

ISSUED WEEKLY VOLUME LIX

PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN

$2.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

NUMBER 12

ASHEBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, MARCH 21, 1935.

The Washington SPOT-LIGHT

By PEGGY ALBION When the announcement went out Monday that the treasury will retire $675,000,000 in bonds with a part of the gold profit...

Mr. Taft has been eyes, a lofty dome, a wide and determined mouth. He is doubtless capable of having stepped forth to issue this challenge...

Attorney General Homer S. Cummings, Assistant Solicitor General Angus D. MacLean, Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., under-secretary of the treasury Thomas Jefferson Coolidge...

There may be those who will acclaim this youthful champion, son of a great man whose record is safely written in history...

Seagrove Team Will Hold Entertainment On Saturday Eve

Seagrove, Mar. 19.—On Saturday evening, March 23, at 7 o'clock, Seagrove high school basketball team will sponsor one of the most extensive entertainments ever attempted here...

Other News Of Personal Interest To People Of Southern Randolph County.

Misses Strawda Hare, Maple Lawrence and Mildred Auman, spent Saturday in Greensboro shopping. Mrs. Frank Auman, Misses Mary Hazel and Alberta Auman spent the week end in Greensboro.

Rev. H. M. Stroupe, pastor of the Ramseur Baptist church, preached at the Asheboro Baptist church on Sunday evening, filling the appointment for Dr. Herman Stevens...

Rotarian Clinic Has Helped Many Asheboro Children

Club Has Grown From Twenty Members To Sixty One; Now In Its Ninth Year.

Will Sponsor Play Have Recently Purchased Playground Equipment For Local School Grounds.

The Asheboro Rotary club has made interesting progress since its formation in 1926. It was started with a nucleus of 20 charter members. Today there are 51 members.

Cleveland Thayer, a local member, has been prominently mentioned as the governor from the 57th district, which is a matter of considerable interest to the club.

The roster of the club is as follows: Dr. J. T. Barnes, W. A. Bunch, Hart B. Campbell, John W. Clark, H. P. Corwith, Roy Cox, I. F. Craven, C. C. Cranford, E. D. Cranford, N. M. Cranford, Murray Field, Raeford Farlow, J. P. Garner, W. H. Grimes, R. J. Hilker, Lindsay Hobbs, W. K. Holt, H. L. Ingram, Gordon R. Kennedy, Dr. W. L. Lambert, Currie Liffin, D. B. McCrary, C. W. McCrary, L. E. Milks, King Moore, R. E. Nance, Lee Nassar, W. C. Page, J. Russell Parks, Dr. O. L. Presnell, W. F. Redding, W. F. Redding Jr., Edward A. Ream, Arthur Ross, Arthur Ross, Jr., J. D. Ross, J. D. Ross, Jr., L. F. Ross, W. J. Scarborough, Jess M. Scarborough and E. O. Scheafer.

Franklinville Will Observe Next Week For Cleaning Town

Interesting Health Program Presented By Local P.-T. A. Organization.

Senior Class Feted

Mrs. Catherine Routh Enjoys Surprise Birthday Dinner Given Sunday.

Franklinville, March 18.—The town board has designated the week of March 25th as clean-up-week. Our people are urged to get their rubbish ready, to haul off Friday, 29th.

W. D. Maner, has been confined to his home for the past few days on account of flu.

E. A. Shepherd went to Greensboro hospital on Friday for treatment. It is hoped that he will be able to be back home again in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Parris Brown, of Greensboro, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Marley.

Mrs. M. E. Craven and son, Robert, of High Point, were visitors here Saturday.

New Furniture Store To Open In Asheboro Friday, March 22nd

Announcement is made this week of the opening of a new furniture store for Asheboro. The store will be opened by Huntley-Stockton-Hill in the Redding building on Sunset avenue, formerly occupied by Tom's Cafe. The building is this week undergoing a transformation necessary for the change in business. The renovation begins on the first floor and goes through the second where the chief display room will be located.

