OLUME LII

$2.00 A YE R IN ADVAL

Broke in Store Sunday Night and Stole Safe and Contents —Loss is $500.

FIND SAFE NEAR SPERO

Trileves notered the local Pender
Grocory Store some time during Sunday right and carried of the amount due to the county of Randigh vight and carried of the county of Randigh vight and carried to the man during sunday right and carried of the county of Randigh vight vigh en but they must enter by the FTARKIIIVILE TO

Cranford Is Due Banks Of County Taken By Thieves | County Large Sum

udit Shows Shortage Reaches 21,261.70, No Part of Which Was Paid Saturday.

ACCOUNTING SATURDAY

Make Fine Record

Fotal Assets More Than Three And a Quarter Million Dollars —Capital $218,900.

MUCH MONEY ON DEPOSIT

ceady by persons who hand in financing the lew industries arise so thebore that talk of

State Game Law

At Meeting Here Saturday Re-solve To Favor The New Game Mensure.

QUAIL SCARCE IN COUNTY

wide game law which ted in the legislative leigh has the endorse-hunters of Randolph tal of the sportsmen of in Asheboro last Sathiscussion of game conternal in Randolph. As a pusiness of the meeting, de game law was en-

came in general in the illy quail, was discuss-Randolph, which for been considered the paradise, is not show

AT M. E. CHURCH

9:45 a. m. Mr. Hugh Parks, lad Been Ill Five Months With Paralysis—Member Concord. M. E. Church.

LONG PROMINENT CITIZEN

Died Saturday At His Home In Randleman At Age of 69 Years—Long Ill.

Funeral services for William R. Fogleman, aged 69 years, who died suddenly at his home in Randleman Saturday morning, were conducted from Mt. Lebanon M. P. church Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Neese.

He had been in ill health for some time, but his condition was not con-sidered serious, and he was able to be out and attend business. His death came as a shock to the entire C. Reavis, pastor. Sunday to a. m. Mr. Hugh Parks, adent. tor will preach at 11 a. m. LF WAS NOT TOLD ME" community the was well known and highly respected in his community. He joined Mt. Lebanon church twenty years ago and had been a faithful member until death. He was very the interpretation of the property of taking a load of pupils home from school.

been a great sufferer for the at year but with it all has exhibitthe same patience, forbearance and titude which has characterized her
She was the inughter of Mr. and a. J. T. Shaw, of New Hope townp, Randolph county. For several ra after her marriage to Mr. C. Shaw they made their home at the but since the election of Mr. and the office of sheriff of Daton county in 1912 they had made ir home in Lexington, with the extion of a short while when they of at Wadesbaro.

John W. Hancock, Veteram
Of Confederacy, Is Dead

John W. Hancock, a Confederate soldier, died Jan. 11, 1927, at the home of his son, A. O. Hancock, Seagrove, Rt. 1, at the age 87 years.
Mr. Hancock was a highly respected citizen who had been useful in his community. In his passing the county has lost another of her valiant and courageous veterans who fought in the great conflict between the states.

Shaw are her Finch Damage Suit May Buren Shaw, of Be Heard In February

Oppose Change In Veteran Minister Died Last Night Selection Juries

Local Bar Opposes Putting Mat-ter In Hands of Commission Named By Judge.

AGAINST CONNOR BILL

Capt. Charles M. Thompson, former state senator and representative, banker, farmer and manufacturer, died at his home in Lexington Tuesday at the age of 83 years. Capt Thompson entered the services of the Confederate army when he was only 17 years of age and lost an arm at Spottsylvania. He returned to his home in Davidson and entered the woodworking business at Tyro, later moving his plant to Lexington.

Davidson county, they having friends from childhood, as homes were but one mile apar of the Methodist Episcopal chat the session held at Statesville fall of 1883 and had entered 44th year of ministerial labor stricken. During this long to service he had served many gations and had been instrume causing hundreds of persons to the church.

