Farmer Teachers Spend Christmas With Home Folks

But Will Be Returning Soon For Opening Of Spring Semester On January 2nd.

Worth Lowe III

Recovering From An Operation For Appendicitis In The Randolph Hospital, Inc. Farmer, Dec. 27.-Mr. and Mrs. S.

A. Cooper and children spent the hol-iday with relatives at Raleigh and R. W. Dorsett, of Mt. Gilead, Mr.

and Mrs. G. B. Egerton, of Durham, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cox, of Ramseur, and I. S. Kearns and family, of Ashe-bore, spent Christmas with Mrs. Roxana Dorsett.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Dersett were Christmas visitors to Mrs. Dorsett's relatives at Allendale, S. C.

Miss Hazel Kearns came home from Kinston where she is teaching to spend the holidays. She made the trip on the 17th, leaving Kinston in a rainstorm. This soon changed to snow, and her progress was so slow that it took eleven hours to reach Greensboro where she stayed until the

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kearns and Miss Clyde Kearns, of Greensboro, . were clyde Kearns, of Greensboro, were guests of relatives here on Christmas day. They returned to Greensboro Monday accompanied by Mrs. Nora teams, who will spent the remainder of he winter with her daughters, Mrs. Bessie Kearns and Mrs. Clyde Kearns. nd Mrs. J. T. Mor Morgan, of High Point, and Mr. and Ira C. O. Byrd, or Worthwille were Christmas guests of Mrs. Flora Mor-

Mrs. J. A. Elliott, Eldorado, is the rest of her daughter, Mrs. Virgil

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parks, of Dan county, spent Christmas day their mother, Mrs. Rebecca Mr. and Mrs. W. H.

s, Mr. and Mi

Elon College, and T. W. Ward at College, and T. W. Ward at College. They will be returning the last of the week, as school will open ant Union Ho Misses Mary Lewis Skeen and Walta Parrish, of High Point, visited homefolks during the holidays. Mr. an dMrs. Euclid Auman, Asheboro, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Bingham on Sunday.

C. C. Horney and family visited relatives at Denton Christmas day.

Miss Alma Lassiter, of Asheboro, Mrs. Henrietta Campen, of Summer-field, and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Lassiter, of Greensboro, spent Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W.

Worth Lowe, of Ashebore, route 3, is in Randolph Hospital, Asheboro, recovering from an appendix operation which he underwent Dec. 23rd.

"CABIN IN THE COTTON" IS EPIC OF MODERN SOUTH

The most colorful and romantic por tion of these United States is the least known and understood by the tell about it—all except Tin Pan Alley piano pounders and Mammy singers, who have their own peculiar version of it.

For the first time in years it receives an all-embracing exposition in Richard Barthelmess' starring pictby Cabin Point. Twenty grandchildren and one Carolina villages and cities, and per-In The Cotton," which comes to the set Theatre Monday and Tuesday.

The romance of this story is set against a background of cotton fields where the planter, the sharecropper, the negro and the "poor white" work out their lives and destinies. It is a and where old traditions and customs flourish side by side with modern machinery, jazz music and other mani-festations of this modern age.

The original story by Harry Harri-son Kroll was adapted for the screen y Paul Green, author of more than rell, all of Asheboro. rty plays about the South and winof the Pulitzer Prize for this ork. The direction is by Michael Curtiz who was responsible for Richand Barthlemess' most recent success, many others.

To Hold Fiddlers' Convention at 7:30 o'clock. This school is located on the Julian-Whitread about five miles north of n. Good musicians with the Lib-mixed quartet will render a while program. R. P. Smith, arty, will be in charge of the

PRINCIPLES NOT MEN

$2.00 A YEAR IN ADV

Deaths

Rev. D. C. Cox Rev. D. C. Cox died at his home in Trinity Tuesday morning after a three weeks' illness. Rev. Mr. Cox is well known in Randolph and in this section of the state, having been educated at Guilford College. For a number of years he was a minister in the Friends church but for the past 18 years has served pastorates in the Reformed church. He is a former county commissioner and actively Mrs. Freeman And Miss Hanidentified with the business life of the county.

