

grades are similar in numbers, Miss Morgan, 41; Miss Wood, 43; Miss Bertha Presnell, 30.

In the high school section of the school, matters are even worse it Greensboro in the late afternoon. would appear from the figures. The enrollment in the four sections of the eighth grade runs: Miss Gill, 33; Miss Mrs. Flora Morgan. Robertson, 33; Mr. Sanderson, 44; Mrs. Prevette, 40. In the ninth grades, Mr. Johnson has an enroliment of 51, while Miss Taylor has 48 in her room. Miss Ayers tenth grade 41 and Mr. Campbell's section of that grade, 37; with Miss Massa Lambert's eleventh grade boasts of a senior class of 49 members.

Figures speak for themselves, but a visit to the school would be further revealing to the citizens of Asheboro. The school was thrown open to visitors one day recently and parents and friends were invited to come for a visit and tea. The Woman's Club should and possibly will, receive plenty of support in their undertaking and goal of a new school building for Asheboro.

Central Falls News Of Current Week Is Chiefly Local Items

Central Falls, Nov. 22 .- Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Cox and Roy Plummer were visitors in High Point Friday. Miss Marjorie, Miss Ella Hand, Miss Grace Smith visited their parents in High Point over the week-end. Bill Nance was admitted to the Ranolph Hospital, Inc., at Asheboro for Mrs. H. J. Sundstrom visited friends in High Point the past weekend.

Mrs. John Reese and children, of Franklinville, passed the week end with Mr. and Mrs. George Lambe, Jr. Rev. and Mrs. John Cox were over night visitors in Macedonia Saturday night.

Mrs. Jean Coble was the guest of relatives and friends in Lexington Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Delphia Lineberry Descent the week end at Gray's Chapel. Dewey Britt is able to be out again after his recent illness.

Memorial Service For Cuyler Green

To Be Held Sunday Green, who died on November 9th, 6326; Justice Supreme Court, Herriot For lack of space, The Courier only ceased was a member, will attend in a body. The topic used by Dr. Herman Stevens for this service will be "The Anchor and the Crown". These two emblems are used in the memorial window for Cuyler Green in this new church. A solo, "My Anchor Holds", will be a part of the music for the ser-vice. At 7 30 these will be the correlate D, 6393, Charles Hover, D, 6389, warmly interested in politics and will be interested in the official report of the state ticket. Several requests for the state ticket. Several requests for the publication of this vote have come in to The Courier office. The county ticket's pulse went up and down like a game of checkers, so varied was the vote with the Democra-tic palm going to Sheriff Carl King, whose vote ran 6693 with R. C. John-Vuncannon, 30. The three seventh the past three weeks returned Sunday.

who spent the day, returning to Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Byrd and children, of Worthville, spent Sunday with

(Please turn to Page 8)

Kiwanians Enjoy Musical Program At

The Kiwanis club enjoyed two piano duets by Mrs. D. H. Cashwell and Union Service For Mrs. James Burns at their regular meeting Tuesday evening at the First Methodist Church.

Edwin Morris, Lee Kearns and Rufus Routh attended the Boy Scout meeting Friday night as a committee from the club and reported an interesting meeting. The club is vitally interested in this scout troop and their work and much consideration is being given to help them. Each of these visitors gave words of encouragement to the boys and their leader.

Scout Master, L. H. Pierce, reported that this is the time for the annual reorganization of the troop for another year and that practically all the boys had signed up for another year and that the work is being undertaken being enlarged this year and it is hopheld from time to time to advance those making progress.

Rotarian G. R. Kennedy was present service in the community.

farm demonstrator, acting for the far- tions. From time the past three weeks returned Sunday. She was accompanied by Miss Clyde the Farmer's Cooperative Association. which was widely discussed but about Kearns, Mrs. Bessie Kearns, Mr. and The total poundage shipped from Ran- which little has been done despite the Mrs. Lewis Kearns, and Dale Kearns dolph on Wednesday was 4581 pounds much-speaking.

and the total receipts were $603.04. The farmers of Randolph were pleased with the day's sales and Mr. Of this total, 2149 pounds were heavy hens and brought $279.37. Leg- Millsapps was also well pleased. The representatives who came for the poulhorn hens brought $104.94 for 954 pounds while 298 pounds of fryers ran try were delighted with the healthy weeks ago underwent an operation in $47.68. Sags brought $19.50 for 195 condition of the birds and the day was recorded as a most successful one pounds and 83 pounds of roosters $4.98. There were 902 pounds of tur- from many angles.

keys in the shipment which brought There will be other sales held before Christmas in the vacant lot adjoining the Randolph creamery, where the The biggest sale of the day was recorded by W. W. Kivett, of near Ram- sales was held on Wednesday. Fur-Tuesday Eve Meeting seur who sold 662 pounds of the total ther announcement will be made as to 902 pounds. For his turkeys Mr. Kivett, the next dates of sale.

