

Between 10:00 and 11:00 o'clock

Sunday night Jailor T. A. Brookshire and Mrs. Brookshire were attracted by the sound of hack saws at work on the bars of the windows of the first floor in the rear of the jail. When

Mr. Brookshire went into the large room where 12 men, who are road bothered further.

Named By Board

In Meeting In Asheboro On Saturday Afternoon—Serve In Primary And Election.

Books Open May 3rd

For Registration Of Votes For Primary-Open Until Chal-lenge Day On May 31.

The county board of elections, com-posed of E. H. Cranford, chairman, and E. H. Morris, Jr., and John B. Humble, met Saturday afternoon in the court house in Asheboro and appointed registrars and judges of election for the several precincts in the county for the June primary and the general election. These follow, registrar being first named, the Democra-tic judge next and the Republican judge lastly:

Asheboro, South Ward: Lee. Kearns, S. W. Presnell, Hugh T.

Asheboro, East Ward: Hal M. Worth, James M. Burns, O. M. Mc-Daniel.

Asheboro, North Ward: W. F. Hunsucker, J. M. Caveness, C. N. Thomas. Asheboro, West Ward: Dolph Crowell, H. L. Ingram, L. S. Lewis. Back Creek: Winslow, Walker, J. W

Morgan, T. W. Millikan. Brower: C. E. G. Sugg, John L

Mearns, T. A. Brown. Cedar Grove: LeRoy Lowe, Ralph

Whatley, W. M. Coble. Central Falls: James Rollins, F. L.

York, J. T. Brown. Cedar Falls: Garland Free, J. F.

Luck, D. N. Trogdon. Coleridge: W. T. Davis, R. L. Moffitt, James Spence. Cencord: Claude Dorsett, John

Ridge, C. C. Horney. Franklinville: C. H. Julian, Clarence arks, Russell Neighbors. Grant: Carl Lewallen, Von Pugh

Villie 'R. Brown. Level Cross: Jas. B. Fields, Clarent lams, Elwood Stanton. Liberty, North: Paul McPherson

Cecil Kirkman, W. W. Coble. Liberty, South: Dolph Marley, E. F. Johnson, S. M. Johnson.

(Please turn to page 2)

· "SAY IT WITH SONGS" AT SUNSET THE WHEE

Revival services will begin at the local Methodist Protestant church next Sunday, April 27, to run for ten days or more. Rev. R. C. Stubbins of Winston-Salem, will arrive on Monday in time for the evening service, and will do the preaching for the remainder of the meeting, Mr. Stub-bins has assisted in a meeting here once before and the people were delighted with his preaching. The evening services will be held at 7:30 during the week, after Mon-day there will be an afternoon service at 3:30.

The public is cordially invited to attend all the services.

Memorial Services Union Grove Church On Seagrove, Rt. 1

Following is the program for Menorial Day service at Union Grove

Baptist church Seagrove, Route 1, to be held May 4, W. L. Stutts director: 10:00 a. m., Singing.

the graves.

10:30 a. m., Prayer by Rev. Will Iancock.

10:40 a. m., Singing by Comer Band. 11:00 a. m., Preaching by Rev. J. . Kidd. 11:30 a. m., Floral committee will direct the distribution of flowers on 11:40 a. m., Prayer by Henry Wilson, short talks and singing in the township was 1,087. cemetery. 12:00 M., Dinner on the grounds.

2:00 p. m., Preaching by Rev. Will Tancock

3:00 p. m., Special songs by all bands present.

Route 90 Left Out In Cold In April State Road Letting

That the more than $5,000,000 in road construction projects now under way in the state road system up to date is stated by M. R. Dunnagan, Raleigh correspondent, in reviewing these projects,

Listed in the projects still under construction is the topsoiling of ten miles of No. 90 east of Lexington. This is a continuation of the project begun a year ago and proposed for completion last fall. Indications now are that it will probably be opened for traffic about June 1 or shortly

Jailor Brookshire Gets On To Racket And Wholesale De-livery Frustrated. Growth In Decade

Population Increased From 178 In 1920 To 638 In 1930, Or About 350 Per Cent.

Trinity Increases Too

But Not So Much As Archdale-New Hope And Grant Townships Show Big Losses.

