ISSUED WEEKLY

VOLUME LVHI

PRINCIPLES. NOT MEN

Asheboro, N. C., Thursday, May 3, 1934.

$2.00 A YEAR IN A

ANCE MBER 17

2 New Entrants In Primary Race

A. C. Lowdermilk, Seagrove, Rt. 2, And H. S. Ragan, Of Trinity, File For House.

May 5 Last Day

All County Candidates Must File Notice Of Intention To Run By 6 P. M., May 5.

This week so far has brought two new entrants into the Randolph

Democratic entrants to three, J. D.
Ross and Henry L. Ingram, both of Asheboro, having already filed. J.
F. Burkhead has made announcement dodge a car parked on the street.

All candidates for county offices, from Clerk of Court to Surveyor, must file and pay their fees to the chairman of the county board of elections. All candidates for township offices must file also. This applies to nominees of both the Republican and Democratic parties.
Two places on the board of commissioners must be filled this year and these candidates must file. One of these vacancies is that created by the resignation of E. C. Williamson, of Liberty, and the other due to fill the place of H. S. Ragan, whose term of office expires this year. Under the new law, two places on the board are to be filled one biennium and three the next. Terms of M. E. Johnson, chairman, and E. D. Frazier and E. M. Kearns do to the State's most eligible young not expire this year, but in 1936.

Harold D. Cooley To Make Speeches In Randolph County The first announcement of several Harold D. Cooley of Nash county. Mr. Cooley will appear at Liberty, Trinity and Randleman next week. On Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock Mr. Cooley will speak at the Liberty school auditorium, on Tuesday evening at Trini-ty school, on Wednesday evening at the Randleman school.

Mr. Cooley has spoken in Randolph county before and has the reputation here, as well as elsewhere, of being a fluent and interesting speaker. He sets forth the issues of the day in a clever manner, at the same time taking his personal stand.

Speaking as he will at these three different sections of Randolph will afford an opportunity for the majority of the citizens to hear this candidate for Congress and meet him personally.

Why Not News

To Hold Memorial Service 11 A. M. Next Sunday.

rence and Mrs. D. R. Graves, Sun-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ring, Miss

Waldo Cheek, also of Asheboro,

Send News Early
On account of the change in the city mail delivery it is necessary to print The Courier several hours earlier than heretofore. Send us

Four High School Seniors Injured In A Car Accident

File This Week Accident Occurred Saturday Night When Bulla's Car Was Wrecked On Park St.

Tommy Bulla, Brown Crosland, Miss Rebecca Hedrick and Miss Edith Milks, four members of the Asheboro high school senior class, were painfully injured in an auto-mobile accident Saturday night on Park street, when the car in which they were riding with young Bulla driving left the highway and crash-ed into a tree in Fred Page's front

Tommy Bulla suffered a cut on county primary race on June 2. the head and bruises. Brown Crosthere are A. C. Lowdermilk, of land suffered a broken arm, a long Seagrove, route 1, who has filed for gash on the head and bruises. Miss the Democratic nomination for the Milks sustained a broken arm, while lower house of the general assembly, and H. S. Ragan, of Arch-dale, county commissioner, who has filed for the Republican nomination still in Randolph Hospital, Inc., of the seizure or the general assembly. where the four young people were taken immediately following the ac-

F. Burkhead has made announcement but at noon yesterday had not filed officially. In the Republican household, Everett Boling and John R. Smith have already filed and paid their fees.

Control of the machine was evidently lost and it swerved across the street striking a tree. The Bulla car, a 1933 Chevrolet sedan, was practically a total loss, so badly their fees. The dead line on filing for the primary June 2 for county offices is 6 o'clock Saturday evening, May 5. escaped with their lives.

Cotton Festival Attracting Great

pers of this event.

Mrs. J. C. B. Ehringhaus is honorary chairman, Mrs. U. Benton Bla-lock advisory chairman and Miss dolph county jail yard, and, after Anderson York general chairman of the trial, owners may get same by dates for any of the five Congres-sional candidates in the fourth dis-official program of the Festival. A trict is that of several speaking en-gagements for Harold D. Cooley, tures of leaders in the cotton indus-

Local Boy Named President Student Body At College

Wake Forest, May 1.—Herman Stevens of Asheboro has recently been elected and inaugurated into the office of president of the student body of Wake Forest College. Though this is the highest position a student may attain to here, Mr. Stevens is well qualified, having served this year as a member of the student council.

