

Some Points On State Game Law

First Step Is To Secure License, Then Observe Bag Limits And Open Seasons.

Other Information

Before the hunter shoulders his gun and calls his hounds this fall it would be well had he spent an hour or so digesting the State game law ere he takes the trail. For hunting this season, while it may not differ essentially from that of last year and years before, will have to be conducted along lines that will keep the hunter within the law. Obeying the game law will work no hardship on any man and it will work to the advantage of conserving what game is left in the county. There will be no under-cover deputy game wardens snooping around to see what they may discover in the way of law violations, for it is not expected that there will be many slip ups on this score. But the county game commission is desirous of seeing the law observed and any violations of the law reported or discovered by chief deputy C. W. Steed, or any other deputy game warden, will be prosecuted.

It has been the experience where strict game laws are in force that in a few years public opinion is the best means of enforcing the law. It is said that such game laws so tend to increase the amount of game by throwing a protecting arm about it that the people in general are anxious to see the law followed.

Must Have License

At any rate this year and in years to come, or until the present game law is repealed, which is unlikely, the person who hunts off his own land must have a license to do so. The county license costs $1.25, of which $1 is the license and 25 cents the fee for the person issuing the license. State resident license costs $5.25 and is good in any county in the State. The non-resident who wishes to hunt in North Carolina must pay a license of $15.25, which gives permission to hunt in any county in North Carolina. Of course, in all cases the hunter must comply with the law relative to the open seasons. And a license does not give any man permission to hunt promiscuously on any man's land. He must get permission to hunt on any land other than his own as has been the custom and practice heretofore. And the possession of a license gives no man permission to hunt on land leased by another. Licenses may be obtained at several places in the county, among which are from Clerk of Court Lovett, Ingram Filling Station and C. W. Steed, in Asheboro; Underwood's Store, at Gray's Chapel; Watkins-Leonard Hdwe. Co., Ramseur; and Adrian Garner's Filling Station, Farmer.

Quoting the exact wording of the law with reference to the license we find that "Each license shall be void after the first day of April next succeeding the date of its issuance. Each licensee shall have his license on his person at all times when he is taking game animals or birds, and shall exhibit the same for inspection to any Warden or other officer requesting to see it. No person shall alter or loan, change, or transfer any license issued pursuant to the provisions of this act, nor shall any person other than the person to whom it is issued use the same."

"Any person who is a resident of this State, and any dependent member of his family under twenty-one years of age, may take game birds and wild animals in the open season for the same, and not contrary to the provisions of this act, on lands owned by such resident, without a license; and a minor member of a family resident of this State, under sixteen years of age, may hunt under the license of his parent or guardian; but such minor must carry said license when so hunting, unless accompanied by said parent or guardian; and a non-resident minor child of any resident of this State may lawfully procure and use the same license required of a resident, when such non-resident child is actually visiting such resident parent: Provided, that a party who leases a farm for cultivation shall not be required to obtain a license to hunt thereon."

Bag Limits

Possessing a license the hunter cannot kill at will. Bag limits are set. No person may kill more than 10 squirrels in a day. Only two deer any one day nor more than four during an entire season may be killed and neither may be a female deer. There is a closed season in Randolph on the wild turkey, but in other counties in which there is no closed season only two may be killed in any one day and only five during a season. There is no bag limit on the rabbit and this, perhaps, will delight the heart of many a Randolph youth. The bag limit on quail is ten in one day. Only 6 woodcock may be killed in a single day.

It is unlawful to hunt or kill any female deer in North Carolina.

