PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN

Asheboro, N. C., Thursday, November 3, 1927

$2.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

Rev. S. W. Taylor Elected President Of North Carolina M. P. Conference

Selection Made On First Ballot
Yesterday Afternoon By A Handsome Majority.

Boy Scout Finance
Drive Is Postpon

Pledges Unfailing Loyalty And Service

Splendid Addresses And Power-ful Sermons Feature The Conference Sessions.

Rev. S. W. Taylor, for seven years pastor of the First Methodist Protestant church at Burlington, was yesterday afternoon elected president of the North Carolina Methodist Protestant Conference which opened its sessions in the Asheboro M. P. church on South Fayetteville Street Wednesday morning with Dr. A. G. Dixon, for five years its president, in the chair. Mr. Taylor's election came on the first ballot and he received probably the largest majority of any president of the conference in the past twenty years. In a very happy speech of acceptance, Rev. Mr. Taylor pledged his unfailing loyalty and devotion to the work of the conference as its executive head. In his brief speech, the new president asserted that the office should not be regarded merely as an honor, but as an office of responsibility in steering the work of the denomination in this State.

Other officers elected were: Rev. C. W. Bates, of Asheville, re-elected secretary for the eighth consecutive year and his twelfth year as secretary to the conference; Rev. H. F. Surratt, show a success as heretofore. The admission charge will be ten cents, and it is hoped that all who can will at-Rev. C. B. Way, of Lexington, reporter; Rev. J. E. Pritchard, of Asheboro, historian; and W. L. Ward, of Asheboro, lay member of the station-ing committee. Election of standing committees was also held.

Address By Dr. Lewis Preceding the election of officers, the conference heard a masterful address by Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, of located on the High Point-Kerners-Washington, D. C.; president of the general conference, whose address was received with keen interest by the large audience of delegates, ministers and visitors. Dr. Lewis will in 1928 complete his eighth year as president of the entire Methodist Protestant de-made a short speech of welcome to the conference on behalf of the Former Randolphian churches of Asheboro. Congressman William C. Hammer, on behalf of the local M. P. church, welcomed the con-ference delegates and ministers, while Dr. E. L. Moffitt spoke words of welcome on behalf of the town of Asheboro. Rev. N. G. Bethea, of Lexington, responded for the conference held by the North Carolina Metho- boro following ill health for some time dist Protestants, formally opened its and confinement to his bed for nine sessions Wednesday morning at 9:30 months. He was a member of the o'clock with Dr. A. G. Dixon, of Asheboro Street Friends church in the Greensboro, presiding. Opening ex- Gate City. Surviving are his widow, ercises consisted of a devotional ser- Mrs. Sadie Welbourn Plummer, six ing from his home since Friday vice led by Dr. Dixon during which sons, F. S., of New Jersey; N. S. of Death came as a result of an epileptic

(Please turn to page 8)

Ladies' Night Observed By Rotarians Last Thursday

Thursday night of last week in the dining hall of the First M. E. Church, South, Asheboro, the local Rotary Club observed ladies' night, dinner for the occasion being furnished by one of the circles of the church. The teachers of the Asheboro schools were welcome and this was responded to by Prof. Burton of the local school facelementary schools, and T. Wingate Andrews, of the High Point city schools. Prof. R. J. Hilker, accompanied by Mrs. Hilker at the piano, delighted the Rotarians and their guests with a solo. The Hallowe'en idea was carried out effectively in the decorations and favors.

Montgomery's Big

Drive Is Postponed

The finance drive of the Boy Scouts of America in Asheboro has been postponed by the finance com-mittee until a later date. This drive will probably come sometime during the latter part of the month. The local troop of scouts is growing very rapidly, there being an enrollment of twenty-three at the present time. It is planned to increase the number to fifty to increase the number to fifty scouts during the coming year.

Chrysanthemum Show To Be Held Nov. 8th

In The Building Formerly Occupied By The Brady-Hughes Hardware Company.

The annual chrysanthemum show held under the auspices of the Woman's Club, will be on Tuesday, November 8, in the store building re-cently vacated by Brady-Hughes Hardware Company, the court house not being available because court is in session. Refreshments will be served as usual at the noon hour and through the afternoon and evening.
The Educational Department will have a bazaar, the proceeds to go to the school. It will be an ideal place to buy your Christmas presents.