Probably no town in Randolph county will show a greater increase in population, after 1930 census figures are tabulated, than Archdale. According to A. I. Ferree, eight district census supervisor, the population more than 350 per cent over 178 in shire were attracted by a car moving until about seven o'clock, when he a-slowly up and down the street behind woke a very sick man. Before the doctor, called by his wife, could ar-The town of Trinity also made of Trinity at 554, a gain of 154 in 10 ion of officers that a car was ready to years.

Pleasant Grove township, Randolph county, shows an increase in population of 45, there being 467 people in the township as against 422 in 1920. New Hope township shows a decrease in population of 203, the 1930 census given the township 884 people, while in 1920 the population of the Grant township shows a loss of 118 people, there being 876 in the precinct as against 990 in 1920. Complete tabulations have not been made in Asheboro, a re-check being made in some of the wards, but approximately 4,700 people have been enumerated and it is expected the number will reach 5,000. This will represent an increase of about 100 per cent in ten years. SENATE COMMITTEE VOTES AGAINST JUDGE PARKER of a selected cast from the elementar and primary grades. The commencement sermon will be delivered on Sunday night in the It appears that Circuit Judge John J. Parker, of Charlotte, has little chance becoming a member of the school auditorium. Supreme Court of the United States, On Friday the following evening,

To The Community Popular Young Man Died Suddenly At His Home In Burlington Saturday.

Funeral Held Sunday

At First M. E. Church, Asheboro, Of Which Mr. Richardson Was A Member.

force prisoners, are kept, he found four hack saw blades. Several of the men had on their shoes and appeared The sudden death of Hobart Richardson at his home in Burlingsure of their escape. Mr. Brookshire suspects relatives and Sunday visitors ton early Saturday morning came as of aiding in the plot by slipping the a distinct shock to relatives and instruments to the men. This will friends of the young man in Asheboro. Mr. Richardson became ill Sunday afcause a tightening of the reins on of Archdale, as shown by census just visitors to the Randolph Jail. Later ter midnight apparently with acute completed, is 638, or an increase of on in the night, Mr. and Mrs. Brook- indigestion, but recovered and slept until about seven o'clock, when he again, but not so large as Archdale. side street which had apparently been rive, he had passed away from dila-The 1930 census places the population set for the meeting. It was the opin- tion of the heart.

He was born in Randolph county take the men away after they finished with the saws. Not only did the car June 29, 1898, and was a son of Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kearns, of U. C. Richardson and the late U. C. continue to pass up and down but one Richardson, postmaster in Asheboro at High Point, were in Asheboro Mon-person became bold, and perhaps anxi-the time of his death a few years ago day returning from Mt. Gilead and interested in politics from young manous, and came near the jail in the from heart trouble. He was educated Biscoe where they spent the Easter honeysuckle vines growing thickly be-hind the building. Mr. Brookshire surprised this man by walking around the University of North Carolina. He Saturday" was, to which he often returned to Asheboro from the Univer- heard his father, Rev. I. F. Kearns, sity and engaged in the drug store refer. Mr. Kearns recalls having his greatly facilitated.

Robert Kearns Wants

Information Relative to Greensboro. He was forced to re- of negroes, probably two hundred and linquish his work in Greensboro on fifty, camped near the Uwharrie account of ill health, having first sub- River and cut the timber on around mitted to an operation for appendi- half an acre of ground, making fires citis and later for complications. His to keep them warm. They were behealth had been such that he had not ing taken from Northeastern Virginia been able to be about his duties un- to Alabama where they were to culti-

Staley, April 22 .- Plans for the Staley high school commencement have been formulated and will begin sociated with the Southern Pharma- born and reared in the Caraway secceutical Association in a traveling ca- tion and moved to Indiana, when his pacity. He was engaged in this at son was a mere lad. On account of wide circle of friends in Randolph Saturday evening, April 26, by the presentation of "South of Sunnyside," the health of his family, Rev. Kearns

(Please turn to page 4)

Mrs. Claude Isley Is Released Under Bond

Mrs. Claude Isley, of Seagrove, was 1927.