Mr. Stevens, who is the son of Dr. H. T. Stevens, is a senior this year and will receive the Bachelor of Science degree in June. Next year he will enter the school of me-

During his stay at the Baptist institution he has taken an active part A. M. Next Sunday.

Seagrove, rt. 1, April 30. — Mrs. Debbie Boroughs and son, Ralph, and daughter, Bettie, visited Mrs. Boroughs' sister, Mrs. T. W. Lawrence and Mrs. D. P. Crawe. Switch and last fall. This latter in campus activities, and in addition to serving on the student council, he has held a student assistanceship in the department of biology and served as manager of the varsity football team last fall. This latter Nell and Lloyd Ring, of Thomasville, was elected to the office of business spent the week end with Mr. and manager of Old Gold and Black,

Sunday School Class Meets The Friendly Friends Sunday scho lass of the Asheboro Friends church Mrs. J. D. Lilly, who has been sick, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lawrence, of High Point, and Mrs. Emmett Lawrence, of Southment were guests of relatives Sunday in this community. The memorial service here will be at 11 a. m. next Sunday. One feature will be the arranging of a memorial bouquet by each family that has loved ones, giving a flower in their memory. After talks by different persons the service will be closed by the communion service.

Send News Early

The Friendly Friends Sunday.

Fundament at the home of Miss Edith Osborne on Liberty Street, Friday evening, with Mrs. Carl Clarke as joint hostess. During the business hour officers were elected to serve the next six months as follows: President, Gladys Humble; Vice President, Edith Osborne; Secretary and Treaser tary and Treasurer, Ruth Way. Other is the closed by the communion service.

Send News Early

Officers Seize 22 Game Cocks In Raid Sunday

Chickens, Automobiles, Liquor, Spurs, Scales, Etc., All Seiz-ed In Big Raid Sunday.

Arrest Six Men

All Found At Cock Fight Near Church At Archdale; 100 Persons Were Present.

They are just plain game roosters to the most of us, but to the followers of cock fighting they are bunch of the finest fighters seen in Randolph in a long time these 22 cocks incarcerated in the jail yard in Asheboro and apparently happy

These 22 game cocks were a part steel spurs, two hats, one coat, three quarts of liquor, and three dead roosters killed in the ring.

The spectators, estimated at a hundred, fled to the four corners when the officers appeared on the scene, leaving the roosters, cars Deal Of Attention and other equipment to their fate. and impounded everything else in Raleigh, April 30.-Nation-wide sight. Those arrested were arraigned attention is being given to the sec- before Magistrate H. A. Mitchell and ond annual Cotton Festival which gave bond for appearance at prelimiwill be held in Raleigh Friday, May hearing. Since the raid the 18, and write-ups have appeared in cars have been redeemed and the the most important metropolitan pamade bond.

Meanwhile the 22 game cocks are this year's Festival.

Invitations are now being mailed to the State's most eligible young ladies to serve as sponsors to this the trial, owners may get same by identifying them and paying costs, etc., required by law. Hundreds of people have been to the jail to see this collection of fowls, representing event and plans are being made for a value of several hundred dollars to the followers of this illegal sport

Friday, May 18th

"The Family Up Stairs," Asheporo's Little Theatre production of May, is going forward in rehearsal eight fifteen o'clock. with a few changes in the cast, Miss Virginia Barker will replace Miss Edith Milks, who was injured in an automobile accident the past week. Sidney Truesdale has been added to the cast.

Building which will soon be erected in Asheboro. This is the first public resture made for this proposed building and will doubtless receive wide cooperation by the people of Asheboro and Randolph county.

