Conference Is In Favor Enforcing

ISSUED WEEKLY

Methodist Protestants Go On Record For Prohibition In Strong Resolution.

Closed Monday P. M.

Many Strong Sermons Were Heard And Encouraging Re-ports Read—Appointments.

The one hundredth annual session of the North Carolina Methodist Protestant Conference, in session in Asheboro since Wednesday morning of last week, came to a close Monday afternoon with the reading of appoint-ments of pastors to the various churches and pastoral charges in the conference. The final session was devoted to reports of various committees and adoption of resolutions expressing appreciation to the local church for the entertainment given and to the noted speakers making addresses and also to the press of the state for publishing reports of the conference proceedings.

Before adjourning, the conference adopted a resolution which expressed the sentiment of the conference con-cerning the prohibition laws and went on record favoring the enforcement of the 19th aready and the sentiment of the 19th aready and the sentiment of the se the 18th amendment and opposing the lection of any public official not in sympathy with the enforcement of for Dillon, S. C. The accident is said the prohibition laws. No place was to have come about as a result of selected for holding the next conference and a committee will determine ing the driver of the Ford. There is the place at a later date. Features Of Sunday's Session world was evangelism. He discussed seek and save that which was lost." who have seen it is His sermon in full will be published in next week's issue of The Courier. In the ordination service that followed the sermon, four young men of the conference were ordained as elders of the Methodist Protestant ger, of Greensboro.

At the afternoon session, a memorial service was held and obituaries were read concerning the lives of the deceased members of the conference and deceased wives of ministers. Rev. D. A. Highfill, of Liberty, and Rev. J. H. Stowe, of High Point, were the two ministers who died during the past year. The ministers' wives who had died during the year were Mrs. J. H. Bowman, Mrs. D. A. Braswell and Mrs. D. I. Garner. Rev. S. W. Taylor, the conference president, con-F. McCulloch, of Greensboro, read the

Dr. F. W. Stephens, of Pittsburgh, Pa., executive secretary of the board of education of the general conference, delivered an inspiring sermon Sunday night as a regular preaching ing. service of the local church.

Reports Friday's sessions were featured by reports from the various churches and pastoral charges. A number of min-isters spoke briefly of the work being done in their fields. Rev. C. L. Curry made an appeal for a special fund to be applied to the regular conference fund for building new churches and additions. More than $2,000 in pledg-

Many Splendid Sermons

The sessions of the conference throughout were featured with splendid addresses and sermons. Among orts of the work of the Metho

Injured In Wreck

18th Amendment Suffers Broken Leg And Other Hurts When Car Collides With A Truck.

Accident Friday Night

Raeford E. Williams, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wister Williams, of Ulah, is in Memorial hospital suffering from injuries received Friday night about 9:30 o'clock when the Ford roadster in which he was riding with Howard Auman, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Auman, of Seagrove, with Auman driving, ran into a truck parked by the side of Highway 70 near the McDowell place in South Asheboro. Young Williams suffered a broken right leg below the knee, dislocated knee cap and one of his legs. The injured boys were brought to the local hospital where Auman's wounds were dressed and Williams placed for treatment.

The young men were on their way home in a Ford roadster which young Auman had borrowed from his uncle, Ivey Luck, of Seagrove, Route 2, after a trip to town. The truck which their car hit struck the rear of a twosome difference of opinion as to whether the truck had its lights burn-The ordination sermon, a memorial service and the masterful sermon of the new president of the conference, it is said by others that there was a Rev. S. W. Taylor, of Burlington, very dim rear light on the machine were features of the conference Sunday. Dr. Taylor, choosing as his ground and would have been hard to theme "Evangelism", declared that see under ordinary conditions. The Christ's one and only mission to the Ford in which Auman and Williams were riding was practically demolishthe text, "The Son of Man is come to ed, and the wonder expressed by those seek and save that which was lost." who have seen it is that either of the

