

7,000 PEOPLE WELCOME YOU TO ASHEBORO, "CENTER OF NORTH CAROLINA"

THE COURIER

MOST PEOPLE IN ASHEBORO AND RANDOLPH COUNTY READ THE COURIER—IT LEADS

ISSUED WEEKLY
VOLUME LIX

PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN

ASHEBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1935.

$2.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

NUMBER 38

NEWS CONDENSED OF State and Nation

HIGHWAY PATROL ESCORTS PRISONER

Willie Myers, Johnston county negro, charged with attempted criminal assault of a ten-year-old white girl, was taken to central prison Monday for safe keeping. The man was taken by members of the State Highway Patrol to prevent possible mob violence. This is the fourth time within less than two months this organization has been called upon to escort alleged criminals to Raleigh.

MIDDLE TOBACCO BELT OPENS

The middle belt tobacco markets opened Tuesday with a mass meeting scheduled for Thursday in Raleigh for the discussion of prices. A committee was appointed to work out the scale of prices paid the opening day and to determine the next step if eastern Carolina prices did not go up after the opening day.

SEVERAL HUNDRED PUT TO WORK

On Monday, President Roosevelt signed applications for $523,283 that actually put more than 700 men on work projects in four districts in this state. There are 18 projects approved in the four districts that touch Charlotte, Greensboro, Fayetteville and Raleigh districts. This is said to be the beginning of the $100,000 in federal funds that will be made available under WPA projects in the near future.

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

The 46th annual conference of the western Methodist church will be held at Salisbury on October 24th through the 28th. The dates were decided recently at a meeting of local leaders in Salisbury attended also by Bishop Paul B. Kern and Rev. William Sherrill, conference secretary. An outstanding speaker of the conference will be Bishop Charles Wesley Burns of Boston, Mass.

SENATOR McADOO MARRIES SATURDAY

News dispatches on Saturday, September 14th, carried announcement of the marriage of Senator William Gibbs McAdoo to Miss Doris Cross, Miss Cross was a public health service nurse in the Capitol. Some years ago, she was a nurse in Winston-Salem.

Farmer Community Is Scene Of Visits During Week End

Farmer, Sept. 17.—Farmer Roller Mill was recently leased by J. L. Elliott, the owner, to Mr. Crowell of Albemarle. Mr. Elliott expects to engage in the lumber business.

The burial of Claudius Crouse, who died at his home near Winston-Salem, took place at the local cemetery on Thursday. Mr. Crouse's mother and his grandparents were buried here, and it was his desire that he should rest beside them. Services were conducted by Rev. M. Stikeleather and Rev. James Green of Winston and Greensboro. A number of relatives and friends from Winston-Salem, Greensboro, and other places were in attendance.

Virgil Morris moved last week from the T. W. Bingham farm to the John Morris house recently occupied by Mrs. Milton Lackey. Lee Buie expects to move soon to the Bingham farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kearns, and Mr. and Mrs. Estley Kearns of High Point, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kearns and Fred Jr., of Asheboro were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Kearns on Sunday.

Miss Louetta Knight of Guilford College, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kearns of Greensboro spent Sunday as guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Hubbard, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kearns.

Local Dodge Man Plans To Attend Sedgfield Meet

J. W. Quattlebaum, local Dodge dealer, has announced that he will attend the meeting and get together of Dodge dealers of this vicinity and the Dodge factory representatives, to be held at Sedgfield Saturday through Monday.

At this meeting, which is a yearly affair for dealers of this section, the dealers will see the new Dodge for 1936. Dodge has steadily maintained fourth place in sales and this year has been the best ever experienced by that company.

Asheboro Attorney Improves I. C. Moser, Asheboro attorney, who has been confined to his home from an acute attack of rheumatism, is decidedly improved. Mr. Moser has not been able to attend to his legal business in Asheboro, nor in Greensboro court during the past week. Mr. Moser's many friends in Asheboro will be pleased to know that he plans to be out again within a few days.

