SUNDAY, MAY 1, 1927
Subject: Peter's Denial and Repentance.
Golden Text: Let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. I Cor. 10:12.
Central Truth: Following Jesus afar off leads us into temptation.
Scripture: Mark 14:53, 54, 66-71; Luke 22 61, 62.
 53. And they led Jesus away to the high priest; and there came together with him all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.
 54. And Peter followed him afar off, even within, into the court of the high priest; and he was sitting with the officers, and warming himself in the light of the fire.
 55. And when Peter saw Jesus, he began to weep, and he said, Lord, I know not what thou sayest; for I was with thee, and I followed thee, and I was with thee, and I followed thee, and I was with thee, and I followed thee.
 56. And when Peter saw Jesus, he began to weep, and he said, Lord, I know not what thou sayest; for I was with thee, and I followed thee, and I was with thee, and I followed thee.
 57. And when Peter saw Jesus, he began to weep, and he said, Lord, I know not what thou sayest; for I was with thee, and I followed thee, and I was with thee, and I followed thee.
 58. But he denied, saying, I neither know, nor understand what thou sayest; and he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.
 59. And the maid saw him, and began again to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.
 60. And he again denied it. And after a little while again they that stood by said to Peter, Of a truth thou art one of them; for thou art a Galilean.
 61. But he began to curse, and to swear, I know not this man of whom you speak.
 62. And the Lord turned and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how that he said unto him, Before the cock crow this day thou shalt deny me thrice.
 63. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

Verse (70)—Peter now denies for the second time, according to (Matt. 26:72) with an oath; But he could not convince his accusers. Matthew says that his speech betrayed him and they knew that he was a Galilean.
 Verse (71)—He could not carry his point by the use of lies and deceit; so he resorted to profanity; taking the name of his Lord in vain.
 Immediately after the third denial the cock crew, according to the declaration of Jesus, when Peter had boasted of his power to stand.
 Verse (61)—Jesus never uttered a word of rebuke to Peter; but that sorrowful look from the eyes of Jesus cut Peter to the very heart: And then he remembered that Jesus had said that this very thing would happen, and for the first time the weight of his sin of denial began to bear down upon him.
 Verse (62)—His sorrow was not as the remorse of Judas, he repented in his sorrow and was forgiven.
Conclusion
 Have we none of us done as Peter did? Denied our Lord by being ashamed of him; ashamed of our religion; held back from acknowledging him; kept silent when our religion was attacked or ridiculed, and our Master put on trial once again by the mocking skeptics, disbelievers, revilers? Do we not at times when in certain company or places ask, what use to confess discipleship, that is, speak, live as a Christian? Disciples of Jesus of Nazareth!—do you never hear the cock crew in your lives?

Dr. Frank Crane Says

Many Hearts Are Heading Up-Stream
 When Bishop McIntyre stood on the Canadian bank of Niagara Falls he said that everything in the universe seemed to be going down. Yet a closer scrutiny revealed the little steamer "Maid of the Mist" going up.

Pessimists tell us that everything and everybody is going to the dogs. We have the authority of the realists and the gloomy philosophers that things are getting worse and worse. Yet somehow the world seems struggling upward.

It has made much improvement in the last eighteen hundred years or so and it is liable to make more in the next few years.

The stream of traffic on Broadway is ceaseless, but occasionally a policeman raises his hand and the traffic stops while he leads a little child or an old woman in safety from curb to curb.

The newspapers are filled with accounts of murders and all sorts of crimes until it seems that the country is afflicted with a crime wave, but every once in a while you hear of a kind deed done by somebody who is not at all afflicted with crime motives.

Doubtless there are many kind deeds not recorded all through the world. Many hearts are going up stream.

It is pretty hard on them at times and the struggle is pretty severe, but taking all in all the company of those who are struggling to make the world better is considerable and they have the cosmic laws in their favor.

Whoever does what is right may be peculiar, but he belongs to a long line of beneficent forebears. He may know that his labor is not wasted.

For there are always a number of people who are going up stream just as there are many people who are laying down their oars and going with the stream toward the deadly waterfalls of disaster.

There is something in the human breast that inclines men to struggle, to push onward and upward, notwithstanding that the stream of things seems to bear them down.

Facts About Optometry
 By Wilfred C. Carr, Optometrist.
 NO. FOURTEEN OF THE SERIES
 Astigmatism is very prevalent, distressing and detrimental error of vision. It is the result of the eye being improperly shaped. It is responsible for more headaches than any other eye defect. Every moment that the astigmatic eye is in use, either for close or distant seeing, it is subjected to strain. The only rest such an eye gets is while it is closed.

In many cases astigmatism is present without the knowledge of the patient. It often happens that a person of strong physique and much reserve energy will be for many years unacquainted with the fact that he is astigmatic.

Nervous hot flashes
 "SOME time ago when in a very nervous, run-down condition," says Mrs. Martha F. Marlow, of Broken Bow, Okla. "I tried numerous remedies to try at least to keep going, but I could not. I was weak and tired—just no good at all. My back ached and I had hot flashes until I was so very nervous I smothered."

"I couldn't sleep and I was never hungry, and I kept getting weaker. I couldn't stand on my feet. This was an unusual condition for me as I had been pretty strong all along. I knew that I would have to do something, and that pretty soon."

