

Local Personal Society

Mr. Willard Wright and family spent a part of last week with relatives in South Carolina.

Mr. J. R. Royals, of Trinity, was in Asheboro on legal business yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McAllister, of Fayetteville, were guests of relatives in Asheboro Monday night.

Mrs. R. B. Holloway, of Charlotte, is the guest of Mrs. C. L. Scott, on Salisbury street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Giles visited relatives at Glenn Alpine last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. J. V. Wilson has returned from a few days visit to relatives in Roberson county.

Misses Mary Wade and Kate Bulla and Mr. Gail Hussey visited friends in Mt. Gilead last Sunday.

Mr. L. E. Reeves and son, Hallie, of Raeford, visited Mr. Reeves' son, Mr. E. L. Reeves, and family Sunday.

Miss Rebecca Ray, who spent part of last week with her brother, Mr. E. L. Ray, returned to her home at Cameron Friday.

Mrs. Allie Worth arrived in Asheboro Tuesday for a visit to Mrs. H. M. Worth. She has been on an extended visit to relatives in Virginia.

Mr. C. P. Fox has returned to his home at Staley much improved in health following an operation for appendicitis in a hospital in Greensboro.

Harvey Rogers has moved his family from Asheboro to Staley and has accepted position as manager of the chair factory located there.

Mrs. Clarence Bush and little son, William, returned Sunday from Raeford, where they had been visiting friends for a week.

Mrs. C. T. Hinson, of Asheboro, and Mrs. A. V. Marley, of Franklinville, visited Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Jordan in Greensboro Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cranford returned Monday from Black Mountain where they had been for a few days stay with their son, C. L., Jr., who is a patient in Craigmont Sanatorium.

Miss Mary Bulla, who has been spending the summer with her father, Mr. L. D. Bulla, left Sunday for Southern Pines, where she has a position in the office of Dr. McCain.

Miss Mabel Lynch, of Burlington, is visiting homefolks for a few days this week. Miss Lynch holds a position as stenographer in the office of E. T. Murray, Insurance and Bonds.

Mrs. C. T. Loflin and daughter, Miss Mary, have gone to Lexington for a visit to relatives. Miss Loflin recently underwent an operation in the High Point hospital but is greatly improved.

Miss May McAllister returned last Friday from Montreal, where she had spent the summer. While there Miss McAllister attended a number of interesting religious meetings.

Circle 1 of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Protestant church will give a tea at the home of Mrs. J. S. Lewis tomorrow afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Walter Lyndon has moved her family to Asheboro on Cox street. Mrs. Lyndon has had a position in Asheboro several months but has only recently moved her family here.

Mr. Rudd Newson, who was reared in Union township and who has resided in Lexington for a number of years, will be choister in the revival services at Franklinville next week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smith and daughter, Miss Ethel and son, W. J., Jr., of New Milford, N. J., and Miss Mildred Horner, of Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived Sunday for a few days visit to Mrs. Smith's brother, Mr. A. H. Crowell.

Mr. W. J. Armfield, Jr., left yesterday morning in company with several High Point men, including J. H. Adams, H. A. Mills, J. E. Mills, T. F. Wrenn and G. H. Kearns, on a fishing trip to Paradise Point on the eastern Carolina coast.

Mrs. L. C. Phillips was called to Gastonia this morning on account of the death of Mrs. Warren, mother of Mr. E. R. Warren. The many friends of the family will regret to hear of her death. Mrs. Warren is the mother-in-law of Mrs. Alice Phillips Warren, formerly of Asheboro.

The old Benjamin Millikan home place in Back Creek township, now owned by N. C. Farlow, will be the scene of the annual reunion of the Farlow, Bulla and Millikan families next Sunday. A feature of the family gathering will be the picnic dinner which will be spread on the lawn at the noon hour.

Miss Henrietta Underwood and John Redding left yesterday for the State University. Miss Underwood has been at Salem but has decided to major in Latin at Chapel Hill, entering the Junior Class. Mr. Redding graduated at Duke University last spring and enters the medical department of the University.

Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Gregg, of Liberty, entertained the dentists and their families and some others at a fish fry at Kimesville Lake last Friday night. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Crutchfield and son, Jim Henry, Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Presnell and Dr. and Mrs. John Swaim, all of Asheboro; Dr. C. A. Graham, of Ramseur; Dr. and Mrs. C. D. Kistler, of Randleman; Dr. C. S. Tate, of Ramseur; and Dr. and Mrs. T. F. Ashburn, of Liberty.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Murray left Sunday for their home at Roanoke Rapids after a week's visit to Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Presnell.

Mrs. Annie Robins is spending a few days in Greensboro with her son, Mr. Duke Robins, who has been a patient in St. Leo's hospital for the past month.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Buckley, of Baltic, Connecticut, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Trickett the past week-end. Mrs. Buckley is a sister of Mrs. Trickett.

Misses Gertrude and Nancy Adkins left last Saturday for Stoneville and King, respectively, where they will teach in the graded schools this year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Craven and family have moved from their farm north of Asheboro to the Johnson home on Academy street, recently vacated by Mrs. Bessie L. Rice and family.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Connie Ingold, a daughter, Monday, September 19. Both Mrs. Ingold and the little girl, who tips the scales at eight and a half pounds, are doing nicely.

Mr. Cyrus Masten, of Amo, Ind., visited his cousins, Messrs. M. E. and C. E. Allen, a few days last week. Mr. Masten had been attending a reunion of his family in Winston-Salem before coming to Asheboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wager and little daughter, Gladys Alma, have gone to their home at Chapel Hill after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Wager's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lassiter, at Mechanic.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Luck and daughter, of Seagrove, Route 2, were in High Point Tuesday to see Mrs. D. A. Cornelison, of Seagrove, who is recovering from an operation at the High Point hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Howell arrived in Asheboro from an extended bridal tour through the north. They will spend a few days in Asheboro before leaving for their home in Branford, Florida.

Mrs. Della Rich, of Sophia, was the guest of Mrs. May Hall and Mrs. Z. T. Byrd from last Thursday until Sunday. Mrs. Rich was returning from a visit to relatives and friends at Troy.

Members of the Greensboro, High Point, and Winston Womens' Clubs will picnic at the Busbee Potter Shop next Wednesday, September 28. The Asheboro club has been invited to join the other clubs.

Ralph Andrews, son of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Andrews, of Staley, Randolph county, becomes business manager of the Press Printing Company, of Albemarle, publishers of the Albemarle Press which since 1922 has been published under the private ownership of J. D. Bivins. Andrews has been with the Press since 1919 as linotype operator and is considered one of the best in the State. He married Miss Lottie Lowder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lowder, of Albemarle.

Also Asks Apology

Mrs. J. W. Hanner was a business visitor in Greensboro last Friday.

Mr. James Bunch visited relatives at Oak Ridge Sunday.

Mr. Lewis Dorsett, of Mt. Gilead, was in Asheboro on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Overman and children visited relatives in Burlington last Sunday.

Messrs. R. L. Elkins and J. A. Dixon, of Liberty, were business visitors in Asheboro Tuesday.

Mr. Wm. C. Hammer returned Tuesday from Washington, where he spent a few days on business.

Mr. W. A. Martin, of Franklinville, was among the business visitors on our streets yesterday.

Mrs. Fred Page, Mrs. Ed Cranford and Mrs. O. L. Presnell were visitors in Greensboro Monday.

Miss Rufine Ward visited relatives in Charlotte a few days the first of the week.

Miss Helen Fogleman, of Liberty, was the guest of Mrs. Walter Yow a few days the first of the week.

Mr. Jack Hanner, of Lexington, visited friends in Asheboro last week-end.

Mrs. Ralph Womble, of Sanford, visited Miss Margaret Womble at the Central Hotel Monday.

Messrs. J. S. Lewis, S. F. Phillips and W. L. Ward returned Sunday from a few days fishing trip at Morehead City and Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Wood, of Greensboro, visited Mr. Wood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wood, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Hobart Richardson left last week for Greensboro where he has accepted a position in the Greensboro Drug Store.