Fire Destroys The Coletrane Dwelling Early Sunday Morn

Modern Home And Furnishings Completely Destroyed By Fire Of Unknown Origin

Young People Meet

Several Items Of Personal Nature Occurring In Community Prove Of Interest

Trinity, Sept. 16.—Fire destroyed the home of Mrs. R. E. Coletrane here early Sunday morning. The origin of the fire could not be definitely known, but the home, a very modern and well constructed one, was completely burned as were most of its furnishings.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Teague and family of Staley were visitors here Sunday. They attended the Royals-Wellborn reunion held at Hopewell M. E. church.

Miss Virginia Williams left Friday to enter school at Woman's College, Greensboro.

Mrs. A. B. Coletrane has returned to her home after an extended visit with her brother, E. J. Coletrane, president of Brevard College.

Mrs. C. C. Cagle and sons, John and

(Please turn to page 6)

Ramsour Revival Closes After Two Weeks Of Meeting

Ramsour School Opens Today With More Than Six Hundred Students Enrolled

Outlook Favorable

Several Ramsour Young People Leave For Fall Term Of School

Ramsour, Sept. 19.—Ramsour is again taking on life. About six hundred boys and girls are assembling at the school, seeking the wisdom of past and present ages, or at least having it offered them by some eighteen teachers that compose the faculty of Ramsour school. The outlook is good for the year and we hope the school work will be pleasant and profitable for all who are connected with it. Supt. R. C. White has a corps of fine workers and we look forward to the time when additional equipment will enable us to take care of the large enrollment here.

The revival at Ramsour Christian church closed last Friday evening, after going for about two weeks and with the fine result of something like thirty conversions.

Mr. and Mrs. Hitt moved from Greensboro Monday into the Will Watkins home. Mr. Hitt is the superintendent of Ramsour Furniture Co.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Brower and

(Please turn to page 6)

Asheboro High 11 Holds Its First Practice Monday

Good Material Reports For First Practice Including Seven Lettermen

The Asheboro high school football team began its fall practice Monday morning under the direction of Coach C. C. Swing, former Wake Forest athletic star. The drill Monday consisted mostly of a light work out. A large number of boys reported for the first practice including seven lettermen who are as follows: Cameron Morgan, Clyde Shaw, Ralph Bulla, Thomas Wilson, Jimmy Crutchfield, Baxter Jarrell and Bill Green.

Richard Siler, Baxter Kearns and Ruby (Feet) Holder, who are also lettermen, are expected to report within the next few days. A lot of new boys are out to give the lettermen plenty of competition this year and it is in the air that Asheboro will have a winning team this season.

Officials urge that the townspeople give the team their full support and come out for every possible game. Teams to be played probably include Mt. Airy, Mebane, Graham, Troy, Liberty, Badin, Albemarle and Mills Home of Thomasville. The first game will be played here Friday, Sept. 27.

County Association Of Baptists Will Hold Meeting Sunday

The Randolph County Baptist Association will meet in regular session on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 22nd. The meeting will be held in the Asheboro Baptist church at 2:30 p. m.

The W. M. U. of the Asheboro church is in charge of the program for this meeting and has arranged for an unusually interesting meeting. Mrs. Nettie Hoge, prominent church worker among young people, of Greensboro is one of the speakers for the meeting. Mrs. Hoge has recently returned from Palestine where she visited some of the interesting places in the Holy Land. Her talk will deal chiefly with her trip.

The Baptists of Asheboro very generously invite the public to attend this meeting and hear their speakers.

Asheboro Schools Opening Thursday For Fall Session; Important Changes Slated

LOCAL FLASHES

Amusement Center Complete
The Hedrick Building on South Fayetteville has been remodeled into an amusement center. A second story has been added and converted into a dance hall and skating rink. The fox hunters ball, Tuesday evening was the first dance in the new building and the second will be another fox hunters ball Thursday evening. The building will be formally opened Friday.

9,000 License Blanks Out
Patrolman Norris, located in Asheboro for the past two weeks, reports that 9,000 driver's license blanks have been issued to citizens of this county. According to the new law, it is necessary for every person who operates a car, whether or not they own one, to have a state driver's license. There is no charge for license if secured before the first of November.

Asheboro Hardware Paints Up
The Asheboro Hardware on the corner of Worth and Fayetteville streets, is this week undergoing a coat of paint and several improvements. During recent weeks several places of business in this block have freshened up a bit with paint and made some inside improvements as well. These places include Pugh's Funeral Home, outside paint, and The Courier office, which has been remodeled inside and painted outside.