The Flower Committee and flower growers have worked to make this Community Singing There will be a community singing at Bunker's Hill church next Sunday afternoon beginning at 1:30 o'clock. All singers are invited to be with us and take part. The public in general is invited. Bunker's Hill church is

Demand Farm Relief The joint conference of Corn Belt and Southern farmers in session in

Dies In Greensboro

day at Springfield.

Opening Session

W. A. Plummer, aged 83 years, died
The conference, the 100th to be Saturday night at his home in Greens-W. A. Plummer, aged 83 years, died ages. ert Plummer, of Asheboro.

Funeral was held Wednesday morning at Springfield meeting house, near High Point, with Rev. Milo S. Hinckle in charge, and interment made in the church cemetery.

Mr. Plummer was a brother of the late Annie Plummer Vuncannon. He was born in Randolph and lived in the county many years, being engaged in teachers of the Asheboro schools were guests also of the Rotarians. Dr. E. Archdale. He lived in Asheboro for a L. Moffitt made a short address of while at one time and was with the board of stewards of the Central while at one time and was with the Asheboro Furniture Company. He went to Greensboro from Sanford Fulghum, State superintendent of where he was with the Sanford Fur-

Mrs. Hannah Louise Finch Dead Mrs. Hannah Louise Finch died at the home of her son, R. L. Finch, in High Point Saturday afternoon fol-lowing an extended illness. Mrs. Finch was born in Randelph county July 19, 1845, a daughter of Penell and Cynthia Wood Arnold. She moved Tick, of Atlanta, Ga., and one son, about the face and right hand as the roots about the face and right hand as the about the face and right hand as the and sneeks too to add color to the through the 12th. The fair will be under the auspices of the Troy post of the American Legion which has made extensive preparations for the event. Every Legion member from any post will be admitted free upon presentation of membership card at the main entrance. Entrance fees will be charged others, but these are hominal.

Included in the attractions of of the many exhibits which will be on display, will be three airplanes, two from Fort Bragg and one from Charlotte; a balloon assension each day from which the balloonist will drop in a parachute from a distance of 1,000 feet in the air; a hog calling centest, horse aloce pitching contest, and many other features. There will be a large midway also with numbers of attractions.

BETICAL OR SECONAL

Saturday Of Month

The suction sales which have been for some months past conducted on the first Monday in each month on the vacant lot next to R. C. Johnson's store, in Asheboro, will hereafter be theid on the second Saturday in each month on the vacant lot next to the postoffice on South Fayetteville of Street. Those having anything to be placed on sale at these auctions are urged by the Merchants Association to list their articles with Mr. C. It. Scott at the Asheboro Printing Company so that they may be advertised in advance and thereby facilitate their sale. There is no charge either for the entry or for the sale, it being a free service offered by local merchants.

Randolph Is Not Going Behind The State Game Laws

Contrary to rumor which is said to have gained current in Greensboro, Randolph county is not charging an additional county license fee to hunters holding a State license. According to an article in the Greensboro News, J. K. Dixon, of the department of conservation, in response to an inquiry over this alleged practice on the part of Randolph county, advised that the holder of a State license did not have to pay an additional linot have to pay an additional li-cense fee. Dixon is right, of course, for that is laid down in the State Game Law, and inquiry from any game warden or deputy game warden would have revealed that no such practices are telerated in the State. Randolph, having a member of the State game commission, E. D. Cranford, a county game commission, and county warden and deputy wardens who know their jobs, would hardly go behind

Special Term Of Court In Session

Is For Trial Of Civil Cases Only And Several Of These Are Disposed Of.

Harwood Presiding

Randolph Superior Court for the trial of cases on the civil docket convened in the court house in Asheboro Monday morning with Judge John H. Harwood, special judge, of Waynes-ville, presiding. This special term will continue throughout this week and is scheduled to last all of the following week. Several cases have been disposed of during the first three days of court, among which are the following:

Carter Mercantile Company vs G.

iery Mills, Randleman, for damages were compromised out of court and the settlement confirmed by the route. The foreign checks. Some weeks before the Friends described by the route. The settlement confirmed by the route of the Friends described that the settlement confirmed by the route. the settlement confirmed by the court. Point, Route 3, is one of the bene- he forged a check on the Randolph nomination she was at all times inter-One of these was for $200 and the

G. P. Barker vs E. L. Cox, mistrial ordered during course of the hearing. Claud Underwood vs W. W. Walker, et als, plaintiffs awarded $10 dam-

