Club Holds Meeting

Community Club Held Regular Meeting Last Week, With A Delightful Program.

Franklinville, Sept 2.—The Franklinville Community Club held its regular monthly meeting at the Community House on Wednesday evening, Aug. 28. The meeting was very interesting and well attended. After disposing of all business the club was entertained for a short while by several of the local young people. Misses Opal Scott and Edith Thomas rendered a piano duet, "The Gypsy Dance." Following this a group of old favorites were played by Mr. Tate Jones and Miss Maggie Curtis on guitars, accompanied by Miss Edith Thomas at the piano. The program was ended by Miss Esther Moon, who recited "Awakening Thought". The meeting was closed with a benediction by Miss Mary Moon.

The Primary and Junior classes of Franklinville Holiness church enjoyed a social hour on the church lawn Saturday afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock. The time was passed in singing and playing numerous games. Mr. G. E. Robbins, primary teacher, was in charge and served ice cream, cake and watermelon.

Mr. C. L. Allred has moved his family from West Franklinville to the Hackney place, near the steel bridge. Mr. J. R. Lutterloh has sold his dwelling house and lot to W. C. Burrow.

Franklinville High School will open Monday, Sept. 16th, with the following faculty:

Primary Grades: 1st, Miss Mary Moon, Franklinville; 2nd, Miss Pattie Odum, Norfolk, Va.; 3rd, Miss Stella Ray, Canton; 4th, Miss Elizabeth Rampley, Rock, Md., graduate Blue Ridge College; 5th, Miss Esther Moon, Franklinville, graduate Campbell College; 6th, Mrs. Carl Caveness, Franklinville, a graduate of N. C. C. W.; 7th, Mr. Ralston McDonald, of Erwin, graduate Duke University.

High School: Prof. D. M. Weatherly; principal; Mr. J. Harvey Mitchell, Saluda, S. C., assistant principal; Miss Edith Seabock, of Hickory, graduate of Lenoir-Rhyne College; Music, Miss Pearl Spence, of Cole's Store.

With this corps of teachers we are expecting one of the best terms in the history of the school.

Ollen and Wells Cranford, who were visitors here the past week, returned to their home at Spencer Friday accompanied by Mr. J. R. Hayes, Miss Pattie Lutterloh and Miss Lula Hayes for a week's visit.

Misses Myrtle Hudson, Gladys McCord, Lovie Booth, Irene Parks, Margaret Jones and Mr. Leon Cameron, Kyle Harrington and Caveness Davis, of Boone Trail, spent Sunday with Miss Mary Holladay.

Joe and Herbert Fox, of Chapel Hill, spent the week-end here. Herbert Fox is leaving Wednesday for Concord, where he is going to coach this coming school year.

Mrs. W. C. Vestal and children left Monday morning for their home at Richmond, Va.

Mrs. Lizzie Cox, who has spent the summer here, has returned to her home at High Point.

Asheboro Honors Firemen Who Helped In Fighting Big Fires

Delegations from Greensboro, High Point and Siler City fire departments were guests of honor at a supper staged Friday night by the Asheboro volunteer department at Redding Lake, two miles west of Asheboro. The visiting firemen helped in subduing two disastrous fires which on successive nights about three weeks ago threatened the manufacturing district of the city. Sitting, left to right: C. Rush, chief of the Asheboro fire department; A. B. Horney, chief High Point fire department; Mayor R. R. King, Jr., of Greensboro; Mayor C. C. Cranford, Asheboro; Mayor R. F. Paschal, Siler City; Frank D. Shaw, chief Greensboro fire department; J. V. Jones, chief Siler City fire department. Standing just behind and between Mayor Paschal and Chief Shaw is E. M. Knox, city manager of High Point.—Photo courtesy Belton's Studio and Greensboro Record.

words for Greensboro while City Manager E. M. Knox, of High Point, brought greetings from High Point's mayor, C. A. York, himself native of Asheboro, who had been called away to Washington on business. R. F. Paschal, of Siler City, responded for his volunteer fire department. Mayor C. C. Cranford briefly expressed appreciation of the splendid services rendered Asheboro in its hour of dire need by these visiting fire companies. And, after C. Rush had returned thanks, plates were passed laden with fried chicken, cold slaw, home-baked biscuits and all accessories. Fish, hot from the pan, were served, and so was cornbread and coffee. There was plenty for all, and enough left to feed half as many more.

