

Rufus W. Frazier Buried Yesterday

Died At Tabor Monday Evening After Intermittent Illness Of A Year.

Long Prominent Citizen Many Times Honored By His Native County.

Rufus W. Frazier, who died at Tabor, Columbus county, Monday afternoon, was buried in the cemetery in Asheboro yesterday afternoon, the services at the grave being in charge of Rev. B. C. Reavis, pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal church.

He was 78 years of age. He was for many years an active citizen of Randolph county, devoting much of his energy to educational and civic matters. He was educated at Trinity college and held many educational offices.

He was actively engaged in business for a number of years. As one of the organizers and its first secretary he promoted the cotton mill at Central Falls.

Mr. Frazier sprang from a family of churchmen. He was the son of Harrison Frazier and Grace Pickett Frazier.

Surviving him in addition to his wife, Della Moss Frazier, are two daughters, Mrs. Bettie F. Wade, of Tabor, and Mrs. Nannie E. Pemberton, of Charlotte.

Veteran Friends Minister Is Dead

Rev. Michael A. Farlow, Stricken With Paralysis While Preaching, Died Sunday.

Funeral At Marlboro

Rev. Michael A. Farlow, prominent minister of the Friends church, died in High Point Sunday afternoon from the effects of a stroke of paralysis.

The deceased is survived by the widow, who, prior to her marriage was Miss Louvenia Loflin, also of Randolph county, five sons, N. F. Farlow, of Greensboro; F. M. Farlow, N. C. Farlow, J. C. Farlow and J. B. Farlow, all of Sophia; and a daughter, Mrs. J. F. Adams, of Sophia.

The funeral was held at Marlboro Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. Tom A. Sykes, pastor of the Central Friends church, High Point, officiating. The body was laid to rest in the local cemetery.

Easter Egg Hunt For The Kiddies

An Easter Egg Hunt will be given Friday, April 15, at 4 p. m., in Mr. John Humble's pasture for all the children of Asheboro, by Circle No. 1 of the M. E. church.

Asheboro To Get New $250,000 Mill

For several weeks past it has been general town talk that Asheboro was to get two new hosiery mills. Now comes the assurance that these new industries will materialize.

Presbyterians To Meet In Asheboro

Orange Presbytery Will Convene In 314th Session—Organized In Year 1776.

Open To The Public

Rev. S. M. Rankin To Deliver Opening Sermon.

The three hundred and fourteenth session of Orange Presbytery will convene in the Presbyterian church of Asheboro, at seven-thirty o'clock, Tuesday night of next week.

All of the sessions are open to visitors. The communion service and the conferences on Missions will be of general interest.

Ross York Is Run Over By An Auto

Sustained Severe Cuts And Bruises About Face And Chest—In Hospital.

Ross York, of Sophia, is in Memorial hospital, Asheboro, suffering from the effects of injuries sustained Sunday afternoon when he was run over by a car driven by Irwin Hayes, of Asheboro, on Highway 70, near Hasty's Filling Station.

York was run over by the Hayes car while he was walking along the highway. Hayes was attempting to avoid a car directly in front of him when York was hit, having seen York too late to bring his car to a full stop.

Fine Musical Program To Be Given At M. P. Church

What promises to be one of the finest musical programs which the choir of the local Methodist Protestant church has given for quite a while will be rendered next Sunday morning at eleven o'clock when the cantata, "The Prince of Life," will be rendered.

Revival At Farmer

The revival services at Concord church, at Farmer, which began last Sunday, are being largely attended. Rev. William Stewart, of Burlington, traveling evangelist of Burlington, is assisting the pastor, Rev. G. W. Clay, in the meetings.

MR. D. B. McCrARY PURCHASES R. C. JOHNSON STORE PROPERTY

Mr. D. B. McCrary has sold his store property to Mr. D. B. McCrary and will vacate next week.

Annual Meeting B. & L. Association

Secretary's Report Shows Association Has Made Good The Past Year.

Officers Are Elected

More Than 1,000 Shares In New Series.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Randolph County Building and Loan Association was held in the court house in Asheboro Tuesday night with a large number of those financially interested in the association present.

L. F. Ross was re-elected president of the association, E. C. Williamson re-elected vice president, and Lee M. Kearns re-elected secretary.

Heart Attack Is Fatal To Mr. Bain

A. L. Bain, Formerly of Liberty, Succumbs On Streets Of Greensboro.

Retired Mill Man

A. L. Bain, aged 62, native of Liberty, Randolph county, died suddenly Tuesday afternoon from a heart attack suffered near the Southern passenger station in Greensboro.

Mr. Bain left Randolph county and located in Greensboro in early manhood where he lived until 1912 when he moved to Roanoke Rapids and entered the textile business.