Found Dead In Field John Williamson, aged about 50 years, farmer of near Steeds, was found dead in a field near his home Sunday afternoon. He had been miss-Washington, D. C.; C. R., W. A., and fit, according to the coroner's verdict. W. W., all of Greensboro, and W. R., The funeral was held from Needham's of Miami, Fla., and one brother, Rob- Grove church Monday morning at 11

D. B. Coltrane Is Again Honored By The Methodists

D. B. Coltrane, native Randolph man, who is a regular visitor to his native county during Home Coming weeks at the Randolph Fair, was on Monday night elected for the 26th Methodist church of Concord. Mr. Coltrane is president of the Concord National Bank, and one of the leading Methodists in the South. He is president of the North Carolina Chiristian Advocate board and has held appointments several times in the Southern Methodist Conference.

Child Severely Injured By

And Will Last For Three Days And Nights—Sponsored By The American Legion.

Montgomery county's big three-day fair will open Thursday, November 10th, at Troy, and will continue through the 12th. The fair will be under the auspices of the Troy post of the American Legion which has made extensive preparations for the auspices for the American Legion which has made extensive preparations for the event. Enserv Legion preparations for the event. The suction sales which have been the event. The suction sales which have been the right event and right hand as the result of the explosion of a dynamite cap with which the child was playing and spooks too to add color to the result of the explosion of a dynamite cap with which the child was playing in the home of its parents Tuesday. The child was taken immediately to St. Leo's hospital, Greensboro, for treatment. The child's face was considerably marred by the explosion, and if it should recover from the section of the American Legion which has made extensive preparations for the face and right hand as the result of the explosion of a dynamite cap with which the child was playing in the home of its parents Tuesday. The child was taken immediately to St. Leo's hospital, Greensboro, for treatment. The child's face was considerably marred by the explosion, and if it should recover from the section of the American Legion which has been the right event and spooks too to add color to the explosion of the should recover from the sector.

Local Boys Win Ball Game

From Greensboro high school defeated the five scene of the right event and spooks too to add color to the explosion of the supplier and spooks too to add color to the explosion of the supplier and spooks too to add color to the explosion of the home of its parents Tuesday. The child was taken immediately to St. Leo's hospital, Greensboro, for treatment. The child's face was considerably marred by the explosion of the supplier and spooks too to add color to the explosion of the supplier and spooks too to add color to the be upon each and every one.—Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Briles and Family.

District B. Y. P. U. Held An Interesting Meeting Here Sunday

Every Union In District Represented In Large Numbers— Franklinville Wins.

On Sunday afternoon at three o'clock the Bertist young people of the Randolph District came together in large numbers at the Asheboro Baptist Church in what proved to be one of the most enthusiastic and in-spirational meetings held by this

Every union in the district was well represented, some having almost 100 per cent of their membership present. Franklinville had the largest delegation of any church and, incidentally, the Intermediate Union of that church carried away the Efficiency banner which is presented at each meeting to the union making the highest average grade. The Randleman seniors took second place, having maintained a very high average since the last meet-

A great deal of enthusiasm was manifested during the business session when it was decided to have the members of all the B. Y P. U's. in the district come together, probably during the Thanksgiving holidays, in a social gathering. A committee was appointed to make plans for this affor the Baptist young people and of Siler City, who brought the inspirational message of the afternoon. Mr. Canipe thrilled his hearers as he brought to them a wonderful message a Successful and Happy Life."

Local Grocer Swaps Horse For Two Dogs And 9 Pups

newcomers, the horse which for years merchant, had forged check after pulled the delivery truck for A. O. check on the Candor bank. His checks bered among the animal population of ingham, near Star and at various Asheboro. Frank lost his job years other places. Zell Brown and Earl ago, but he did not lose his berth in Vestal, however, were persistent in his master's stable at the same time. their search for the wanted man and C. Cox, plaintiff awarded judgment Mr. Ferree kept him, partly through several times they were nearly up for $571.94 with interest from due date.

Boylans, Inc., vs W. B. Bryant, defendant agrees to judgment for plaintiff in the amount of $132, with in tiff in the amount of $132, with in Boylans, Inc., vs W. B. Bryant, deweek Mr. Ferree found a farmer who would trade for old Frank. The trade ly served a term in the penitentiary daughter of John Trollington Roney, ecuted on this charge, since his father years ago to make her home. the late J. B. Duke.

