

C. C. Shaw, Former Sheriff Of Davidson Claimed By Death

Died At Home Of His Daughter In Lexington Saturday After A Long Illness.

Christopher C. Shaw, well known citizen of Davidson county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. O. Zimmerman, at Lexington, late Saturday night, after an illness of several months. Mr. Shaw was born and reared in Randolph county, but spent a part of his long and useful life at Denton where he was interested in community interests. He is a former sheriff of Davidson county and spent some time at Lexington where he also has many friends. He served as sheriff for four years, from 1912 to 1916. Surviving are his daughter, Mrs. Zimmerman, of Lexington, another daughter, Mrs. Thomas Johnson, of Denton, and a son, Buren Shaw, of Johnsonville, South Carolina. The 54 sweet potato curing houses in Gaston county are all filled with a good grade of sweets. Cabbage is probably the best green food for pullets starting the winter laying season.

Funeral For Mrs. Calvin T. Hudson Held At Ramseur

Former Ramseur Woman Is Brought Home And Laid To Rest Beside Husband.

Senior Class Play To Be Given Friday Evening, Dec. 16th; Socials Feature Week In Community.

Ramseur, Dec. 12.—The senior class will give their annual play, "Bashful Mr. Bobbs," a farce comedy, Friday evening, Dec. 16th. This program is full of fun and wholesome entertainment. The public is invited to come and enjoy the annual event. The talent, 1932-33 seniors, will do themselves and their splendid director, Miss Annie Mitchell, and her assistants credit.

Mrs. Calvin T. Hudson, 65, who died Saturday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Watson, at Greensboro, was laid to rest here by her companion who preceded her only a few years. Funeral was conducted at Ramseur Baptist church by her pastor, Rev. H. M. Stroup, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Hudson had been a faithful member of this church a long time. Many beautiful flowers and a large number of friends present attested the high esteem held for this good woman. Surviving are two sons, Boyd and Walter Hudson, of Ramseur; three daughters, Mrs. Wade Marley, of Ramseur; Mrs. Watson and Miss Grace Hudson, of Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whitesell and daughter, of High Point, spent Sunday in Ramseur.

Entertains Ladies Aid

Mrs. T. A. Moffitt entertained the Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Claude Craven led the devotionals. Mrs. J. O. King, as program leader, gave a lovely Christmas story. Mrs. I. H. Foust closed the program with Christmas poems. In the business hour, a piano was purchased, and plans were promoted to spread Christmas cheer among the shut-ins. In the social hour, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. H. F. Brady and Mrs. Hampton Brady, served a salad course to fourteen members and visitors present.

Form Ministerial Association

The members of the Western N. C. Conference of the Christian church have formed a ministerial association which will meet in the Ramseur church the first Monday in each month. The initial meeting was held in December, and the attendance and interest were encouraging.

Baptist Missionary Society Meets

Observing the week of prayer for foreign missions, the first of a series of meetings of the Baptist W. M. U. was held at the home of Mrs. Tracy Brady Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 6th. During the business session, officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Mrs. G. F. Lane, pres.; Mrs. G. C. Ellis, vice pres.; Mrs. E. B. Leonard, sec.; and Mrs. Tracy Brady, treas. Reports were made by the different committees and the work of the past year reviewed. Plans were made to help bring Christmas cheer to some of the shut-ins of the town. An interesting program on "The Gifts Christ Brought" was given and the "Lottie Moon Christmas offering" was taken. The hostess served refreshments during the social hour.

Mrs. E. A. Reihm Hostess

Mrs. E. A. Reihm entertained the members of Circle No. 1 at the December meeting Wednesday afternoon. The "Week of Prayer Program," which is to be given each year by the society, proved interesting. Miss Nellie Craven read the Christmas story from the second chapter of Luke, after which Mrs. J. R. Wilson led in prayer. A poem, "Prayer is the Soul's Desire," was given by Mrs. J. W. Dixon. Mrs. Jesse Craven gave a reading on "Creative Prayer and Personal Life" which was followed by a beautiful sketch on the life of Miss Esther Case, being given by Miss Virtie Lambert. A business session followed in which many important items were discussed. Committees for the new year's work were also appointed by the chairman, Mrs. Reihm assisted by her daughter served a sweet course with coffee.

Missionary Circle Meets

Circle No. 2 of the Missionary Society met with Mrs. A. W. Craven for the December meeting. The following officers were elected: Mrs. E. C. Watkins, president; Mrs. R. C. White, vice president; Mrs. W. E. Marley, secretary; Mrs. L. B. Craven, treasurer; Mrs. A. W. Craven, supt. primary children's work to succeed Mrs. Shelly Leonard. Mrs. Shelly Leonard and Mrs. G. R. Hodgkin had charge of the program which was on prayer. Both made excellent talks following the outline for week of prayer. Following the business meeting the hostess assisted by Misses Margaret Ann White and Ruth Euliss served a salad course to the fifteen members present.

KILLS EVERY ITCH GERM

In a few minutes after applying Reaves Sanitary Lotion, severe itching stops and your tortured nerves are normal! B Sharp Music Club

The B Sharp Music Club met Saturday afternoon at the home of Frances Baldwin. Eugenia Brady, Frances Baldwin and Lois Brown were joint hostesses. The study of the life of John Philip Sousa was the topic for the meeting. Georgia Marsh read a paper on the life of Sousa, a piano solo followed by Martha Stroup. A story, "Miss Thumble Fingers Becomes Skillful Fingers," by Nancy Stroup, was enjoyed. Margaret Ann White played a piano solo, with a duet by Frances Baldwin and Nancy Stroup. Musical questions and a letter were read by Dorothy Tippet, a duet by Eugenia Brady and Lois Brown, contest melody of love, Katherine Reihm and Lawrence Burgess and practice report. Frances Burgess, completed the program. Interesting musical games were enjoyed after which refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. C. E. Baldwin. Those winning prizes in the memory contest were Katherine Reihm and Margaret Ann White, Katherine Reihm also winning in the contest, melody of love. The visitors were Edna Earl Cox, Judith Curtis, Patty Luther, and Mrs. Frank Chisholm, who acted as judge for the piano contest.

Attendance Banner Denton School Goes To 11th Grade

The attendance banner at the Denton school has been awarded for the month of November. Miss Brownie Taylor's 11th grade won the banner for this month in the high school while Miss Lucille Davis' third grade, A section won the elementary attendance banner.

There is considerable friendly rivalry aroused by the presentation of this banner in the school which has greatly raised the attendance and record for promptness.