Greensboro sent her mayor, her fire chief, F. D. Shaw and twelve firemen. From High Point came the city manager, the fire chief, A. B. Horney and 14 firemen. Siler City was represented by her mayor and four members of the volunteer fire department, including J. V. Jones, chief. These, together with the 28 members of the Asheboro company, town officials and other guests, numbered nearly a hundred.

Members of the Asheboro fire department are: C. Rush, chief, and Dr. O. L. Presnell, W. A. Coffin, E. H. Cranford, Dr. J. G. Crutchfield, C. M. Hayworth, Dr. C. A. Hayworth, C. M. Kivett, J. M. Burns, J. T. Lewallen, Gorrel Suggs, C. J. Lovett, J. T. Lewallen, R. C. Lewallen, R. S. Ferree, W. D. Smith, Will Hinshaw, J. H. Kivett, C. M. Fox, Joe Betts, C. E. Davis, H. L. Ingram, L. S. Lewis, Z. H. Rush, L. B. Lambert, P. Higgins, C. C. Steed, E. D. Cranford.

MR. KING FINDS CROPS EXCELLENT IN GEORGIA

Writing The Courier from Montgomery, Ala., Mr. King, of Asheville, advises that wherever he has gone in South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama he has found crops good. Tobacco on the Georgia markets is bringing from four to six cents per pound more on the average than last year, he writes. Cotton crop is fine also.

Miss Louise Thomas returned last week from an extended stay at Camp Yonahalassah.

The M. E. Ladies Aid Society met with Mesdames W. I. Jones and J. W. Dixon at Mrs. Dixon's Wednesday. An interesting program was followed by a course of tempting refreshments.

Ramseur Book Club. Mrs. W. E. Marley was hostess to the Ramseur Book Club Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Following the business period, the program was begun by Miss Frances Whitehead who sang very beautifully "Little Mother of Mine." The topic of the hour was "Fact and Fancy." Mrs. I. F. Craven read the first paper on Burt's "Delectable Mountains," introducing her remarks with a snappy little verse of original poetry. Mrs. Elam, presented the second paper, continued a review of "Delectable Mountains." Both these papers were concise and interesting. Third and last on the program, Mrs. C. A. Graham, reviewing Elinor Wylie's "Orphan Angel," made a beautiful word picture of Shiloh, living in pioneer days of America. This paper was both outstanding and artistic.

At the close of the program, Mrs. Marley, assisted by Misses Daile Marley and Frances Whitehead, served a lovely salad course to the following club members and visitors: Mesdames J. P. Cox, I. F. Craven, W. A. Elam, A. H. Thomas, J. F. Chisholm, C. A. Graham, J. E. Covington, T. A. Moffitt, J. R. Wilson, J. M. Foust, Jr., C. F. Caveness, C. E. Pope, J. C. To Dedicate A Well At John Wesley Stand On Sunday Afternoon

If any man thirst, says Rev. J. F. Burkhead, let him come to John Wesley Stand next Sunday. You have heard of Jacob's well, but this is Bob's well. Mr. Bob Allred, of Randleman, opened his big heart and will want to dedicate the well he has dug there for us next Sunday. W. A. Way and his singers from Greensboro will be there at 2:30.

REMEMBER John Wesley Next Sunday. If I knew you and you know me, How little trouble there would be. We pass each other on the street, But just come out and let us meet At John Wesley next Sunday.

Each one intends to do what's fair, And treat his neighbor on the square. But he may not quite understand Why you don't take him by the hand At John Wesley next Sunday.

This world is sure a busy place, And we must hustle in the race. For social hours some are not free The six week days, but all should be At John Wesley next Sunday.

We have an interest in our church, The dear old place must not go down. We want to push good things along, And we can help some if we're strong At John Wesley next Sunday.

Don't knock and kick and slam and slap At everybody on the map, But push and pull and boost and boom And use up all the standing room At John Wesley next Sunday. J. F. BURKHEAD.

boom And use up all the standing room At John Wesley next Sunday. J. F. BURKHEAD.

To Clean Giles Chapel Cemetery. September 7th and 14th are the days set for cleaning off the cemetery at Giles Chapel, and all persons having relatives buried there are requested to either come and help with the work or send some money to help bear the expense of the work.