Local Man Guest Speaker At Meet Of Raleigh Club

District Governor Pays First Official Visit; Emphasizes Individual Effort

Cleveland Thayer, of this city, governor of the 57th District of Rotary International, was guest speaker at the Raleigh Rotary club, Monday, and addressed the club at its regular luncheon meeting. He told the club men that Rotary work in Raleigh depended entirely upon the work done by the members and not by the efforts of others.

He asserted that progress in the Rotary program of vocational service, youth service, international service and other activities depended upon the work of each individual member. At the present time, the problems of youth, the problems of commercial and industrial relation and the problems of world peace particularly are demanding the attention of Rotarians, individually and collectively, he said.

Mr. Thayer was introduced by T. S. Johnson, a past governor of the district. This was his first official visit to the Raleigh club since his nomination in May. He has visited over half of the fifty clubs that constitute the district of which he is governor.

Mt. View Revival

Revival services will begin at Mt. View church Wednesday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, September 25. Mt. View church is located one mile north of highway 90, six miles west of Asheboro.

Mrs. Spence Improved

Mrs. J. A. Spence has returned to her home on Worth street from the Randolph Hospital after several days' treatment. Mrs. Spence is considerably improved.

Annual Randolph County Fair To Open At Fair Grounds Tuesday, Sept. 24th

Just once a year is Asheboro really at her best, as is the case at Fairtime. Hot weather is almost over, fruits and vegetables are not so abundant, but are superior in quality. Everybody has saved the best of the crops for display and the fair will be the best ever!

Randolph county has many and varied industries. All these will be on display in attractive array. A five-day program filled with entertainment and amusement as well as educational exhibits—all await the throngs who will congregate for this annual event. The fair officials have anticipated the crowds that will come and have arranged free parking space for automobiles. This will be quite a drawing card and a convenience to the many people who have been worried by trying to find parking space previously.

Text Book Rental Is Most Important Innovation In Plans For Fall Session

Younger Children Will Be Accepted

Registrations Will Be Made In Shifts To Expedite Machinery On Opening Day

The schools of Asheboro, for both white and colored children open again today after a longer vacation than is usually the case. Detailed announcements of several innovations and changes in the usual routine, were announced through the columns of this newspaper last week. There are a few additional points called attention to, however, by Reginald Turner, now superintendent of the school.

The most important change is in the matter of getting text-books. These can be purchased new, bought second handed, or rented from the school book room. Last week the superintendent received a large order from the State Textbook Purchase and Rental Commission by motor express. This week the superintendent and several members of the faculty have been busily engaged in unpacking, stamping, shelving books, and attending to the various other details connected with the preparations for opening school. It is likely that no books will be rented the first day of school as some time will be required for pupils to determine what books they want to buy second handed and what books they want to rent or buy new.

Nearly all books used in the elementary school will be available for rent. A few books, however, such as workbooks and other supplementary material cannot be rented and will still have to be bought. In the high school more than half the books are available for rent. This is because the state has adopted books for state wide use in only three departments of the high school. These departments in which text-books may be rented are (1) History and Social Science (2) Natural Science, and (3) Home Economics.

It should be pointed out that all

(Continued from page 6)

3 Young Couples Of Franklinville Recently Married

Opening Of School Causes Much Ado In And Around Franklinville

Revival Announced

Several Franklinville People Attend Funeral Of Mrs. Davis, Monday

Franklinville, Sept. 16.—Misses Nettie and Esther Moon passed the week with friends, in Greensboro. Phillip Grose and Miss Gladys Johnson left Thursday for Virginia where they were married. They spent the week end in Shenandoah Valley and the Blue Ridge mountains of Virginia. Mrs. Phillips is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson. Mr. Grose holds a position in Randolph Mill No. 2.

Miss Mary Holladay has gone to Siler City, where she will teach again this year at Silkhope High school. C. F. Field, a member of Franklinville school faculty, who has spent the past few months at the home of his parents at Carthage, has returned.