Though nominated for this high place by President Hoover and supported generally by bar associations over the country. Immediately after Parker's nomination, organized labor began a fight on him and apparently has suc-ceeded in defeating him Labor's posi-tion against Parker is said to be duce to a decision which he rendered once muchedding a country were tail marker just inside

Former A Residen Free vaccination against typhoid fever, diphtheria and smallpox is a-vailable to Randolph county people, according to Dr. G. H. Sumner, coun-Died In Char ty health officer, who is ready to be-Where Taken I gin these vaccinations each Saturday. -Born In Office hours are from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. each Saturday, and the health of-ficer may be found in his office in Buried Here Tuesday the court house and is next door to that of Mr. T. F. Bulla, county super-Funeral Held From First M. E. intendent of schools. Three years ago Church—Pioneer Chair Manuand since those taking the typhoid facturer Of Asheboro. vaccination have waited until later in the spring and summer, and as a re-

Funeral was held from the First sult there have been several Saturdays M. E. church, Asheboro, Tuesday afwhen a thousand people were vaccinatternoon at 1 o'clock for Seth ed. It is desired that those wishing to Laughlin, of Greensboro, who died in a be vaccinated attend to the matter at Charlotte hospital Sunday. The services were conducted by Rev. B. C. once, and before the health officer has to begin his rounds in the coun- Reavis, pastor, assisted by Rev. John ty. By so doing the work will be H. Peele, Friends minister of Guilford College. Interment was in the church

THE COURIER

Leads In Both News And

Circulation

NUMBER 1

The

eboro

Is Dead

Treatment

Hospital

$2.00 A YEAR IN ADVANC

Seth W. Lau

cemetery. Mr. Laughlin was a native of Randolph county, having been born in the Marlboro community, and was a son The "Cold Saturday" of the late Shubal Laughlin. He was a successful civil engineer, and in 1928 was Republican candidate for surveyor hood and was known as a sta supporter of his party. Mr. Laughli moved to Asheboro about 1896, as did his brother, Shubal Laughlin, who died here. He was interested with G. G. Hendricks in the mercantile be later selling out. He was the pi furniture manufacturer of As having founded the Randolph Chain Company. He then engaged in the saw mill and real estate bu years. Mr. Laughlin left Randol county for Greensboro about 1916. He was actively interested in the Frie church, of which he was a birthright member, and was held in high est by those who knew him. He had a county, and his business, church and political activities, sometimes as canmoved to Alabama, where he died twenty years ago, and by request was didate for office, afforded him a wide acquaintance. brought to High Point for burial. The Surviving Mr. Laughlin are his years later. Mrs. Kearns widow of widow, who was Miss Annie Hinshaw, the veteran minister passing away in of Randelph county; two daughters, 1927. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kearns never miss a Kearns reunion and are responsible for the Kearns' reunions

Seagrove News frs. D. A. Cornelison Entertain Her Class

Seagrove, April 22 .- Mr. and Mrs.

J. C. Lawrence and Miss Florence Monroe of High Point, visited at Mr.

Miss Annie Smith spent the week

Misses Maple Lawrence, and Mary

Mr. and Mrs. Worthey Brown and daughter, Dixie, of Carthage, visited

Miss Jessie Kearns spent the week

Mrs. B. A. King was called to Eagle end at her home in High Point.

and Alberta Auman, of Elon College, end at her home at Trinity. She was accompanied by Miss Edith Locky.

spent the Easter holidays at home.

O. D. Lawrence's Monday.

the premises, and after he had fired 3 shots in the air as a warning was not business, and later sold out and went father tell how on that date a crowd Plans Formulated For Commencement

Staley High School

til a month ago when he became as- vate cotton. Mr. Kearns' father was Tions in "Say It With Songs," Warner Bros. latest all-talking, all-singing posed construction projects was sent coal mining company and its employes. Bros. latest all-talking, all-singing posed construction projects was sent coal mining company and its employes. The incorporate limits. This marker picture which comes to the Sunset out by a Raleigh correspondent but The Senate judiciary committee on is being erected by the Boone Memori-will have to be added.

MISS JULIA WEST BRIDE

picture which comes to the Sunset Theatre Monday and Tuesday. As Joe Lane, radio entertainer, the star has many opportunities to sing-which he does not only for the broadcasting station, but from pris-way the mill del in the April 1920 letting. on where he is sent as the result of are included in the April 1929 letting. Court justice, and it is not likely the There is ten miles of widening No. Senate will override the committee an accidential killing. Jolson does not resort to burnt cork in "Say It With Songs," since his audiences, supposedly never see him. Although he sings a group of him. Although he sings a group of an accidental killing.

songs that will be heard around the world, he plays the part of a man who considers himself a hopeless failure. "Say It With Songs" is the most tenderly emotional of all Jolson's stories. county, according to Sheriff Millikan. It was written by Darryl Zanuck and Harvey H. Gates and the talk- The law requires the sheriff to advertise on the first Monday in May ing scenario is by Joseph Jackson. Davey Lee, four-year-old baby star, all taxes outstanding for the past year. Therefore, those who do not again shares honors with Jolson in a cast which includes Marian Nixon, pay their 1929 county taxes by Mon-day, May 5, will be advertised, and should taxes be paid before the sale Holmes Herbert, Kenneth Thompson and Fred Kohler.

