Velvet For the Opera

New York-Paris Fashions LUCIA velvet, one of the most popular opera velvets, fashions this smart evening gown, in a Boue Souers model. The ostrich trim, outlining a deep front dip in the new tunic effect the circular-tier bustle effect in the back of the skirt and the little divided shoulder wrap with arm attachment are high style features of the gown which is worn with a matching ostrich

Norma Shearer Is Star Actress In New Screen Production

With Norma Shearer as its star, and one of the most brilliant supporting casts yet assembled for the speaking screen, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's lavish production of "Smilin' Through" will open Monday at the Sunset Theatre. Miss Shearer in the feminine lead follows in the footsteps of Jane Cowl, who achieved one of her greatest successes in the record-breaking New York stage run of the play from which the screen production was adapted. Opposite her is Fredric March, borrowed from Paramount to play the dual role of Jeremy Wayne in the mid-Victorian sequences of the story and Kenneth Wayne, his son, in the modern scene. Leslie Howard and O. P. Heggie, who left the screen to fulfill stage engagements on Broadway during the past season, were brought back to Hollywood to add further lustre to Miss Shearer's cast. Both these distinguished players have appeared previously with the star, Howard in "A Free Soul" and Heggie in "The Actress." The cast also includes Ralph Forbes, Beryl Mercer, David Torrence, Margaret Seddon and Forrester Harvey, under the direction of Sidney Franklin, who produced "Private Lives." "Smilin' Through" is the story of an old man who seeks to shed the relentless bitterness of his blighted romance on a pair of young lovers. The colorful background provides a contrast between the England of 1868 and modern days.

With The Churches

Presbyterian Church 9:45 a. m., Sunday school; 11 a. m., morning worship, subject, Christmas Always—"Of His kingdom there shall be no end. 5 p. m., a Christmas pageant telling the story of the birth of Christ.

To Present Minstrel Revue Saturday Eve Staley High School

Staley, Dec. 12.—The outstanding program of the current half-year will be presented in the form of a minstrel revue in the Staley school auditorium at 7:45 o'clock, Saturday evening, December 17. The cast, which includes 22 characters, is made up entirely from the personnel of the pupils and faculty. Much time and labor have been spent in perfecting the routines. The program, which will be two hours in length, will consist of the latest jokes, most popular songs, and short sketches which are true depictions of the comical "darkey". Smart For Sports Wear

New York-Paris Fashions THIS youthful and practical sports and country jacket of Doetex, a light weight, water-proof, suede-like fabric, is a popular school girl model either in beige, kasha, or bright blue. The deep pie, woolly-looking fabric used for the collar and called electric beaver, is in keeping with the shaggy surface effect of the coat fabric and its sheepskin lining.

Randolph Book Club Twelve members were present Friday for the Randolph Book Club meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. T. H. Redding. Mrs. M. W. Parrish and Mrs. J. A. Spence, additional guests, were also present, as were Mesdames Neely Hunter and Charles McCrary, who assisted the hostess in serving a delectable salad course. The program was of unusual interest having as it did chapters from America as Americans See It, read and commented upon by Mrs. W. H. Moring, the subjects being Island Theatres, Love and Romance, and the Wings of an Ostrich. Culinary arts being the subject for discussion, brought out many tried recipes suitable for Christmas cooking. Mrs. Redding presented each guest with typewritten copies of a ginger bread recipe which was given her at one of the hotels in Yellowstone Park during her visit there two years ago.

NEWS OF THE ASHEBORO SCHOOL FOR COLORED RACE

"Song Revue," a cleverly arranged presentation of popular songs, ballads, folk songs and dances, will be staged Friday, December 16, at the Randolph county training school, by the "Song Revue" Chorus of the Dunbar high school of Lexington. This organization has been trained by one of the teachers, who, herself, had excellent training in chorus work and dramatics. The presentation has met consistently with popular approval at every place it has been staged. The public is cordially invited to witness the concert. A small admission to defray the expense will be charged at the door. The reports at the close of the third month of the city school which ended last month show that about 60 per cent of the senior class made the honor roll which was the highest percentage for any class in recent years. Out of the twelve members of the class, seven attained the goal. Two of the three boys of the class made the honor roll and the other one barely missed, having been absent one day. The next highest class in percentage on the honor roll was the Freshman class with about 9 per cent. The third grade had about 38 per cent and the second grade had 18 per cent. Several of the members making the honor roll have been hon-making each month during this session as well as last session. The following is the honor roll: Seniors: Wilbur Fox, Thomas Hawsaw, Emma Davis, Genie Foushee, Eugenia Marley, Annie Phillips, Pearl Staley. Sophomores: Arlena Gibson, Pauline Marley. Freshmen: Mae Marley, Lena Foushee, Nellie Bingham. First grade: Samuel Hill. Second grade: Arthur Lee Hoover, Wade Chrisco, Jerome Franks, De Lois Davis, Gwendolyn Franks, Vera Garner. Third grade: Garfield Marsh, Hortense Scott, Lucile Covington, Eula Mae Shamburger, Ohillery Brady. Fifth grade: Marie Caddell, Clyde Davis. T. D. Temple, of Scotland Neck, harvested 16 bushels of Tennessee 76 lespechea seed an acre from his seedings this year. Where the birds are given white corn they need the food properties found in legumes and other green stuff.
