

ISSUED WEEKLY

PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN

$2.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

VOLUME 131

Asheboro, N. C., Thursday, September 1, 1927

1927

Asheboro Schools Will Open Monday

Large Enrollment Is Expected—
Some Regulations Relative To The Opening Day.

Instructions To Pupils

The Asheboro City School will open September 5th at 8:30 o'clock. A large enrollment is expected. There will be no opening chapel exercises. Visitors are asked not to visit school on the day of September 5th, in order to avoid congestion. Parents desiring interviews regarding failures of last year are asked to call at the office on Tuesday morning, September 6th.

The same rule will apply in regard to the age of first grade pupils entering school: Children six years old by September 5th, 1927, may enter school this fall; those becoming six years old before the beginning of the second term may enter school in January, 1928. All pupils are asked to bring their last year's books to school Monday, September 5th. Any pupils conditioned on last year's work may take a re-examination on such subjects Tuesday, September 6th. All pupils wishing to take such re-examination must notify their room teacher not later than Monday.

The following suggestions are made in regard to High School procedure: School opens at 8:30 at which time each pupil will go to the room in which he belongs. There will be no opening chapel exercises that day. Re-examination for High School pupils making the grade of five (5) on any term of any subject will be given Tuesday, September 6th. Any pupil wishing to take a re-examination must notify teacher in charge not later than Monday. A fee of $1 will be charged for each term of each subject on which the pupil wishes an examination. The proceeds will be used in improving the High School library.

Executive Committee Of Co. S. S. Ass'n To Meet

There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the County Sunday School Association, at the Asheboro Baptist Church, Sunday afternoon, September 11th, at 2:30.

All county and township officers are members of this committee and are urged to be present, if possible.

Some of the officers elected at the recent county convention were unable to accept the work, and their places must be filled by the committee.

Junior Missionary Society
Presents Varied Program

The Junior Missionary Society of the M. E. church had charge of the program Sunday evening. A program "Alice Through The Postal Card" was splendidly rendered under the direction of Mrs. Reavis, Mrs. George Hilliard and Mrs. McGlohn. Each of the young people taking part reflected credit upon themselves and their tutors. Misses Pauline Steed and Ina Andrews did well in playing in a missionary dialogue "Polly's Sister Joins the Baby Division." Many songs and recitations interspersed the program which was not only interesting but instructive.

Asheboro Scouts Winners Of Honors At Uwharrie

Camp Uwharrie, of the local Boy Scout Council, has just closed one of the most successful seasons in its history. A total of 131 boys, including a large number of the Asheboro Scouts, attended the camp during the period just completed. Asheboro Scouts in addition to individually winning many of the honors had the distinction of having the largest percentage of members present in proportion to total enrollment. The Uwharrie camp has been in existence during the past five years and during this time 1,000 Scouts have spent one or more weeks in camp. During the winter months the camp will be occupied practically every week-end by Scouts on week-end hikes, making the camp of year round value to the boys of the Council.

First Annual Coltrane
Reunion Draws Big Crowd

More than 150 persons attended the first annual reunion of the Coltrane family which was held Sunday at the home of Shubal E. Coltrane, near Guilford College. It was decided at the reunion to make the event annual. Prof. Eugene Coltrane delivered an historical address at the reunion. Officers were elected as follows: S. E. Coltrane, president; David S. Coltrane, formerly of Asheboro, but now of Greensboro, vice president; Prof. Eugene Coltrane, speaker; B. W. Coltrane, secretary-treasurer; Daniel Branson Coltrane, Concord; J. A. Coltrane, Guilford College, and Mrs. A. B. Coltrane, of Trinity, historians.

Family Reunion Sunday
At Home Of Mrs. F. E. Gay

A family reunion was held at the home of Mrs. F. E. Gay at her home about two miles north of Asheboro on highway number 70, last Sunday. All of Mrs. Gay's children with their families were present and sumptuous picnic dinner was served from the well filled baskets the guests brought. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Thornbro and daughter, Louise, Mr. and Mrs. E. Weaver and children, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wyrick and children, all of Greensboro; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wright and children, Mr. and Mrs. Thurber, Miss Lena Stultz, all of Randleman, Route 2, Mr. and Mrs. Reid Hannah and Mrs. J. C. Hannah, of Asheboro.

Relative To Trial
Of Criminal Cases
In Court Next Week

Criminal cases where offense occurred in Randleman township will not be called until Wednesday of next week and cases where the crime was committed in Asheboro township will not be called until Thursday. This does not apply to jail cases and witnesses are expected to be in attendance as subpoenaed. Solicitor has authorized this arrangement.

