Time To Purchase New City License Plates For Autos

The time has arrived for the purchase of new city automobile license plates for the ensuing year. These plates, which cost $1.00 each, may be obtained at the town office on Church street from Grady R. Garner, town clerk. Old li-cense plates expired June 30, 1928, and therefore, are out of date, and to use them is illegal. Few people realized that the time for purchase of new city car licenses had rolled around again, and, consequently, few have been delivered to car owners. City authorities call attention to the fact that license plates are ready for distribution and that each car owner in Asheboro is required to purchase same and place on the car in conspicuous place as heretofore.

National Guard will be at Camp Jackson for this two weeks' training, the first time since the world war that a division of National Guard units has been brought together for this purpose. Training since the world war has consisted of annual encampments of units of a regiment, that for the 120th having been at Camp Glenn, Morehead City. Troops will break camp at Jackson on or about July 22nd.

Training at Camp Jackson this year will be under supervision of the national government, which furnishes the equipment for the National Guard and provides most of the pay. The rate of pay for National Guard officers and enlisted men is the same as pay for like ranks in the regular army. The local unit was federally inspected on May 24th, and, therefore, has had only a little more than a month of training. However, federal officers who have assisted in supervising the instruction of the Asheboro company are frank to state that the local unit is already as well drilled and disciplined as many units afternoon. It was found in full blast concealed about one mile west of Lineberry station. It was an outfit of 75 or 80-gallon capacity. At the still place were eight gallons of whiskey, 600 gallons of beer and several accontainers for reception of the still was discovered by two boys out hunting hawks. Operators of the still seeing the approach of the youngsters fled. Deputy Routh was notified and the still was seized.

The second still was seized Thursday-morning by Routh and Funk about one and a half miles east of Level Cross. This was a 50-gallon outfit and was in operation when the officers approached. Two or three men, who were operating the outfit, ran on the approach of the officers and containers gallons of the forbidden fluid, 1200 gallons of beer and containers gallone. Included among the large supply of containers were fifteen 5-gallon oil cans, several eases of fruit iars, jugs, etc. Eviboro company are frank to state that the local unit is already as well drilled and disciplined as many units which have been in the service for a year or more.
