A. Spence, Dr. M. G. Edmade candies will be on sale.

Singing At Marlboro To Close The Fourth Sunday

The singing taught at Marlboro by of. A. M. Fentriss, of Pleasand arden, will close the fourth Sunday November. Among the singer pected to be present is The Glenger of Question.

Mrs. Bryant Named Society President

To Head Betterment Organiza-tion at Randleman—School Observes Armistice Day.

Misses Sally Caudle and Inez Van-werry, teachers at Gray's Chapel, spent Sunday with home folks.

Funeral service was held Wednesday at the First Presbyterian church, Lexington, and interment was made in the Lexington city cemetery.

Captain Robbins was a native of Trinity township, Randolph county, a son of the late Rev. Ahi Robbins, and a brother of the late William M. Robbins.

Erms Brown, of High Point, attended the funeral of his aunt, Mrs.
J. M. Brown, last week.
Master James William Pickard, who has been very ill with German measles, is much better.

Misses Dot Lamb and Jewel Hughes, of High Point College, spent the week-end with home folks.

Miss Clarice Hardin has accepted position with Dr. Davis at Wesley Long Hospital, Greensboro, Miss Hardin has recently completed her training at this hospital.

Miss Ruby Hughes, a member of the school faculty at Franklinville, is ill at the home of her parents, Mr.

J. O. Pickard spent Sunday in Winston-Salen

Capt. Robbins was perhaps the best known man in Davidson county Society was held Thursday afternoon. for the past quarter century or more. The purpose of this meeting was to He was a typical product of the old elect a president in place of Mrs. N. is cordially invited to attend. south, a man of unfailing courtesy, N. Newlin, who resigned on account as exemplified when Governor Mc- of ill health. The society was very Lean called upon him at his home fortunate in securing the leadership in Lexington last month. Although of Mrs. W. T. Bryant. We feel sure enfeebled by his years and long ill-ness, Capt. Robbins arose to greet his able president.

Mrs. C. F. Lowe, of Winston-Salem, arranged for rook. The high score prize went to Miss Joan Rothrock. The favors, tiny baskets of mints, were in keeping with Armistice day. The hostesses served a delicious salad

> John Randolph Trogdon Dies At Age Of 93 Years

Randolph county lost one of her oldest citizens Sunday in the death of John Randolph Trogdon, of near Seagrove, who was 93 years, 5 months and 6 days old. He was buried Monmade known to the people through a day at the old Lucas graveyard in posters over the county. These tire Reports sent to the State Board of dealers have been surprised at the Health show that although there have been 1,389 cases of typhoid fever in the State the first nine months vantage of their attractive offers. It of this year, only 175 persons have is going to take a large number of died from the disease, as against 219

Town of Asheboro

On account of the ill health of his organized at Meeting Held Tuesday Night—Wade Marr Makes Address.

Tuesday night at a delightful dinner served by the ladies of the Methodist Protestant church, the organization of the Asheboro Retary Chib was Will Hold Bazzar perfected. At this meeting, Joseph D. Cox, immediate past president of the High Point Rotary Club, presided.

wards and Hugh Parks were elected After the disposal of the routine matters of the organization, the chairman, Joseph D. Cox, introduced Dr. Houston B. Hiatt, past president Sophis, Route 1, Nov. 15.—Rev.

Jeff Jones preached an able sermon at Marthero Sunday.

We are glad to note that Mr. C. A.
Farlow, who is a patient at Guilford General Hospital, is improving slowly.

Mrs. Tom Johnson and T. F., Jr., of Fort Mayers, Florida, spent, the national. Mr. Marr made an inspir-ing address on the subject of the ideals, plan and purposes of Rotary. His words made a decided impression on the business and professional men of the town present and left an inNew "Baby"

Here is George H. Combs Jr., 27 year old congressman-elect from 5th District of Missouri, who will go to Washington as the "Baby Member" of Congress. He ran for election to the same office when only 25 but was defeated.

The Canton Pearl" To Be Rendered at M. P. Church

There will be given a pageant, The Canton Pearl" in the Methodist Protestant church in Asheboro next Sunday evening, Nov. 21, at 7:30 o'clock. This pageant will be given by the Intermediate Christian En-Miss Esther Ross. Several times during the past few years the young people of the church have given pageants and without fail they have been appreciated very much. The one to be given next Sunday evening promises to be up to the standard in every pageant is not to raise money but to teach an important truth. The public

Rev. B. C. Reavis Will Preach Thanksgiving Sermon

The annual Thanksgiving service in Asheboro will be held Thanksgiving day in the Methodist Protestant church at 10 o'clock in the morning. Rev. B. C. Reavis, pastor of the Asheboro M. E. church, will preach

December 10th and 11th. Supper will be served each evening and candy will also be on sale. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the

SERVICES FOR NEXT SUNDAY AT M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH

Rev. B. C. Reavis, pastor. Sunday school at 9:45 A. M. Mr. Hugh Parks, To Have Thanksgiving superintendent. Preaching at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. by the pastor. Morning subject: "Love's Extrava-

Evening subject: "The Can'ts, Won'ts and Don'ts of Life". The Epworth Leagues will meet at their respective places at 6:45 P. M. You are cordially invited. A warm welcome awaits you. Come and worship with us.

