

You Are Extended A Cordial Invitation To Attend The Randolph County Fair 4 Big Days And 5 Nights Of Amusement September 28, 29, 30 and October 1

Come, bring the entire family, come every day. There will be something new each hour, something which you ought to see and something which will delight you. There will be free entertainment every day. You will meet old friends and acquaintances whom you have not seen for years, and you will make new friends.

The Fair Association has put forth every legitimate effort during the year to make the fair which begins next week a success. Every department has been enlarged and department heads have exerted themselves to outdo their own work of last year. Spread before you in one grand review will be an epitome of the accomplishments in every line of endeavor in Randolph during the year. The county has made great strides in the past few years and especially during the past twelve months. You may see for yourself at the Fair.

Don't miss any of the features of the Fair. There will be the usual departments of Livestock, "Made in Randolph", Poultry, Farm and Field Crops, Needlework, Fancy Work, Pantry, Art, Schools, Flowers, Curios and Relics, and various subdivisions of each of these. All will interest you.