Among the survivors are the folowing children: Mrs. T. S. Bouldin, Trinity; Mrs. Ora Boggs, Mrs. C. L. Harris, Mrs. F. E. Sigman and Carson Cox, all of Thomasville; C. M. Cox, High Point; Mrs. Sallie Shepherd, Richmond, Va.; Alfred Cox, of Greensboro: and Mrs. Anna Pierson, Walnut Cove.

Miss Lula Troy Patterson Miss Lula Troy Patterson, 60, member of a prominent Randolph county family, died December 22nd at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mamie Smith, Mrs. Freeman were going to spend at Liberty. Miss Patterson was a graduate nurse and was a resident of Greensboro for many years. She was man, who was severely cut and bruis a half-sister of the late Dr. J. W. Long, of Greensboro, and a direct descendant of Andrew Balfour, prominent leader in Randolph county during the Revolutionary War period. She was a daughter of the late Edward and Margaret Troy Patterson, of Randolph county, and had been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church since early girlhood. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Smith, of Liberty. Funeral service was held held for Mr. Freeman Monday afterers, Mrs. Liberty. Funeral service was neid noon from the Asheboro Baptist physical following in the the home of Mrs. Smith. Rev. Lee church with burial following in the ett officiated. Interment was Asheboro cemetery.

Asheboro cemetery.

Mrs. Martitia J. Galloway.

Mrs. Mrs. Freeman and. Miss.

Hancock are well known in Asheboro.

They all have positions with the Hosson and Mrs. Bennett Free man, of Star.

Mr. Pearce's relatives chilined the body at Pugh's Funeral Home and funeral and burial sarvings were also held Monday for him. Thomasville.

He is survived by mrs parents, a wife and two small children.

Leeland and P. C. Wright, Jr., and by

Mrs. Fannie E. Bristow

who live in Ohio also survive.

great-grandson survive also.

Miss Geneva Jarrell

West Bend cemetery Monday afternoon following a funeral service held Jarrell had been ill for several months and died at the Randolph Hospital, Inc. She was 49 years old.

Miss Geneva Jarrell was buried at ant Union Hol

and Mrs. C. B. I

Asheboro, N. C., Thursday, December 29, 1932. 2 Persons Killed In Auto Accident Saturday Morning

John V. Pearce, Of Near Thom asville, And W. R. Freeman Lose Their Lives.

Others Are Injured

cock Slightly Injured; Cars Badly Damaged.

An automobile collision occurring Saturday morning on highway 70, eight miles south of Asheboro, resulted in two deaths and two others injured. John V. Pearce, 21, of near Thomasville, died soon after reaching the Randolph Hospital, Inc., and W. R. Freeman died about six hours later. Pearce was driving a Ford road ster in the direction of Asheboro and the Freeman Chevrolet was bound for Ether where Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Christmas with homefolks. Mr. Freeed, died from internal injuries, while the two women suffered rather severe bruises and sprains but are recovering at the hospital. Mrs. Freeman's brother escaped with a few cuts and bruises. Officers gave an opinion that the dense fog was probably a contributing cause of the accident. Both cars were almost completely demolished. Funeral and burial services were

Roosevelt Will Be 32nd President Of These United States

Franklin Delano Rosevelt will be the 32nd President of the United Twelve of his predicessors served more than one term, the of them being elevated to the Pesidency from the vice-presidency. The served less han a full four year form. Presidents and their terms have

George Washington, John Adams, 1797-18 Thomas Jefferson, James Madison, 180 James Monroe, 1817-1825.

John Quincy Adams 1825-1829.

Andrew Jackson, 1839-1837.

Martin Van Buren, 1837-1841.