Active Community Group

Asheboro Rotary Club, now rounding out nine years of community service in Asheboro. During the past seven weekly meetings there has been one hundred per cent attendance at the luncheon meetings.

Asheboro School Plans Active Athletic Season

Coaches Johnson and Campbell Are Busy Every Afternoon With Practices.

From the office of Superintendent R. J. Hilker, of the Asheboro school, comes the report of interest in athletics running the thermometer at fever heat and practices for various sports in full swing after school every afternoon.

Donations Increase For Outside Poor; Gratitude Expressed

Tabulated Report Of Donations Made To Date With Few Exceptions.

Scouts Assisted

Director Lloyd Urges Towns And Communities In County To Help In Work.

From R. T. Lloyd, superintendent of the Randolph county board of public welfare, comes a tabulated report of donations for his work among the outside poor of the county.

As has been explained several times, the change in plans of the Federal relief work, effective the first of January, came with too little warning to include the relief load in the county budget.

Amount previously reported: Cash, $55.00; Asheboro Rotary Club, $20.00; Asheboro Community Chest, $25.00; Total cash received, (Please turn to page 4)

Names And Letters Of Winners In Local Trading Contest Are Published

According to the terms of The Courier advertisement of recent date, "Why I Trade With These Asheboro Firms," a large number of letters have come into the office. Four awards for the best letters were offered by various firms of the town joining in the plan of group advertising. The letters winning prizes follow:

WHY I TRADE WITH GRIMES' JEWELRY COMPANY Whether it's Christmas, or graduation time, or somebody's birthday, or an anniversary, or anything in between, at Grimes' Jewelry Company I can always find the perfect gift, something exquisite and lovely which should be a compliment to the recipient. Should I desire anything particular, I can display with pride any selection I make there.

MY REASON FOR TRADING WITH COFFIN & SCARBORO The Courier, Asheboro, N. C. The money I save probably should be reason enough for my trading with Coffin and Scarboro, but there are other things I like equally as well. Their store is always clean and inviting. Their merchandise is of a dependable quality arranged and displayed in an attractive manner. The clerks are ever cheerful and courteous, and never try to talk me into buying something I do not want, but are always ready to render any assistance or helpful suggestions I might need.

Two Weeks Term Of Civil Court Now In Progress In Asheboro; Will Precede Week Criminal Court Beginning Apr. 1

George McNutt, FHA, Speaks In Asheboro Friday Evening

"Considering the fluctuations of his fortunes and the uncertainties that attend his enterprises, the farmer stands out as the most conspicuous example of American faith in himself and in his country," said Miss Cora A. Harris, Field Representative of the Federal Housing Administration, who is assisting in promoting better homes in this section of the State, Miss Harris is working with J. Russell Parks, chairman of the Asheboro Better Housing Program; George McNutt, Farm Representative of F. H. A. who will address a mass meeting at the Court House, Friday, March 29, 7:30 p. m. when he will outline the Federal Housing plan applying to both rural and urban areas; Ewing S. Millspaugh, Farm Agent and other prominent men.

Judge H. Hoyle Sink Presiding Over All Three Weeks Court

Jury List For This Week Is Printed; Other Juries Will Follow.

Ten Divorce Cases Granted On Monday

Solicitor Charles Coggin Will Prosecute Criminal Docket In April.

Judge H. Hoyle Sink, of Greensboro, is presiding over the two weeks term of civil cases beginning in Asheboro on Monday morning. The docket is a full one and while there are no cases on the docket involving large sums of money or property, the docket is heavy. Following the two weeks of civil court, a week of court for the trial of criminal cases will follow.

Solicitor Charles Coggin will prosecute the docket for the first time since his election last November. Clerk of the court, Rufus Routh, states that the coming criminal docket is the smallest since beer was legalized. This act, according to Mr. Routh, increased the criminal court cases fifty per cent. There are only 110 cases on the criminal docket, slated to begin in Asheboro the first Monday in April.