> Asheboro Is Schedule For Thanksgiving Day

$143.28.

As has been the custom for many years, the churches of Asheboro will again join in a union Thanksgiving service on Thanksgiving morning. The Seventh Grade Makes Perfect service is held in various churches of Asheboro and the preaching of this sermon also rotates among the ministers. The service will be held this year at the handsome new Baptist church which was recently completed in Asheboro.

It has also been the custom to have the new minister of the town preach the sermon on this occasion. This year with much determination for advance-ment. The sponsoring committee is aburth will wreach the sermon Dr. Falls school, with an enrollment of program are distinctly of negro birth story, First Thanksgiing was told by dolph man, who has been pastor of church, will preach the sermon. Dr. Taylor is a well known pastor, not onprogress that Court of Honor can be general conference as well.

The service will be held at 9:00 as the guest of W. S. Long. The at- o'clock in the morning, in order to tendance was one of the best of the enable those who have other plans year evidencing the determination of for the day to comply with the agethe membership to be of real Kiwanis old custom of giving thanks on a special day set apart for this purpose.

Honor Roll For Month Of October Cedar Falls School

Attendance Record; All Save Two On Honor Roll

Arranged Picnic Fifth, Sixth and Seventh Grades Honored Teacher On Brithday, November 19th

ten, made perfect attendance during the second month. All but two made Protestant denomination, but in that Roll from the 3rd through the 7th themselves have immortalized the negrades:

Bill Parris, average 95; Peggy Bray, average 95; Opal Parris, average 94; Titus Nance, average 94; Delbert songs which will be offered without average 93; J. C. Stevenson, average 92; J. V. Smith, average 92.

6th Grade Evon Trogdon, average 97; Basil

5th Grade Luna Spencer, average 96; Ruby Johnson, average 96; Gladys Harvell, average 94; Paul Strider, average 90 4th Grade

Ollie Glass, Helen Redding, Pauline Stevenson.

3rd Grade Golda Wrenn Phillips, Ruth Allred,

Hael Louise Jones. The fifth, sixth and seventh grades of the Cedar Falls school are planning a picnic at Cox's Dam, Monday afternoon, Nov. 79, in honor of their teacher's birthday.

Former Residents Here

Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Powell of Burnsville, were in Asheboro a short while Friday returning from New Bern where they had been attending the Baptist state convention in session there the past week. Rev. and Mrs. Powell are former Asheboro residents, Mr. Powell having served as pastor of the Asheboro Baptist church day afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. $46,000.

Clyde Jones at Greensboro. Several of our people attended the for Randolph county at Asheboro, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Mary C. Weatherly, Grand Secretary of the O. E. S. of North Tampa, Florida, where she will attend the Grand Chapter, O. E. S., of Florida, and on Friday she will make a trip to Cuba before returning home.

(Please turn to page 8)

"Twilight Sing" Of Spirituals and Folk Songs For Sunday

Glee Club From Randolph Training School To Present Program in Theatre

A "Twilight Sing" will be presentafternoon, November 25th, at 5:00 o'clock. The members of the glee club from the Randolph Training school will present this program of spirituals time. and folk songs. Prof. Barrett, principal of the colored school in Asheboro, announces that the entire lower floor has Archdale P. T. A. been reserved for the white people who are invited to attend this event. During the fall, this group of young singers have paid especial attention to special arrangements of well known the hour.

NOVEMBER / 1934

. . 1 2 3

5 6 7 8 9 10

12 13 14 15 16 17

18 19 20 21 22 23 24

25 26 27 28 29 30 .

ment will be made later.

4

.

Thanksgiving Holidays Begin

holidays.

ception of on Thanksgiving day itself when banks and stores will be closed for the day, resuming business on Friday morning. The textile and other manufacturing plants of the town have made no definite announcement as to the length of their holiday as yet, but further announce-ston-Salem church for four years, the E. H. Morris, assistant liquidating M. E. District meeting of Stewards agent of the Asheboro Bank and Trust company of Asheboro, has been sent 689 checks to pay depositors and other creditors a 25 per cent dividend of sented his denomination at five conse-$15,744.47. The checks are for a first cutive sessions of General Conference; Carolina, left Friday afternoon for dividend. The bank operated under served for 11 years as treasurer of restriction for a year until March 12, 1934, and paid its depositors and other creditors $62,785.03, or 50 per cent of their money, during that time. It has also paid $222 to preferred creditors and $4,612.04 to secured creditors.

> In addition, preferred creditors of the Brevard Banking company, of Brevard, will be paid $17,883.47 in full of their claims. Depositors and other creditors of this bank will be paid $22,324.08 in checks as 10 per cent of their money.

Hears Dr. Sykes Address On Peace

composers as well as to spirituals and evening November 12, Rev. Reuben assigned to the church at Mocksville. folk songs. The songs included in the Payne led the devotional service. A Rev. Gurney Ferree, a former Ranwell. Negro music is an outstanding number of poems were given by third Forsyth circuit. Rev. Joel Trogdon, of contribution to American art-they and fourth grades. Rev. Tom Sykes, the Randleman Methodist Protestant High Point, was the speaker of the torate.