Miss Beatrice Lewallen left last Friday for Wentworth where she will be a member of the graded school faculty this next year.

Rev. C. L. Gregory, pastor of the local Friends church, had his tonsils removed in Dr. Reeves hospital in Greensboro Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Stedman, of Halifax, were the guests of Mr. Stedman's brother, Mr. W. D. Stedman, Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Clark Burney and children, of High Point, were guests of Mrs. Martha Wright in North Asheboro last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Page and children, of Rockingham, were the guests of Mr. Page's brother, Mr. Fred Page, and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Smith, of Burlington, were the guests of Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. R. F. Lynch, on Asheville, Route 1, Sunday.

Mr. Henry Armfield left Monday for the state University at Chapel Hill, where he will be a student for the next session.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Murray left Sunday for their home at Roanoke Rapids after a week's visit to Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Presnell.

Mrs. Annie Robins is spending a few days in Greensboro with her son, Mr. Duke Robins, who has been a patient in St. Leo's hospital for the past month.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Buckley, of Baltic, Connecticut, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Trickett the past week-end. Mrs. Buckley is a sister of Mrs. Trickett.

Misses Gertrude and Nancy Adkins left last Saturday for Stoneville and King, respectively, where they will teach in the graded schools this year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Craven and family have moved from their farm north of Asheboro to the Johnson home on Academy street, recently vacated by Mrs. Bessie L. Rice and family.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Connie Ingold, a daughter, Monday, September 19. Both Mrs. Ingold and the little girl, who tips the scales at eight and a half pounds, are doing nicely.

Mr. Cyrus Masten, of Amo, Ind., visited his cousins, Messrs. M. E. and C. E. Allen, a few days last week. Mr. Masten had been attending a reunion of his family in Winston-Salem before coming to Asheboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wager and little daughter, Gladys Alma, have gone to their home at Chapel Hill after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Wager's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lassiter, at Mechanic.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Luck and daughter, of Seagrove, Route 2, were in High Point Tuesday to see Mrs. D. A. Cornelison, of Seagrove, who is recovering from an operation at the High Point hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Howell arrived in Asheboro from an extended bridal tour through the north. They will spend a few days in Asheboro before leaving for their home in Branford, Florida.

Mrs. Della Rich, of Sophia, was the guest of Mrs. May Hall and Mrs. Z. T. Byrd from last Thursday until Sunday. Mrs. Rich was returning from a visit to relatives and friends at Troy.

Members of the Greensboro, High Point, and Winston Womens' Clubs will picnic at the Busbee Potter Shop next Wednesday, September 28. The Asheboro club has been invited to join the other clubs.

Ralph Andrews, son of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Andrews, of Staley, Randolph county, becomes business manager of the Press Printing Company, of Albemarle, publishers of the Albemarle Press which since 1922 has been published under the private ownership of J. D. Bivins. Andrews has been with the Press since 1919 as linotype operator and is considered one of the best in the State. He married Miss Lottie Lowder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lowder, of Albemarle.

Rosika Schwimmer who organized the Henry Ford Peace Ship now requests Mr. Ford's apology to clear herself, she says, of charges growing out of the unsuccessful mission in 1915 to get the boys out of the trenches by Xmas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bean and two children, Hazel Lee and J. C., Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cox and little daughter, Lucile Cavens, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cox, at Pisgah, Sunday.

It has been requested The Courier announce Rev. W. A. Way will preach at Sawyersville Holiness church Sunday, September 20th, at 11 o'clock a. m. The public is extended a cordial invitation to hear Mr. Way.

Mr. Wister L. Lynch, of Wilkingsburg, Pa., is visiting his mother, Mrs. R. F. Lynch, on Asheville, Route 1. Mr. Lynch is a Randolph county boy but for the past several years he has been living in Pennsylvania where he has been most successful in business.

