

Local Young Men Stage Bold Hold Up Biscoe Bank

Four Unmasked Young Men Of Asheboro Boldly Robbed Bank Of Biscoe Friday.

Quick Chase Given

Two Caught On Short Order
And Other Two Picked Up Few Days Afterwards

"Home talent" staged a bold daylight robbery Friday afternoon of the Bank of Biscoe, at Biscoe, got away with $5,000 in currency, and made a short dash for freedom and the bright lights.

Four young men, Enoch Nelson, Percy Foster, Wister King and Clem Lowdermilk, all from Asheboro, or at one time or another residing at Asheboro as their home, are in jail at Troy charged with the crime, after having been caught with some of the currency in their possession.

While the quartet were liquidating the "frozen assets" of the Biscoe bank, Enoch Nelson was recognized, and there was no surprise when he was caught a little later after he and another of the quartet, Percy Foster, had been left standing by the roadside by their other companions who sped away with the major part of the loot.

The quartet, traveling in a Ford coupe, boldly drove up in front of the Bank of Biscoe Friday afternoon about 3 o'clock. Two waited outside while as many more went inside the bank covering the cashier, Edgar Maness, with a pistol, and also the Biscoe police chief, Wiseman, who was transacting business in the bank at the time. They scooped up practically all the money in sight, though they overlooked a considerable sum lying on the counter, fled to their car and sped away. None of the quartet was masked.

Car Window Shattered

As the car sped away from the bank a shot from a gun fired by Bill McLean, a bystander, shattered the back window of the machine. Officers were notified and a posse went in hot pursuit of the bandits' car.
The car bearing the bandits and the loot sped swiftly over the bridge at Stokes Ferry, but the pursuit was less than five minutes behind. Shortly after getting over into Rowan county the car was stopped on a side road and division of the spoils begun.
Nelson and Foster were outside the car and had obtained $1,500 of the loot when approach of the posse was heard. King and Lowdermilk, still in the car, stepped on the gas, leaving their two companions stranded.
They were picked up by officers and taken to Troy jail, having been relieved of the bank's currency in their possession so short that they probably hadn't had time to finger the velvet of the lure.

Other Two Arrested

Search for Lowdermilk and King continued, officers all over the state and adjoining states being notified.
There was a special reason to believe the pair would show up at Asheville, and the sheriff's office there was asked to be especially watchful. At 12:30 a. m. Tuesday morning, King and Lowdermilk were placed under arrest by Buncombe county officers. They had $600 in $1 bills, $85 in gold and a new automobile, having somewhere along their flight disposed of the Ford. A gun was also found in their possession.
According to Nelson's version of the robbery, he and King went into the bank with Nelson doing the gun play and he gathering up the cash.
The robbers were in the bank less than five minutes. The bank has a capital stock of $10,000, with A. W.
Lewis president, Edgar Maness cashier and his sister, Miss Annie Maness, assistant cashier. The loss is covered by insurance.

Legion Auxiliary To Observe Poppy Day In Asheboro May 28

Poppy Day will be observed in Asheboro Saturday, May 28th. The American Legion Auxiliary will be in charge of the sale of these poppies.
The money from the sale of these little flowers goes directly toward the living expenses of disabled veterans. These disabled men and their families some of whom have no other means of support, are glad of the small amount from the sale of each poppy on Poppy Day. It is the hope of the local Auxiliary that the sale this year will surpass the total of any previous year. The cooperation of the public is asked in this campaign.

Singing Convention singing convention will be held at Seagrove M. P. church on Sunday, May 29th, beginning at 10 a. m. The meeting will be called to order by the president, H. D. Smith, with the opening prayer being sung by the congregation.
The welcome will be made by S. G.
Richardson, while the response will be by Prof. J. M. Green. Singing will occupy the greater part of the time of the convention, which will close at a close at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The 42nd annual reunion of Confederate veterans will be held in Richmond, Va., former capital of the Confederacy, June 21-24.

Alligator Is Found In Coleridge Pond; Is Seen By 3 People

Believe it or not, there's an alligator in the mill pond at Coleridge on Deep River. The alligator was seen twice Monday by three different people. Tom Cox, Coleridge township magistrate, was first to see it, observing from the bridge the animal swimming about on the surface of the pond. It appeared to be about four feet in length. Later in the day it was observed from the bridge across Deep River there by Mrs. Thomas and Sears, of Siler City. Whence the alligator came, nobody seems to know, but judging from its size, belief is held that it hibernated under the mud banks along the pond during the winter and came out this spring when water and weather grew warm.

Farmer Delegation Attends Meeting Of County Association

Monthly Meeting Of Asheboro
Union Of Epworth Leagues Held In Asheboro.

ed the monthly meeting of the Asheboro Union of Epworth Leagues held at Asheboro First M. E. church on Friday night.

