

School House At Ramseur Slightly Damaged By Fire

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Brady, of Reidsville, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brady last week.

Miss Mattie Curtis, of Liberty, was a visitor in Ramseur Sunday.

Dr. C. S. Tate and others attended the State Fair this week at Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Slack, of High Point, spent some time here the past week.

Ramseur became excited again last Thursday night when the fire alarm was given and only speedy work saved the Ramseur school building. No great damage was done, one door was burned and the floor partially burned through in dressing room where the boys who had been playing football had used for changing uniforms. The flames are supposed to have started from cigarettes. We have only this comment to make: when those in authority of the sports of the school allow smoking in or around the building at any time it leads us to think that they are not placing the proper value on the equipment that has been provided at great cost to the taxpayers for the training of our boys and girls. Why not equip the rooms with smoking sets and not deprive the boys of the privilege of a puff when they want it?

Mrs. R. W. Tuck, of Salisbury, was guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. Tippet, last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Owen, of Charlotte, visited Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Tippet the past week.

Bing Crosby Fan Club Division number 1 of the Bing Crosby Fan Club, of Ramseur, held its regular weekly meeting Friday afternoon, September 29. The meeting came to order with the calling of the roll and reading of the minutes by the secretary, after which the election of officers took place. The various officers and other things decided upon are as follows:

President, Shirley Craven; vice president, Sarah Steele; secretary and treasurer, Elizabeth Smith; motto, "Loyalty." Dues, 5 cents a month; colors, blue and gold; club song, "Where the Blue of the Night Meets the Gold of the Day"; mascot, Bing the II; honorary president, Bing Crosby; honorary members, Dixie Lee Crosby, Bob and Everett Crosby, Gary Evan "Ding" Crosby, Marie Barbara Kelly, Rudy Vallee, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Crosby, Lew Ayers and Carole Lombard. It was decided that at each meeting each member should contribute a bit of interesting information or gossip for the club paper which is published every month. After the reading of the club regulations and the pledge, a brief skit, entitled A class in Croonology at Dear Old Mid-West, was heartily enjoyed by all the members present. There followed a musical interlude during which I Surrender Dear, Too Late, Where the Blue of the Night, Just An Echo, Please, and Here Lies Love, from The Big Broadcast, The Old Ox-Road, Learn To Croon, Play Ball, and Moonstruck from College Humor, and Thanks, The Day You Came Along, Bucking The Wind, and Boo, Hoo, Hoo! from the current Too Much Harmony, were sung. The club adjourned to meet again on Friday afternoon, October 13, at the club's clubhouse on Coleridge street at which time the new members for the forthcoming year will be initiated.