He was at one time pastor

FOX CREATING CONFAIT

THE SHAPE POT CHEATING CONFAIT

THE POX CREATING CONFAIT

THE POX CREATING

Will Open Monday

Long Vacation on Account of Work on Building—To Com-plete March 1.

The Randleman school will reopen Monday, January 31st, for the first time since the Christmas holidays.

This prolonged vacation was on account of remodeling the school building which is still in process, but a sufficient number of new rooms have been completed to begin school on the Church. The business as the speaker, His subject was the state of the count of the Randleman school will reopen Monday, January 31st, for the first time since the Christmas holidays. This prolonged vacation was on account of remodeling the school building which is still in process, but a sufficient number of new rooms have been completed to begin school on "Sarving the Church". The business as the speaker, His subject was the state of the count of the Randleman school will reopen The monthly meeting of the Brotherhood of the M. P. church was held in the entertainment rooms on Thursday evening with Rev. J. E. Pritchard presiding. At this time Rev. N. I. Harrison, of Greensboro, was named as the speaker. His subject was the speaker of the count of the nother, Mrs. J.

Inviden county is scheduled to come a township; two of Thomasville, few Hope, and Y. Hopkins, of Brown Finch, of Thomasville, who was killed when his car was hit by a cience cluss room and laboratory.

Inviden county is scheduled to come the completed to begin achool on this date. The plans call for a spactions and of running the church countries auditorium, twenty-two class rooms, a domestic science room with the nation brought by the executors was killed when his car was hit by a cience cluss room and laboratory, a cience cluss room and laboratory.

All rooms are equipped with excellent dent; T. F. Bulla, vice present

Rev. J. E. Woosley Died Frie From Effects of Pueumoni —Aged 70 Years.

PREACHED IN RANDOLPH

Wilson Kearns, aged about $1 years; died Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at his home on Ashebory. Route 2, following an illness extending over a paried of five months from paralysis. Air, Kearns became suddenly worse about a week age and his death last night was not unexpected.

Mr. Kearns had long been a prominent farmer and citizen of Randolph county. He was ever interested in the welfare of his county and community taking an active part in city and religious work. He was a member of the Cancord Mr. E. church, south. By a member of the Cancord Mr. E. church, south a meeting of the bar held Toesday institute in Greenises recepted at the last rites will be held at Concord church sometime.

Mr. Kearns was a son of the last sacretation and the last rites will be held at Concord church sometime.

Mr. Kearns was a son of the last sacretation are commendations of the general assembly as representatives from Randolph county. The bar passed unanimously a reserve his people, the work of hymnes old in the Med offset heaves one brother, A. H. Kearns, Africans and his wife. He had resided at the old home place all his life. He leaves one brother, A. H. Kearns and his wife. We have the commendations of the general assembly by Tobe Common has for the past several months lived at the home place with her father; and Mrs. Jack Lowe, of Asheville. Mr. Kearns' wife, who was Miss Martha Jackson, died several years ago.

Funeral Is Held

For Mr. Fogleman

Funeral Is Held

For Mr. Fogleman

Capt. C. M. Thompson, of Lexington, Died Thesiday. At His Rome In washes constituted and manufacture, when the manufacture is a second to the processing a fall the proposed to any change in the manufact of the bring with the manufacture of the hands of the hands of the hands of the hands of the best of the hands of the processing and the work of hymnes of the local brace and the processing and the work of hymnes of the life. Mr. Kearns' wife, who was Miss Martha Jackson, died several years ago.

Funeral Is Held

For Mr. Fogleman

A meeting of the teachers of Randolph county will be held at the count house Saturday morning at tea o'clock. Mrs. W. W. Martin, of N. C.
C. W., Greensboro, will be present and talk to the teachers on ParentTeacher associations, and hopes to organize additional associations be the county. Interesting subjects relative to school work will be discussed at this meeting. All teachers in the county are urged to attend, and anyone interested in school work is invited.

Brotherhood Meets At M. P. Church And Elects Officer