Hallowe'en Accorded A Noisy Welcome In Asheboro Mon. Night

Costumes And Masks Of Every Description—Band Adds To Gaiety Of Night.

several hours, beginning shortly after dark, the streets were crowded by hundreds bent on Hallowe'en fun. All of Asheboro. the costumes usually seen on this occasion in Asheboro and a number of Mrs. Charity Johnson new ones were to be seen. It was not an unusually noisy crowd that thronged the streets, however, all being bent on fun with little noise save the laughter and shouts of the younger folks. Costumes and masks were of every description so that it was difficult to tell whether some of the flappers were the real thing or just young fellows out to give a burlesque of the modern girl.

The Asheboro band quit its practice a short time while the Hallowe'en celebration was at its height to come Explosion Of Dynamite Cap out and give the crowd a sample of the music which it was practicing. Elma Hinshaw, six-year old son of The children especially had a good Mr., and Mrs. John Hinshaw, of Lib-time Monday night, even little tots in Playing a bang-up game from start to finish, the scrappy little team of the Asheboro high school defeated the Greensboro high school football reserves on the local field Thursday afternoon by the score of 12 to 6. York and Overman led the statek for the locals, gaining consistently throughout the game. Redding for Asheboro was the outstanding star in the line which met and broke up the attacks of the fleet Greensboro backs. The longest run of the game was made by the powerful Senste finance commits of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further and broke up the attacks of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further and broke up the attacks of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further and broke up the attacks of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further and broke up the attacks of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further and broke up the attacks of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further and the game was made by limit the score of the game was made by limit the score of the game was made by limit the score of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further and broke up the attacks of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further of the game was made by limit the score of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further of the game was made by limit the score of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up an Asheboro further of the fleet Greensboro who pleked up and fleet Greensboro who pleked up and fleet Greens

Ollie Hursey, 22, Jailed On Charge

Arrested Near Jackson Springs Monday Night And Brought To Asheboro.

Gave Bad Check Here

To The Amount Of $340 In Payment For Second Hand Ford Automobile.

Ollie Hursey, 22 years old, son of nel of the school. Alex Hursey, of Biscoe, is in jail in asheboro following his arrest Monday is the pleasant news that they have distance before he was found. In the party making the arrest were Sheriff J. A. Brady, Earl Vestal and Zell Brown, all of Asheboro, and a deputy sheriff from Rockingham.

grew out of a transaction in Ashefair which promises to be a big event sey gave the local company a check Dr. Davis. It is safe for every negro for $340 signed by C. R. Camel and Dr. O. G. Tillman, of the local drove the car away and it was not un- lectual advisor to visit us at Ashechurch, introduced Rev. J. C. Canipe, til the next day that the local people was immediately instituted for Hur- torium on the hill. sey, whose real name was not known on "The Six-Point Record System of to the Randolph Motor Company at ual kind consideration and offers a that time.

Hursey was caught largely as a result of his trail of forged and worthless checks. It was found that Hursey, using the name of C. R. Camel Frank, known to every resident of written so that it resembled the sig Asheboro save the very young and the nature of C. R. Campbell, a Candon Ferree's grocery, is no longer num- were found at Eagle Springs, Rock-brother of Artelia Remey, mother of returned the car to the Mt. Gilead agency before the young man got away with it.

Boy Strays From Home

Ernest Covington, 19, son of D. A. Covington, of High Point, has been missing from home since September 3rd, and neither his parents nor any of his kinspeople have heard anything from or about him since that time. Mr. Covington is extremely anxious to locate his son and to prevail on him to return home. No cause can be assigned for his leaving. Mr. come in Asheboro Monday night. For D. A. Covington is a native Randolphian and is a brother to Mr. W. C. Covington, of Covington and Prevost,

Dies From Paralysis

Suffered Stroke About Ten Days Ago-Funeral Will Be Held Friday Morning.

Mrs. Charity Briles Johnson died yesterday afternoon at her home in 1862, in this county. She was an honest hard-working woman and held in high esteem by her neighbors, friends and relatives.

Mrs. Johnson is survived by one son, Mayfield Briles, of Randleman, Route 2, and the following step-children: Mrs. Alice Welch, Mrs. Sarah

Boy Scouts Hold A Johnson, Mrs. Harlee Barker, Mrs. James Faulkner, Miss Senith Johnson, From Greensboro Reserves Messrs. Thomas and Dennis Johnson and one grandson, Glenn Briles, two

Colored People Are Appreciative Of The Help Given Them

Forging Checks
Local Authorities Have Made
History For The Colored
School During Year.

