Leads in Both News and

ISSUED WEEKLY

Courier Contest

VOLUME LI

PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN

le al Home" Cam-s Thousands Here ite of Rein.

Liberty Churches | Large Crowd In | Sheriff Asked To | General Rain In

Asheboro, N. C., Thursday, December 30, 1926

Asheboro Friday

DATE OF DESCRIPTION OF DESCRIPTION $2.00

THE COURTEE

Advertising Colum Bring Results

Students Held A

Banquet At Hote

Closes Tomorrow Cranford Factory Observe Christmas Three Judges Have Been Appointed To Count The Votes Friday Eveni

end. Who will will drive the B uestions are t Asheboro and more days and t nswered.

offered, but the final ra-much as ever in doubt.

The leaders in the cars are so closely mater behooves every one of the every minute they can in scriptions during the next for each of the ten prizes will be very close, and it is likely that a very few subscriptions may decide

Many of those that apparent have no chance, if judged by the present standing, promise to sprin such big surprises at the end as to send the too confident ones down to cfeat. The only way to be sure ing is to spend every mil-your spare time getting sub-and selling job printing car severance is the winning qu there is at the top for the b Two new automobiles, two lefeat. -Two new auton -Two new automobiles, two furniture and several hundr worth of other valuable an should make the winners a New Year with a happ

A Sealed Box A sealed box has been the Bank of Rando where all contestants w reports in special en reports in special envelopes prov for them and deposit same. The rier will not receive any reports money, only those that come throu the mail and they will be deposited the box for safe keeping pending final count to be made by the judg at 6 P. M., Friday, December 31. sealed box will thereafter hold secret as to who the winners will a

The following judges have be pointed and very kindly consen-pount the votes and award the 1 Mr. W. J. Armfield, of The I Randolph

Beginning next Monday the output of the Cranford Chair Company will be one thousand porch rockers daily his doubling of the plant's has been made possible by val of the machinery from olph Chair Company to the

d plant

Double Output Of

Cramford plant. In the Randolph Chair Company's plant are being installed knitting ma-chines of the latest type for the mak-ing of ladies hosiery. This industry will be known as the Cranford Hos-fory Mill. Operation of the hosiery mill will be started in a short while. Approximately 100 girls and women will be employed in this new knitting mill.

Two Randolph Men Have Narrow Escape From Death

infus Snider and David Snider, of Rufus Snider and David Snider, of the western part of Randolph county, had a narrow escape from death Wednesday morning of last week in Thomasville. Their car, a Ford tour-ing, went dead on the tracks of the Southern railway at the main cross-ing in the chair town while a string of box cars behind a shifting engine was approaching. The Sniders jumped just before their car was hit. The machine was dragged a distance of fifty feet before the freight could be stopped.

Good Christmas Programs Rendered At M. E. Church

Capacity of 1,000 Rockers Daily--New Hosiery Mill. Various Sunday Schools Have Programs Appropriate For The Holiday Season.

Dr. J. W. Phillips, of Lillington, has located in Liberty for the practice of medicine. He will take up the prac-tice of the late Dr. Shepard. His wife, who was a Miss Groome, of Guilford county, and small daughter have arrived to make their home here also.

Miss Dorothy Curtis, who is in school at the Durham Conservatory of Music, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W.

Curtis.

Curtis. Miss Ora Scott, of the school fac-ulty, is spending the holidays with relatives in Greensboro. Misses Juanita Gregg, Dixle Cow-ard, Octavia Hatch, Claria Stroud, El-berta Smith and Helen Long Hanner, North Carolina Commissioners Want Tax Mon-oy Turned In Saturday-To Study Road Work.

Make Settlement

The Holiday Senson.
Liberty, Dec 27.—The various observed the internet works assembler of the function of the function.
The Study Ready The wards as a function of the function of the the community have profited by the drive. Christmas business was good throughout the county during the holiday season. It was a rival of the boom business back in 1919 and 1920.

The play that was given at the Baptist church on Wednesday evening before Christmas is reported to have been a pleasing success. It was one of that series of the White Gifts for the King. Miss Rills Spoon gave the story introducing the play and she did it well. Miss Annie Lee Spoon and Mrs. Dempsey Barnes played the part of Joseph and Mary respectively. The success in the presentation of these two Oriental characters. Miss Spoon and Mrs. Barnes did it with precision and adaptability. Mr. Chas. Reeder played the part of the inn keeper, and since the play was cele-brating the birth of Christ he refus-ed to permit Joseph and Mary, say-ing "there is no more room in the int.

Was Accompanied By Swollen Forty-Seven College Statent Streams-Water Shortage Present-Various Colleges Is Bellevel. Of State Represented.

Man Killed In An Auto Accident On Highway 70 R. H. Merritt, of White Lake, died in a High Point hospital Friday as the result of injuries received Thursday evening when the car in which he was riding turned over near White Hall filling station on Route 70, siz miles north of Asheboro. Merritt's brother and another man by the name of Mote were in the car at the same time, but were not seriously injured. important step their respect leges had taken during 1926 number gave a historical si the college or university of or she was a representativ

CHRISTMAS SERVICE AT BAPTIST CHURCH Large Hog Butchered By Cons Hill, Of Randler Mr. Cons Hull, of Randleman, Route 2, recently butchered a hog which weighed 648 pounds, the largest so far in the county this year, according to information at hand. Mr. Hull offered prizes for the persons guessing the correct weight of the hog. Mr. C. A. Eads guessed the weight to the pound, while Mrs. Hill's guess was only 6 pounds off the exact weight. After the hog was tilled and dressed, Mr. and Mrs. Hill furnished an sid-time country dinner to those present at the guessing contest.

Play Well Rendered By Member —Raised More Than $500 For The Church.