Addition Being Built To

Pennsylvania Textile Mills Excavations are under way for the church. Rev. C. E. Ridge, of Handy;
Rev. C. H. Hill, of Albemarle; Rev. G.
W. Andrew, of High Point, and Rev.
F. L. Gibbs, of Westminster, Md., were ordained by the laying on of hands by Rev. S. W. Taylor, president of the conference, who was assisted in building of a new addition to the plant | Hoover. of Asheboro, and Rev. L. W. Gerringer, of Greenshore. plush cloth, which is now being made in northern mills owned by the same company from yarn spun at the Central Falls plant. J. J. Harper To Move His Chair Plant To Randleman Information received in Asheboro is that J. J. Harper, who has for the past several months operated a chair plant near Bennett, will the first of the year move his plant to Randleducted the service. Rev. W. F. Ash- man. It is understood that Randleburn, of Greensboro, presented obit-uaries for Rev. D. A. Highfill and Mrs. man has offered Mr. Harper a free site for the plant which he proposes D. A. Braswell. Mrs. A. G. Dixon of to build to house his plant and that Greensboro, read the obituary of Mrs. local citizens have signified their in-Greensboro, read the obituary of Mrs. local citizens have significant to the state of the state paper in honor of the memory of Rev. an excellent trade in his line. Those who saw the chairs he exhibited in the "Made in Randolph" department at the Randolph Fair last fall were particularly impressed with the quality of the chairs Mr. Harper is mak-

> Sunday School Rally The Union township Sunday school rally will be held at Pisgah church Sunday, November 13th, beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning. Services will last throughout the day, a picnic dinner to be served on the grounds at the noon hour. The public is cordially invited to attend an especially representatives from the various Sunday chools in the township.

Funeral At Marlboro For William Blake Hinshaw

throughout were featured with splendid addresses and sermons. Among these was the address by Dr. T. H. Lewis, of Washington, D. C., president of the general conference; Rev. J. H. Straughn, of Washington, D. C.; Dr. Roberta Fleagle, Rev. J. Clyde Auman and Rev. S. W. Rosenberges, who spoke during the session which considered foreign missions; and Dr. E. G. Forlines, of Westminster, Md. Missionary Society Interests

The interests of the North Carolina branch of the Woman's Home Missionary society were considered at the Saturday morning session, Mrs. Wm. C. Hammer, of Asheboro, president of the society, presiding. The principal address was delivered by Mrs. A. G. Dixon, of Greensboro, former missionary to the foreign fields, who discussed the work being done by the home mission boards of the denomination.

Reports of the work of the Metho-

Thieves entered the Lexington Gro-cery Company at Lexington late Wed-nesday night of last week and stole several hundred dollars worth of goods. York's bloodhounds from

Raeford Williams Local Business Men Buy Formula And Mf'g Rights Brame's Salve

In a deal consummated the first of the week, a company of well known business men of the State, headed by messrs. Arthur Ross and W. J. Armfield, Jr., of Asheboro, became sole owners of the formula, copyrights, patent rights and whatever else appertains to the manufacture and sale of hydrogy Vanomenths. Salve as beginnings thirty years ago when Dr. pertains to the manufacture and sale of Brame's Vapomentha Salve, a nousehold remedy in North Carolina and a score of other States in the union for the past thirty years. The deal was made by Arthur Ross with Dr. R. M. Brame, of North Wilkes-Dr. R. M. Brame, of North Wilkes-

Excavations have been started on the lot west of the Randolph Creamery building on Salisbury Street to house the plant for the manufacture of the and knee joint, severe cuts about the salve. This building will be of mod-face and head and injuries about the chest. Young Auman was unhurt brick construction. It will front 50 save for a few cuts about his wrists feet on Salisbury Street and have a depth of 125 feet. It is planned to have the building ready for occupancy and the plant in operation in Asheboro by the first of the new year. The new industry will bring to Asheboro a payroll of no mean proportions and will furnish employment for a number of persons both in the plant and in the office.

Although the incorporation papers have not been filed and there has been as yet no organization meeting of cuba and 45 other countries.

For Regular Term

Continue Two Weeks.

First Week

Back Creek: Claude M. Hix, L. E.

Brower: Hugh Poole. Columbia: Jas. I. Lambert, Madis-

Jurors Are Drawn

two weeks of court:

Briles.

Barker.

n L. Hix, E. B. Leonard.

Franklinville: R. M. Julian.

Level Cross: James Hunt,

Toomes, Clarence Bischer.

New Hope: J. M. Morris.

Richland: J. S. Hancock.

Tabernacle: S. M. Delk,

Trinity: E. S. Harmon, T. H. Hill,

Second Week

Randleman: W. H. Winningham.

