

Central Falls Holds Many Church Meets During Past Week

Mrs. Mollie Wallace, of Hemp, spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Dora Cockman.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wright, of Asheboro, visited Mr. and Mrs. John Walton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Heath and Mr. and Mrs. D. Graves, of Randleman, visited Mrs. H. J. Sundstrom and Mrs. Alice Underwood Sunday.

Clyde Cockman who is working in Alta Vista, Va., spent the week end at home.

Mrs. J. E. Matthews, Miss Moving Matthews and Charley Matthews, of Holly Springs, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Seagroves.

Wade McMillan spent the day Saturday in High Point.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thorpe spent the week end in High Point.

The W. M. U. of Central Falls Baptist church met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. G. A. Patterson. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. J. A. Cox. The program was opened by singing "Save-us Like a Shepherd Lead Us." This was followed by prayer by Mrs. A. J. Evans. The subject for the evening was "Our Brothers in Black." Rev. J. A. Cox had charge of the devotions, reading and explaining the 15th chapter of Luke. A quartet, "The Ninety and Nine," was rendered by Rev. J. A. Cox, Roy Plummer, Mrs. A. C. Wood and Mrs. Charley Williams. Mrs. B. M. Morris gave a report as to the personal service rendered during the past month. Topical readings were given by Miss Addie Long, Miss Letha Howard, Mrs. A. J. Evans, Mrs. A. C. Ward, Mrs. H. J. Sundstrom and Mrs. J. A. Cox. The program was closed with prayer by Roy Plummer. A delightful social hour followed at which time the hostess served refreshments. During the social hour the "Heart Sisters Revealing" took place. The gifts were distributed and new "Heart Sisters" were drawn. Jerome Cockman is spending several days at Hemp.

Little Ronald Saunders, who has been confined to his home for several days on account of illness, is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. North York attended a birthday dinner at Millboro Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Rollins and Miss Bessie Rollins were visitors in High Point Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Yow attended a birthday dinner at Millboro Sunday.

Rev. P. T. Dixon filled his appointment at Central Falls Methodist church Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock. This was Rev. Mr. Dixon's last sermon before conference.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nance spent the week end in High Point.

The Willing Workers class of Central Falls Baptist church met Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Tom Poole for the regular monthly business meeting. Mrs. A. C. Ward led the devotional with Psalm 112. Prayer was offered by Miss Bessie Rollins. This was followed by a song, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." A poem, "The House by the Side of the Road," was read by Richard Plummer. Officers for the new quarter were elected. A. C. Ward was elected president; E. O. Seagrove, vice-president; and Mrs. A. C. Ward, secretary and treasurer. After the business was transacted the social hour followed. Contests and games were enjoyed. The hostess served an oyster stew, cakes and hot coffee.

Miss Berta Ellison, a former Central Falls school teacher, who has been doing foreign mission work will address the women of Central Falls at the Central Falls Methodist church at 2:30 Sunday, October 28. Every one is welcome.

Misses Addie Long and Inez Curtis were baptized in the Baptist church of Asheboro Sunday night, October 21, by Rev. J. A. Cox.

Larry Hammond Home
Larry Hammond, attorney of Asheboro, and president of the Young Democratic Club, of Randolph, is at home from a Greensboro hospital where he underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis a little more than a week ago. Mr. Hammond is convalescing satisfactorily.

Negro Teachers Meet
The Negro teachers of Randolph county will meet in a county-wide teachers meeting Saturday, October 27th, in the auditorium of the Randolph County Training School. H. L. Trigg, director of high school department for Negroes in the state will speak to the group. It is desired very much that 100 per cent attendance will be given.

E. R. McCoy JEANS, Supt. T. F. BULLA, County Supt.

Off For Conference Tuesday
Dr. R. S. Truesdale, pastor of the First Methodist church of Asheboro, and D. B. McCrary, delegate from the church, expect to leave Tuesday for Greensboro for the meeting of General Conference of that church. Dr. Truesdale has served the Asheboro church for the past three years.

Sow Better Seed
Hayworth and Coltrane, seed dealers in Asheboro, believing that you reap what you sow, have installed a large modern power seed cleaner that will clean all kinds of small grain lespeziea, etc. Hayworth and Coltrane say many farmers in Randolph county are sowing poor quality seed and if they would have their seed cleaned, getting out all foreign and faulty seeds, that crops would be much better, according to the seedsmen.

The farmers in Randolph county are growing a lot of lespeziea and this machine is designed especially for cleaning lespeziea seed. Hayworth and Coltrane have bought this machine for the benefit of the farmers of Randolph county.

among the notables planning to attend the game. He will take part in the broadcast and other festivities. He has extended a personal invitation to Governor Ruby Laffoon of Kentucky to join him.

Carl Goerch will act as master of ceremonies. The features will include short talks by the two governors and other officials and by some of the members of Carolina's 1903 team, which was the only Tar Heel eleven to play Kentucky. These will be interspersed with Carolina cheers led by Lester Ostrow and songs of the two schools played by the University's 70-piece band which will march down Memorial Hall to the stage downtown for the occasion.

Invitations to Governor Laffoon and to President Frank L. McVey of the University of Kentucky also have been extended by President Graham of the University and by Mayor John M. Foushee, who has issued a special proclamation declaring Saturday a general Home Coming Day.

Soviet Russia is relaxing her class warfare. On October 5th instructions issued for the coming elections granted the right to vote to huge groups hitherto considered "enemies of the Soviet State." The grant is not only for the right to vote, but for equality in living conditions, in educational privileges and social approval and this is extended to employees of religious communities—excepting clergymen—to former gendarmes, prison officials and former soldiers in the White Army.

Huge Crowd Expected For Carolina's Home Coming Day Saturday

Tar Heels To Meet Kentucky Wildcats in Fiasco Beginning At 2:00 O'clock

Many University alumni and other football enthusiasts from this county are making plans to attend the Carolina-Kentucky Home Coming game at Chapel Hill Saturday at 2 o'clock.

The University and the village of Chapel Hill have made elaborate plans for the home coming festivities and the heavy advance sale of tickets indicates Kenan Stadium, which seats 25,000 will be pretty well filled.

Judging from season records and statistics, the two squads will stack up on close to even terms. Kentucky, after losing to W. L. in the opener, defeated Cincinnati, 1933 Buckeye Conference champs, 27-0, and won a 7-0 decision over the Clemson College Tigers last Saturday.

Carolina surprised Wake Forest 21-0, gave Tennessee's mighties a good scrap before bowing 19-7, and upset the dope bucket last week by defeating the Georgia Bulldogs 14-0.

A 45-minute homecoming program will be held on an outdoor stage in the business section Saturday morning at 11 o'clock and will be broadcast over radio station WPTF in Raleigh. The program is being arranged by University officials and Mayor Foushee and civic leaders. The streets and shop windows will be decorated in holiday trimmings befitting the occasion.

Governor Ehringhaus will be

Program At Balfour

Stamps Quartet, of Chattanooga, Tenn., will give a program at Balfour in the school auditorium Saturday evening, October 20th, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. A small admission fee will be charged, the proceeds to go for the benefit of the Balfour school.

Rummage Sale Saturday

The members of the American Legion Auxiliary will hold a rummage sale on Saturday, October 20th, in the vacant lot by the Norfolk Southern depot. The proceeds will go toward the welfare work and other work of the organization.

Marie Cassell at Friends Church

Marie Cassell, former field worker in religious education for the Five Years Meeting will be at the local Friends church from October 21 to 27 inclusive. She will be at the Sabbath meetings worship and will then hold through the week a school for teachers and workers. Classes at 7:30 each evening.