It had been announced that the revival meeting would begin at M. E. church, Sunday, Sept. 15, but on account of securing the help wanted, was deferred until next Sunday evening. Rev. G. W. Vick, of Greensboro, (Please turn to page 6)

Building & Loan Plans Open New Series October 1st

Lee M. Kearns, Secretary-Treasurer, Reports Successful Year For Association

Large Loans Made

Outlook For New Series Best In History Of Organization; Many People Interested

According to Lee M. Kearns, secretary-treasurer of the Randolph Building and Loan company, the twenty-seventh series of that organization will open on October 1st. At a meeting of the board of directors, held Tuesday evening, it was decided to open the new series at this time. This decision was arrived at because of the demand of various persons wishing to subscribe to the series.

The year's outlook for the fall is unusually good, with many inquiries already in concerning subscriptions to the new series. Mr. Kearns predicts that this one will be the largest in the history of the association.

The reports at the recent director's meeting, indicated that the organization loaned more money during the twelve months just passed than at any previous time recorded by the organization. This money was expended in the town and county on the erection of new homes and the improvement of old ones.

It was further reported at the meeting that the books, recently audited by the state department, were found in excellent shape. Very few stockholders were found to be in arrears and there were only a few foreclosures during the year.

During the past year, it was reported, that more than fifty-four thousand dollars were loaned for repairs and new buildings. This is the largest amount of money ever loaned during a single year since the formation of the organization.

Virginian Guest Of Local Man At Rotary Club Meet

Following His Speech On The Constitution Densmore Recites From Service

With L. D. Densmore, of Charlottesville, Va., general manager of the South East Public Service Company, as principal and guest speaker, the Asheboro Rotarians held their meeting Friday. The speaker's subject was the Constitution of the United States and he made brief remarks about that institution, quoting from George Washington.

Mr. Densmore told his audience that they were likely to hear much concerning the Constitution, in the next two years and advised them to familiarize themselves with its contents. Following his talk, Mr. Densmore delighted the Rotarians by his recitation of "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," one of Robert W. Service's poems.

Singing Convention

The Cedar Grove township singing convention will be held at High Pine Wesleyan Methodist church Sunday, Sept. 29, at 10:30 o'clock. There will be an all day service and dinner will be served on the grounds. All singers and visitors are invited to attend.

Miss Beatrice Bulla Here

Miss Beatrice Bulla, of Washington, D. C., has arrived in Asheboro for a visit to her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moring, Miss Nannie Bulla, Miss Eunice Bulla and other relatives in Asheboro.

North Carolina Sportsmen Gather Randolph County This Week For State Meet

Asheboro's Sportsman

J. P. GARNER

Local Club Hears Head Of Asheboro School Speak Tue.

Turner Commends Asheboro Kiwanians For Work Among Underprivileged

Underweight Gain

Boy Scouts To Hold Court Of Honor Friday Night; Special Program On

At the Kiwanis meeting Tuesday night, Rufus Routh and Clarence Hughes, who were in charge of the program, explained that they had secured an out of town speaker but at the last minute he had been unable to come. Prof. Reginald Turner was called in as a substitute speaker and he discussed the school opening this week.

He opened his speech by commending the club for its work among the underprivileged children and pointed out the results that had been secured.

Careful selection of these children was made to be certain that only those where definite need existed would be admitted to these benefits and forty-nine came within those restrictions and were served a very nutritious soup. This consisted of all the main food elements but special consideration was given to foods running high in mineral and the vitamins most lacking in meager diets.

All the children partaking of this soup were under weight when it was started and remarkable gains resulted, running as high as ten pounds in most outstanding cases. Cases were reported that during the three months some gained back to normal. These marvelous results in improvement in health and disease resistance reflected themselves prominently in scholastic progress where appreciable gains likewise resulted.

Mr. Turner explained that one of the major objectives of our educational system is to look first after the health of the children and this work of the club proved to be of inestimable value and came at a time of specific need.

Explanation of the school book situation was next explained. Books can be rented or purchased outright this time. Second hand books will also be

(Please turn to Page 7)

Trotter Reunion Sunday

The third Trotter reunion will be held Sunday September 22 at Mt. Shepherd church. W. L. York will speak at 11:00 a. m. and special music will be rendered by The Asheboro Girls Trio. A picnic dinner will be served on the ground at 12:30 p. m. All who are connected with the Trotter clan in any way are invited to be present with well filled baskets.

