Farmer, April 15.—Mr. James Cooper, of Mechanic, lost his home and barn and most of the contents by fire on Saturday afternoon. The fire originated in the barn, but how it was started no one knows. There is no telephone in the immediate neighborhood and very little furniture could be saved, as help could not be gotten soon enough. The insurance carried on the property was $2,000, and the loss was about $4,000.

Tax listing time is near at hand. The appointment of the list takers for the twenty townships in the country by Fred J. Phillips, tax supervisor, bring this matter to the fore in these balmy spring days, and beginning the first Tuesday in May these various list takers will be on the job. All taxes must be listed and the abstracts and farm census blanks filled in by the third Monday in June. In addition to the listing of taxes, the farm census will be taken again this year. This census has no relation whatever with listing, but is taken at the same time as a matter of convenience and economy. Randolph farmers are more or less familiar with this census. It requires that acreage in various crops.

Mr. Worth Garner judged the corn show and the following prizes were awarded: White corn, George Vuncannon, $1.00, Stanton Poole, 75c, and an additional 75c for the best selected exhibit from an educational stand-(Please turn to page 4)

Mrs. A. A. Spencer Mrs. Flora Annis Spencer, wife of A. A. Spencer, died at her home at Carthage Sunday morning after an illness of several months. Funeral was held from the Carthage Methodist church, of which Mrs. Spencer had been an active member until her health failed Monday morning by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Buffaloe. Mrs. Spencer was born in Randolph county May 26, 1862, and was a daughter of the late George and Elizabeth Robbins. She was married in 1880 to Mr. Spencer, and for some time after her arriage lived in the Flint Hill commarriage lived in the Flint Hill community. Later she and her husband moved to Asheboro where Mr. Spencer engaged for a short time in the grocery business, and later in the hotel business, having owned and operated the Central Hotel for about 15 years. Mr. Spencer sold his interests in Asheboro and moved to Carthage about 15 years ago, where he is in the lumber business. Mrs. Spencer has many friends in Asheboro who will regret to learn of the passing of this good woman. While in Asheboro Mrs. Spencer was an active member of the M. P. church and took a leading of the M. P. church and took a leading part in church and community work.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Spencer leaves seven children: Mrs. Charles M. Fox and Mrs. L. L. Whitaker, of Asheboro; Mrs. Henry B. Martin, Winston-Salem; Samuel Spencer, Memphis, Tenn.; Ernest Spencer, Munice, Ina.; Colin G. Spencer and Miss.