The colored people of the town of Asheboro are appreciative of unceasing endeavors of the school au-thorities of this town to raise, in every way practical the status of the colored graded school. The authorities have made history for our school this year in giving it its sixth teacher on the faculty. Never before has there been the sixth teacher in the person-

To add to this inspiring acquisition chief of negro education in this State.

see a typical head of a Department of Education who is at once tactful in The specific charge against Hursey act, cautious in speech, scholarly in throughout Randolph and adjacent knowledge, and best of all fearlessly sincere in the execution of his duty. It is an intellectual treat to hear to listen to his advice. It is an honor drawn on the Bank of Candor. Hursey to our school to have as big an intelboro. He will speak to the parents, found they were out a car and in a children, and well-wishers on the worthless check. However, a search night of the 11th in the school audi-

The school, hereby, solicits the uscordial invitation to all.

End Came Tuesday Morning Following Long Illness— Buried At Holly Springs.

Native Of Randolph

ficiaries of the estate left by J. B. Motor Company he bought a car from ested in the good of others. Her life citizens, and he, in turn, became Duke, tobacco and power magnate. the Ford agency at Mt. Gilead signing was a blessing to all with whom she known and respected by them. Mrs. Stanley is a second cousin of his brother's name to the check which came in contact. Mrs. Cox went to Mr. Caveness assisted in organthe millionaire Duke, being a grand- he gave in payment. He was not pros-

Before her marriage many years They are Mrs. H. M. Campbell, of hand in the industrial development of Spencer; Mrs. R. B Brown, of High his town and county. Point; and Mrs. Martin Smith, of In 1906, shortly after he moved to Liberty. pastor of Mrs. Cox.

Birthday Celebration

More than two hundred relatives and friends of Mrs. A. W. Gray, of Level Cross, gathered at Level Cross Methodist Protestant church last Sunday to celebrate her 60th birthday. Rev. W. H. Neese, pastor of the church, conducted a short service, after which the sumptuous dinner which had been spread on the church lawn was served. Mrs. Gray was then asked to place the flowers which the visitors had brought with them on all the graves of her relatives buried in the church cemetery. Ninety-six of the 240 buried in the North Asheboro following three years cemetery were relatives of Mrs. Gray. of ill health and a light stroke of par- The occasion came as a complete suralysis suffered about ten day ago. prise to Mrs. Gray who was at home Mrs. Johnson was born December 5th, attending to her duties when sent word to come to the church.

> The concrete bridge across Little River on Highway 74 between Troy and Biscoe will be opened to the pub-

Monthly Court Of Honor In Asheboro

Henry Caveness Called By Death Early Wednesday.

As Result Of Stroke Of Paraly-sis Sustained Monday—Death Not Unexpected.

Was Prominent Citizen

For Years Closely Identified With The Business And Civic Life Of The County.

Henry T. Caveness, for years prominent and influential citizen of Asheboro and Randolph county, died night at the home of Frank Jenkins, secured the invaluable services of at his home on Sunset Avenue at 3 who lives in the country between Dr. G. Davis, formerly of Biddle Uni- o'clock yesterday morning from the Jackson Springs and Hoffman, on versity. Dr. Davis is a scholar and effects of a stroke of paralysis sufcharge of forging checks and passing lecturer of accepted standing. He fered Monday before noon. Mr. Cavworthless checks. Hursey was pulled carries with him the high commenda- eness had been in ill health for the from under the Jenkins home by the tion of the foremost educators of the past eight years, and during that officers who had trailed him some State. He is the personal representatime had sustained several light tive of Prof. Newbold, who himself is strokes of paralysis, none of which however, were as severe as the stroke To see and hear Prof. Newbold is to Monday morning. His death, while expected, came as a distinct shock to his many friends and relatives counties.

Mr. Caveness was born at Cheeks, in Randolph county, on October 15, 1861, and was a son of the late Benjamin S. and Sarah E. Caveness. On December 23, 1886, he was married to Miss Lydia A. Lowdermilk, daughter of the late Alfred Lowdermilk and his wife, of Brower's Mill. Mrs. Caveness together with the following children survive: Mrs. J. G. Crutchfield and Z. M. Caveness, of Asheboro, and C. C. Caveness, of Centralia, Washington. He leaves also one sister, Mrs. Callie Poole, of Fayetteville; three brothers, A. W. Caveness, of Ontario, California, Rev. C. Dies At Spencer

H. Caveness, of Elizabethtown, N. C., and D. F. Caveness of Greensboro; and two half brothers, B. M. Caveness, of Ramseur, Route 2, and I. F. Caveness, of Greensboro.

