The Greatest Show on Earth. These astounding Oriental human oddities are not freaks; they are proud members of a proud race, set apart from the teeming hordes of Far East Burma by their high station as rul-ers and by the visual sign of that exalted rank—their copper encircled necks, stretched to unbelievable lengthe by rings superimposed constantly from birth to maturity. Since the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus recently began displaying them—and they appear in the main performance—hundreds of thousands of people will have gazed upon them in awe before the gala Golden Jubilee tour is ended.

Outstanding among the Jubiled features is the mighty spectacle, The Durbar, gorgeous, dazzling, be-jewel-ed reproduction of India's great coronation ceremonial at Delhi, where thousands of potentates with their royal elephants and huge orienta retinues parade for the pleasure of the new ruler of Great Britian and India their vast wealth as symbolized by gem-studded trappings on ele phants and horses, by their native forces and lavishly garbed households. Over 2,000 people and animals take part in The Durbar, and its background is opulent and bizarre with ber, being November 6, 1933, at 12 imported Hindu temples, tongas, carved gold cars and royal howdahs The Durbar is the proud achieve-ment of the Ringling Bros. and Barmum & Bailey Combined Circus on its Golden Jubilee tour, and it heads a list of features newly assembled that will compel the vast five-ring four stage program to be recalled with deep pleasure for a lifetime.

Among them is the Marcellus' Fly Among them is the rom Paris; the great Vabanque in his leap of de the marvelous Con Colleano, return ed from his recent European trium phs as the tumbling, forward somer-saulting star of the tight wire; the incredible Alfredo Codona, world's only triple mid-air somersaulting star to catch; the Wallendas and Gretonas, dome-high tight wire thrillers; the Uyenos, the Yacopis, the 28.30 Danwills, the Rubios and the Ben Hamids, leading unit of fifty in the quadruple somersaulting acrobatic displays; the great Rieffenach, Walt-66.38 ers and Davenport bareback riding stars; Dorothy Herbert, sensational equestrienne; Luicita Leers, aerial gymnaste; Al Powell, flying bowknot; Antoinette, only mid-air girl star accomplishing a double-and-ahalf somersault to a catch; Hugo Zacchini, human projectile, in longer and more terrific flights from the 19.89 cannon's mouth; the Hugony sisters, acrobatic pinwheels; Maximo, stellar 24.04 comic of the slack wire, and scores of others equally notable. One hundred of the best known clowns will make merry in the concourse of the world's largest tent. The great combined circus will ar rive on four long trains of 100 double-length steel railroad cars, 13.92 bringing over 1,600 people, 50 elephants, 1,009 menagerie animals and 700 horses.