William Henry Harrison, 1841-(one

John Tyler, 1841-1841 James K. Polk, 1845-1 Zachary Taylor, 18 Millard Fillmore, Franklin Pierce, James Buchanan, Abraham Lincoln, i Andrew Johnson, 18 Ulysses S. Grant, 1 Rutherford B. Haye James A. Garfield, Chester A. Arthur, Grover Cleveland, Benjamin Harrison Grover Cleveland, William McKinley Theodore Ro William H. Taft, Woodrow Wilson Warren G. Hard Calvin Coolidge. Herbert Hooves

Sunday school at 9:45 a be used chiefly as an installation serpresent so that the service may be as vived in addition to her husband by also a former Asheboro man, is the large and impressive as possible. There should be at least 75 persons present for this occasion. Evening service at 7:00. Appropriate subjects will be used both morning and evening. Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. Epworth League at 6:15 p. m. The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered at the morning

Dorothy Dixon Makes Splendid Grades In

ery, of High Point, with whom she of establishing a memorial to the lege for the fall quarter, one of Ranery, of High Point, with whom she of establishing a memorial to dishelf with the last mixing of 450 tons of fertilizer; 13 G. H. Cox. made ner nome, will also take farms terraced; organized a curb of High Point; Mrs. W. C. Johnson, much of his time in Pinebluff, a w tinction of scoring grades in the through the year, and will also take farms terraced; organized a curb of Star; and Mrs. J. C. Perry, of who wrote a book about North Caro-Liberty; one step-daughter, Mrs. Wil-at his home at Randleman Saturday afternoon after an illness covering a dash cold water upon the laudable period of several weeks. He was one of the best known men of the town, having been connected with the Deep in the church by Rev. F. R. Cooper, all to wonder how—when, and if, the River mills for 57 years in the capacassisted by Rev. J. B. Fulp. Miss legislature adopts the bird sanctuary ity of designer and later as foreman proposal—the villagers are going to of the designing room. Prior to be-lived there ever since.

The funeral was held at St. Paul's church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment followed in the church cemetery. Rev. J. C. Groce, pastor

Mr. Ferguson is survived by his wife, Mrs. Nannie Hayes Ferguson; one daughter, Mrs. DeWitt DeViney. lows where he has been a successful derinent was made as well known Greensboro; a step-daughter, Miss gardener. He is survived by his widetery. Mr. Morris was well known Greensboro; a step-daughter, Miss in Randolph county. He had live | Clara Hayes, Greensboro; two sons, near Liberty many years before mov- W. G. and J. Q. Ferguson, Randleing to his daughter's home near man; two sisters, Miss Ellen Fergu-News reached Asheboro this week Greensboro. He had been a member son and Mrs. Charles Parsons, and News reached Asheboro this week Greensboro. He had been son and Mrs. Charles Parsons, and two brothers, U. C. and B. B. Ferguthrough Mrs. E. E. Speegle, of Ashe-

Carroll James, a 4-H club boy

Fitting Services For Christmas At Ramseur Churches According to Jess Garner, who has Appropriate Programs Given Both In Church Services And The Sunday Schools.

School Begins Jan. 3

Spring Semester Of Ramseur School Opens Tuesday; Missionary Society Meets.

Ramseur, Dec. 27.-Christmas coming again on Sunday brought fitting services at the churches and appropriate programs at Sunday schools. Many of our friends visited the community bringing the spirit of friend-ship and good cheer. While more than ever before the inclination was manifested to give that others might be made happy. Baskets and special gifts were received by those who had little or no income.

The school recently closed on acsume work Tuesday, January 3rd. The play, "Bashful Mr. Bobb," by the senior class of the local school will be given soon after the opening of the spring term of school

. Miss Irene Dorsett, of Greensboro. visited friends here this week. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dowell and son, Billy, of Wilmington, spent Christmas here with Mr. and Mrs. E.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hodgin spent Christmas at Coleridge.