Will Sell Season Tickets To County Fair At $1.00 Each

Season tickets for the fair, Randolph county's big annual event, will be sold again this year at the price of one dollar, which will entitle a person to 15 admissions to the fair grounds.

The last fair was the first time the price of season tickets had been put so low, and it proved so popular and so many of them were sold that the fair officials have decided to place the tickets at $1.00 again this year.
Everybody including the president, secretary and officials of the fair and all attendants must buy a ticket in order to be admitted to the grounds.
In other words, there will be no free tickets issued this year. One of the most popular things the fair has ever done was to pass a ruling charging everybody who visited the fair.

Rally Day Program At Charlotte Church On Sunday, May 29

A rally day program will be given on Sunday, May 29th, at Charlotte church, west of Asheboro. The program will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning and will continue through the afternoon. Lunch will be served on the church grounds. The ladies will have charge of the afternoon program for organization of women's work among the churches to be represented at the rally day.
Churches in the Methodist, Protestant and Baptist denominations in the Asheboro area will take part in the program. Good singing and excellent talks on church work are promised those who come. The public is invited.

With The Churches

M. E. Church, South

tive Maid."

K. G. Coltrane, 72, Died Yesterday At Level Cross

Death Came After Illness Of Several Weeks—Well Known In Randolph County.

Funeral Thursday

Afternoon At Old Center
Church, Of Which Mr. Coltrane Was A Member.

Kelly G. Coltrane, one of the best known citizens of Randolph county, died at his home at Level Cross early Wednesday morning after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Coltrane was 72 years old and for many years a leader in his section, and well known throughout the entire county of Randolph and neighboring counties. He was a farmer who felt keenly the interest in the good roads movement and other forward steps taken by the county in earlier days. He was also interested in politics, his church and community in general and looked upon as a leader for many years.

His wife, who was a daughter of Jonathan Vickory, of Level Cross community, survives with the following four daughters: Mrs. J. H. Far-low, Mrs. L. E. Hockett, Mrs. Z. V.
Huffman, Mrs. W. W. Kearns, all of Randleman. A brother, D. B. Coltrane, of Concord, also survives.

Funeral and burial services were conducted Thursday afternoon at Old Center church, of which Mr. Coltrane was a lifelong member. Rev. G. E.
Williams, of Randeman, conducted the service which was attended by a large number of people from Randolph and adjoining counties.

Robert R. Reynolds First Candidate To File His Expenses

The first filing of expense accounts of candidates for office in North Carolina was done by Robert R. Reynolds, of Asheboro, one of the Democratic candidates for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator.

Reynolds reported expenditures of $1,361.38—just a little more than a tenth of the $12,000 a senatorial candidate is allowed to spend and contributions of $1,236.50.

Contributions included a $300 gift from the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment and $500 from J. A. Cannon, prominent Concord textile magnate. C. W.
Roberts of Greensboro and Struthers Burt, Southern Pines author, were listed for $25 each, and Dr. J.
T. Burrows of High Point, Guilford state senator in 1931 and president of the state board of health, was down for $15.

an operation for appendicitis last week at High Point hospital is improving.

Miss Maple Lawrence, spent a few days last week at High Point with her sister, Mrs. J. M. Farlow.

Misses Alberta and Hazel Auman are spending a few days in Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Green spent Sunday with friends at Mt. Gilead.
The revival meeting will begin at the M. P. church here, next Sunday night, May 22.

Miss Euna Walker, who has been a student at Elon College the past year, returned home last week for the summer vacation.

Miss Lena Russell a member of the school faculty at Altamahaw, came home last week for the summer.

Misses Maple Lawrence and O'Brien Leach, Mesdames O. D. Lawrence, D. A. Cornelison and Ivey Luck attended the commencement exercises of Elise high school Tuesday.

Wine Essay Medal
Miss Maxine Garner, 13, student at Liberty high school the past school year, was winner of a bronze medal offered by William Randolph Hearst, nationally known newspaper publisher, for essay of 400 words. Miss Garner's essay was put in competition with those in the special event for junior high school grades.

Flies Across Atlantic Mrs. Amelia Earhart Putnam flew across the Atlantic ocean alone last week, having landed in Ireland 14 hours and 54 minutes after having taken off from Harbor Grace, in the United States. She is the first woman to have made a non-stop airplane flight across the Atlantic, and did so five years after Colonel Lindbergh made his famous trans-Atlantic crossing.

New Hosiery Mill
Work has been started on plant for the Rogers Hosiery Mill, Inc., at Denton, and is expected to be completed in four months.

Arthur Robbins, 33, Kicked By Mule And Dies From Injuries

Randleman Young Man Fatally Hurt Friday When Kicked In Stomach By Mule.