Bank and Trust Com

Mr. D. H. Moreles

Inal

Warning Don forget, that all reports must be made out in full and deposited along with the money in the sealed box at The Bank of Randolph not later than 6 P. M., Friday, December 31.

This method prevents anyone from knowing how many subscriptions are being placed in the box and offer theory placed in the box and off being placed in the box and off the fairest and squarest way bringing the campaign to a close to experience and careful thought give. No one connected with Courier or the Campaign Departm vill have access to the hox. Contestants who are hopeful vinning a prize should make eve hour count. Will you step up slide back? What you win depen on you and what advantage you th of this last opportunity. Don't someone step ahead of you. Work we win this campaign.

Death Comes To Mrs. Mary Euliss, Age 81

Mrs. Mary E wife of John E in the eastern p ty Saturday n was held by Pleasant Hill

noon at 2 o'cloc Besides her

All of the churches at Cedar Falls will join in a union service next Sun-day morning at 11 o'clock at the Cedar Falls Baptist church. Rev. Brown, pastor of the M. E. church, will have charge of the service. The purpose of the cooperative services is to get everybody in that section tarted to attend church during the new year. ew year.

MARRIED

Miss Ethel Allred and Mr. M. H. Tohnson, both of Millboro, were mar-ded December 18 at the home of Ir. L. R. Hughes, at Randleman, the fficiating justice of the peace.

Vatch Night Service To Be At Local M. P. Church

The Christian Endeavor society of the local Methodist Protestant church will conduct a Watch Night service on New Year's eve. The regular meeting of the society will be held at 9:30 o'clock and this will be followed by a social hour until time for the trade. te exercise of nual affair of this solic is cor-

Dr. Walter Gilmore, of Raleigh, preached on "Stewardship" at the Baptist church Sunday morning. He eached at Fall Creek church in the Rev. B. C. Reavis, pastor. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., Mr. Hugh Parks, Hernoon. Mr. Charlie Lambert and Miss Annie Murray were happily married supt. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 one day last week. Mrs. Lambert is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morning subject: "The Vanishing the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Murray. Mr. Lambert is a successful Road."

armer of near Bennett. He came Evening subject: "Put On Your Shoes."

here from Greensboro two years ago. Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Hammer, of Sanford, Fla., came home for the Christmas holidays and will remain Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

SERVICES AT M. E. CHURCH

Killed By Train

al days. The merchants of the town report aving had an excellent Christmas Burley Albertson

Sarah Alice Hinshaw, wife of El-wood Hinshaw and daughter of the late Millon Glasgow, died at her home near Central Falls on Decem-ber 16 at the age of 5 years, nine months and six days. She had been in failing health for almost a year but was seriously II only a few days. Mrs. Hinshaw was a good, quiet Christian woman, one who practiced her religion in the home and in every walk of life. The funeral was con-ducted at Giles' Chapel Methodist Protestant church on December 17 at aleven o'clock, Rev. J. E. Pritchard the paster of the Asheboro M. P.

Machano M. P. A Marvine Vilond by Later

Doris, aged 5, ged 3; and the follo mer, on the subject: "Building an pal, county, state and national gov-Adult Bible Class." The trip was made pleasant by Mr. Lee Kearns, who delightfully gave the transporta-tion. Mr. Hal Johnson was elected Presi-

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> whole service. Previously the Sun-day school decided to make no gifts this year in the way of a treat or a tree, save to the Beginners and Pri-maries. The giving was to be for a building fund and each class was to make its offering separate. The goal was made five hundred dollars. When the time came in the presentation of the play for the gifts to be made, each class in its own characteristic way class in its own characteristic way presented its gifts in money. Some came with their gifts in little stock-ings and baskets and small tin banks. One small class presented their gifts, hanging on a miniature Christmas the hard cash. The most attractive method of presentation was made by the hard cash. The most attractive method of presentation was made by the Ladies Aid. A darkened wire was extended from the rear of the church down which a dove was sent with a delightful message. The dove ation of a small tree word the dove

The province of the rank of the province of the rank of the rest of the rank of the ran

W. D. Thornburg, aged 70, promi-nent citizen of Ramseur, died in a Greensboro hospital Monday following an illness of two months. He was a consistent member of Ramseur Chris-tian church, having been an active member of the congregation for many years. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. H. W. Brady, of Bennett. His wife died about three months age. The funeral was held at Holly di was connected with this kind of wo while at Detroit for the past to years and decided to open an athle club in Greensboro.

Mrs. Mary Ann Hedgecock Dead

Funeral For John Cooper At Old Union Friday

9:45 A. M. Sunday school, Mr. W. L. Ward, Supt. 11:00 A. M. Sermon appropriate for the new year by the pastor. 6:15 P. M. Christian Endeavor. 7:00 P. M. Preaching by the past 7:00 P. M. Preaching by the paster. 7:00 P. M. Preaching by the paster. Dur church has passed through a very enjoyable Christmas time. Our Friday afternoon of last week quite a large number of parents came with the little folks to the social room where an interesting short program was rendered and the little folks were given a treat. Then on Sunday more-ing a fairly good sized congregation was present for the Christmas arr-mon by the pastor. Mr. Millian, of Archdale, and Mrs. Darby, of Trops each rendered a beautiful solo. The choir rendered a beautiful solo. The choir rendered a splendid anthem. All 7:00 o'clock Sunday evening a per-eant, "Gifts for the King", was re-dered. The pageant consisted largely of Christmas hymns by the short resentatives of the various organized in the altar. During the par-tions of the church brought the gifts to the altar. During the par-cant, characters representing the an-gels and the shepherds came to par-age to the Christ Child.

MRS. HENRY RENSON DIFE BOME NORTH OF ASH