Mrs. Ervin Frye and son, Ervin,
Jr., of Asheboro, visited friends here

Mr. and Mrs. Lucas, of Johnson City. Tenn., have been the guests of E. A. Riehim during the holidays.
Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cox visited friends at Wendell Christmas.
Rev. Tippett and family spent Sunday atternoon with relatives at Salisbury, Dr. and Mrs. L. R. Thompson and of Winston-Salem, spent Christ Rev. H. M. Stroup and family vis-ited friends at Charlotte this week. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Brady, of Reids

Prof. R. C. White and family spent Monday with friends in Greensboro. Mr. White is spending the remainder of the week on the coast fishing and Ramseur is to have a new building soon, the town having purchased the site of the Ramseur Motor Company and preparing to build a mayor's office and jail at an early date.

Missionary Society Meets The Woman's Missionary Society of the Ramseur Christian church held its December session in the Baraca the president, was in the chair. Mrs. H. F. Brady led the devotionals. Mrs. Julia Brady offered the prayer. Mrs. T. A. Moffitt read two poems bearing on Christmas, "There's a Song In the Air" and another poem by John Charles McNeil. Mrs. Julia Brady, closing the study book for the year, the instruction into practice by carrygave a very interesting talk on mis- ing out 161 home projects; 16 farms Mrs. Andrew Callicutt were visitors sions. Mrs. G. E. York's paper on are being brought up to a definite Sunday at the home of W. A. Barfellowship closed the program. In standard of efficiency; 12 farmers bers, at Carthage. Appalachian School the business hour, a "pounding" was have splendid crop rotation and soil Guy York and family, of Greenspacked and dispatched to sick people. improvement programs; 75 farmers boro, were guests Sunday in the home In the January meeting, which will using standard tobacco fertilizer for of E. M. Curtis. portion to its interest, the South is last exploited by those who could last exploited by the could last

> The announcement of the engagement of Richard J. Reynolds, Jr., eld- two seasons. est heir to the well known tobacco magnate, of Winston-Salem, to Miss Elizabeth McCaw Dillard, also of Winston-Salem, was announced Christmas day. Miss Dillard is a daughter school grounds and from this plants Franklinville were Mr. and Mrs. A. announced the engagement. The wed- rural homes, two school grounds, J. R. Tippett, Miss Alice Huntley, Mr. ding date is not set.

Entombed By Blast Christmas day saw a rrightened group of women and children hudcarried the mail between High Point dling about the entrance to the Moweaqua mine in Mowequa, Ill., where Mr. Ferguson was a member of 54 men had been entombed by a blast Deep River lodge No. 189, I. O. O. F. and cavein, 600 feet below the surface He also had been a member of St. of the ground. Men worked frantic-Paul's Methodist Episcopal church at ally for hours and recovered the bod-Randleman for 25 years. He was a les of 12 men who were crushed and native of Chatham county, but went killed by gas. When those bodies to Randleman early in life and had were recovered, hopes for the others where they may gather for business, was abandoned, but the workers con- social and recreational meetings. tinued their grim task.

December Marriage Licenses

of the church, was in charge of the censes was issued during the month service. Pallbearers were Dave Fer- of December this year which beats ton, spent the holidays with Mrs. by weight, or approximately four perree, J. A. Lamb, W. F. Ivey, J. C. last year's record by five. Nine of Parker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. cent by volume. C. the twenty-eight were issued from the Ridge. Register of Deeds office in the Randolph court house on Saturday for Christmas weddings.

Advantages of New Legume One argument in favor of the new Lespedeza sericea as advanced by Rowan growers is that the variety stands drought somewhat better than the annual varieties. Used Much Rat Poison

Sale License Tags Is Falling Far Short In Randolph County

for the past five years had charge of the sale of automobile license plates in Asheboro and Randolph county, the sale this year is falling short by 50 per cent from last year's sale of plates. Last year's sale in Asheboro, as was the case practically every-where, was far short from previous years, which makes the total for the new 1933 plates small indeed.