Arthur Robbins, 33, of Randleman, died in a High Point hospital Monday morning from effect of injuries received when kicked in the stomach by a mule at about 1 o'clock Friday.
Mr. Robbins was putting a pair mules in a stable after having been out working them in his garden when one of them entering the stable playfully kicked out, striking Mr. Robbins in the stomach, rupturing his intestines. He was rushed immediately to the hospital, but did not rally.

Mr. Robbins, employed in the Deep River Mills, as a foreman, was an estimable young man, prominent in his community, and an excellent citizen. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Robbins, of Randleman, who survives. He leaves also one sister, Miss Clara Robbins; his widow, who before marriage was Miss Ethel Cox, and two children, Margaret and Betty Lou Robbins, all of Randleman.

Funeral was held from Marlboro Friends church Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with the Rev. Mr. Groce in charge, and the body laid to rest in the church cemetery.

Locusts Pay Visit Every 13 Years, Not Once Every 17

Declares Mrs. C. C. Hubbard, Of Farmer, Who Produces Records To Prove It.

Locusts come amongst us every 13 years instead of every 17, Mrs.
Frances P. Hubbard, of Farmer, writes The Courier this week. Mrs.
Hubbard searches records and recollection to substantiate her statement, which is as follows:

I have several times recently heard people speaking of the fact that the seventeen-year locusts are expected in Randolph county this year.

In 1868, the year in which I was born, the locusts were in Asheboro, and over a large part of the county.
I had heard my mother speak of this fact a number of times, and so when they appeared again in 1881, the year in which my father's birthday occurred, I wrote the date of their first appearance down and placed the record with mother's important papers. When they came again in 1894, I found the record still there, thus confirming mother's belief that they were 13-year instead of 17-year locusts.

In 1907 they again appeared, and again in 1920, so they are not due until about this time next year. It has been very easy for me to remember the dates of their appearing, since it has divided my life into periods of 13 years. It is hard to explain the prevalent belief that they appear every 17 years. If I live until next year when they arrive it will be the fifth time that I have heard their music, and I will be 65 years old.

Fiddlers To Meet In Court House In Asheboro Friday Eve

What is to be known as Asheboro's second largest fiddlers convention will be that to be staged in the court house on Friday evening, May 27th, beginning at 8 o'clock. The convention will be staged by R. P.
Smith, of Liberty, and a percentage of the proceeds will go to charity.

Among the attractions to be offered are Frank Stamps and his quartet, of Greensboro, an attraction that always brings crowds. A number of string bands will be present also to add to the occasion, as well as a number of individual fiddlers.
Prizes will be given the best bands, the best Charleston and clog dancers.
A small admission fee will be charged for the attraction.

Rotation Demonstrations Twenty-five crop rotation demonstrations are being conducted by good farmers of Alamance county this season in an effort to find the best working combination of crops.

Farm Improvement Ten farm improvement clubs have been organized by adult farmers in Wilkes county this season to start a more profitable form of farming in the county.

Cheap Marketing
The Alleghany Farmers Exchange is selling lambs and beef cattle for its members at a flat charge of 15 cents each for the lambs and $1.50 each for the beefs. This takes care of all marketing costs.

Welfare Department Offers Opportunity To Adopt Fine Baby

Want to adopt a fine baby boy?
T. Fletcher Bulla, county welfare officer, is looking for a permanent good home for a fine baby boy just 14 months old. If you can satisfy Mr. Bulla you will give the little fellow a good home and will care for him like a son, you can get this boy. If interested get in touch with Mr. Bulla in his office in the court house for particulars.

Permit Required For Every Worker Under Age Of 16

Regulations Governing Child Labor In North Carolina Are Given Here In Detail.

Certain Exceptions

Are Laid Down In The Law—Permit No Girl Under 14 Years To Be Employed.

Apparent misunderstanding of the child labor law upon the part of certain employers and the approach of the vacation season has prompted county welfare workers to call attention to the state regulations of employment.

The law requires that every child under 16 years of age must have a permit to work in establishments and places of business specified in the child labor regulations. Employment of children under 16 are liable to prosecution for employing a child without the required certificate of age.

It is provided by law that "No child under the age of 14 years shall be employed or permitted to work in or about or in connection with any mill, factory, cannery, workshop or manufacturing establishment; no
be employed or be permitted to work in or about or in connection with any laundry, bakery, mercantile establishment, office, hotel, restaurant, barber shop, bootblack stand, public stable, garage, place of amusement, brick yard, lumber yard or any messenger or delivery service, public works, or any form of street trade, except in cases and under regulations prescribed by the commission herein created."

From this provision of the law bona fide boys and girls canning clubs, recognized by the state department of agriculture, or vocational training classes, authorized by the state board of health are exempted.