Annual Hymn Contest Held Last Wednesday

The annual hymn contest of the music students at the Asheboro school was held Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. W. H. Moring, who has given the prizes for the past several years, again judged the pupils. The awards will be presented on the last day of school. Pupils of Miss Ethel Johnson and Miss Louise Swaim, both participated in the con-the allies with men and money in 1918, but has lost every fruit of victory by inefficient diplomacy since," said a thoughtful man a few days ago. "One reason for this, probably the main reason, is that European countries train their diplomats from youth up. Over there government service is adopted as a profession like medicine or the law. By the time a man has gained recent, cognition enough to represent his the trained in the arts and wiles of of. After the social hour, the hostesses served delightful refreshments.

Moved To Sunset Avenue
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kiesewetter have this week moved to the house on Sunset Avenue known as the Sam Story home. Mr. and Mrs. Kiesewetter have been living with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hanner on Cox street during the winter months.

ghly trained in the arts and wiles of diplomacy. On the contrary. America takes the position that the least training a man has had the better qualified he is for such work and we pick railroad presidents, bankers and newspaper men to represent us. Of course, we get licked at every conference. This attitude has east us in trade and other advantages. The man trained in governmental affairs can best represent the interests of his constituents.

To Wear Cotton

Appropriately en

Finals To Get Underway May 6

W. S. Nelson, President Of Shaw University, Raleigh, To Deliver The Address.

Play Friday Night

Isaac H. Miller, Of Livingston College, Salisbury, To Speak On Wednesday.

The finals at the Randolph Coun-

The "Miss Randolph" contest Tues-Cumilla Hill '38 as "Miss Randolph" who led with 78,100 votes, second honors were captured by Lena Foushee '36 with 74,850 votes; and the The play will be presented at the other contestants, Anna Lane '35 Miss Ross Honored Asheboro school auditorium on Fri- had 32,700 votes and Stacy Chrisco day evening, May 18th, and is given '37 had 15,150 votes. The "Miss for the benefit of the Community Randolph" will be crowned Friday evening at the close of the play The seventh grade exercises Monday evening at seven-thirty o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend all of these closing exercises. All Point College, was today elected as are free with the exception of Friday night, at which time a small that institution. admission fee will be charged.

Pou-For-Congress Club Is Organized In Franklin County

A Pou-for-Congress Club for Franklin county organized last week at Louisburg with more than 150 charter members. W. B. Barrow was unanimously elected chairman and will head the Pou campaign in Franklin. The meeting was called to order by Major S. P. Boddie. Short early in May. In the beginners group, Mary talks were made by John S. Mc-Louise Rich won first prize with Donald, Wake County manager, and Uwharrie National Wescott Moser receiving honorable by Norman Sheppard, Smithfield at-Mrs. Woodell. Mr. and Mrs. Ring are former residents of this place and we are always glad to have specifically take up his duties next place in the intermediate class and maragret Alexander received honorand we are always glad to have them visit here.

Mr. Cheek, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. L. E. Cagle spent last week in Hemp.

Miss Susan Lowdermilk is right sick with cold.

Master Wayne Saunders, who cut his foot very badly sometime ago, has returned home from the Randolph Repital, Inc., Asheboro.

James Cagle has gone to Raleigh where he has work.

A number of the young people from here went to the deserted village Sunday.

Mrs. J. H. Cheek as an approximate the intermediate class and Maragret Alexander received honors and experience which eminently fit may be mention; Helen Thompson won first place in the intermediate class and Maragret Alexander received honors and experience which eminently fit may be mention; Helen Thompson won first place in the intermediate class and Maragret Alexander received honors and experience which eminently fit may be mention; Helen Thompson won first place in the intermediate class and Maragret Alexander received honors and experience which eminently fit may be mention; Helen Thompson won first place in the intermediate class and Maragret Alexander received honors and experience which eminently fit may be mention; Helen Thompson won first place in the intermediate class and Maragret Alexander received honors and advanced class and alice Birkhead received honors are the mention. Mrs. W. L. McCord, Mrs. David Cashwell and Mrs. J. G. Crutchfield acted as judges with Mrs. Moring.