A notice was published from Raleigh, as is usually the case, saying the new plates must be donned before January 1st, but whether the law will be enforced this year or not has not been made public. The time limit was extended several times last year before finally enforcing the law in this eigh reports Sunday as the warmest Mrs. Clayton McAlister at the piano. Christmas day for 45 years. The It was a success, being one of the mercury rose to 73 degrees. The best entertainments ever given in warm spell, combined with the humid- this church. The stage was decoratity, made the day far from the usual ed with evergreens with an improidea of Christmas day should be. The vised manger in the center. We are weather prophets will not like to be proud of our young people who are reminded that they foretold a "white interested and take an active part in Christmas" but they did just that, and League, Sunday school and church it certainly did not come to pass. The work. mean temperature for the day was recorded as 25 degrees above normal for the time of year.

Sunday Was Warmest Christmas Day In 45 Years, Records Show

Teacher At Ellerbe Is Declared Master In Vocational Field

P. W. Edwards, Vocational Agri-cultural Teacher, At Ellerbe, Wins High Honor.

Raleigh, Dec. 10.—P. W. Edwards of the Ellerbe High School, Richmond County, has been declared the Master Teacher of Vocational Agriculture for North Carolina for the past year, ac-cording to Roy H. Thomas, State Su-pervisor of Vocational Agriculture. iller spent Monday here with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Moffitt spent to holidays in High Point and reensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. thes. of Mrs. Counties of the State, Mr. Edwards received this distinction as a result of his thorough and comprehensive vacational agriculture pro-> wards is a native of South Carolina home of A. V. Marley.

>
> and was graduated from the Virginia
>
> Mr. and Mrs. J. V. McCombs spent Polytechnic Institute. He has taught Christmas day vocational agriculture eleven years, St. Paul, N. C. the past eight years at Ellerbe. Mr. ing a member of the Civitan Club of Rockingham, Sunday school teacher, deacon in the church, member of the local parent-teacher association, mem- in Hamlet, the guests of C. H. Teagber of the farmers mutual exchange ue. and a seventh degree Granger. As a member of the agricultural committee boro, spent Sunday evening and Monterially in formulating its activities and Mrs. J. L. Jones. along agricultural lines.

Some of the achievements that brought Mr. Edwards the honor of master teacher are:

ture was given 87 students who put Candor. market which included the production Point, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith, of and marketing of melons, tomatoes, near Asheboro, and Mr. and Mrs. sweet corn, and peaches. The curb Ralph Kimery, of Ramseur, were market sales amounted to $15,000 in guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Peter

The outstanding feature of Mr. Edwards' program was the home and school ground beautification. Mr. Edwards has developed a nursery on the homes. The school nursery now has 7,600 plants in it. All of the beautification work was done under the direction of Mr. Edwards.

Heel Farmers which is the name of ert Burke, of High Point. the local unit of the state-wide or- Joe Vestal, of Richmond, Va., is ganization of that name composed of 6000 students of vocational agricul- Mrs. M. L. Buie. ture. The Ellerbe Young Tar Heel Farmers have erected a log cabin BEER BILL PASSES:

SOPHIA, RT. 1, NEWS

Sophia, Rt. 1, Dec. 26.-Christmas A total or twenty-eight marriage li- was quietly spent in this section. Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Parker, of Kins-Walter Davis, of Atlanta, Ga., spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Davis.

Miss Clara Davis, of Spencer, spent the holidays with her father, A. W. Davis.

The children and grandchildren of Christmas dinner guests last Sunday. posed the bill. Sidney Farlow spent Monday visiting in High Point.

Fred Isom and family, of Progress, spent Saturday night at Fred Mor-

Christmas Can And Pageant ven At Fran ville

"Christmas Pilgrim itle Splendid Cantata-Pageant At The M. E. Church, itle Of

Watch Night Service

At The Holiness Church Sunday Evening At 7:30 o'Clock; Public Is Invited.