This Aug. 31, 1927.
J. T. BRITAIN,
Chrm. of Calendar Com.

Randleman School
To Open Sept. 12th

Prof. H. H. Hamilton, Of Fayetteville, Is The Principal—
Other Teachers.

The fall session of Randleman high school will open September 12th. Prof. H. H. Hamilton, of Fayetteville, will be principal of the school. Other teachers who have been elected to various places on the faculty include: Grade 1-A, Miss Maude Fox; 1-B, Miss Alta Hutson; 2-A, Miss Mary Parsons; 2-B, Miss Mary Swaim; 3-A, Miss Tula Morris; 3-B, Miss Ruth Hunter; 4-A, Miss Hazel Auman; 4-B, Miss Inez Spencer; 5-A, Miss Mary E. Harrell; 6-B, Miss Gladys Hart; 7-A, Miss Ellen Barker; high school, Miss Ola Mae Fetters; home economics, Miss Grace D. Brown. There still remain a few others to be elected to complete the faculty. Indications are that the Randleman school this year will be the best in the history of the town.

Norfolk Southern Handled
Large Number Peach Cars

According to representatives of the Norfolk Southern railway, the Sandhills peach crop the past season was very valuable. A total of 1,335 refrigerator cars were ordered out by the peach growers, these cars averaging carrying 1,000 worth of peaches. This would make the crop shipped in these cars reach more than a million dollars. This does not include the 225 express cars shipped also.

Revivals Are Features Of The Week In Bennet

Bennet, Aug. 30.—A large number of people are attending the revival services at the Baptist church. Rev. Jesse Blalock is doing the preaching. Much interest is being manifested in the services.

Mr. Eli Scott and family, of Greensboro, accompanied by Miss Valley Scott and Mrs. Annie Bailey, all of Greensboro, came down Sunday on a visit. Miss Scott will remain during the week to attend the Baptist revival.

Rev. E. A. Livingston has announced he will begin a series of meetings at White Oak school house the second Sunday night in September. Services will be held in the afternoons and evenings throughout the revival. White Oak is two miles north of Bennet and west of the Bennett-Siler City road.

Miss Vivian Rich Is Bride Of Mr. Henry Lane

A quiet marriage took place last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rich in West Asheboro when their daughter, Miss Vivian, became the bride of Mr. Henry Lane. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Reavis, pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal church in the presence of the immediate families and a few intimate friends. Mrs. Lane is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rich, of Asheboro, and Mr. Lane is an enterprising young business man and the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lane, also of Asheboro. Mr. and Mrs. Lane left immediately for a trip to Lynchburg, Va., and other places of interest.

Otto Wood And Lexington
Lexington was host to Otto Wood,
North Carolina's most famous convict,
on the occasion of his last escape from the penitentiary, so Wood informed some Lexington men one day last week when he saw him in State Prison, Raleigh. Wood claimed to have eaten supper at Bob Parker's cafe on one evening of his escape. He said he stole the county sheriff's car and parked it in front of the cafe while eating supper. The car, however, didn't suit his fancy and he left it when he departed from Lexington.

Male Dies From Wasps Sting

A mule belonging to Wm. C. Hamer died Sunday from blood poisoning which resulted from stings of wasps. Lloyd Goin, the sixteen-year-old son of Ben Goin, who lives two miles south of Asheboro, was plowing the mule in a rocky field, and plowed through a wasp nest under some rocks whereupon many of the wasps stung the animal. Heroic measures were taken but blood poisoning developed and the mule had to be killed Sunday.

New Confectionery Store
Opened In South Asheboro

Messrs. D. F. Jarrett and S. D. Kennedy have opened an ice cream and confectionery store in the Rich building on South Fayetteville street. The store has been overhauled and repainted and equipment has been put in. Mr. Jarrett was in the mercantile business for eight years before moving to Palestine, Fla., two years ago where he and his father opened an ice cream plant. Mr. Jarrett returned to North Carolina on account of his health. Mr. Kennedy is an Alamance county man.

Three Divorces
Granted By Court

These Take Up Lot Of Court's
Time—But Many Other Cases Are Disposed Of.

Court Next Week Also

Randolph Superior Court for the trial of cases on the civil docket convened in the court house in Asheboro Monday morning with Judge Clayton Moore, of Williamston, presiding. Several of the cases are taking up considerable time, although there are no cases of unusual importance on the docket. Court will last during the week. And beginning Monday a week's term of criminal court will convene with Judge T. B. Finley, of North Wilkesboro, presiding.