A GREAT HANDICAP

Miss Skeen III

A number of the young people from the and Mrs. A GREAT HANDICAP

Mrs. J. H. A decertification recording the intermediate class and Maragret Alexander received honors and Alice Birkhead received honors and Alice Birkhead received of M. F. Skeen, of Farmer, was taken to a High Point Hospital Wed-nesday morning by Hoover's ambu-lance. Miss Skeen was a patient there a few weeks ago and has not

Taxes On May 14th

Asheboro city taxes for 1933 which are unpaid and past due will be advertised beginning Monday, May 14, according to W. E. Yow, city tax collector. All city property on which taxes have not been paid by that time will be advertised and the couts added. Those who have not paid and want to escape couts should pay

Local Auxiliary Designates May 26 As Poppy Day

Mrs. Rufus Routh Chairman Of Committee which Has In Charge Sale Of Poppies.

Vets Make Flowers

And Proceeds Are For Disabled Veterans Of World War; Are Made In 58 Places.

Mrs. Robert Bunch, president of the Asheboro American Legion Auxiliary, announces the date set for Poppy Day as Saturday, May 26th. Mrs. Rufus Routh is acting as chairman for this special day and has a splendid committee of workers from the Auxiliary to assist her in the agh the First sale of these poppies which have important cotton been a means of providing employ-These 22 game cocks were a part of the seizure made by Randolph county officers Sunday afternoon at a cock fight in the pine woods within 400 yards of the Archdale Methodist church where a revival was in progress. The officers, Randolph county and High Point, not only seized these 22 game roosters in their raid, but arrested six men. saized 12 automo. possible earnings of approximately $100,000 for these disabled men, she

"Making of the paper poppies which the American Legion Auxiliary offers on 'Poppy Day' to be worn in honor of the World War dead is reserved strictly for the war disabled," Mrs. Birkhead explained. "It offers a means of employment to veterans unable to do other work and not only brings them money for the support of themselves and families, but aids in their rehabilitation by giving them beneficial, interesting

"The poppies are made in governnent hospitals and in special poppy work-rooms maintained by Auxiliary. No veteran with a communicable disease is allowed to make poppies. This year 58 different Staley School To poppy making centers have been in ty Training school will get under operation in 40 states. Employment is restricted to men unable to do work of other types of work and preference is given those with families to support. The paper poppy reate address to the seniors in the Professor Isaac H. Miller, of Liv- work is directed in such a manner the poppies pays the wages of the Burlington. poppy-makers and helps support the day night resulted in the election of Legion and Auxiliary's activities for the welfare of the disabled veterans and dependent families."

By Student Council High Point College

High Point, April 28.-Miss Lucy Clyde Ross, of Asheboro, a member of the present Junior class of High secretary to the Student Council of Miss Ross is a new comer at the college, having transferred in September from The Woman's College of The University of North Carolina, in Greensboro. She has been active in numerous fields, however, this year. She has acted as class representative on the Student Council. She has been a valuable asset to her class in intra-mural athletics. She has been chosen to enact the role of Madam de la Bruine in Anatole France's farce "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," be presented

Forestry Office Is Opened In Asheboro

L. B. C. Colts, engineer in charge of the Asheboro division office of the Uwharrie National Forest, arrived in Asheboro Tuesday and opened offices in the Law Building in the offices known as the former mechanical office of The Courier, later occupied by the Re-employment Bureau.

Work will begin immediately making a survey of the acreage of the Randolph sector and descriptions of the land. Later surveying crows will be sent through the area.

W. L. Combs, chief of party, is also in Asheboro and is now making will make the commencement address at the Needham's Grove school on Friday evening, May 4th. While this school is one of the smaller schools in this section of the state, it has won state-wide recognition and publicity for the many novel and interesting pieces of construc-tive work accomplished there.

Mrs. Wm. C. Hammer will also reco

Seagrove Seniors Presented A Play Last Friday Night

Play Well Rendered And Largely Attended; Commencement Exercises Next Week.