Mr. Charles H. Redding, of Trinity township, was a business visitor in Asheboro yesterday. Mr. Redding says his father-in-law, Mr. W. N. Elder, of Hopewell, Va., continues in feeble health and that Mrs. Elder is also indisposed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hanner and family and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Marley, of Randleman, Route 1, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pratt, at Leaksville. Mrs. Hanner remained to visit relatives there and in Danville, Va., several days before she will return home.

The 73rd birthday of George W. Teague, of Erect, was celebrated the first of last week. More than 300 relatives and friends of Mr. Teague gathered to do him honor on the occasion. A delightful day was spent and a delicious picnic lunch enjoyed at the noon hour by those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell I Bass and little daughter, Elizabeth Lee, moved from Marion, S. C., to Aberdeen Monday where Mr. Bass will buy tobacco on the Aberdeen markets. He has been on the Marion market since the opening of the tobacco season during the first weeks of August.

Those in charge of collecting the recipes for the cook book to be issued by the ladies of the West Circle of the M. E. church are urging those who are to furnish these recipes to get them in to the proper person immediately. The delay in getting in the recipes will delay the publication of the cook book.

A marriage of interest was that last Saturday of Miss Chloe Lucas, of Pisgah, and Mr. Delbert Slack, of High Point, the Rev. W. H. Brown performing the ceremony. Mrs. Slack is the daughter of Mrs. C. H. Lucas, of Union township, while Mr. Slack is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Slack, of the same community.

Mrs. Earle F. Bulla and Mrs. R. C. Lewallen, superintendent and assistant superintendent respectively of the children's department of the Randolph County Fair, insist that children of the county planning to enter exhibits in the fair bring them Tuesday morning or Wednesday morning before 9 o'clock. Children of the county are urged to make entries in this department.

Powders, creams, perfumes, shampoo, hair tonic, dental cream, tooth brushes, soaps, toilet water, powder, anything in the toilet goods line may be found at W. A. Gregory's 5, 10 & 25 Cent Store. Next door to Moring & Wood.

Mr. C. A. Byrd who has been ill at his home at Kemp's Mill, is much improved.

S. A. Linthicum, aged 26 years, brother of W. E. Linthicum, both well known in Asheboro, died in High Point one day last week following an illness of several days. Mr. Linthicum had lived in High Point for six years and was employed at the city filtering plant. He served in the World War. Surviving are his widow and two children.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Hubbard and daughter, Miss Hope, of Farmer, were among the visitors in Asheboro Tuesday. Miss Hubbard is greatly interested in the Randolph County Historical Society and feels that the organization will add many members Home Coming Day at the Randolph County Fair.

The fourth Good Fellowship meeting to be put on by the Asheboro Chamber of Commerce will be held at the Holly Springs school house tomorrow night beginning at 7:30 o'clock. An interesting and varied program has been arranged for this meeting. Similar meetings have been held previously at Farmer, Gray's Chapel and Seagrove, respectively.

Friday Afternoon Club A business meeting of the Friday Afternoon Club was held with Mrs. Fred Page on Sunset Avenue Wednesday afternoon. At this time Mrs. Page served tea and sandwiches informally while plans for the club year were discussed. The course of study for the season will be the political situation and questions of the day with Miss Harriet Elliott, of N. C. College speaker at eight of the meetings. Books were distributed at this time and a brief outline of the course given to each member. Mrs. Rhodes Moffitt who will be out of town for the winter was unanimously voted upon as an honorary member.

M. P. Workers Class Meets The M. P. Workers Class of the Methodist Protestant church met with Miss Lola Luck at her home in North Asheboro Tuesday evening. A short business meeting was held after which a delightful social hour followed. Various games were played for some time at the conclusion of which the hostess assisted by Miss Bonnie Davis served a delicious ice course.

Celebrates Fourth Birthday Little Edward Burhead entertained a number of his little friends at his home on South Fayetteville street last Saturday morning from 10 until 11:30 in celebration of his fourth birthday. Under the direction of Misses Kathleen Amick and Virginia Hanner various games were enjoyed on the lawn by the little guests for some time after which they were invited into the dining room which was attractively decorated in pink and white. The birthday cake with four pink candles formed the centerpiece on the dining table. Delicious cream and cake were served by Misses Carrie Parks, Betsy Brock, Minnie Lee Burhead and Ruth Hanner. The favors were whistles and horns. The little honoree was the recipient of a number of attractive gifts.