Gray-Craven

officiating justice of the peace in Coleridge township, Saturday eve-ning, November 5th. Mr. Craven is the son of the late L. P. Craven, while the bride is the daughter of Card Of Thanks We wish to thank the many friends and neighbors for the kindness shown as during the sickness and death of our dear son and brother, and for the beautiful floral offerings. May God bless each and every one.—R. L. Moffwill be of interest to their many rel-tives and friends throughout North

Mr. and Mrs. George Francis Ra an announce the marriage of their laughter, Florence Emily, to Mr. Julian Filmore Garner, Saturday, the 19th of November, 1927, Thomasville, cement which follows

Marriage Of Miss Ragan To Mr. Julian Garner Announced

itt and family.

Asheboro: J. W. Jackson, J. F.

Peace, J. W. Bristow.

Pearce, M. L. Wood.

T. J. Hinshaw.

L. H. York, J. F. Pugh.

Trinity: C. H. Burton. Union: R. M. Hurley.

Superior Court Is In Its Second Week

Brame's Vapomentha Salve is for external treatment of all diseases of the respiratory organs, including pneumonia. It has a characteristic that is not found in other salves—it will not stain the clothes. It is used and recommended by druggists and

Of December Court Moves Along Rapidly In Dispos ing Of Cases On Docket— Ends Saturday. Which Will Convene In Asheboro Monday, Dec. 5th, And The special term of Randolph Superior Court for the trial of cases on the civil docket, with Judge John H. Harwood presiding, entered its second week Monday. Indications are that court will last throughout the Beginning Monday, December 5th, the regular term of Randolph Superior Court for the trial of cases on the criminal docket will begin with Judge T. B. Finley, of North Wilkesboro, presiding. Criminal court will last one week only, while the second week will be for the trial of cases on the civil docket. The county commissioners in regular meeting Monday drew the following jury list for the two weeks of court.

The court will last throughout the week coming to a close Saturday afternoon. Cases disposed of since last week's issue of this newspaper include the following:

Gus T. Burge vs T. F. Baker, et als, mistrial ordered by court.

M. E. Allen vs W. F. Brown, plaintiff to receive the court will last throughout the week coming to a close Saturday afternoon. Cases disposed of since last week's issue of this newspaper include the following:

Gus T. Burge vs T. F. Baker, et als, mistrial ordered by court. T. B. Finley, of North Wilkesboro, presiding. Criminal court will last tiff to recover sum of $300 from defendant.

J. L. Graves vs R. H. Wright and son, compromise confirmed by the court whereby the plaintiff is to re-cover of the defendants $50 and costs of the action.

Coleridge: C. C. Brower, J. T. Ma-Ada J. Yow vs B. F. Brown, admr., con, W. E. Scott, C. H. Craven, Jr., plaintiff to recover $900 from de-W. T. Caveness, J. C. Moffitt, W. J. rendant.

J. F. White vs Carolina Power and Concord: E. B. Johnson, W. A. Light Company, compromise confirm-Cedar Grove: J. D. Craven, C. M. ers $625 from defendant for damages to his car caused by a collision with a Carolina Power and Light Company C. B. truck on Highway 70 on January 5, 1926.

New Market: Ed Swaim. June Hattie E. White vs Carolina Power and Light Company, for claim growing out of collision noted in the above Providence: N. S. Lineberry, C. P. mentioned case, compromise confirmed whereby plaintiff recovers $625. Randleman: Gaither Wright, A. B. Jarrell, J. M. Hinshaw, B. F. Henley.

in controversy referred to W. A. Lovett, as referee in the controversy. Home Building and Material Company vs R. S. Underwood, et al, plaintiff entitled to recover $377.90. F. M. Underwood, S. T. Hill, Sr., J. C. S. E. Coble vs Asbury Wood, pend-Pepper, C. L. Kindley, W. H. Ken-ing the trial of this case a member of the jury was withdrawn, and the court ordered a mistrial.

Invitations Received To Burkhead, A. C. Pugh, C. C. Macon,

Columbia: J. P. Kivett, W. E. Poe The following invitation will be of Grant: W. M. Albright, Gray Lambert, J. C. L. Cox, W. A. Wright. New Market: J. S. Davis. interest to the many relatives and friends of the bride, Miss Maude Craig Carson, daughter of Mrs. J. E. Providence: J. C. Teague, A. E Carson of Asheboro and Charlotte. Goley, J. H. Skeen, C. W. Gregson, J. She spent much of her time the last P. Routh, W. M. Greeson, C. A. Nelfew years in Asheboro, before going to China where she served as a missionary. The groom was also a missionary in China and with his fiancee and many other missionaries was refugeed in Shanghai for some time Washington. Miss Elliott was able to before being ordered out of China on give first hand information, having account of the revolution. The in- spent several winters in Washington. Mr. David N. Craven and Miss Evelyn Gray, both of Coleridge, were vitation follows: married at the home of T. A. Cox, the itation follows: Mrs. James Edward Carson requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter, Maud wiches. Craig, to Rev. William Cooper Cumming on Tuesday evening, November twenty-second, at six o'clock, First J. T. Gray. The young people will make their home at Coleridge. Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, N. C. At home Henderson, N. C.

