MR. WARD REQUESTS A CORRECTION OF ALLEGED STATEMENT BY MOFFITT

Mr. John T. Moffitt, Chairman, Young Democratic Club of Randolph County, Asheville, N. C.

I am informed that you are circulating a report to the effect that I, as manager of the mill here at Worthville, will not allow the employment of persons who do not vote the Republican ticket.

Were it not for the reason that such a report is calculated to do incalculable damage to the corporation, I would pay no attention to it personally.

May I add that I have employed labor regularly since 1899. Seventeen years of this time was in Asheville and during all of these 33 years, this is the first time I have ever heard of being accused of such a low down scheme.

I shall be glad to have you visit our plant and talk with any or all of our 150 employees for your enlightenment.

As stated above, I will thank you to use every effort and means to counteract the statements that have been made.

Yours very truly, LEWARD COTTON MILLS, Inc., W. L. Ward, Sec. & Treas.

HIGH TARIFF HAS HIT ASHEBORO A HARD BLOW

Editor Courier: I have been asked the question many times, "What effect has the high tariff, which has been enforced on the hosiery industry by Canada and other nations, had in the mills of Randolph county?"

Since the high tariff went into effect, we have sold $2,692,692 worth of hosiery. We would have sold, if we could have gotten our normal export business, $3,167,800.

Employment for fifteen men will be afforded by the new orders. It is announced that enough orders have already been secured to keep the business in operation for sometime to come.

In the mountainous Tehachapi Pass region of California more than forty people were thought to have perished in a cloudburst late Saturday.

I am reminded of the story of the government to the people, in its wisdom, selected as candidate Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt for the presidency.

IN MEMORY OF MY MOTHER, MRS. FLORA ELLISON

Precious mother, how I've missed you, Since from me you went away, Just two months ago you left us; Long and sad has been each day.

I have tried so hard to follow The path you taught me to go, But without your hand to guide me It has been so hard to do.

Many times I have missed your guidance, Missed your smile and helping hand, But I know that you are happy Over in the Heavenly Land.

It was hard to have you leave us When we all did love you so, But 'twas God's will to take you He just needed you to go.

No one knows the pain and longing Which has filled my heart each day; And I find myself still pondering If you've really gone to stay.

I seem to hear you calling Bidding each to do his best, Rendering service unto others 'Till we, too, may join the best.

Dearest Mama, yes I miss you In a thousand different ways, But I'm coming soon to join you In the land of endless days.

We know you can't return to us, But we can come to you, So pray for us that we may merit The reward that is to Christians due.

government to the people, in its wisdom, selected as candidate Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt for the presidency and Hon. John N. Let every one who would like to see the national government turned back to true representation of the people contribute to this worthy cause. Give now, vote November 8th—and see the Democrats back in office.

SOCIALISTS GET ON TICKET When the State Board of Elections required the Socialists of North Carolina to get 10,000 signers to petitions request the placing of their presidential electors on the official ballot, it was ostensibly complying with the law.

The petition requirement stirred Socialists in North Carolina who had been more or less dormant for years into activity. Many such persons got petitions and obtained signatures in number from two or three to several hundred.

More than 10,000 signatures to the petitions does not mean that there are that many Socialist in the State. Yet, it would not be surprising if the party polled a much larger vote than that. When it appears that any movement is having an unnecessarily hard time getting along, sympathy develops and from sympathy new strength. It has been whispered about rather loudly that the State Board of Elections wasn't after the Socialists but the Communists. And the Socialists appreciated this view since they are opposed to the Communists. This evokes the observation that 100 per cent. tolerance is something which will be attained only in the far-off future.—Journal and Sentinel—Winston-Salem.