The list of jurors for this week's term follow: W. J. Pugh, R. J. Hopkins, W. S. Walker, T. E. Jones, Henry Staley, J. S. Cooper, W. V. Bisher, J. P. Garner, C. D. Snyder, Julius Allred, C. C. Gray and C. G. Wittingham. T. A. Farlow, J. W. Hurley, J. W. Hanner, T. H. James and J. S. Ashworth were excused from jury duty.

On Monday there were ten divorce cases granted. These were to the following: Rebecca Osborne vs. J. Marvin Osborne; Eula Swiegedock vs. Eugene Swiegedock; Lola Hedgcock vs. Luther Hedgcock; Hattie Balfour vs. Pearl Balfour; Grady Overt Moffitt vs. Grady Nye Moffitt; J. W. Stearns vs. Clara M. Stearns; J. A. Crumford vs. Clara K. Crumford; Mary Curtis vs. Sam Curtis; H. V. Stevens vs. Inez Stevens.

The cases coming up for trial in addition to the ten divorce proceedings included that of J. L. Mann and H. C. Williams, doing business as the Greensboro Advertising Company vs. the North State Theatres, Inc. Nothing was recovered in the case by the plaintiff. The North State Theatres, Inc. was the defendant in another case with the Theatre Equipment Acceptance Corporation. This case was settled for $2130.32.

In the case of Mattie Burchett vs. Braxton Craven and W. R. Owen involving a transfer of property and a judgment. The deed was declared void by the court and expunged from the records. The court further ordered that the plaintiff have and recover from the defendant the cost of the action.

A correction in the drawing of the deed between Ed Covington and Alma Gibson McCullough was made in the court to satisfaction of the parties. In the case of Fred Mendenhall vs. J. F. Hiatt, judgment was not properly perfected and action was dismissed. A non suit was ordered in the case of George A. Gregg vs. James H. Johnson.

New Business Shop Will Open Friday; Mrs. Burns, Manager

Mrs. Miriam W. Burns will on Friday, open a Remnant Shoppe in the site immediately behind Blooms Department Store. The new shop will be with Mrs. Bowman's shop on North street. Mrs. Burns will handle remnants and piece goods from the Armo Mills at Burlington, the only mill in the south to finish this product. The material is therefore available here because the finishing which was formerly done in northern mills is now being done in the adjoining county of Alamance, with Brit Armfield, Randolph county man head of the industry. The shop, which will be called The Asheboro Remnant Shoppe, will open on Friday morning. The shop will not only be an attractive spot of the town's business section, but will handle interesting materials made in our own state.

Brother Coffin Visits Oscar J. Coffin, head of the school of journalism of the state university, and Mrs. Coffin, were visitors in Asheboro over the past week end. Mr. and Mrs. Coffin were house guests of Mr. Coffin's brother, W. A. Coffin while in town.

Johnathan Steed Improved "Uncle Johnathan" Steed, well known Asheboro resident is beginning to get out again after a long and serious illness. While he is on crutches, Mr. Steed is again showing his usual interest in happenings regardless of his recent illness, and 54 years.

Standing Committees Announced For Local Parents & Teachers

Executive Board Holds Meeting Tuesday Evening For Naming Committees.

Mrs. Moser, President

First Meeting Of Association To Be Held On Monday, April First.

The executive board of the Asheboro P.-T. A. Association met in the office of M. H. Davidson for Tuesday evening for the purpose of appointing standing committees for the organization. Mrs. I. C. Moser is president of the local organization, recently formed, with Miss Clara Gill vice president. Mrs. Kemp Alexander is secretary and Mrs. L. F. Ross is serving the organization as treasurer.

Mrs. E. L. Hedrick was named chairman of the membership committee with the following members, Mrs. Harry Anderson, Mrs. F. C. Craven, Mrs. W. A. Bunch, Mrs. W. C. Craven, Mrs. Shelly Hunsucker. Mrs. N. M. Harrison heads the program committee with Cleveland Thayer, Miss Donna Lee Loflin and Mrs. Don Alexander as members of (Please turn to page 10)

Dr. Hayworth Taking Treatment Dr. C. A. Hayworth, who has been in ill health for sometime, is taking treatment in a Greensboro hospital. While Dr. Hayworth has not shown any marked improvement, it is thought that his condition is somewhat improved.