Nearly every dairyman in Gaston county either has a silo or will build one soon. Stave silos are most common.

Rayon Silk Bloomers 98c. Teddies 98c. Vests 60c. Pretty line of brazzeries 25c. Try us. Our prices are lower. Pence's Novelty Store. Next door to Courier Office.

Fidelis Class Entertains The members of the Fidelis class of the Friends church entertained the members of the Woman's Home Missionary Society at the home of Mrs. W. C. York in North Asheboro Monday evening. Lemonade was served on the front porch upon the arrival of the guests by Misses Louise McCain and Dorothy Lewallen. The evening was most pleasantly spent in general conversation and a reading by Miss Smith was much enjoyed. A silver offering was taken for the benefit of the missionary society. Delicious refreshments were served.

The Irresistible Power Of Small, Regular Savings Do you remember poor Wilkins Micawber's economic summary? In effect it was this: Income, a hundred dollars a year; outgo, ninety-nine dollars and ninety-five cents, result—happiness. But income a hundred dollars, outgo one hundred dollars are five cents—result, misery. It seems impossible to many that a nickel, one way or the other can make any difference. But the extraordinary power of the regular savings of any small amount of money cannot be appreciated until you have tried it. Get the saving habit. Start an account with this bank now. Asheboro Bank & Trust Co.

Coats Coats During Fair Week we are going to make a special showing of Ladies' and Children's Coats. All the newest materials and furs are used in the making of these coats. We have a large range of prices in Ladies Coats—prices running from— $9.95 to $69.50 Children's— $3.95 to $9.95 Be sure to see these beautiful coats before buying your winter coat, we can give you the newest creations in coats at prices far less than you will pay in larger towns. Don't fail to see them. F. E. Byrd North Carolina

Nothing More Appropriate Every woman knows the joy of possessing a hat that is distinctly becoming to her. Then it is easy to make this selection from our display where such a selection is assured. We are making a special price on our hats during Fair Week. We are making a specialty on Misses' and Children's Hats, among these are the new Clara Bow hats. New hats arriving every day. McMaster-Lovett Hat Shop Over Asheboro Bank & Trust Company Asheboro, N. C.

Ask The Ladies You know why they buy Toilet Goods at The Rexall Store. Have you tried that wonderful odor Cara Nome. A trial size Shari Perfume only 20 cents. An exclusive and delightful odor. Hughes-Morris Hdwe. Co. Asheboro, N. C.

Advance Showing Of Fall And Winter Suits We're making this modest announcement because we expect the garments to do all the talking. But . . . here you are, Mr. Man. The Fall Suits and Overcoats are in stock waiting to shake hands with you and let you give them the "once over." Faller Suits And Overcoats For Fall And Winter An assemblage which exceeds all former showings. Superior in style, woollens and economy. You are invited to this Advance Showing because we want you to be among the first to have the opportunity of making your early selections. $12.75 to $19.75 FALLER'S CLOTHES W. W. Jones & Sons Department Store Asheboro, N. C.

Ideal Barber Shop Back of F. E. Byrd's Store Operated by number one barbers. We have a clean, quiet and sanitary barber shop. Special Attention Given Ladies L. R. Cox, L. A. Jordan, J. A. Pugh, L. A. Hughes, Barbers.

Fair Time Offerings To Our Farmer Friends We extend a cordial invitation to our friends to visit our store during the fair and supply their needs. We have everything in the line of hardware, farm implements, cutlery, heaters, ranges. Our motto is courtesy, good quality and reasonable prices. Hughes-Morris Hdwe. Co. Asheboro, N. C.

Standard Drug Co. Ask The Ladies You know why they buy Toilet Goods at The Rexall Store. Have you tried that wonderful odor Cara Nome. A trial size Shari Perfume only 20 cents. An exclusive and delightful odor. Standard Drug Co.