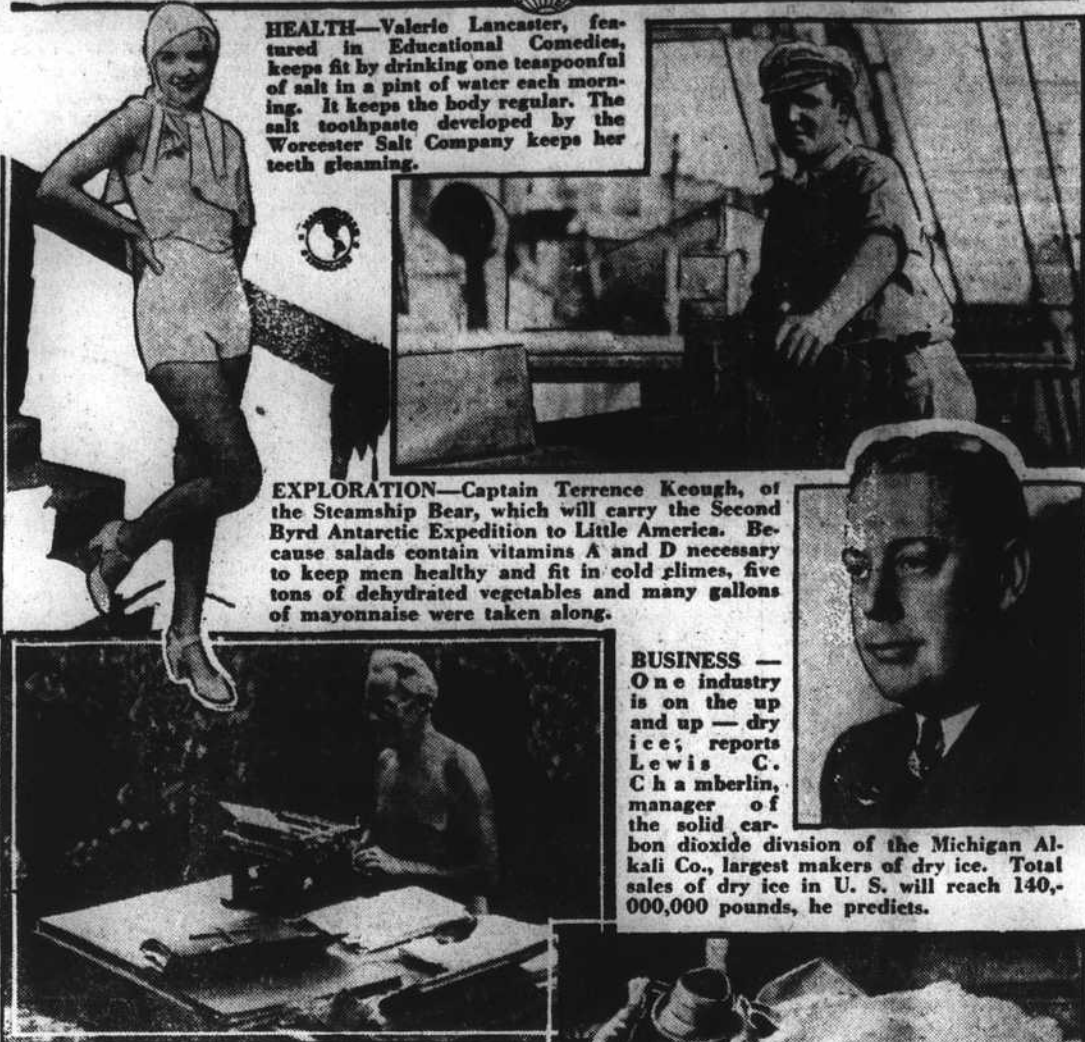

Eddie Duchin Club Meets The Eddie Duchin Club, of Ramseur, held its first meeting Saturday, September 30, at the home of Miss Sandre Groce Smith. Following the election of officers, with Miss Smith unanimously elected president, Miss Rhoda Williams of 166 Pine street, Fall River, Mass., vice president, and Miss Lula Hunsinger, of Mays, Indiana, secretary and treasurer. After a short business session, Miss Smith delighted the club members with her rendition of the very lovely "Be My Lover" composed by Mr. Duchin. A brief sketch of Mr. Duchin's life was given by Dolores Elizabeth Smith, after which phonograph records of a few seasons back recorded by Leo Reisman and his orchestra and featuring Eddie Duchin at the piano, were played. Honorary members of the club are as follows: Abe Lyman, Ted Lewis and Leon Belasco. After a salad course, the club adjourned to meet again in the latter part of October.

Church Circle Meets Mrs. J. W. Dixon was hostess to the members of Circle No. 1 of the M. E. church, at her home on last Wednesday afternoon. The program was led by the chairman, Mrs. A. C. Tippet. The Bible lesson was given by Mrs. E. A. Riehm who used as her subject, "Hannah, An Old Time Mother." Miss Virtie Lambert made an interesting talk on "The Lambeth Training School" in Osaka, Japan. The chairman, at the last meeting, asked that each member bring a penny for every sunshine day during the past month and a neat sum was realized. At the conclusion of the business session the hostess served a salad course followed by sandwiches and coffee.

Missionary Society Meets Circle No. 2, of the woman's missionary society, of the Baptist church, met with Mrs. Henry Curtis Wednesday afternoon. After the regular business had been transacted, the devotional was conducted by the president, Mrs. Guy Lane. The subject of the program, "The Harvest of the World in South America" was interestingly discussed by Mrs. A. H. Thomas, Mrs. G. C. and J. C. Ellis. Three visitors from Franklinville attended the meeting, Mrs. T. P. Craven, Mrs. H. E. and J. T. Bule.