> County Financial Statement To Be Published Later

In next week's issue of this newspaper will be published a statement of the budget position of the county of Randolph for the first three months of its operation, ending September 30th. This statement will show the original requirements of the various departments of the county as an ending september 30th. quirements of the various departments of the county as set out in the budget adopted by the commissioners, the amount spent in each department and the balance left out of the original figures to be spent during the remaining nine months of the fiscal year. The nine months of the fiscal year. The audit of the county finances for the six month-period, Dec. 6, 1926, to June 30, 1927, will also be published for the information of our readers as will the disbursements made at the regular meeting of the board of commissioners Monday. The groom is a former Randolph county citizen. He was reared in New Hope township and is a son of the late Phillip Garner and a brother of our townsman, J. P. Garner. He has for a number of years been connected with the First National Bank at

Health Pictures Will Be Shown In

Furnished By State Board Of Health And Will Be In Charge Of Dr. Sumner.

Dates Announced

For Showing Of The Pictures In School Houses In The County-No Charge.

employed in a drug store in Winston-Salem. There was a ready demand for the remedy and Dr. Brame soon found himself compelled to devote his entire time and energy to the business and to erect a plant for its manufacture. He located in North Wilkesboro. Since beginning the manufacture of the salve he has added other medicines to his line. These he keeps, parting only with Brame's Vapomenths Salve. Beginning next Tuesday evening, November 15th, the mobile moving picture outfit furnished free by the educational department of the State Board of Health, Raleigh, will be in Randolph county at the disposition of County Health Officer Dr. G. H. Sumner for a period of three weeks. During this time free moving pictures on different phases of health will be given in designated school buildings in the county. These pictures consist of a number of short reels, all of them interesting and instructive. There will be no admission charge to the showing of the pictures and the public in general in the communities in which the pictures will be shown are arged to attend.

Dates and places for the showing of these health pictures have been designated for several days in advance. Should there be a change in the schedule outlined below due noschool or community activity already arranged for, the health officer should be notified immediately. Schools in the county desiring the pictures to be shown should advise the health officer at first chance and make arrange-

Schedule of Showings Following is a schedule arranged yesterday by the county health officer and the superintendent of schools all showings to begin at the school buildings designated promptly at 7:30 o'clock in the evening: Tuesday, Nov. 15, Farmer.

Wednesday, Nov. 16, Seagrove. Thursday, Nov. 17, Providence. Friday, Nov. 18, Ramseur. Saturday, Nov. 19, Gray's Chapel. Monday, Nov. 21, Staley. Tuesday, Nov. 22, Randleman. Wednesday, Nov. 23, Franklinville. Thursday, Nov. 24, Trinity. Friday, Nov. 25, Balfour. Saturday, Nov. 26, Worthville.

The Chrysanthemum

Of Woman's Club-Many Flowers On Exhibit.

great success. Eleven of the ladies of al program. the town had flowers on exhibition. G. T. Barker vs E. L. Cox. matters In addition to chrysanthemums, which were considered especially fine this year, beautiful ferns, begonias and cut flowers were on exhibit.

For many years the people of this Chrysanthemum Show in Asheboro for the month of October, 1927: and there were a number of out of town visitors in attendance this year As has been the custom heretofore a bazaar booth and refreshment department was in connection with Marriage Of Miss Carson flower show as a means by which the treasury could be replenished Proceeds from the flower show goes into the general fund of the treasury of the Woman's club.

Friday Afternoon Club Mrs. Ed Cranford entertained the members of the Friday Afternoon Club and a few other guests at her home on Sunset Avenue. Miss Elliott, of N. C. College, gave a most interesting lecture on Lobbying in The club has been fortunate to secure Miss Elliott to lecture once a month.