MILLBORO, BT. 1, NEWS

Millboro, April 22.-Mr. P. A.

Jenkins made a business trip to Ashe-boro Saturday. Miss Mozelle Sheron spent Saturday night with her sister, Mrs. P. A.

Miss Marganett Walker has moved her property to her new home on the Mr. M. A. Teague, Rev. B. C. Reavis ille road.

Mr. Albert Sheron and Miss Bessie York were quietly married at the home of Mr. G. W. Pugh Friday night, April 18th, at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Pugh officiating. Mr. Sheron is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sheron, of Mill-

Mrs. Sheron is the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis York, at Cedar Falls.

The young couple will make their ome with the groom's parents.

RANDLEMAN HIGH FINALS TO BEGIN SATURDAY, 26TH

nan high school o reises will begin w ng. April 26, at 8 o'clock ditorium. Miss Vir resident of Elon college 5. April 27, in the ing, April 29.

ion, 40 by 52 feet, is being

$45,000 IN 1929 TAXES The following will be of interest to many friends of the bride who has RANDOLPH UNCOLLECTED visited in Asheboro from time to time There still remain taxes to the Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Garrett anamount of approximately $45,000 of nounce the marriage of their daughthe 1929 levy uncollected in Randolph ter, Vista Sykes, to Mr. W. Dailey

Mansfield on Sunday, April the twentieth nineteen hundred and thirty, Burlington, North Carolina.

date, the first Monday in June, costs

ard, of Asheville.

A marriage of interest occurred Wednesday evening, April 16th, in the pastor's study at the First Methodist If The Census Enumerator Has Missed You, Episcopal church of this city, when Miss Julia West became the bride of Fill Out The Blank Below And Mail At Once

On April 1, 1930, I was living at the address given below, but to the best of my knowledge I have not been enumerated, either there

Street and No......

Franklinville road.
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sheron visited Mrs. Sheron's brother, Fred Smith, in High Point, Sunday. Mr. Smith is in feeble health.If is is in the census is an attractive and acomplished young lady. She holds a possition with the Bank of Ramseur.
Mrs. Cers Williams, in Greensboro.Have you and the members of your family been enumerated in the census, which began April 2. If not, you should see to it at once that your names are placed on the census roll.
For convenience of any whom the cansus takers have missed, there is a see him. If you know of any person whose name has not been gotten, send to also. The census Have you and the members of your take any chances. If the census tak-

The Gray's Chapel high school will egin commencement exercises May th. Tork-Sheron Mr. Albert Sheron and Miss Bessie ork were quictly married at the home or anywhere else.

ERNOR APPOINTS L. C. PHILLIPS A MAGISTRATE

Mr. L. C. Phillips, of Asheboro, has received notice of his appointment as magistrate by the Governor of North Carolina. Mr. Phillips is well known in the county, having served as a county officer for several years, and rior to moving to Asheboro years ago erv mill at was for 20 years a magistrate in Daniel Boone trail marker just inside released under $2,500 bond.

Saturday afternoon, May 3.

an operetta. The operetta is composed "Fingerprints," a comedy by Myr-tle Giard Elsey, will be presented on Saturday night May 3. This is a thre-act play and promises to be one day a. m. at his home in Greensboro of the most enjoyable of Elsey's plays. after an illness of nine months. Mr. The public is invited to the above Dawson was superannuated at the last M. E. Conference. He leaves his widow, one son and five daughters. program.

MINIATURE GOLF COURSE BUILT ON SALISBURY ST.