Franklinville, Dec. 26.-We all enloyed a very quiet Christmas. The rainy weather kept several visitors away. Exercises at each of the churches Christmas eve were well attended and the people enjoyed the spirit of Christmas, not forgetting those in need.

"Christmas Pilgrims," a Christmas cantata-pageant, was given at the M. E. church Sunday evening. This was given under the supervision and di-The state weather bureau at Ral- rection of Mrs. Carl Caveness with

There will be a watch night service at the Holiness church Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody is Franklinville school will open for the spring term Monday, January Misses Nettie and Esther Moon, members of the Frankling ille school faculty, are spending their Christmas wacation with their sister, Mrs. Herbert Stephens, near Raleigh.

Miss Laura Sumner, who is teaching at Salem College, and Miss Katherine Buie, who is teaching in Pilot high school, are at home for the Christmas holidays. Misses Maggie Curtis, Edith Thomas and Opal Scott, of Appalachian Teachers Training College, spent the Christmas holidays with homefolks. Miss Inez Curtis, of Greensboro, spent Christmas at the home of R. C.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Marley, of Cumberland, Md., Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Marley, of Lynchburg, Va., T. F.

Christmas day with Mrs. Nance at

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Grimsley and Edwards is a leader in agriculture little son, Walter, spent the Christmas and civic affairs in his community, be- holidays at the home of J. H. Anderson, at Bluff City, Tenh. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Routh and family were visitors Sunday and Monday Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jones, of Tar-room of the church. Mrs. E. H. Bray, of the Civitan Club he assists ma day with Mr. Jones' parents, Mr. John Sumner, of Raleigh, spent Christmas with homefolks.

Miss Velma Lemons, a student at Franklinville school, is spending the Systematic instruction in agricul- holiday vacation with her parents at C. L. Allred and family and Mr. and

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cox, of Ramseur, spent Sunday with the family of

C. B. Thomas and family, of High Allred.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brown, of Asheboro, spent Sunday at the home of R. C. Curtis Among the Christmas visitors in of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Dillard, who have been secured to beautify sixty W. Tippett, Colon Cox and family. church and parsonage and 25 city and Mrs. Fred Patterson and W. S. Cox and family, all of Greensboro; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Crouch, of Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Trogdon, of Gibsonville; Mrs. Thelma Mr. Edwards has developed a live, Grimes and children, Mr. and Mrs. wide-awake chapter of Young Tar Cletus Slack and Mr. and Mrs. Rob-spending a few days with his aunt,

LAMBETH OPPOSES

By a vote of 230 to 165, margin of 65. the lower House of Congress voted to modify the Volstead law by legalizing the manufacture and sale of beer of 3.2 per cent alcoholic content

Five North Carolina Congressmen voted for the bill and three voted against, one, Representative Pou, was paired for the bill and the other, Representative Abernethy, was ab account of illness.

Representatives Lambeth, Clark Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Davis were their and Weaver were the three who op-

The bill will probably come to a vote in the Senate soon after the holidays. There are predictions in Washington that Presi to the measure and if Con brother, Jabez Farlow, December 7, in Des Moines, Iowa. He was born in Randolph county, North Carolina, in Randolph county, North Carolina, near Sophia, December 15, 1852, the son of Samuel and Nancy Farlow. If he had lived until December 15 he would have been 80 years old. A few months prior to his death he suffered months prior to his death he suffered months prior to his death he suffered a heart attack, but had recovered sufa heart attack, but had recovered sufficiently to serve as a juryman at the miles east of Greensboro Friday time of his death. In 1881 he was morning after a few days' illness Hilliard, L. R. Hughes and O. married to Miss Nannie Spencer, dau- with paralysis, were conducted Sun- Marsh. ghter of Enoch and Nellie Spencer, of day afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. this county. In 1882 they moved to W. F. Ashburn, of Greensboro. In-Iowa where he has been a successful terment was made in the church cemow, four children and three sisters.