"Some friend suggested that I take Cardui, and it certainly was a good suggestion, for after taking one bottle I could tell I was stronger and better. I didn't quit. I kept it up all through the change and did fine. I felt like a different person after I began taking Cardui."

Cardui has helped thousands of suffering women. Sold by all druggists.

Mr. Hammer Says Let Calles Alone

Thinks Mexico Should Be Allowed To Settle Her Problems Peacefully.

No Necessity For War

Nor Is There Reason For Severing Diplomatic Relations.

The American people, remembering their own fight for liberty, ought not to be a party to breaking down the morale of the Mexican government.

"which is trying to lead the people of Mexico to freedom," declared Representative Wm. C. Hammer, in an extension of remarks just published in the Congressional Record.

M. Hammer presents the arguments against severance of diplomatic relations with Mexico and lifting of the arms embargo. Both of the actions, according to Mr. Hammer, would be condemned by American citizens who favor settlement of the present dispute by "peaceful methods and not by force."

"The fact is," he declared, "that the methods which are now being pursued by our State Department are imperiling the best government which Mexico has ever known, according to the judgment of those who know Mexico and have no property to protect and no axe to grind."

"It has been considerably more than a month since the Robinson resolution for arbitration with Mexico unanimously passed the Senate, and yet we have no intimation from the President or the Secretary of State that the administration will carry out the advice given by the Senate. This resolution was introduced and passed in response to a popular demand. There has never been such an outpouring of public opinion in this country on any question as on this insisting upon a settlement of our disputes with Mexico by peaceful methods and not by force. The people do not want war with Mexico in order to protect the property of a few Americans, and there is no necessity for it. They have a right to know what it is property of Americans living in Mexico or Americans living in Wall Street in which such an unusual interest is taken."

Mr. Hammer declared that the United States should take no steps which would hinder President Calles in carrying out his reform program. "This program," he said, "is not Bolshevistic. Bolshevism discards the machinery of the old regime and insists upon starting all over again. Not so with Mexico. Mexico painfully builds with the old machinery of courts and laws and legislatures. Its new constitution is old, with changes and amendments. Its procedure on the oil question and the land question and the church question is legally grounded. This program has definite objectives and proposes to reach them by orderly processes of law."

Mr. Hammer quoted Dr. Egbert Smith, of North Carolina, head of the foreign missionary work of the South Presbyterian Church, who has recently returned from Mexico, as saying that great good has already been done for Mexico by the Calles government.

Overdoing?

Hurry, Worry and Overwork Bring Heavy Strain.

MODERN life throws a heavy burden on our bodily machinery. The eliminative organs, especially the kidneys, are apt to become sluggish. Retention of excess uric acid and other poisonous waste often gives rise to a dull, languid feeling and, sometimes, toxic backaches and headaches. That the kidneys are not functioning perfectly is often shown by burning or scanty passage of secretions. More and more people are learning to assist their kidneys by the occasional use of Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. Ask your neighbor!

Introduction
 The scene has changed from the glory of Christ, in last Sunday's lesson, to the humiliation in the lesson today. Peter has the privilege of witnessing both of these phases of Christ's life. He did not believe that sinful men could take Jesus; and when the master rebuked him for the assistance which he offered, he sheathed his sword and stood back to see what would take place.
 Jesus had used many means, and methods, to prepare Peter and the rest of the disciples for this occasion; but Peter could not believe that this could ever happen to the Son of God whom he had so lately seen in the glory of the Father.

To Destroy $200,000 Bridge
 Within a short time the bridge across the Pee Dee river at Swift Island, 1,006 feet in length and built at a cost of $192,000, will be destroyed. The reason for this destructive act lies in the fact that the new Carolina Power and Light Company's dam below Swift Island when completed will dam up a lake which will cover the present bridge to a depth of 16 feet. The company will build a new bridge some 1,200 feet above the present bridge to take the place of the one to be destroyed. Before the bridge is blown up, several engineers will subject it to many experimental tests for the sake of science and bridge engineering.

Tribute To Life Of Mrs. Julia C. Fuller
 This Randolph Woman Truly One Of The Remarkable Women Of Her Day.
 Writing from Cid, the correspondent of the Lexington Dispatch, who signs herself as "Amicus," but who is none other than Mrs. Gilligan, pays this tribute to the life of Mrs. Julia C. Fuller, of Randolph county, a truly remarkable woman:
 Your correspondent was to spend the day with Mrs. Julia C. Fuller on Saturday last at her residence, which she greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Fuller is one of the most remarkable women of her day, truly. Her elegant and varied attainments, her dignified and fine personal presence, her untiring energies in the prosecution of any purpose she may wish to promote, her positive wealth of any of earth's trials, her charming reception of guests and her special faculty for entertaining, with ease and ease of manner, invest her with the personality of a woman, not exceeding thirty years of age; while the current issues and topics of this period appeal to her as enthusiastically as they would have done fifty years ago. She has certainly defied the encroachments and onslaughts of age as her home environment and the direction of her financial affairs would substantiate. The writer thinks all of this bespeaks a tremendous mentality, rarely found in the world. She is truly a grand woman, now in her 87th year, a nonpareil, in fact.

J. J. Ehlhardt, prominent druggist of Forest City, killed himself Friday night by stabbing himself through the heart with a large knife.
