Benjamin Franklin Frazier
Funeral services were held Monday at Mt. Lebanon church, Randleman, for Benjamin Franklin Frazier, esteemed and substantial farmer who died at his home two miles north of Randleman Saturday, April 8th, of heart trouble from which he had suffered several years.

Miss Deborah Luther
Miss Deborah Luther died at the home of Mrs. J. M. Luther at Pisgah, Wednesday, March 29, following a few days' illness. She was reared in the same community in which she lived and died.

Madison Brown
Madison Brown, 80, of Bennett, route 1, died suddenly at 6 o'clock Monday evening at his home. He had been in failing health for some time. The widow and the following sons survive: W. A. Brown, H. T. Brown, Charlie Brown and John M. Brown, all of the Bennett section; a brother, Z. E. Brown, Bennett, route 1; and a sister, Mrs. W. L. Welch, of Bennett, route 2.

Richard Vernon Andrews
Liberty, April 10.—Funeral services for Richard Vernon, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Andrews, who died at his home eight miles southeast of here Thursday night after a few days' illness of pneumonia, was conducted from Pleasant Hill Christian church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. T. F. Andrew, of Staley. Interment was in the church cemetery. He is survived by his parents, three brothers, Arnold, Leroy and Garland; three sisters, Eulalia, Thelma and Nina; three grandparents, also survive, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Andrews and R. D. Teague. Pallbearers were: C. C. Cooper, D. H. Fogelman, L. B. Bridges and L. H. Fogelman. Flowers were carried by Bernice Bridges, Nannie Carter, Katie Bridges, Norrie Teague, Irene Bridges, Alma Clark and Mrs. Mary Poe.

Mrs. J. C. Strickland
Mrs. J. C. Strickland, 78, of Troy, died Saturday, April 8, in the Randolph Hospital, Inc., after several days' treatment and operation. Funeral services were held Sunday at Love Joy Methodist Protestant church, in Montgomery county, and interment made in the church cemetery. The widow and her next of kin are three sons, Mrs. J. C. Strickland, three daughters, Mrs. O. F. Routh and Mrs. W. H. Shaw, of Troy, and Mrs. C. C. Rollins, of Asheboro.

Lewis E. Cagle
Lewis E. Cagle, 67, former Randolph citizen, died at his home in High Point after several months illness, the last thirteen weeks of which he had been confined to his bed. Until nine years ago Mr. Cagle had resided in this county but moved to High Point at that time. He was a highly respected citizen and his death has caused keen regret among his friends.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Ward Street M. E. church, High Point, of which the deceased was a regular attendant, by the pastor, Rev. T. W. Albright, and Rev. E. M. Jones, a former pastor. Interment was made in the Trinity cemetery.

Three Ministers Speak To Local School Students
The Woman's Missionary Society of the M. E. church met Friday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. J. T. Buie. An interesting program was enjoyed. The following took part, reading instructive papers: A Good Neighbor (The Wesley House), by Mrs. Elzie Brower; Changed Lives (Giving Youth a Chance), by Miss Pattie Odom. Miss Ruth Lineburger conducted Mission Study followed by a short business session.

Dr. Smith closed by urging the young people to recognize the importance of choosing their life work in early years. Dr. H. T. Stevens addressed the high school assembly on April 6th. He began by saying: "There is just one thought on my mind as I come to speak to you. We are in the habit of thinking the times are a little worse than ever before."

Dr. Stevens gave the illustration of Christ's calling the Pharisees "whited sepulchres." "The outside was fair; the inside ugly, said the minister." It is the inside that counts, not how you fix your hair, nor the clothes you wear. They count for a little, but it's the inside that counts.

Dr. Stevens said he did not think much of the words "reform" and "reformation." Passing laws, he thought was worth nothing unless people were right on the inside. Joining churches, clubs, etc., amounted to little, declared the minister, unless the heart was right. People need "regeneration, not reformation," according to Dr. Stevens.

The speaker told a story of a woman who once made a pet of a white pig. She washed the pig, combed his hair, and put a ribbon around his neck; but every time she took her pet out to walk he jumped in a mud hole. A wise man told the pig's mistress that the only way to stop the pig from loving mud was to take out his piggish heart and put in a lamb's heart.

"Many people are like that," said Dr. Stevens. "They tell dirty jokes, and will drink 3-point 2 when it comes. They are not ladies or gentlemen on the inside."

In closing, the minister implored, "God help you to be right on the inside."

J. W. Harrelson To Address Next Assembly Meeting
The following statement concerning county expenses was presented to the meeting for consideration and to be discussed and acted on at the next meeting. After deducting the 20% decrease in real estate, the assessed valuation of taxable property in the county for the coming fiscal year will be: real estate $12,321,028. Personal property $4,396,317. Corporations $1,392,539. Total $18,110,282. (The real estate reduction is $3,080,257.) The personal property included above is last year's assessment and will probably be lower this year, so that the total taxable property for the coming fiscal year will probably be $17,750,000.

The debt of the county is $1,680,500 for general county bonds, and $382,700 for school loans, total $2,063,200. An average of about $60,000 of principal on this debt comes due every year, and the interest on the debt per year is approximately $110,000.

7:30 p. m., Tuesday, April 18th, at which time an invited speaker will be present, and the people will discuss the foregoing mentioned county taxes and expenses.

At the meeting to be held at Trinity, Tuesday, April 18th, Colonel J. W. Harrelson, head of the Department of Conservation and Development, Raleigh, will make the principal speech. Colonel Harrelson will talk on reforestation and in addition to practical plans for Randolph farmers along this needed line, he will touch briefly on the plans for the Tennessee Basin that will go forward in western North Carolina very soon.

The public is invited to this meeting.