Responsive to the growing demand on the part of players of miniature golf, Messrs. E. D. Cranford and H. L. Ingram have under constructon a "Billy" Rich, who has passed his 75 A. A. Whitener, of Hickory, will not miniature course on the vacant lot on years in Asheboro, therefore well be a candidate for the Republican Salisbury street and lying between the known to almost every citizen of the nomination for U. S. Senate from new Standard oil filling station and town, was found dead in bed at his North Carolina, he announced Tues- the cemetery. The course has been home at East Bend, a suburb of Asheday, though it had been rumored he laid out by an expert and is being con- boro Tuesday morning. On Monday would be in the race. Republican can- structed under his supervision. The didates so far are Major George But- course is similar to that which was ULIA WEST BRIDE OF MR. M. A. TEAGUE ler, of Clinton, Rev. Grady Dorsett, of recently constructed on Highway 90, and although he has been in rather boot health for several months and Mrs. M. M. Bouldin, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Robbins, limits of the city.

MT. VERNON YOUNG LADIES ENTERTAIN THEIR PARENTS

family moved to High Point a few

Trinity, April 16 .- Wednesday evening the young ladies of the | Willing Workers class of Mt. Vernon church entertained their fathers and mothers at a banquet. The banquet table was artistically decorated in yellow and white. The center piece for each table was a vase filled with narcissus and spirea. The glow of the white and at Mr. A. R. Auman's Sunday.

yellow candles added much to the beauty of the table. Miss Mary Ledwell, as mistress of ceremonies, presided in a very charm- Springs last week on the account of her mother's serious illness. ing manner. A very interesting program was given at intervals during Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lilly, of Greensthe evening. The guests were welcomboro visited at Mr. E. W. | Auman's ed by Mrs. Jack Bulla. A toast to Monday afternoon. the mothers was given by Miss Pearl Mr. Ralph Spence and family spent Marsh; Mrs. June Peace responded. Easter with Mr. Spence's father at Miss Margaret Robbins toasted the Cole's Store. .

fathers, to which Mr. C. W. Redding Mrs. D. A. Cornelison and her Sunresponded. Appropriate songs and day School class, which is the Beginreadings were enjoyed. ners, enjoyed a picnic Monday after-Those enjoying this hospitality were: noon. After several games were playafternoon neighbors had seen him Dr. and Mr. J. D. Bulla, Mr. and ed, the children were told to look for going about his evening tasks as usual Mrs. C. W. Redding, Mr. and Mrs. eggs when they began looking around they found'all colors of eggs imaginpoor health for several months and unable to work, he was apparently as Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Harris, Mr. and spread, and all had a great time estwell as usual. "Billy" Rich, as he Mrs. Walter Savage, Mr. and Mrs. J. ing and toasting marshmallows. Othhas always been known was quite an D. Strader, Mr. and Mrs. June Peace, ers attending besides the class were: adept at "yard" work and many of Mrs. T. W. Ledwell, and Mrs. J. S. Mesdames J. E. King, Ross Charles, O. D. Lawrence and Miss Maple bear the stamp of his handiwork. While he lived alone, and since the es Pearl Marsh, Mary Ledwell, Kath-Lawrence.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Neese spent leen Ledwell, Minnie Peace, Dora Tuesday in Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Finch Kearns, of ago, has no near relatives, he has Peace, Mary Lee Stillwell, Berta Mae many friends among the older resi-dents and business people of the town. Bouldin, Lelia Bouldin, Virginia Har-Dr. D. J. Johnson's. High Point, spent the week end at water, two cups corn meal, salt. Put meat through food chopper. Mix all ingredients and cook as you would for mush. Pour into pan or mold and when cold alice and dry to a golden brown.

Terraces Valuable

The Bank of Union at Monroe, with deposits of $750,000 and resources of more than a million, closed its doors Tuesday on account of withdrawal of leposits and inability to realize on alow" notes. It is thought the de-ositors will not lose anything T. G. Wagstaff of Person Count values the terraces built on one of his groded fields at $250 He ext

Among those present Mrs. Ernest Barnes an and Mrs. A. I. Frazier of and Mr. J. H. J. aint; Mr. and Mrs.

ing after a long illness. She had been almost a life long member of Melanch-ton Lutheran church, having joined there 73 years ago, and attended church services more than half a cen-tury. She leaves one son, A. M. Foglean, and one daughter, Mrs. R. B. aley, both of Liberty. Funeral was inducted from Melanchton church

Friday afternoon.

Among the charges which he served during his ministry was that at Randleman. Mr. Dawson was an uncle of Mr. J. A. Holder, of Asheboro.

"Billy" Rich

the lawns and flower beds of the town Sykes.

death of his brother, John Rich, a year

Rev. W. L. Dawson