Mrs Ferree Hostess Mrs. Shafter Ferree entertained her Bridge Club and one extra table at her home on Park Street Saturday afterneon. The home was decorated with chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. At the conclusion of the near Thanksgiving day at least one Rev. D. I. Garner has been atcourse was served.

want To Run Linney

Want To Run Linney

According to an article in a recent issue of the Ashaville Citizen, the financing of Providence, Randieman for Governor of North Carolina in and Balfour school houses, which are completed and in use this fall for school purposes.

Grass roots make poor feed for fattening hogs; as a substitute for sature for mature sows, the roots read to the State licket will be named and also candidates for Congress in every district in the State.

Want To Run Linney

Want To Run Linney

Want To Run Linney

Want To Run Linney

According to an article in a recent issue of the Ashaville Citizen, the many friends of both parties came this week when the wedding of Miss Elyer Richardson to Mr. Arthur Mahlon Cox was announced by Mr. and Mrs. U. C. Richardson. The marriage took place at Pittsboro October 16th. Mrs. Cox is the daughter of Postmaster U. C. Richardson, and 1928. Should he be mominated it will mark his second race for the office, he having opposed the late T. V.

Bicket in 1916. It is said that the Republican State convention will be held announcement of the wedding. Mr. Ashaboro. She is a popular young woman and has a great many friends of the many friends of the many friends of both parties came this week when the wedding of Miss Elyer Richardson. A Anthur Mahlon Cox was announcements of Mr. Arthur Mahlon Cox was announcement to the many friends of both parties came this week when the wedding of Miss Elyer Richardson. The many friends of both parties came this week when the wedding of Miss Elyer Richardson. The many friends of both parties came this week when the wedding of Miss Elyer Richardson. The many friends of both parties came this week when the wedding of Miss Elyer Richardson. The many friends of both parties came this week when the wedding of Miss Elyer Richardson. The many friends of both parties came this week when the wedding of Miss Elyer Richardson. The many friends of the many friends of the many friends of both parties came this week when the wedding of Miss Elye

Diphtheria Is On Increase In County Says Health Officer

County 3 Weeks
Nine New Cases Reported During The Month—Several Cases Scarlet Fever.

The report of County Health Offi-cer Dr. George Sumner for the month of October, made to the county board of health in meeting in the court house in Asheboro Monday, disclosed that Dr. Sumner had quarantined by mail during the month one case of whooping cough, ten of scarlet fever, one of diphtheria and 2 of typhoid. Quarantine by visit included 7 cases of scarlet fever, 8 of diphtheria and 2 of typhoid. The doctor made a total of 48 visits in connection with

During the month four visits of instruction were made to schools in the county, eight smallpox vaccinations were given and 240 vaccinations for diphtheria were finished. Treatment was made of 7 cases of veneral diseases prevalent in indigent persons. One home in which there was a case of tuberculosis was visited. Under the division of school hygiene, fifteen children were treated for dental defects and 230 children stopped temporarily from school account of various contagious dis-

Fifteen visits were made to the jail and five to the county home during the month to attend sick persons. Examinations included those of 3 pristice will be given of it, and if any of oners, 1 for marriage, 8 teachers, 2 the dates set conflict with some other food handlers and one person for lunacy.

month amounted to $491.02, bringing ment for the free showing of these the total since the beginning of health work to $939.86.

> Greensboro College Glee Club Will Be Here Tuesday, 15th

The Greensboro College Glee Club will come to Asheboro next Tuesday evening, Nov. 15, and will present a musical program in the school auditorium at eight o'clock. The Glee Club has visited many towns through-out the state and has received notor-iety. Two soloists who are members of the club are prominent soloists in Held Tuesday Under Auspices ing the Glee Club, having made spec- imately 366 miles. The dam ial arrangement on this an off night im

> Fine Attendance Records Made In Asheboro School

Following is the attendance repor section have looked forward to the for the Asheboro elementary school

f	· Group I
I	Miss Lovett 97
	Miss Bulla 95
2	Miss Krider 93
e	Miss Blair 92
h,	Miss Biair
	Miss Barker 81
S	Group II Miss Bertha Presnell 99
y
	Mrs. Garner 97
	Miss Enolia Presnell 97
	Miss Loflin 96
e	Miss Lamb 98
n	Mrs. Rice 94
r	Miss Keel 94
-	Group III
t	Miss Farmer 97
n	Mrs. Moffitt 97
0	Miss Vuncannon 97
255	Miss Park 91
g	Below is the highest percentage attendance for each group:
е	Miss Lovett, Group I Grade 1 9
ı,	Miss B. Presnell, Group II, G. 5, 96
•	Miss B. Freshell, Group II, G. 5, 50
	Miss Farmer, Group 3, Grade 6 9
	Annual Annual To Mada
	Annual Appeal Is Made

games the club prize was awarded to day's income to the orphanage of his dending the M. P. Conference Mrs. J. T. Lewallen, and the visitor's or her choice. For a dozen or more Asheboro the past week. prize to Miss Ethel Lovett. A salad years this appeal has been made and Nobody Asks Anything
Of Board Of Education
For the first time in recent years, if not in its history, the county board