It is expected that a large crowd evening. His subject was "Internationwill attend the presentation of these al Peace Movement." The school auditorium was well filled. The chairman Titus Nance, average 94; Delbert Johnson, average 93; J. C. Parris, average 93; J. C. Stevenson, average offering, however, will be taken during seventy paid members to date. The goal set is 100 members.

The Asheboro city schools, both white and colored, will celebrate Thanksgiving this year with a generous holiday beginning Wednesday afternoon. Work will be resumed on Monday morning after the few days rest and recreation and will push forward toward the Christmas

This announcement will be greeted hearty applause from white and black hands alike for the usual custom in Asheboro for several years has only provided for one day at Thanksgiving. Already teachers and pupils are planning their Business will go on in the town, however, pretty much as usual, with the ex-holidays with keen anticipation.

Burlington church for seven years, and the Henderson church for five years. In general conference work, Dr. Taylor is no stranger. He has reprethe North Carolina conference and as secretary of that body. He is also a member of the commission of the M. P. denomination on Methodist union: a member of the Commission on Cooperation of the Northern and Southern churches.

Dr. Taylor is a graduate of Western Maryland College and Theological Seminary and later earned his Doctors degree. He is recognized as one of the best preachers and pastors of the denomination and will receive a warm welcome in Asheboro. His family consists of Mrs. Taylor, who is active in The Bank of Newport will get a 40 the state missionary activities of the per cent dividend aggregating $8,570 ... | church, having served for many years 37, which is the first dividend for this as treasurer of that body. A daughed at the Sunset Theatre on Sunday institution since it was placed in liq- ter, Miss Frances Taylor and son, John uidation on February 5th, 1934. Pre- Taylor, both graduates of High Point ferred creditors and secured depositors college expect to pass their week-ends have been paid checks prior to this in Asheboro, but will retain their positions in High Point. Another son, Sam, Jr., who is the youngest member of the family, will come to Asheboro in the near future with his parents.

Other Changes

Rev. R. L. Hethcox, who has for the past year served the Richland circuit The Archdale P. T. A. met Monday and has lived near Asheboro, has been pastor of the First Friends Church of church, has been returned to that pas-

American Legion Auxiliary Over Top Membership Record

Four hostesses entertained the members of the American Legion Auxiliary on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. U. C. Richardson. Mrs. Rufus Routh, Mrs. J. T. Lewallen and Mrs. Reid M. Hannah were the associate hostesses for this meeting. An announcement made by the president, Mrs. George Burkhead, revealed that the organization had reached the membership goal by adding seven new members. Plans for the district meeting and luncheon to be held at Wadesboro on Friday, November 23rd.

An interesting report of the meeting included cigarettes sent to veterans at Oteen and the prison camp. A committee composed of Mrs. Carl Page, Mrs. Arthur Presnell, Mrs. Rufus Routh and Mrs. E. L. Hedrick was named to arrange a scrap book for children of veterans. Members and friends who have pictures for contribution may call any member of the committee or leave them at the Old Hickory Cafe. Mrs. E. L. Hedrick, in charge of the program for this meeting, presented Mrs. J. G. Crutchfield, who read a paper on Patriotic Songs.

Sandwiches and coffee were served after the program finished.

Official Vote For State Published Herewith

From the office of the Clerk of | perior Court, 17th district, J. A. Rous-Court of Randolph county comes the seau, D, 6387; W. C. Berry, R, 6320; official count for the state ticket as Judge Superior Court, 18th district, J. voted at the election on November 6th. Will Pless, Jr., D, 6380; J. Lee Laven-A memorial service will be held on Chief Justice Supreme Court: Walter der, R, 6318; Judge Superior Court, ay morning at the 11:00 o'clock P. Stacy, D, 6398, A. A. Whitner, R, 19th district, Pender A. McElroy, D, church hour at the Baptist Church for Cuyler Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Schenck, D, 6383; W. H. Fisher, R, Schenck, D, 6383; W. H. Fisher, R, Cuyler Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.

1933. The members of the Pastor's Clarkson, D, 6392, Willis G. Briggs, R, printed the county vote as given out Sunday School class, of which the de-6326; Treasurer: Charles M. Johnson, officially by the convassing board. we was a member, will attend in a D, 6398, Charles Hoover, R, 6326; Many people in Randolph county are Utilities Commissioner: Stanley Win- warmly interested in politics and will

At 7:30 there will be the regular D, 6392; Judge Superior Court, 13th tic palm going to Sheriff Carl King, make will be the regular D, 6392; Judge Superior Court, 13th tic paim going to Sheriff Carl King, paster of the Ashestor Baptist church at Burnsville, hav-maching by the paster. This service Judge Superior Court, 15th district, coming second with a vote of 6609.