Yesterday's session of court was taken up in the trial of the action brought by John M. Gray by his guardian, Emma Gray, and Emma Gray, individually, against R. V. Caudle, involving the legality of the leasing of a store building at Level Cross. This case was given to the jury yesterday afternoon just before adjournment of court.

Three divorces have been granted during the term, these being Nettie Williams from Ernest Williams, Lou Hoover Nance from Oscar L. Nance and Pearl Johnson from W. R. Johnson.

Other cases disposed of include the following: Floy Jordan against Charles Russell and Mrs. Charles Russell, in which plaintiff was awarded judgment for $214 with interest.

M. E. Allen and E. B. Cole against L. D. Luther, plaintiffs awarded judgment for $225.

Citizens Bank and Trust Company, Inc., against W. H. Watkins, et als, non-suit, and defendant is entitled to collect cost of the action from the surety on the prosecution bond of the plaintiff.

James Cook against Lewis Kivett, non-suit, and defendant entitled to collect costs of action from sureties on the prosecution bond.

W. A. Kime against J. R. Caudle, defendant having failed to come into court and prosecute his appeal, it was ordered that the appeal be dismissed and that the judgment of J. S. Ridge, Justice of the peace, be affirmed and plaintiff entitled to recover $25 and costs of the action from the defendant.

C. H. Lucas, et al against Addie Jones, et al, in which the defendant sought to set aside a sale of a tract of land described in the petition. It was found that the sale was regularly made, therefore the appeal entered by the defendant was dismissed and judgment rendered previously by the Clerk of the Court be affirmed, and that judgment be rendered against the petitioner, Mittie Kennedy, for the costs in the action.

Snow In Monroe

The Monroe Enquirer states that two citizens of Monroe claim to have seen snow flakes fall last Thursday during the cold snap which hit the entire State of North Carolina. The Enquirer claims there is nothing to get excited about if snow did fall Thursday, for cold spells are not unusual in August and that almost the same atmospheric conditions which produce hail will produce snow. And hail during a summer storm is not unusual.

Hinshaw Reunion

The fourth annual reunion of the Hinshaw family will be held the first Sunday in September at the home of T. W. Hinshaw near White Hall. All relatives and friends are invited to be present and urged to bring well filled baskets for the picnic dinner.

Providence And Trinity
Schools Open Sept. 19th

Trinity high school, at Trinity, will open for the fall session, on September 19th. Prof. R. D. Marsh will again head the school and will be assisted by an able corps of teachers.

Providence school with Miss Myrtle Cox as principal will open also on the 19th. The Providence faculty is also made up of competent teachers.

The seven-months schools of the county will very likely open on the 1st of October, while the six-months schools will probably open on October 15th, although these dates have not been definitely decided upon.

Trinity, Aug. 28.—Charles B. Morris died in Allen hospital in Memphis, Tenn., August 22nd. He was born in Thomasville, Aug. 11, 1866, a son of the late S. G. and Sarah Kennedy Morris. He was a veteran of the Spanish-American War. Mr. Morris had made his home in Danville, Ill., for the past six years. He was taken from there to the hospital at Memphis three months prior to his death for treatment. He received his education under the late Prof. I. L. Wright at Thomasville. Mr. Morris was a great reader and had a good memory. Two weeks prior to his death he wrote his friends in North Carolina about subjects of interest of which he had read.

Charles B. Morris
Dies In Memphis

Native Of Thomasville, Where Funeral Was Held Last Thursday Morning.

He is survived by two sisters and two brothers: Mrs. G. R. Sumner and Mrs. N. R. Harris, Trinity; and Robert T. Morris, of Chester, S. C., and S. G. Morris, Trinity. He leaves many other relatives in both Randolph and Davidson counties.

Meeting In Asheboro
Tomorrow To Form
A Historical Society

Miss Annie Petty, a Randolph county woman who is connected with the State Historical Society, will be at court house tomorrow, Friday, September 2nd, at four o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a Randolph County Historical Society. Everyone interested in this organization is urged to be present and assist in perfecting the organization. The county is rich in history, and an organization of this kind can be of inestimable value to the county. Miss Petty expects to present plans by which interesting facts may be gathered, relics preserved and markers put at places of historic interest. Miss Petty was reared at Archdale and her love for and interest in the county increases as the years go by. It was through her that the local Woman's Club secured the library truck for the county two years ago. She insists that all who are interested in the organization of an historical society for the county attend the meeting tomorrow afternoon.