Factory Representative Here

J. L. Fleming, representative of the Purina Mills who manufacture Check-board feeds, was a Courier visitor Tuesday. He announced that Hayworth and Coltrane, local feed dealers, would from now on handle the complete Purina line.

Returns Friday From Motor Trip To Mich. For Nat'l Auto Show

Gus Hayworth, local Buick dealer, returned Friday from a week's motor trip to Flint, Mich., where he was one of four thousand dealers from all parts of the United States attending the national automobile convention. The purpose of the meeting was chiefly business relating to the 1936 Buick cars. Mr. Hayworth plans to have one of these new models on display in Asheboro on Saturday, September 28th.

The Buick company has recently changed models and the new car is creating considerable interest and favorable comment among automobile people in various sections.

Prominent Sportsmen From Neighboring States Also Attending Fete

Trials Staged On Birkhead Mountain

Bench Show And Other Events Planned For Thursday At Randolph Fair Grounds

Fox horns, dogs, horses, hunting costumes, to say nothing of foxes themselves, all combine this week to make the state fox hunting meet an interesting event. Lovers of this sport from several sections of the country gathered the opening night for the beginning and the crowd swelled on Tuesday morning at the time of the first hunt.

Birkhead mountain, where the field trials were staged, was a popular place, with all roads marked with signs bearing large red foxes, pointing in the right direction. Jess P. Garner, well known sportsman of Asheboro, and his assistants, are playing admirably the roles of hosts and the town-folk are turning out in goodly numbers to enjoy the sport from the spectators stand.

Tuesday evening, a ball was staged in the new recreation hall at the Hedrick building, with plenty of fun for everybody present. Another dance on Thursday evening in the same hall will be a feature of entertainment for the guests.

Perhaps the most interesting program of the week will be that of Thursday when the bench show, barbecue and awarding of prizes will be held at the fair grounds. Luther Jackson, master of hounds, of Providence, Ky., is quite pleased with the event as are C. Homer Ritchie, president of Concord; M. W. Weldon, vice president, of Stovall, and Frank Reese, secretary of Taylorsville.

A great many of these sportsmen are taking advantage of the favorable and pleasant weather and are camping in the open. Others are housed in the hotels of the town while the Cranford farm, not far from the location of the hunting grounds, has been turned over to the large party from Tennessee.

Bulla Gives Rules Of Randolph County Book Rental Plan

All Parents Are Asked To Insist That Books Be Kept In Good Condition

A small quantity of books for rent have been received here according to a report by T. Fletcher Bulla, county superintendent and a larger supply will be coming immediately. Rental books will be distributed from the county superintendent's office to the principals of each school, and the principal will distribute through each teacher to the pupil. No books will be rented to pupils or parents from this office. All books for rental will be distributed through the teacher and principal. Pupils will be required to pay one-third the cost of the retail price, for rental books.

Anyone desiring to purchase books outright will come to the county superintendent's office.

Parents are advised to secure all second hand books available in the community.

No credit will be extended to the pupils by the teachers.

No free books will be issued except on the recommendation of the county welfare officer, Robert T. Lloyd.

All parents are requested to insist on the children keeping books in good condition. If books are lost or damaged parents will have to pay for same.

Mrs. Burkhead To Attend Convention

Mrs. George Burkhead expects to leave Friday for St. Louis, Mo., to attend the National convention of the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary which will be in session there next week. Mrs. Burkhead was chosen one of the ten delegates from North Carolina department of the American Legion Auxiliary, at the state convention held in Fayetteville this past summer. Mrs. Burkhead by virtue of her office as department legislative committee for the year just closed, will serve on the National legislative committee as representative from the North Carolina department. Mrs. Burkhead will join a party of friends in Charlotte with whom she will make the trip.

Visit Former Pastor

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Grimes visited Dr. and Mrs. O. G. Tillman at Cary, Sunday. Dr. and Mrs. Tillman are former Asheboro citizens. Dr. Tillman having been pastor of the Asheboro Baptist church for several years. Mrs. Tillman has been ill for several months but is improving.

The Smithfield Kiwanis Club has started a pig club in Johnston county by donating six pure bred pigs to 4-H club members.