Seagrove, May 1.—On Friday night the senior class, under the di-rection of Miss Lena Russell, presented the senior play "Mammy's Lil' Wild Rose." This play was well rendered and largely attended. The next program of the commencement exercises will be on Thursday night, May 10, when Dr. H. T. Stevens, pastor of the Asheboro Baptist church, will preach the baccalureate sermon. Friday night, May 11, the members of the senior class will present their exercises, also the diplomas will be presented. This will bring to a close the school year. All these exercises will be held in the auditorium of the M. P. church. Members of the senior class are as follows: Frances Bean, Verdie Auman, Hallie Thomas, Neta Trogdon, Bonnie Auman, Hazel Comer, Corneia Wright, James King, Grady Scott, Hubert Auman. Seth Trogdon and Dall Hogan.

On Saturday the senior class members were guests of the junior class on a trip, visiting the campuses of the University of North Carolina, and Duke University. They also attended the Duke-State baseball game at Duke. Chaperons were Miss Lena Russell and J. H. Lineberry, high school teachers.

Noah Williams, S. G. Richardson, D. R. and Harwood Graves, Everett Yow, Alfred Lemons and Mr. Combs attended the meeting of the 13th district of the Jr. O. U. A. M., which was held at the Proximity school in Greensboro Saturday. The Seagrove council won the attendance cup.

Misses Strawdie Hare, Alberta Auman, and Maple Lawrence, went to Greensboro shopping Saturday after-

Come To A Close Tuesday, May 8th

Staley, May 1.-The Staley school will bring to a close its spring term reate address to the seniors in the school auditorium. Friday night of this week the senior play "The Path Across The Hills" will be staged by the seniors, with other casts assisting. The important operatta "Snow White" the seniors and appreciative audience which gave large applause to the players.

Professor Issae H Miller of Live work is directed in such a manner of popular that the workers will not tax their strength. The awards of the year and the seventh of the professor Issae H Miller of Live work is directed in such a manner of popular that the workers will not tax their strength. The awards of the year and the seventh of the presented in such a manner of popular that the workers will not tax their strength. The awards of the year and the seventh of the presented of the players. on May 8. The commencement exingston college at Salisbury will de- that it will aid in the physical and The graduating exercises will be held liver the address to the graduating mental rehabilitation of the veterans, Tuesday evening, May 8th, at eight class next Wednesday evening at as well as giving them financial o'clock. The address will be deliverbenefits. The money contributed for ed by Judge John S. Thomas, of

All exercises will be held in the school auditorium.

Insurance Man Is Well Pleased At Locating In City

When W. S. Long, after ten years with the New York Life Insurance Company at Sumter, S. C., begin at eight p. m. More than began looking for a location in the fifty young people will receive the Piedmont section of North Carolina, diplomas of the school. Their names he investigated thoroughly a great and the names and addresses of their many of the towns and cities in this area in order that he might better his location. After a careful survey, he selected Asheboro. Here he found the climatic conditions, the kind of people and the environment he sought. Therefore, two months ago he located in Asheboro, he and his wife taking an apartment in the Allen apartment building on the corner of Main and Salisbury streets. Upon coming here, he and his wife afof their faith, the Baptist, and Club and active in its affairs. Both Mr. and Mrs. Long are well home here indefinitely. To Dedicate Pleasant

The Pleasant Cross Christian church will be dedicated Sunday,

In the afternoon the annual memorial service will be held. Every-body is cordially invited to both

Mr. Busbee Speaks
Jacques Busbee, of the Jugtown of the area. Later, a survey will be made.
There will doubtless be several other heads of departments located in the Asheboro office in the near future and work will go forward rapidly.

GILLIAM GRISSOM TO MAKE FINALS ADDRESS

The Honorable Gilliam Grissom will make the commencement address

Mr. Busbee Speaks

Jacques Busbee, of the Jugtown of the time for making applications for the high school on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Clara Gill, of the high school faculty, arranged for Mr. Busbee to speak to the group and invited him to bring a display of the well known Jugtown ware for their inspection. In addition to some interesting Jugtown pieces, Mr. Busbee included several small museum pieces of very old pottery.

GR. W. Blair, who handles emergency crop loan applications in Randolph county, has been advised that the time for making applications for such loans has been extended until the night of May 14th. Those desiring to obtain such a loan should see Mr. Blair on or before this date.