Quarterly Meeting Of Friends At Marlboro

Good Attendance, But Inclem-ency Of The Weather Kept
Many Away.

Sophia, Route 1, Aug. 29.—Southern Quarterly Meeting of Friends was held at Marlboro Aug 27th-28th. On Saturday morning at 10 o'clock the select meeting was held. At eleven o'clock L. W. McFarland conducted the hour for worship. At noon a sumptuous picnic dinner was served, after which the business session was held. Owing to the inclement weather not so large a crowd as usual was present. Sunday morning the Sunday school lesson was taught in one class by Franklin S. Blair, of New Jersey. Gurney Wright, of Rich Square, conducted the eleven o'clock service. The revival meeting began Sunday night, conducted by Henry McKinley, of Ohio, and will continue throughout the week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Farlow and little son, James, of Bahama, spent the week-end with their father and mother, Mrs. Sarah Coffin and J. D. Farlow.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robbins and little son, Edward, of High Point, visited at the home of H. W. Robbins Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Rebecca Cox, of Ramseur, Route 1, is spending a few days this week with relatives here.

Frank Henley and family, of Asheboro, spent a while at the home of Mr. Henley's aunt, Mrs. Sarah Osborne, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. McRae and two children, of Greensboro, spent a while at the home of W. F. Brookshire Sunday afternoon.

We are glad to report that B. F. Ridge, who has been confined to his home by deep cold, is able to be out again.

Spinks Craven, of Holly Springs, spent the week-end among friends in this section.

Gurney Wright, of Rich Square, spent Saturday night with M. C. Farlow. He went to Poplar Ridge Sunday night where he will conduct a revival this week.

Fiddlers Convention

The annual State-wide fiddlers convention will be held in the school auditorium at Coolemeese, Saturday night, September 10th. Cash prizes ranging from $1 to $25 will be awarded the winners. Contestants will be admitted to the contest free of charge.

Revival At High Pine Church

A series of revival meetings will begin next Sunday, September 4th, at the Wesleyan Methodist church at High Pine, Rev. W. B. Clubb, of the Georgia Conference will do the preaching during the meeting. There will be two services on Sunday and everybody is invited to come and bring dinner.

SERVICES AT THE M. E. CHURCH

Rev. B. C. Reavis, pastor. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., Mr. Hugh Parks, superintendent. Preaching at 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor.

Morning subject: "Suffering and Glory Blending." At the close of the morning sermon the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered.

Evening subject: "The Challenge of the Unattained."

The Junior, Intermediate and Senior Epworth Leagues will meet at 6:45 p. m.

The mid-week service will be held Thursday at 7:30 p. m. next week rather than Wednesday. This is because of the wedding at the church on Wednesday evening.

Please note the change in the hour for all evening services.

Campbell-Mayberry
Miss Effie Mayberry and Mr. Cleo Campbell, both of Statesville, were married Saturday, August 27th, at the home of J. A. Neighbors, the officiating justice of the peace, north of Asheboro. Mrs. Campbell is the daughter of Mr. Thomas Mayberry, of Statesville, and Mr. Campbell is an enterprising young business man and the son of Mr. Sylvester Campbell, also of Statesville.

Joseph F. Brown, prominent Guilford county farmer, who died last week at the age of 76 years, is survived by seven children, two of whom are George and Marion Brown, of Randolph county. His widow, who was Miss Marion Tuttle, also survives.

Auman Speaker At Missionary Meet

Tells Of His Experience As Missionary For Six Years With Japanese.

Interesting Sketches

A meeting of unusual interest was held at the Methodist Protestant church Wednesday afternoon when the ladies of the Missionary Societies of the church joined with the Clyde Auman Missionary Society of Seagrove in a joint meeting and picnic following. The speaker for this occasion was Rev. Clyde Auman, who has recently returned from a six years' stay as a Missionary from the Methodist Protestant church in Japan. Mr. Auman told most interestingly of his stay in the mission fields and gave most vitally interesting sketches of the earthquake. At the time of the earthquake Mr. Auman and his family were at Nagoya, Japan. Mr. Auman stressed the importance of the work of the Christian school, of which he is president, and told of the interest of the young men and women in a Christian education, and told of preaching his sermons to three relays of people, the buildings being inadequate to hold the congregations.