Again quoting from the text of the law we find the following: "No person shall take any squirrel at any time in any public park; that rabbits and squirrels lawfully taken may be bought and sold during the open season and may be possessed for the first five days next succeeding the close of such season; that rabbits may be trapped or hunted without gun at any time; that all animals other than game and fur-bearing animals may be taken in any number at any time; that birds and animals committing deprecations may be taken at any time while committing or about to commit such deprecations; that the skins of fur-bearing animals lawfully taken may be bought, sold, possessed, and transported at any time. Game animals and game birds lawfully taken may be possessed during the open season thereof, and the first ten (10) days next succeeding the close of such open season, but a person may not have in possession in any one day more than two deer, two turkeys, and three days' bag limit of other game animals and game birds."

Unprotected Birds

English sparrows, great horned owl, Cooper's hawk, sharp-shinned hawk, crows, jays, blackbirds, and buzzards and their nests and eggs may be taken, possessed, bought and sold and transported at any time and in any manner, but such birds may not be killed by the use of poison except under a permit issued by the Warden.

Unlawful Possession

In all cases where possession, transportation, purchase, or sale of any wild animals, wild birds, or any part thereof, is restricted or unlawful, the possession, transportation, purchase, or sale of such animals, birds, or any part thereof coming from or taken without the State, whether belonging to the same or a different species from that native to this State: Provided, such animals or birds belonging to the same family as those protected by this act shall be deemed to be and is, unless otherwise provided, unlawful.

Manner of Taking Game

No person shall at any time of the year take in any manner, number, or quantity, any wild bird or wild animal, or take the nest or eggs of any wild bird, or possess, buy, sell, offer or expose for sale, or transport at any time or in any manner any such bird, animals, or part thereof, or any birds' nest or egg, except as permitted by this act; the possession of any game animals, except squirrels and rabbits, or game birds or part of such animals or game birds in any hotel, restaurant, cafe, market, store, or by any produce dealer in this State shall be prima facie evidence of the possession thereof for the purpose of sale in violation of the provisions of this act; but this provision shall not be construed to prohibit the person lawfully obtaining game from having it prepared in a public eating place and served to himself and guests: Provided, however, that for the purpose of this act any person hiring another to kill aforesaid game or animals or game birds and receiving same, shall be deemed buying same, and subject to the penalties of this act. Game birds and game animals shall be taken only in the daytime.

Funeral Held For Mary Mendenhall

Last Rites Said At Greensboro And Body Brought To Randleman For Burial.

Burial services were held at the Randleman cemetery Sunday afternoon for Miss Mary Mendenhall, who died Thursday at Willow Grove, Pa. Prior to the services at the grave, the funeral was conducted from the Hanes funeral home in Greensboro by Rev. Milo Hinckle, pastor of the Asheboro Street Friends church, assisted by Rev. Loyd Thompson, pastor of the West Market Street M. E. church, Greensboro.

Miss Mendenhall, who was about 26 years of age, was the daughter of the late L. D. Mendenhall and of Mrs. Mendenhall, formerly of Randolph county, but for the past several years resident of Greensboro. Miss Mendenhall was well known in both Randleman and Asheboro where she had resided and also in Greensboro where she went to live with her parents when they moved away from Asheboro. She had, however, not lived in Greensboro for the past two years. Her body was brought to the home of her mother in Greensboro following her death.

between half an hour before sunrise and sunset, with a shotgun not larger than ten (10) gauge, or a rifle, unless otherwise specifically permitted by this act. No person shall take any game animals or game birds or migratory game birds from any automobile, or by the aid of or with the use of any jack-light, or other artificial light, net, trap, salt-lick, or poison; nor shall any such jack-light, net, trap, snare, salt-lick or poison be used or set to take any animals or birds; nor shall birds or animals be taken from an airplane, power-boat, sailboat, or any boat under sail, or any floating device towed by a power-boat or sail boat; nor shall any person take any dove, wild turkey, or upland game bird on any field or in any cover in which corn, wheat, or other grain has been deposited for the purpose of drawing such birds thereto. A person may take game birds and wild animals during the open season thereof, with the aid of dogs, unless specifically prohibited by this act. It shall be lawful for organized field trial clubs, or associations for the protection of game, to run trials for dogs at any time: Provided, that no game birds or game animals shall be taken during the closed season by reason thereof.