He may be found at the office of E. S. Milleaps, Jr., county farm agent for Randolph county, who has offices in the basement of the court house.

Revival At Baifour

tery.

The speech included a brief sketch of the history of pottery-making in this country and the historical back-

Finals Exercises Asheboro School Begin May Sixth

And Will Continue Through Thursday Morning, May 10; Sermon Sunday Evening.

Dr. Cook To Speak

Dr. John H. Cook. Of Woman's College Of U. N. C., To Deliver Annual Address.

The commencement exercises of the Asheboro city schools will open Sunday evening, May 6, and continue through Thursday morning, May 10. The programs are as fol-

Sunday Evening, May 6, Annual Vesper Service. Processional-"Lead on, O King Invocation-The Rev. H. A. Park-

Doxology. Hymn-Take Time to be Holy. Scripture-Dr. H. T. Stevens. Prayer-Dr. R. S. Truesdale.

Special number—Woman's chorus. Introduction of speaker—Dr. C. G. Sermon-the Rev. Price H. Gwynn, Ph. D. of Davidson college. Special number-Woman's chorus. Announcements-R. J. Hilker. Benediction-The Rev. R. C. Stub-

Processional-O, Jesus, I have promised.

Monday Evening, May 7. Oration—Essay contest. Chorus—A Merry Life, by Denza,

Glee Club. Welcome Address-Sam Hayworth. Nationalities that have made North Carolina-Elizabeth Phillips. History and Uses of Electricity-

The Property Tax Problem-J. B. Chorus Rainbow Song Gest Glee Club.

Brown Crosland.

Some Benefits of Literature Wiley Whitaker. Gold Mining in Randolph Countydebecca Hedrick.

Randolph, a Historic County-David Moore. Chorus-Little Bluebird of My Heart-Glee Club.

Tuesday Evening, May 8, Class Pageant. All the members of the graduating class will take part in this class pageant, which will include a daisy chain procession and song by a songs, readings, interpretive dances, and dialogue by the graduates. Wednesday Evening, May 9, Graduation Exercises. Song, America-Audience. Invocation-Dr. H. T. Stevens. Salutatory-Gladys Humble. Introduction of Speaker-Mr. T. F.

Address-Dr. John H. Cook, of the Woman's College, Greensboro. Presentation of Diplomas.

Awards. Valedictory-Dee Armfield. All the evening exercises will be held in the auditorium. Each will parents will be published next week. The exercises will close Thursday morning, May 10, with seventh grade graduation promotions, awards, etc.

Miss Trickett To Open A Tea Room Here On Saturday

Trickett's Tea Room, opening Saturday, will be of interest to many filiated themselves with the church people in town as well as visitors. Offering attractive, well prepared interested themselves in the civic, food served and for sale, is to be business and religious life of the the chief attraction in this attractive community. Mr. Long also became new place. Gifts and novelties as a member of the Asheboro Kiwanis well as Jugtown ware will also be carried.

Miss Ruth Trickett will manage satisfied with their choice of lo- the place personally which, in itself, cation and expect to make their bespeaks success. Miss Trickett has decorated the place in an interesting manner with brown walls and sunnyicate Pleasant yellow trimmings. With these chosen colors splashes of orange and Chinese blue Jugtown ash trays and vases will further decorate the May 6th, at the eleven o'clock service by Dr. J. O. Atkinson, of Elon College, North Carolina.

Regular meals, tea room dainties, afternoon tea, lunches—in fact, anything to eat, will be served in this interesting and charming place an addition to Asheboro.

Extend Time G. W. Blair, who handles emer-

The speech included a brief sketch of the history of pottery-making in this country and the historical background of the art.

Blue mold was discovered in a tobacco plant bed in Greene county on April 14. The county agent is recommending sunshine and nitrate of soda as a remedy.

Revival At Balfour

A revival serice will begin at Balfour Baptist church on Wednesday evening, May 9th, and will continue through May 20th. Rev. J. C. Kidd, of Bennett, will assist the pastor in the services which will be held each evening at 7:45 o'clock. The pastor of the church, Rev. O. P. Dix, extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend these services. Revival At Baifo