At the close of the talk, Mrs. Hal Walker sang a solo, then Mrs. Walker and Miss Fern Way sang a duet, accompanied by Miss Louise Swaim. The ladies of the church then under the direction of Mrs. J. S. Lewis, president of the Missionary Society of the Asheboro church, served a most sumptuous basket picnic in the church social rooms.

Star Athletic Boys To Play Game In Virginia

The athletic association of the western division of the Norfolk Southern railway will leave Star on Saturday, Sept. 2, for Virginia Beach on a three-day trip to play the northern division in a ball game. The last game between the teams was played at Star on July 4th, resulting in a score of 23 to 6 in favor of the western division. There will be two pullmans leaving Star on No. 30 to take care of the boys and their families who will make the trip.

Celebrates Birthday

Thomas Wilson celebrated his eighth birthday Saturday afternoon at the home of his parents on East Kivett street. During the afternoon games were played and later the children were invited to the dining room where a color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the table appointments. An ice course was served.

Little O. D. Lewallen
Succumbs To Diphtheria

Master O. D. Lewallen, the six-year-old son of Mrs. O. D. Lewallen, who reside near Ulah, died at the home of his parents Monday. The little boy had taken his second vaccination for diphtheria on last Thursday, but on Saturday he developed a severe case from which death resulted.

He was the only child of his be-reaved parents, two other children having died. The funeral service was held at Hopewell Monday, after which interment followed. Rev. C. L. Gregory, pastor of the Friends church in Asheboro, conducted the service, which interment followed.

Revival At Gravel Hill

The revival meeting which began last Sunday at the Baptist church at Gravel Hill is progressing nicely. P. D. Buck, of Asheboro, assisted by his brother, Rev. E. P. Buck, of Wilmington, are doing the preaching and another brother, Mr. W. F. Buck, also of Wilmington, is in charge of the singing.

Miss Maude Lee Tysor
Weds Wilmer Presnell

A wedding centering the interest of a wide circle of friends and one beautiful in its simplicity was that of Miss Maude Lee Tysor and Wilmer C. Presnell at the home of the bride, at Erect, Thursday evening at 7:00 o'clock. In the living room, made lovely with ferns and cut flowers, the impressive rite ceremony of the Methodist Episcopal church was performed by Rev. H. F. Starr, of Pleasant Garden.

The bride, who was unattended, was lovely in a going away costume of mid-night blue with tan accessories. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Presnell left for northern points of interest.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Tysor and is a graduate of Greensboro College. For the past two years she has taught in the high schools of Randolph county. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Presnell, of Asheboro, and is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, later taking a post-graduate course at that institution.

Among the guests from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Presnell, Misses Claire, Ellen, Althea and Catherine Presnell, Stanton and Walter Presnell, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Caviness and family, Miss Avis McLeod, Misses Jessie Thomas and Gladys Hall and Ralph Spainhour, all of Asheboro; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Teague and family, of Thomasville; Mrs. H. F. Starr, of Pleasant Garden; Mr. Paul Suggs, of High Point; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stout, of Washington, D. C.; Elton Stout, of Siler City; and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tysor, of Greensboro.

The Liberty Parent Teacher Association has extended a cordial invitation to all parents and pupils of Liberty school to a social gathering with the teachers and members of the P. T. Association in the Liberty school building, Monday night, September 5th, at 8 o'clock.

C. W. Steed Resigns
After Long Service

C. W. Steed, for fifteen years policeman for the town of Asheboro, handed in his resignation to the town council last week to take effect September 7th. No announcement has been made by the chief as to the reason for his resignation nor as to his future plans. One of the applicants for Mr. Steed's job as policeman for the town is T. W. Manous, of Albemarle. Mr. Manous has done special police duty at Albemarle and Baden for the past eight years. There will probably be other applicants for Mr. Steed's job. No appointment has yet been made by the town authorities.

J. B. Slack, Jr., Is Married In Raleigh

Married Thursday To Miss Elizabeth
Susan Adams, Rev.
Brown Officiating.

Seagrove, Route 1, Aug. 29.—Judge Steele Lowdermilk, of Rockingham, and Alfred Lowdermilk, of Mt. Gilthead, were recent visitors at the home of A. C. Lowdermilk. They are interested in the family history which Mr. A. C. Lowdermilk is compiling.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Vuncannon and children, of Ansonville, are visiting relatives in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Auman are spending a few days at Wrightsville Beach.

Mr. C. E. Stuart attended the Junior Order State convention at Wilson last week. He also visited his son, V. E. Stuart, at Goldsboro, who is with the Dillon Electric Service Company at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lowdermilk made a business trip to Asheboro Friday.