BAPTIST NEWS LETTER

The writer will be out of town Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week, attending the annual meeting of the Baptist State convention in Wilmington.

Our sympathy goes out to our neighbors, Mr. W. M. Allred and family who have lost by death their son and brother, Charles Donald. Their grief is also ours.

The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church will hold their annual bazaar December 10 and 11.

Beginning next Monday evening the pastor will be out of town assisting Rev. B. F. Austin in a series of revival services at Revolution Baptist church, Greensboro.

Regular Sunday services: Morning, Echoes from the Convention;" evening, "Weighed and Found Wanting."

Celebrates Tenth Birthday

W. Callicutt, of near Pisgah, Miss Jewell Callicutt celebrated her tenth birthday. Games were enjoyed for a Ficquett, of the Denton school faculty, while, after which cake, pickles, muffins and candy were served.

Those present were Misses Mary cannon Parks, Kate and Ruth Callicutt, Net- a son. tie and Lois Ragsdale, Emma Lou Lanier, Lois and Bertha Shaw, Vivian Parks, Ferry Strider, Maie and Lydia Callicutt and Bella Newsome. young honoree received a number of nice and useful presents.

Bishop Mouzon Will

Vote For No Catholic

Bishop Mouzon, presiding over the recent North Carolina Methodist Conference, at Durham, drew a big round of applause from his brother ministers when in a speech he declared that he had always been a Democrat, but that before he would vote for a wet candidate or a man who had kissed the ring on the Pope's finger, he would vote the Republican ticket.

While Mouzon did not say so, his declaration is interpreted to have reference to the 1928 Presidential campaign should Al Smith, of New York, be nominated for President by the Democratic party.

Sis November 6th, Mr. Moffitt was born and reared five miles south of Asheboro, but for several years he has been living in Ardmore, Oklahoma, where he is manager of the Thirty-Second Oil Company. Mr. Moffitt is a brother of Mrs. Elmer Rich, of Asheboro, and Mr. B. B. Moffitt, of Troy. He has been in failing health for some time, having had two light strokes of paralysis prior to the one November 6th. He has been under the care of specialists for many months. Latest reports are that Mr. Moffitt is improving from his recent attack.

Mrs. E. I. Harris, prominent Candor woman, died Thursday from passumonia.

Asheboro Folks Hear Fred Tate

Addresses Chamber of Commerce Meeting-Others Make Interesting Talks.

Some one hundred and fifty perber of commerce and their wives, Tuesday morning from pneumonis gathered in the old F. E. Byrd store which he developed a week prior to building on Sunset avenue Friday his death. He had, however, been night for a four course dinner served confined with asthma the past three by ladies' organizations of the Meth- years. Mr. Cox had been a member odist Protestant and Baptist church- of Shiloh church for fifty years and es. Arthur Ross, president of the was active in church and civic work. chamber of commerce, acted at toast- He was one of the outstanding citi-

The two out of town speakers were knew years ago and of the present Kansas. thriving little city. Both speakers were introduced in a happy vein by Dr. E. L. Moffitt.

Other speakers of the evening were D. B. McCrary, mayor of Asheboro, W. J. Armfield, Jr., Congressman William C. Hammer and Dr. M. G. Edwards, secretary of the Asheboro chamber of commerce. Mr. Hammer spoke regarding coundeavor society under the direction of ty and municipal government and the tendency toward waste and extravagance in the conduct of governmental affairs. He declared that the most important question facing the people today is the study of government.

> Late Mrs. Lowdermilk Daughter of Mr. Andrews

Bennett, Nov. 15 .- Mrs. John Lowdermilk, who died in Greensboro Saturday morning, was before her marriage to Mr. Lowdermilk, Mrs. Katherine Wesley Heart. She was the daughter of the late Archie Andrews. She was a sister of J. R. and Dock Asheboro Had Heaviest Andrews and Luther Andrews and Mrs. Ann Ivey. Mrs. Lowdermilk's husband, who survives her, is now bazaar on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Purvis. serious since the water in wells Miss Clara Brady and brother, Wil- springs was failing in many instances liam, of Greensboro, visited their grandfather, John Scott, last week.

Eulan Brady, student at Elon Colege, spent the week-end at home with his parents.

John Yow has been confined to his bed for more than a week. Victor Jones, student at Wake Forest, was home for the week-end.

Entertainment At Farmer

Farmer, Nov. 15 .- A Thanksgiving entertainment will be given by the school on Wednesday evening preceding Thanksgiving day, in the school auditorium, beginning at 7:30.

Admission free. Messrs. F. A. Ficquett and A. A. football game at Davidson last Satur-

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stephen, of Upper Sandusky, Ohio, visited friends here last Saturday. They are on their way to Florida to spend the winter. Mrs. Stephen is well remembered by Farmer folks as Miss Sallie Hulin.

Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Plummer, of R. Hammond's. Miss Clyde Kearns, of Greensboro spent Armistice day with her mother, Mrs. Nora Kearns. Farmer boys basketball team was victorious in a game played last week with the Randleman boys on the Randleman court. Miss Linnie Dorsett and Mr. Lewis Dorsett, of Mt. Gilead, spent Sunday with Mrs. Roxana Dorsett.

Miss Ada Hammond is visiting Mrs. L. C. Elliott in Thomasville. Mr. L. C. Elliott has recently sold his farm on the Farmer-Denton road to Mr. Joseph Wham, of Virginia. On last Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. dent at Chapel Hill, spent Sunday with homefolks. spent Sunday here. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Vuncannon, of Mechanic, November 14th,

Dallas Moffitt Suffered Stroke Paralysis Nov. 6th

J. Dallas Moffitt, of Ardmore, Oklahoma, suffered a stroke of paralysis November 6th. Mr. Moffitt was

Funeral For John C. Cox At Shiloh

Died Tuesday Morning From Pneumonia—Had Long Been Prominent Citizen,

John C. Cox, aged 76 years, died at sons, members of the Asheboro cham- his home in Coleridge township, zens of his county and community. Surviving Mr. Cox are his widow, Fred N. Tate, High Point furniture who was Miss Elizabeth Moffitt; two manufacturer and president of North sons, E. R., of Greensboro, and T. A. Carolina, Incorporated, and Dr. J. T. of Coleridge township; four daugh-Burrus, High Point physician. Mr. ters, Mrs. H. G. Moffitt and Mrs. R. Tate confined his remarks chiefly to B. Phillips, both of Greensboro; Mrs. matters of civic interest. He spoke R. C. Cox and Mrs. Rufus Craven, of the growth of the town of Ashe- Ramseur, R. F. D.; three half brothboro and its forward outlook. Dr. ers, Homer, Clarkie and Jobie, all of Burrus' speech was along the same the state of Kansas; and one half lines. He told of the Asheboro he sister, Mrs. Emma Ball, also of

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at Shiloh church by Rev. J. C. Cummings and the body laid to rest in the cemetery. Pallbearers were C. C. Bray, B. B. Moffitt, Jim Townsend, B. S. Moffitt, W. B. Martin and Claude Tedder.

Funeral Held Thursday For Mrs. James Brown, Aged 75

Funeral for Mrs. James Brown, of Brown's Cross Roads, was conducted from the home last Thursday by Rev. W. H. Neese. Interment was made in St. Paul's cemetery, Randleman. Mrs. Brown was 75 years of age. She had lived a consistent Christian life, for the past 14 years having been a member of the Randleman M. P. church. Surviving are two sons, Madison Brown, of Brown's Cross Roads, and Will Brown, of Guilford county.

Rainfall Since Last July

The heaviest rainfall that Ashehore about ninety years of age. He under- has experienced since July fell Monwent an operation recently, having had one of his legs taken off at the in the morning the rain continued durhe sermon.

Bazear December 10th

Bazear December 10th

Lacy Purvis, of Spartanburg, S. C., was at home last week on a visit to his parents. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Purvis.

> MISS MARGARET PLUMMER IS BRIDE OF O. W. LEMMONR

The marriage of a popular young couple took place Wednesday evening. November 10th, when Miss Margaret Plummer became the bride of Mr. O. W. Lemmons, at the home of Rev. C. H. Hill, the officiating minister. Mrs. Lemmons is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Plummer, of Randleman, Route 2, and is a popular and attractive young lady. For the past few months she has held a position with the G. P. Pritchard Grocery. Mr. Lemmons is a young man of sterling business qualities and ability and holds a position with the G. P. Pritchard Grocery. He is the son of Mr. Wall attended the Davidson-Carolina and Mrs. J. Z. Lemmons, of Randleman. Route 2.

> Enjoyable Party Brings 34 1 School Contest To Close

A very enjoyable high school party was given in the school auditorium last Friday evening, when the Red and Green teams entertained the Hannersville, spent Sunday at Mr. J. Blue team as the closing feature of the magazine-selling contest recently put on by the high school. The blues won in the contest, selling sixty-one dollars' worth of subscriptions, while the other two teams sold fifty-seven dollars' worth each. The contest netted the school $87, which amount will be equally divided between the library and the athletic department of the school.

When the young people arrived for the party, everyone had his color-red, green, or blue—marked on his forehead with colored chalk. The decorations of potted plants, decorated in crepe paper, also carried out the colors of the various teams. A number of yells were given, and a series of games, contests, and stunts under the direction of Mr. Lawrence Hammond furnished amusement for the evening. After this punch and assorted sandwiches were served.

Members of the school faculty were also invited guesst. Messrs. Lawrence Hammond, Per Wood Redding, Nab Armfield, and Miss Beatrice Lowdermilk were the leaders in the contest.

GOOD FOR 100 FREE VOTES I hereby cast Free Votes to the