Dr. Whitsett Speaks Historical Address, In Which History Of Lowdermilk Fami-ly Given, Delivered.

The annual Lowdermilk family re-union was held at Flag Springs Methodist Protestant church south of Asheboro on Sunday, September 24th, with the largest crowd present that has yet attended this annual gathering.

The present church which is the fourth building on this same ground was filled for the exercises. Here, nearly a century ago the first church was built, and from the beginning of its history the Lowdermilk family has been active in its work. In the

The associated press has given vide publicity to the Charlie Betts og case and to the pardon that re-

An A. P. report of several days A full pardon, rare in these days of reprieve and commutations, went county dog lover, after he had served a month and 19 days on county roads for "stealing" his own dog. Betts had raised a bird dog from a puppy and prized it highly. The Pointer had a reputation as a highly sensitive and intelligent hunter. A man named Morris borrowed the dog and refused to return it. Betts, sought by court procedure to regain possession, but failed to proceed according to the letter of the law. Meanwhile Morris sold the dog to Bledsoe Cole in Rockingham for Bledsoe Cole in Rockingham for $100. That was too much for Betts. He went to Rockingham, invaded the premises of Cole and took the dog. A few days thereafter the dog died, but not the vigilance of the law. Betts went to the Randolph county roads to do six months for breaking, stering and larceny.

In granting the full pardon upon recommendation of numerous citizens, Governor Ehringhaus said:

"Betts should not have taken the law into his own hands no matter how indignant he felt, no matter how great an injustice he thought had been done him. However, I feel that Betts would never have committed the offense if he had not been under the impression that he was retrieving what was rightfully his."

Convincing Evidence Depression Is Lifted

Valuable Mill Property at Randleman Promotion Sold to Highest Bidders Last Monday

An auction sale of deep concern to Randleman and Randolph county was that Monday, September 25th, when the mill property of the Hunter Manufacturing and Commission Company at Randleman was sold on the block to the highest bidder to several individuals at a total approximate price of $90,000. This property at one time was valued at close to a million dollars, but for more than a year had been inactive and no market found for it.

The successful hidders were A. R.

Randolph Fair To Offer Fine Program Free Entertainment

Randolph County Fair has booked for the first week in October the most elaborate free act program ever heretofore contracted. The free acts are thrilling, entertaining and full of comedy.

They have to begin with the Aerial Moores who work high in the air over nets. It is similar to acts seen n circuses. Nagles Dogs will be deasing to every one. They are composed of three people who put acts which in some instances appear to be absolutely impossible for dumb animals. The Rosards do a comedy aerial trapeze act that is a pure scream. This is a tight wire act by a lady and gentlemen. La Belle Carmer, the lady presenting the nerial and butterfly act, is a beautiful act, is a be rial trapeze act consisting alaucing and comedy gym-