Mrs. F. J. Cox and children left Saturday for their home in Lexington after spending a week with Mrs. C. E. Stuart. Mrs. Cox and children have spent the summer at Seven Springs and White Lake. Mr. Cox's work with the Delco Light people was in the eastern part of the State during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cole went to Hamlet Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Graves, Misses Martha and Della Mae Graves and Mr. Harwood spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. John Garner, near Hemp.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Reeder spent Saturday night with Mr. Reeder's parents near Hemp.

Rev. and Mrs. R. F. Brown and son, of Richmond, are visiting relatives in this community. They went to Raleigh Thursday to be present at the marriage of Mrs. Brown's brother, J. B. Slack, Jr., to Miss Elizabeth Susan Adams, of Raleigh. Rev. Mr. Brown officiated at the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Russell, of Eldorado, Ark., are spending some time in this community with relatives and friends. Mrs. Russell before her marriage was Miss Maggie Cagle. Miss Evelyn Hutchins has returned to High Point after spending some time with her aunt, Miss Nell Ring.

Revival At Gravel Hill

The revival meeting which began last Sunday at the Baptist church at Gravel Hill is progressing nicely. P. D. Buck, of Asheboro, assisted by his brother, Rev. E. P. Buck, of Wilmington, are doing the preaching and another brother, Mr. W. F. Buck, also of Wilmington, is in charge of the singing.

Miss Maude Lee Tysor
Weds Wilmer Presnell

A wedding centering the interest of a wide circle of friends and one beautiful in its simplicity was that of Miss Maude Lee Tysor and Wilmer C. Presnell at the home of the bride, at Erect, Thursday evening at 7:00 o'clock. In the living room, made lovely with ferns and cut flowers, the impressive rite ceremony of the Methodist Episcopal church was performed by Rev. H. F. Starr, of Pleasant Garden.

The bride, who was unattended, was lovely in a going away costume of mid-night blue with tan accessories. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Presnell left for northern points of interest.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Tysor and is a graduate of Greensboro College. For the past two years she has taught in the high schools of Randolph county. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Presnell, of Asheboro, and is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, later taking a post-graduate course at that institution.

Among the guests from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Presnell, Misses Claire, Ellen, Althea and Catherine Presnell, Stanton and Walter Presnell, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Caviness and family, Miss Avis McLeod, Misses Jessie Thomas and Gladys Hall and Ralph Spainhour, all of Asheboro; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Teague and family, of Thomasville; Mrs. H. F. Starr, of Pleasant Garden; Mr. Paul Suggs, of High Point; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stout, of Washington, D. C.; Elton Stout, of Siler City; and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tysor, of Greensboro.

The Liberty Parent Teacher Association has extended a cordial invitation to all parents and pupils of Liberty school to a social gathering with the teachers and members of the P. T. Association in the Liberty school building, Monday night, September 5th, at 8 o'clock.

E. B. Moss, Dies
Monday Morning

Death Came In High Point Hospital Following Long Illness
After Operation.

Funeral Near Oxford

E. B. Moss, 37, cashier of the Bank of Biscoe, died early Monday morning in the High Point Hospital after an illness of several months. He had been a patient in the hospital for twelve weeks prior to his death. Mr. Moss first went to the hospital for an operation for a chronic case of appendicitis. He did not recover from the effects of the disease, although at times his condition was considered favorable to a return to health.

Mr. Moss was born in Granville county, April 17, 1890, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Moss, who survive him, together with his widow, who before her marriage was Miss Thelma Smith, of Vanceboro; and three brothers, E. L. Moss, of Emporia, Va.; T. E. Moss, of Raleigh; and H. S. Moss, of Wilson. Mr. Moss was cashier of the Bank of Franklinville for a few years prior to the discontinuance of that institution several months ago. He and Mrs. Moss took an active part in the business, social and civic life of the town. After leaving Franklinville bank Mr. Moss went to Biscoe where he became cashier of the Bank of Biscoe, which position he held at the time of his death. He continued his residence in Franklinville, however. He was a member of the Masonic order, holding membership in the lodge at Franklinville.

Funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of his parents at Creedmore, near Oxford, and interment was made in the family burial plot at that place.

The Hoovers To Meet In Annual Reunion Sept. 11

The fifth annual reunion of the descendants of 'Squire Joe Hoover' will be held at the home of L. E. Hoover, in Tabernacle township, Sunday, September 1