Pughs Purchase House Mr. and Mrs. Jess Pugh have recently purchased the house on the corner of Kivett and Cox street, formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Allred, of Asheboro and Randleman. Mr. and Mrs. Pugh are having the house repaired and renewed and expect to move into it the latter part of this week. They live at present on Cox street.

Randolph Drug Co. The Name Of New Asheboro Business

Joseph P. Barber, of Burlington, owner of the Davie Street Pharmacy, of that place, has bought the drug store operated by Howard Frye on Sunset avenue and will hold a formal opening on April 1st. The store building is being remodeled, enlarged and repainted, this week.

R. L. White, of Leaksville-Spray, who is a registered pharmacist will manage the store and will be assisted by Harvey (Pop) Simpson, popular High Point man. The new name of the firm will be the Randolph Drug Company. It will feature a full line of drugs, a modern fountain and sandwich bar and everything carried by an up-to-date drug store.

Highway Connecting 2 Randolph Towns Nearing Completion

Route Number 64 Between Coleridge And Ramseur A Busy Stretch.

Visiting Minister

Rev. N. M. Harrison Preaches At Ramseur Baptist Church Sunday Evening.

Ramseur, March 20.—The force of highway workers are pushing the work forward on route 64, beginning at Coleridge and working toward Ramseur. Some fifty mules and catpillars as well as a large steam shovel came in last week for active service.

The people of Ramseur had an opportunity to hear Rev. N. M. Harrison of High Point College Sunday night. Rev. H. M. Stroup, pastor of the Ramseur Baptist church was supplying for Rev. H. T. Stevens at Asheboro.

Dr. C. A. Graham is attending the Five State postgraduate clinic, at Washington, D. C., this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Moody Stroud and small daughter and Mrs. Tom Sherwood, of Greensboro, were visitors here a short while Saturday.

Miss Eugenia Lane, of Greensboro College spent the week end here with her parents, Capt. and Mrs. W. D. Lane.

Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Whitehead visited Mrs. Whitehead's mother, Mrs. Walter Allen, a patient at Wesley Long hospital.

Mrs. Dorothy Dixon is spending a few days with friends at Charlotte. Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Phillips visited in Guilford county and at Liberty Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jones, of (Please turn to page 4)

"Heaven Bound" Here Again The Business Woman's Circle of the Asheboro Baptist church is sponsoring the return engagement of the play, "Heaven Bound," which was presented at the court house several weeks ago. The entire cast of the play is composed of negro artists who gained a fine reception here at their first appearance. It will be given here March 22nd at 7:30 at the school auditorium.

Scout Meeting April 9th A county-wide Boy Scout meeting will be held Saturday evening, April 9th, with B. W. Hackney, Scout executive, present as well as other outstanding men of national name in Scout work. The banquet will be held in the dining room of the Baptist church.

WHY I LIKE THE SERVICE OF FOX LAUNDRY

Each automobile owner's personal problems are solved with ease and efficiency here by the expert service of the clerks and the personal consideration to the customer on the part of Mr. Garner. Garner's affords an auto supply store in Asheboro and Randolph county that carries all of the desired equipment for the car. Very truly yours, —W. T. TRUESDALE, Asheboro, N. C. March 18, 1935.

They do good work and prompt service, they do what they promise, you can depend on them. When I send my clothes to the Fox laundry I am not afraid they will get lost or torn up or come back dingy but they are always returned clean, white and spotless. I recommend Fox laundry as a first class place. Signed: —MRS. JOHN WALL, Asheboro, N. C.

GARNER'S ECONOMY AUTO SUPPLY The Courier: It is a pleasure to remark on the courtesy and service of one of Asheboro's latest and most up-to-date stores, Garner's Economy Auto Supply.

You can always depend on what you're getting at Grimes', whether it's silver you'll want to use for the rest of your life or a smart but trivial novelty. It's pleasant, too, the courteous and careful attention they always show you. —JEWELL BOLING, Randleman, March 11, 1935.