Thanksgiving and are forwarded to

S. W. Presne Resigns As I Of County Roads

Resignation Effective December 1st-Has Been Road Supervisor Nearly Year.

Succeeded By King

Who Will Take Up Duties First Of December-Auditor Reports On Finances.

At the regular meeting of the board of commissioners held in the court house in Asheboro Monday, November 7th, S. W. Presnell, of Asheboro, road supervisor since the first of the year, tendered his resignation to become effective some time before January 1, 1928. The resignation was acce and the commissioners named C. E. King, of Seagrove, supervisor to assume duties December 1st, next.

The county board ordered the sum of $200 to be paid to R. L. Ward as compensation in full for the injuries to his eye sustained while engaged in work with the county road forces It was ordered by the commiss ers that a road be staked off leading from Ellison's ford to intersection of Ramseur and Melanchton highway: also a road from Route 90 to colo church and across the lands of G. M. Kimrey.

Walter Millikan was ordered admitted to the county home by the board.

It was ordered that the one and one half miles of highway from J. B. Morris' place to the Chatham county line be made a public road and maintained by the county road force.

The budget statement submitted by the county auditor was accepted by the commissioners as was the audit of the county finances for the period from Dec. 6, 1926, to June 30, 1927, made by A. T. Allen and Company. The audit was ordered published in one of the county papers by the board.

The commissioners approved of the borrowing on short term notes by the board of education the following amounts for school building purposes: Providence, $14,000; Randleman, $38,-000; and Balfour, $12,000.

Flood Gates At High Rock Dam Are Closed

The flood gates at High Rock dam Greensboro churches, Miss G. C. have been closed and the water in Mitchell singing in West Market now filling the basin of what will be Street M. E. Church, and Miss Eula the second largest artificial lake in Transeau in the Presbyterian church. the South. The water will cover ap-Show Decided Success the club to Asheboro. The city school Davidson and Rowan counties and the in Asheboro was fortunate in secur- lake will have a shore line of approxwith the club. The gate receipts will feet long and is equipped with a series be upon a fifty-fifty basis with the of large flood gates to enable the exlocal school and the Glee Club par- act control of the water below it. The annual Chrysanthemum Show ticipating. It is to be hoped that the Forty-four thousand horsepower will which was held under the auspices of people of the town will patronize the be generated at the dam when the the Woman's Club in the building for- school and the Glee Club of Greens- lake fills. It has been just 13 months merly occupied by Brady-Hughes boro College and avail themselves of since work started on the High Rock Hardware Company, Tuesday, was a the opportunity to hear a fine music- project and in engineering circles it is considered that the work has been done in record-breaking time.

> Fiddlers Convention To Be Held At Seagrove. On 19th

Seagrove, Nov. 8.-Mr. and Mrs. Frank Auman went to High Point on business last Friday. Misses Mary, Ruby, Golda and Eugenia Tysor and Miss Ola Wrenn, of Erect, visited at Mr. E. B. Leach's and O. D. Lawrence's Sunday. The box party here last Saturday night proved to be a success and neat sum was realized. Mr. J. C. Lawrence, of High Point, visited at the home of Mr. O. D. Lawrence Saturday. There will be an old time fiddlers convention in the school auditorium here Saturday night, Nov. 19. An admission fee of twenty and thirtyfive cents will be charged, the proceed to go for the benefit of the school.

of Asheboro, were in town on business Monday. Messrs. O. D. Lawrence and Mr. Farlow are attending the Western North Carolina Christian Conference at Pleasant Hill church, near Liberty.

Mr. Arthur Presnell and little son, this week. Mrs. Ella Dunlap, of Carthage, and son, Mr. William Dunlap, of Washington, D. C., who is in the navy, vis-For Orphans Of State ited Mrs. Dunlap's daughter, Little Miss Louise Brown is visitthe people of the State have made ing her grandmother, Mrs. Ella Dun-