Mrs. Leatha Hatch Mrs. Leatha Caroline Hatch, 73, died Saturday of the home of her nephew W. Dan Smith, at Ramseur, after an illness of several months. Mrs. Hatch had resided in Ramseur more than thirty years and had the high esteem and friendship of the

The World Moves On!

HEALTH—Valerie Lancaster, featured in Educational Comedies, keeps fit by drinking one teaspoonful of salt in a pint of water each morning. It keeps the body regular. The salt toothpaste developed by the Worcester Salt Company keeps her teeth gleaming.

EXPLORATION—Captain Terrence Keough, of the Steamship Bear, which will carry the Second Byrd Antarctic Expedition to Little America. Because salads contain vitamins A and D necessary to keep men healthy and fit in cold climates, five tons of dehydrated vegetables and many gallons of mayonnaise were taken along.

BUSINESS—One industry is on the up and up—dry ice; reports Lewis C. Chalmers, manager of the solid carbon dioxide division of the Michigan Alkali Co., largest makers of dry ice. Total sales of dry ice in U. S. will reach 140,000,000 pounds, he predicts.

NUDISM—Rev. Hsley Boone, managing editor of the Nudist Magazine, about whom a storm has raged in the Dutch Reformed church of Oakland, N. J. Photo shows the apostle of nudism in his open air office at work on the starting October issue of the Nudist Magazine.

SAFETY—Fire alarm used in schools plays music and issues directions for exit. Photo shows W. C. Lindsey, fire authority, demonstrating mechanism to teacher. The device, which is being installed in many schools, was perfected by the Garrison Fire Detecting System, of New York City.

The first public demonstration of this "Voice of Safety" fire alarm and panic avoider was recently given in Newark, N. J. When fire starts in any part of the building the mechanism sets off marching music and signal lights directing persons to the street. It also rings an alarm at the city's fire headquarters.

INDUSTRY—Bursing sulphur to make sulphuric acid at Carteret, N. J., plant of the American Agricultural Chemical Co., leading maker of fertilizers in this country. Phosphate rock from the big mines of the company in Florida is treated with the acid to render the phosphate soluble.

With The Churches

Wicker and Miss Rhode Smith, of Greensboro.

Trinity, Oct. 9.—Mrs. Harry Burgess, of Elizabethton, Tenn., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Marvin Andrews, on North Main street.

Harold Sutphin, of Elizabethton, Tenn., has been visiting at the Andrews home.

The woman's missionary society met with Mrs. Nannie Craven last Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Annie Pegram, of Greensboro College, and sister, Miss Irene Pegram, of Durham, visited relatives here recently.

Miss Mary Parker is visiting friends around Prospect church.

A. B. Coltrane who has been quite ill for sometime, continues ill.

Miss Flora Welborn went to Asheboro to join the beauty contest last week.

Miss Catherine Gill, who died in Archdale last week, will be greatly missed in the religious and social life of that place.

Little Maxine Collett seems to be gaining strength some, and seems cheerful these beautiful fall days.

Miss Jessie Grownson has gone to Cedar Creek, and will probably be there most of the winter.

Mrs. Frank Shaw has been quite ill but is better now, and hopes to be out soon.

Mrs. Will Leach has been on a visit to relatives in Thomasville.

A park-to-park highway is being urged by Congressman Weaver who stated at a meeting of several prominent men at Marion last week end, that there was no more worthy project before the state than this proposal. It was pointed out that North Carolina is entitled to about $80,000,000 from the Public Works Fund, and said there is no doubt about procuring this amount if the matter is handled right. The proposed highway connecting the two parks along the crest of the Blue Ridge will cost approximately $15,000,000.

Mrs. E. P. Dixon

Funeral services were held at Union Grove Baptist church on Sunday afternoon for Mrs. E. P. Dixon. Mrs. Dixon died at the Randolph Hospital, Inc., Friday afternoon.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Moore, of Seagrave. Her parents, husband and two small children survive.

Dr. H. T. Stevens, pastor of the Asheboro Baptist church, conducted the funeral and burial services.