Unlawful Transportation

No common carrier or employee of such carrier shall, while engaged in such business, transport for the owner any wild animals or birds or any part thereof, or nest or eggs of any bird, nor shall any such carrier or employee knowingly receive or possess the same for shipment for another, unless the person offering the same for shipment is in possession of valid hunting license or collecting permit. A person who is a non-resident hunting licensee, may, under a permit issued by the Warden, transport within this State, or from a point within to a point without, otherwise than by parcel post, during the open season thereof, game birds and animals lawfully taken by him or parts thereof, but he shall not transport out of the State during any one open season more than two male deer and two wild turkeys, or during one calendar week more than two days' bag limit of other game animals and game birds. A person may transport at any time and in any manner non-game animals and the fur of a fur-bearing animal lawfully taken. A person may transport, except by parcel post, and possess at any time in any manner, the head, antlers, hide, feet or skin of game animals or game birds lawfully taken. A person may buy and sell at any time the mounted specimens of heads, antlers, hides, and skins of game animals lawfully taken and possessed: Provided, the person selling such specimens have a written permit, issued by the Warden authorizing him to do so.

Packages To Be Marked

Any package in which any wild animal or bird or part thereof, or egg or nest of any wild bird, is transported shall have clearly and conspicuously marked on the outside thereof the names and addresses of the consignor and consignee, together with an accurate statement of the number and kinds of animals or birds, or parts thereof, or eggs or nests, contained therein.

Punishment for Violation of Act

Any person who takes, possesses, transports, buys, sells, offers for sale, or has in possession for sale or transportation any wild bird, animal, or part thereof, or nest or egg of any bird, in violation of any of the provisions of this act, or who fails to perform any duty imposed upon him by this act, or who violates any lawful order, rule or regulation adopted by the Commission, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon the first offense and conviction thereof shall be fined not more than fifty dollars ($50.00) or imprisoned for not more than thirty days and upon the second offense and conviction thereof shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200.00), or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or both, in the discretion of the court, and in all cases the Commission may revoke the license of any offender convicted under this

Dr. Frank Crane Says

Right Inheritance Easy To Give

Most normal men and women live for their children. Beyond getting what satisfaction they can out of their own lives, they want to see their children get satisfaction out of theirs, they want to see they have a better chance and more advantages than they themselves had. Just how to accomplish this requires much thought and calls for all our intelligent planning. It is pretty well established that leaving your children a lot of money does them no good. More wrecks have been caused, more lives ruined and more characters undermined by having things made too easy for children, by giving them too many unearned advantages than by anything else. It may be safely concluded that if any man has a grudge against his children and wants them to be failures the surest way is to leave them a lot of money. Thinking people know that other things, such as character and the like, count more than money. Just how to leave our dear ones what they require is rather difficult. In the first place, we ought to do what we can to bequeath to them an orderly law-abiding society, a state in which the laws are respected and obeyed. People, therefore, that countenance bootlegging and other illicit acts which happen to be popular, are working for a state of society which will be inimicable to the coming generation. The second thing is character. It is our duty to our children to give them a good biological inheritance. This we can do by living clean lives ourselves and, in the final analysis, most of the good we do other people depends on how well we take care of ourselves. If the children are healthy and strong and normal physically the next thing they need is moral character. Unfortunately, this is a more difficult thing to come at. Out of many a family with the highest ideals and the most blameless practice can come a descendant who is absolutely lacking in moral stamina. About all we can do is to give as good an example as possible and good teaching. The result then is in the lap of the gods. We can't help it and we are not to blame if the young scion turns out crooked. It is lamentable, but it is inevitable. Another thing we can leave our children is friendship and association with the right kind of people. This we can only do by associating with the right kind of people ourselves. The best that can be done, in a nut shell, is a know our children, be companions with them and influence them by our own character as much as possible.