In addition to his wife, who was Miss Fannie Redding, of Randolph, before her marriage, he is survived by eight children: Grady L. Bain and Hal C. Bain, Greensboro; Ed B. Bain, Chicago; Misses Pearl and Myrtle Bain and Mrs. C. C. Crane, Greensboro; Mrs. Amber Nease, Roanoke Rapids; and Mrs. Bertha Edmondson, Rosemary.

Mr. Bain was a member of Grace M. P. church, Greensboro, and the funeral was held from that church Thursday.

Chimes At M. E. Church A group of the members of the Asheboro M. E. church have installed chimes in the new pipe organ.

Randolph Has High Hopes Of Getting Piedmont And Northern Electric Road

The news coming from Washington that withdrawal has been made of an application filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission by Mark W. Potter, of New York, and W. S. O'Brien, of Charlotte, asking for authority to finish construction of the Piedmont and Northern Interurban line between Spartanburg, S. C., and Winston-Salem, N. C., is of more than passing interest to Randolph county people.

Appeal To Support Local Baseball Nine

The baseball team of Asheboro high school has won four of the five games that they have already played. We have several more strong teams to play yet and we feel confident our boys will bring home the bacon at the close of the season.

James Tucker, Of Seagrove, Is Dead

James Tucker, farmer of the Seagrove community, died at his home Sunday night following a week's illness from paralysis.

End Came After Stroke Of Paralysis—Had Long Been Member Of The Church.

James Tucker, farmer of the Seagrove community, died at his home Sunday night following a week's illness from paralysis.

First "Good Fellowship" Meeting Of Local Chamber Of Commerce At Farmer, April 22

At the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce held Monday evening definite plans were made for the first "Good Fellowship" meeting which will be put on at Farmer on Friday evening, April 22, at 7:30 o'clock.

Fine Cooperation In "Clean-Up" Work

The citizens of the town of Asheboro are entering heartily into the observance of Clean-Up week designated by Mayor McCrary as April 11th to 16th.

Vacant lots should be cleaned up as should alleys and back lots about places of business.

The Woman's Club has been cooperating with the mayor in urging the people to observe Clean-Up week and has extended its activities to the urging of the planting of flowers and of home gardens.

Long Term Bonds To Replace Notes

Commissioners To Save Interest Will Take Up Outstanding Short Notes.

To Sell Bonds Apr. 27th

Present Board Did Not Make The Indebtedness.

The Randolph county board of commissioners met in called session in the court house Monday afternoon and passed a resolution authorizing the issuance of $645,000 in bonds to take up short term notes of the county outstanding on December 6, 1926, the date the new board of commissioners assumed office.

Extension Of Route 62 Is A Certainty

The extension of Highway 62 from Asheboro through the county in the general direction of Albemarle will be the next State highway project for Randolph county.

Seagrove Host To District Juniors

Saturday Afternoon Date Set For Important Meeting Junior Councils.

Expect State Councillor

Class Initiation At Asheboro Following Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Thirteenth District Jr. O. U. A. M. at Seagrove Saturday, April 16th.

Junior Class Is Host To Seniors

Annual Junior-Senior Banquet Held Last Friday Evening In M. E. Church.

Most Enjoyable Affair

Last Friday evening, in the dining room of the new M. E. church, the Junior class of Asheboro high school gave the annual banquet in honor of the Senior class.

Colored Boy Run Over By An Auto

Hit On Road Near White Hall By High Point Laundry Truck—In Hospital.

A ten-year-old colored boy living above the White Hall Filling Station on Route 70 was run over yesterday afternoon and badly hurt by a High Point Laundry Company truck.

Father And Son Banquet Success

Held At M. P. Church Last Friday Evening With Good Crowd Present.

Death Claimed Mr. A. N. Routh Tuesday

Died From Paralysis At Home Of His Daughter Near Millboro.

Funeral At Bethany

A. N. Routh died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clark Pugh, near Millboro, late Tuesday afternoon from paralysis.

Half Brother Of Late Mrs. R. R. Ross Died Yesterday

Mr. David H. McCulloch, aged about 84 years, died in Greensboro yesterday. He was a half-brother of the late Mrs. R. R. Ross, who died at her home in Asheboro a few weeks ago.

Daughter Of Mr. And Mrs. G. W. Frazier Is Dead

Oceanna Frazier, aged 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Frazier, of Trinity township, died Tuesday morning after an illness of two days.

James Tucker, Of Seagrove, Is Dead

James Tucker, farmer of the Seagrove community, died at his home Sunday night following a week's illness from paralysis.

End Came After Stroke Of Paralysis—Had Long Been Member Of The Church.

James Tucker, farmer of the Seagrove community, died at his home Sunday night following a week's illness from paralysis.