Jabez Farlow

The cast of notables supporting the star includes Bette Davis, Dorothy ordan, Hardie Albright, Henry B. Walthall, David Landau, Dorothy Pearson, Berton Churchill, Tully Marhall, Clarence Muse, Edmund Breese and many others.

meon Parrish. Mr. Parrish, a resi- B. S. and Leo, of Greensboro, and J. Randolph county sixty years ago, and bought a farm there. He was active Capps, of Greensboro, and Mrs. Grace Capps, of Greensboro, R. F. D.

Carroll James, a 4-H Haywood county, produce the was active Capps, of Greensboro, R. F. D. ent of Brentwood, Arkansas, left C., of Panama; three daughters, Mrs.

erty early ily, of High Point, were al services friends and relatives in Ashebar J. D. Ross, superintendent. Christian christmas day. Mr. Betts who for Endeavor at 6:15 p. m. many years has been drug elerk of many years has been drug clerk of Matton's Drug Co in High Point, has Mrs. Louella Gallimore, of Greens-boro. Mrs. Wright, a native of Ohio, the store which is now called Betts had taken a great part in the work of the Store which the Pilgrim Holiness church, having Greensboro, and R. E. Brown, form-stewards, officers and teachers of the served seven years as a missionary in erly of Asheboro, are the two associa- Sunday school and Epworth League India and as matron of the rescue tes with Mr. Betts in the store. Peo- and of the Woman's Missionary Sohomes of the church in Springfield, ple of Randolph will also be interested ciety. Let every one of these be Ohio, and Greensboro. She is sur- in the announcement that John East, five step-sons, Winfred, Joe, Boyd, registered drug clerk with the firm. two step-daughters, Misses Grace and BIRD SANCTUARY PROPOSED Etta Wright, all of whom are at home. Three brothers and a sister Pinebluff, a hamlet near Aberde in North Carolina's famous sand hills region, proposes to become bird sanctuary. The villagers have Mrs. Fannie E. Bristow, 75, of adopted a charter which will be pre-High Point, died at the home of a sented before the January session son, Allen Bristow, of Greensboro the general assembly. If the legislat-Christmas day. Mrs. Bristow, who ors approve, Pinebluff will become had been in ill health for several the only incorporated municipality months, was visiting in Greensboro, the country with its entire corporate Funeral and burial services were held area designated by law as a sandufrom Mt. Zion Baptist church east of ary for the feathered tribe.

son Davis, of Burlington; one son, and appealing. Pinebluff's experi- the Ramseur high school. Allen Bristow, of Greensboro; and ment will doubtless be watched with The new term begins on Tuesday, one step-son, Sam Bristow, of High interest by bird lovers in other North January 3rd, 1933. haps the plan may be adopted else-

The Record would not for a moment schemes and ambitions of the Pinebluff citizens, though it is but naturdeal with stray cats and dogs and with small boys who are expert shots Among the survivors are four broth-with rifles and sling-shots—these be-and Randleman. ers, Allison, David, Ed and Tom Jaring chief menaces to the lives and limbs of the feathered songsters .-

Greensboro Record. Mrs. B. F. Ridge has been notified fall from which he never fully reof the almost sudden death of her covered, resulting in his death Novembrother, Jabez Farlow, December 7, ber 30th. Mrs. Parrish was Miss through Mrs. E. E. Speegle, of Asneor Sandy Creek Baptist Church 10; a two brothers, U. C. and B. B. Fergunumber of years. He is survived by son, all of Randleman; four grandfour sons, Thomas, of Cincinnati, O, children and one adopted grandchild.

First M. E. Church, South

The service at eleven o'clock is to William Taylor Ferguson William Taylor Ferguson, 79, died coming connected with the mills he Pitt county took first place in the use of rat poison in the recent campaign to reduce the rat population of this State. Over 1100 pounds of the prepared Built was distributed.