The law also prohibits employment of children under 16 years of age in any of the places of business, referred to in the section pertaining to children under 14 years of age, for more than eight hours in any one day or 48 hours or six days in one week, and after 8 p. m. and before 5 a. m. Employment of a child under 16 in connection with any quarry or mine is also prohibited. Farming and domestic employment are exempted from the law, however.

Boys between the ages of 12 and 14 years may be employed in the occupations mentioned in the quoted sections of the child labor regulations when the public schools are not in session if it is shown to the county welfare superintendent that such employment is not injurious to the health and morals of the child. It is also provided by the law that boys between 12 and 14 years may be employed in the specified occupations on Saturday and out of school hours if such employment does not interfere with their school work.

The law specifies that no girl under 14 years of age can be employed in any of the occupations mentioned in the child labor regulations. Of course, the law makes exception of bona fide canning clubs and vocational training classes authorized by the state.

Impounded Ballot Boxes Not Needed In County Primary

Principals in the Pritchard-Bailey Senate contest have affixed their signatures to a document which will permit transfer of impounded ballots of the 1930 Senate race in North Carolina to be removed to other properly labeled containers, and the ballot boxes used for the primary on June 4th. Removal of ballots must be in presence of at least two members of the county boards of elections.

In Randolph, however, it will not be necessary either to remove the ballots or use the boxes. Since there are no local primary contests—these being left to the convention later—not as many boxes will be required here as in counties having primaries for county officers. One box will be required at each polling place in Randolph for the Democratic ballots, another for the Republican ballots and still another in which the stubs cut from the ballots will be deposited.

LEVEL CROSS NEWS

Randleman, R. F. D., May 23.— K. G. Coltrane is ill at his home here.

First Rattlesnake Of Present Season Killed On Caraway

It may be rather early for rattlesnake stories, but here comes one from Caraway mountain, one of the peaks of the Uwharries which lifts its head in the western part of the county far above all others. While hiking on Caraway last Friday, Miss Chloë Routh, of Randleman, route 3, and Mrs. A.
T. Cooke, Miss Faye Ferree and Mrs. W. E. Ferree, of Greensboro, encountered a large rattler. First intimation of the snake's presence was a hissing sound coming from a clump of bushes. The snake was coiled, its head weaving back and forth striking out at the intruders of its domain. The women folks gave battle, and when the snake was finally killed it was found to measure 45 inches and to have eleven rattles.

Worthville To Hold Annual Old People's & Home Comers Day

Sunday, June 5th, Day Set For This Annual Event—Mr.
Browning To Speak.

Mrs. Annie Luther, Worthville.

The officers and the committees on arrangements are fully expecting a full attendance of all members and their friends at this year's celebration.

Asheboro Young Man Will Receive Degree Wake Forest College

Wake Forest, May 23.—Among the 133 Wake Forest College seniors slated to receive degrees in June is Samuel W. Miller of Asheboro. He is a candidate for the LL. B. degree.
Sam has been an active participant in literary organizations on the campus. For the past two years he has been a member of the varsity debating teams, which last year won the state championship. He is also a member of the Pi Kappa Delta forensic fraternity, and was Society Day debater for the Euzelian Literary Society in 1929.

Wake Forest has the distinction of being the oldest and largest Baptist institution for men in the United States. This session it has 800 students enrolled from 95 North Carolina counties and foreign areas.

To Hold Community Memorial Service At Jamestown, May 29

The sixth annual community memorial service will be held at the Jamestown M. E. church, Sunday afternoon, May 29th at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. R. S. Truesdale, pastor of the First Methodist church in Asheboro, has accepted an invitation to make the annual address on this occasion.

Special music will also feature the program and will include quartets, violin music and a solo by C. L. Gray, Jr., a student of High Point College. A large crowd of people from several sections of the state are expected to attend this service as it is honoring each person who has died in the community since last year's service was held.

The honored dead are: Sidney L.
Alderman, Amanda Dean, Mary A.
Edwards, Irving Fine, Lizzie Henley Gordon, Annie Ozment Gossett, J. Graham Hanner, Charles O. Holton, Emma Elizabeth Horney, Cornelia Jane Hill, Ruth Hill, William M. Jones, Andrew F. Johnson, Marion Bundy Lamb, James W.
Matlock, Jennie Harris Moore, Lizzie Barbee Osborne, Elijah Parker, Dovie Johnson White, Mary M. Ward.

Plenty Of Candidates
There are plenty of candidates in Sampson county in the primary on June 4th. 93 Republicans are seeking county offices, while the Democrats are just one behind with 92.
This makes a total of 185 county candidates to be voted on by Sampson county voters on June 4, to say nothing of the half hundred out for state offices.

Farm Breeders Association Madison county farmers have formed a Herford Association to promote the production of pure bred breed cattle.

Plant New Pasture
About 200 acres in new pasture has been planted in the cotton and tobacco growing county of Johnston this spring.