First "Good Fellowship" Meeting Of Local Chamber Of Commerce At Farmer, April 22

At the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce held Monday evening definite plans were made for the first "Good Fellowship" meeting which will be put on at Farmer on Friday evening, April 22, at 7:30 o'clock.

Fiddlers' Convention

There will be an old time fiddlers' convention at Shiloh school house on Saturday night, April 16.

Diseases In North Carolina

The week ending April 2nd there were 733 cases of whooping cough in North Carolina, 782 cases of measles, 29 cases of scarlet fever, 16 cases of diphtheria, 74 of smallpox and 2 of typhoid fever.

Seagrove Host To District Juniors

Saturday Afternoon Date Set For Important Meeting Junior Councils.

Expect State Councillor

Class Initiation At Asheboro Following Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Thirteenth District Jr. O. U. A. M. at Seagrove Saturday, April 16th.

Junior Class Is Host To Seniors

Annual Junior-Senior Banquet Held Last Friday Evening In M. E. Church.

Most Enjoyable Affair

Last Friday evening, in the dining room of the new M. E. church, the Junior class of Asheboro high school gave the annual banquet in honor of the Senior class.

Colored Boy Run Over By An Auto

Hit On Road Near White Hall By High Point Laundry Truck—In Hospital.

A ten-year-old colored boy living above the White Hall Filling Station on Route 70 was run over yesterday afternoon and badly hurt by a High Point Laundry Company truck.

Father And Son Banquet Success

Held At M. P. Church Last Friday Evening With Good Crowd Present.

Daughter Of Mr. And Mrs. G. W. Frazier Is Dead

Oceanna Frazier, aged 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Frazier, of Trinity township, died Tuesday morning after an illness of two days.

James Tucker, Of Seagrove, Is Dead

James Tucker, farmer of the Seagrove community, died at his home Sunday night following a week's illness from paralysis.

End Came After Stroke Of Paralysis—Had Long Been Member Of The Church.

James Tucker, farmer of the Seagrove community, died at his home Sunday night following a week's illness from paralysis.

First "Good Fellowship" Meeting Of Local Chamber Of Commerce At Farmer, April 22

At the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce held Monday evening definite plans were made for the first "Good Fellowship" meeting which will be put on at Farmer on Friday evening, April 22, at 7:30 o'clock.

Fiddlers' Convention

There will be an old time fiddlers' convention at Shiloh school house on Saturday night, April 16.

Diseases In North Carolina

The week ending April 2nd there were 733 cases of whooping cough in North Carolina, 782 cases of measles, 29 cases of scarlet fever, 16 cases of diphtheria, 74 of smallpox and 2 of typhoid fever.

Seagrove Host To District Juniors

Saturday Afternoon Date Set For Important Meeting Junior Councils.

Expect State Councillor

Class Initiation At Asheboro Following Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Thirteenth District Jr. O. U. A. M. at Seagrove Saturday, April 16th.

Junior Class Is Host To Seniors

Annual Junior-Senior Banquet Held Last Friday Evening In M. E. Church.

Most Enjoyable Affair

Last Friday evening, in the dining room of the new M. E. church, the Junior class of Asheboro high school gave the annual banquet in honor of the Senior class.

Colored Boy Run Over By An Auto

Hit On Road Near White Hall By High Point Laundry Truck—In Hospital.

A ten-year-old colored boy living above the White Hall Filling Station on Route 70 was run over yesterday afternoon and badly hurt by a High Point Laundry Company truck.

Father And Son Banquet Success

Held At M. P. Church Last Friday Evening With Good Crowd Present.

Daughter Of Mr. And Mrs. G. W. Frazier Is Dead

Oceanna Frazier, aged 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Frazier, of Trinity township, died Tuesday morning after an illness of two days.

James Tucker, Of Seagrove, Is Dead

James Tucker, farmer of the Seagrove community, died at his home Sunday night following a week's illness from paralysis.

End Came After Stroke Of Paralysis—Had Long Been Member Of The Church.

James Tucker, farmer of the Seagrove community, died at his home Sunday night following a week's illness from paralysis.

First "Good Fellowship" Meeting Of Local Chamber Of Commerce At Farmer, April 22

At the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce held Monday evening definite plans were made for the first "Good Fellowship" meeting which will be put on at Farmer on Friday evening, April 22, at 7:30 o'clock.

Fiddlers' Convention

There will be an old time fiddlers' convention at Shiloh school house on Saturday night, April 16.

Diseases In North Carolina

The week ending April 2nd there were 733 cases of whooping cough in North Carolina, 782 cases of measles, 29 cases of scarlet fever, 16 cases of diphtheria, 74 of smallpox and 2 of typhoid fever.