In early manhood, Mr. Caveness was engaged in farming with his father. For twenty years or more, he operated a general store, farm and grist mill at Cheeks, and by close application to business for which he seemed especially fitted, he built up Mrs. Mary F. Cox, aged 75 years, seemed especially fitted, he built up widow of Timothy Cox, of Randolph a large and flourishing business in county, died at the home of her his community. In 1905, Mr. Cavto himself and his church.

Conference Is Welcomed

The session last uight consisted of welcome addresses and a splendid sermon by Dr. J. H. Straughn, of Washington, D. C. Rev. C. L. Gregory, made a short speech of welcome to himself and his church as a splendid sermon by Dr. J. H. Straughn, of Washington, D. C. Rev. C. L. Gregory and a short speech of welcome to himself and his church.

It develops that Hursey has recent-ly served a term in the penitentiary owning following an illness of several years was consummated, Mr. Ferree getting two hound dogs and nine puppies for charge of forgery. He had been out of prison less than 60 days when he made his appearance in Asheboro. It is stated that prior to his term in the would trade for old Frank. The trade was consummated, Mr. Ferree getting two hound dogs and nine puppies for his faithful steed. The old horse will probably spend his declining years on a Randolph farm.

Soon Carelina after conviction on charge of forgery. He had been out of prison less than 60 days when he made his appearance in Asheboro. It is stated that prior to his term in the was consummated, Mr. Ferree getting two hound dogs and nine puppies for his faithful steed. The old horse will probably spend his declining years on a Randolph farm.

Soon Carelina after conviction on charge of forgery. He had been out of prison less than 60 days when he made his appearance in Asheboro. It is stated that prior to his term in the state of the manual probably spend his declining years on a Randolph farm.

The trace found a farmer who laughter, Mrs. H. M. Campbell, in ly served a term in the position on the disagrance on the served a term in the position on the served a term in the laughter, Mrs. H. M. Campbell, in ly served a term in the prior to his term in the daughter, Mrs. H. M. Campbell, in ly served a term in the pupping for head on the foundation of the same of the prior to his term in the position on the made his appearance in Asheboro. It is stated that prior to his term in the South Carolina pen he did time on the > ago was president of the institution, ago to Timothy Cox, she was Miss retiring on account of ill health. He Mary F. Macon, and was a sister of was interested also in several other the late Gideon T. Macon, of Ashe- business enterprises in Asheboro, and boro. Three daughters survive her. was ever ready to lend a helping > Asheboro, Mr. Caveness joined the The body was taken to the old Asheboro Methodist Episcopal church, family burying ground at Holly South, and was for years and at the Springs church for interment yester- time of his death a member of the day and the funeral was held at 11:30 board of trustees of the institution. a. m. by Rev. T. F. Andrews, former He was a faithful and interested attendant and participant in church services and Sunday school until his failing health would not permit of this activity. . He, however, never lost interest in the affairs of his church and community.

In the fall of 1900, Mr. Caveness was elected a member of the board of commissioners of Randolph county on the Democratic ticket. He served continuously on the county board for six years, from 1900 to 1906, inclusive, and during the last four years of service was chairman of the board. Again in November, 1910, Mr. Caveness was called to serve his county as a member of the board, and for two years, 1910 to 1912, inclusive, was chairman of the board of commissioners. His handling of the business for the public was modeled along the lines which he applied to his personal affairs, and as a result during the time he was in office the county's business was economically and justly administered.

His influence for good and his upright life have been as "a pearl of great price" to Asheboro and Randolph county. His exemplary life and his advice, encouragement and consideration of his fellow men will be greatly missed. greatly missed.

The funeral service will be held this afternoon from the First Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Asheboro, by Rev. B. C. Reavis, the pastor, and the body laid to rest in the local cemetery. Pall bearers will be J. O. Redding, S. B. Stedman, G. Rush, G. T. Murdock, A. R. Hix, A. Q. Ferree, W. A. Coffin and J. D. Ross.

Two Killed In Wreck Charlie Lanier, 32, of High and Ross Sexton, 22, of Trinity killed at a railway crossing nes dontown, in Davidson county, southbound train on the H. P. T